BLUEGRASS BLUE RAIDERS

■ Middle Tennesee begins its tour through the Bluegrass state with Saturday's game at Kentucky. The Blue Raiders will play all three of Kentucky's FBS schools in 2008 for the first time in school history. The Blue Raiders begin their road season with the Wildcats, then will head to Louisville on Oct. 18 before concluding their non-conference season at WKU on Nov. 15.

MT-UK HISTORY

■ The two schools have met only once on the gridiron but they do carry a little history in basketball. Arguably Middle Tennessee's greatest sports moment came in 1982 during the first round of the 48-team NCAA basketball tournament. The Blue Raiders faced the No. 8 ranked Wildcats at Memorial Gym in Nashville and brought home a stunning 50-44 upset win to thwart the so-called "dream game" between UK and Louisville in round two. One of the stars of that game, Jerry Beck, was inducted into the Blue Raider Hall of Fame last weekend and former UK coach Joe B. Hall provided some audio for the event.

STOCKSTILL RETURNS TO BLUEGRASS STATE

■ Head Coach Rick Stockstill spent 10 years growing up in the state of Kentucky where he lived in Georgetown, which is a mere 12 miles from Lexington. Stockstill moved to Georgetown for his 1st grade academic year because his father (Joel Stockstill) was hired as the head baseball coach and assistant football coach for Georgetown College. During Joel's stint at Georgetown College he coached a catcher by the name of Mike Ayers who is currently the head football coach at Wofford College. After six years, Joel became the head football coach at Georgetown High School where he coached his son for his ninth and 10th grade seasons. Joel was then hired as the head coach at Fernandina Beach High School (FL) and coached his son during his junior and senior seasons.

BLUE RAIDERS VS SEC

■ When Middle Tennessee kicks off against Kentucky it will mark the 18th game against the SEC since the Blue Raiders moved to FBS (I-A) status in 1999. The Blue Raiders have a mark of 3-14 in those contests with all three victories coming on the road against Vanderbilt (2001, 2002, 2005). Since 1999, the Blue Raiders have faced every team in the SEC at least once except for Auburn. Overall, the Blue Raiders have a mark of 3-26 against the SEC.

10th Year Anniversary

The 2008 season marks the 10th year Middle Tennessee has played at the highest level of collegiate football. The Blue Raiders made the move to the Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly I-A) in 1999.

FACING THE BEST

■ Saturday's game against Kentucky will be the 31st game by the Blue Raiders against a team from either the ACC, Big East, SEC, Big 10, Big 12 or PAC-10 since joining the FBS (I-A) in 1999. Following last Saturday's upset win over Maryland, the Blue Raiders are now 4-26 in those games. The Blue Raiders face four teams from those leagues in 2008 and have tallied at least three games against those conferences each year since 1999 except for 2004 when they had just one contest.

CRADDOCK OFF TO HOT START

■ Joe Craddock is showing leadership and playing like a senior in 2008. In two games, Craddock is averaging 228 yards through the air and has hit 48 of 72 passes (.667) to go along with three touchdowns. The Birmingham, Ala., native is coming off a brilliant game in which he set career-highs in completions and attempts to lead MT to an upset of Maryland. Craddock connected on 28 passes to equal the sixth most in school history on 40 attempts for 256 yards and was honored by ESPN by receiving a Helmet Sticker award. The last Blue Raider quarterback to throw for 200 or more yards in the seasons first three games was Clint Marks back in 2004 (Marks accomplished the feat the first six games).

OFFENSIVE LINE YOUNG, THIN

■ Arguably the most important unit on the field is also one of the most concerning for the Blue Raiders. Middle Tennessee entered 2008 with 13 scholarship offensive linemen but only 12 are available to compete this season and 11 are either freshmen or sophomores while seven came into the season having never taken a snap in a collegiate game. During one portion of preseason camp the Blue Raiders had just seven scholarship linemen who could practice and one was Jeremy Michel who can not play this season due to the NCAA transfer rule.

BIG PLAY BEYAH

■ True freshman wide receiver Malcolm Beyah reached the endzone for the second straight game when he reeled in a 53-yard pass from Joe Craddock in the third quarter against Maryland. The Covington, Ga., product finished with a career-high four receptions for 94 yards and has now had scoring strikes in his brief career of 46 yards and 53 yards.

MR. ALL-PURPOSE

■ A two-time all-conference player as an all-purpose specialist, Desmond Gee has continued his artwork in 2008.

TOUGH SLATE ... AGAIN

Middle Tennessee historically plays one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country and 2008 is no exception. In fact, since joining the FBS the Blue Raiders have played 29 games against teams from either the ACC, SEC, Big East, Pac-10, Big 12 or Big Ten and will add four more in 2008. The Blue Raiders are one of just three non-BCS league members this year who are playing four BCS opponents (East Carolina and Hawai'i). Here is a breakdown of the three schools:

4- MIDDLE TENNESSEE (Sun Belt) – Maryland, Kentucky, Louisville, Mississippi State
4 - EAST CAROLINA (C-USA) – Virginia Tech, West Virginia, N.C. State, Virginia
4- HAWAI'I (WAC) – Florida, Oregon State, Washington State, Cincinnati

In addition, there are two programs which compete as an independent (excluding Notre Dame) in football which also play four or more BCS-league opponents:
4/5 – NAVY – Duke, Rutgers, Wake Forest, Pittsburgh, (Notre Dame)
4 – WKU – Indiana, Alabama, Kentucky, Virginia Tech

SUN BELT VS BIG SIX

■ Since the Sun Belt Conference added football in 2001, the league has picked up 10 wins against teams from the Big Six conferences. The league has had at least one win against the Big Six in every year except 2006 and already has two wins in 2008 (MT over Maryland, ASU over Texas A&M). Middle Tennessee owns four of those wins to lead the league.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

■ Under Rick Stockstill, the Blue Raiders have excelled in the always important turnover margin department. In 27 games of the Stockstill era, MT is +22 in turnover margin and stand +4 in 2008. The Blue Raiders ranked 12th nationally in 2007 with a +11 margin while recording a +7 margin in 2006. Over the last seven games combined, the Blue Raiders are an incredible +17 in turnover margin and have a record of 4-3 in those contests. Middle Tennessee is currently ranked 8th nationally in turnover margin entering the Kentucky game.

HANDICAPPED

■ Middle Tennessee began the 2008 season with some tough odds stacked against them. The Blue Raiders have only 71 scholarship players which is 14 shy of the 85 allowed by the NCAA. However, only 66 scholarship players will be available due to injuries (Immanuel Chu, Jake Padrick, Andre Wicker, Michael Cannon) and the NCAA transfer rule (Jeremy Michel). Among the 71 scholarship players, 45 are either freshmen or sophomores with only nine being seniors.

DEFATTA TURNS PASSER

■ Junior punter David DeFatta picked the right time to connect on his first career pass completion and the first by a punter for MT in the FBS era. On Middle Tennessee's opening drive against Maryland, DeFatta faked a punt and threw to a wide-open Alvin Ingle for 28 yards to keep the Blue Raider drive alive. It was Ingle's longest reception of his career and set up Sancho McDonald's three-yard touchdown catch. It also marked the first attempted pass and completion by

FLOYD STADIUM

The home of Middle Tennessee football since 1933, Floyd Stadium has grown its original capacity from a facility with just a few portable bleachers to the present-day 30,788.

Floyd Stadium has undergone numerous renovations to make it one of the top facilities in the Sun Belt Conference and the region. New synthetic turf was installed during the summer of 2006 and the most recent addition was a state-of-the-art video board that was erected in 2007 to go along with new outdoor suites in the north endzone.

The Blue Raiders own an overall record of 254-102-13 at Floyd stadium and have won 14 of their last 21 in the facility.

a punter under Rick Stockstill. In fact, the last time a punter attempted a pass for the Blue Raiders was Aug. 28, 2003, against Florida Atlantic and Colby Smith's attempt was incomplete.

PICKIN' AND A GRINNIN'

■ Middle Tennessee came up with three interceptions in the win over Maryland to run its season total to four and all three were key to the victory. Two of the interceptions prevented Maryland scores, while the other set up a Blue Raider touchdown. LB Danny Carmichael and CB Ted Riley both came up with their first career picks with Carmichael's setting up a short touchdown run by Phillip Tanner. The last one was turned in by Alex Suber in the corner of the endzone to seal the win. It was the second of Suber's career.

DEFATTA'S BEEN TOUGH ON OPPOSITION

■ It would be nice to bomb 60-yard punts all day but the job of a punter is to give the opposing offense a long field to work with. Middle Tennessee's David DeFatta has been the best in the Sun Belt Conference at placing punts inside the opponents 20-yard line. Last year, DeFatta put 28 of his 73 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line (38 percent) to lead the league. His 28 inside the 20 went down as the most in a season since the stat started being kept in 1999. DeFatta, who has averaged over 40.0 yards a punt during his career, ran his career total to 30 with one in the win over Maryland and now has at least one punt downed inside the 20-yard line in 14 straight games.

STOPPING THE RUN

■ After an impressive 2006 season when the defense allowed just 120.2 yards a game on the ground, the Blue Raiders slipped in 2007 by giving up nearly 200 yards (199.8) per contest. Obviously, a lot of attention has been given in the offseason to getting back to those 2006 numbers. The last time Middle Tennessee gave up over 200 yards a game on the ground was in 1999, the program's first year in the FBS era. Under Rick Stockstill, the Blue Raiders are 10-3 when allowing less than 150 yards rushing.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS UNDER STOCKSTILL

■ Since his arrival, Rick Stockstill has put a huge emphasis on academics and it is clearly showing. In what is regarded as one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football, Stockstill has taken the Blue Raiders' APR (Academic Progress Rate) from 892 to 958 in just two years. That ranks as the biggest jump of any school in the country. The Blue Raiders have also brought home the SBC Team Academic Award two years in row (2006-07, 2007-08). Also, quarterback Joe Craddock and safety Anthony Glover will be playing the 2008 season with a degree.

BLUE RAIDERS HAVE FEWEST SENIORS

■ In a recent survey of all FBS schools it was determined Middle Tennessee and Alabama have the fewest scholarship seniors of anyone in the country. The Blue Raiders and Tide both have just nine seniors on their rosters followed by Central Michigan and Toledo with 10. Among Sun Belt schools, the closest to the Blue Raiders' total of nine is North Texas with 15.

PLAYING KEEP AWAY

■ Despite having a very inexperienced and young offensive line, Middle Tennessee has done an excellent job of controlling the football the first two games. The Blue Raiders enter week three leading the Sun Belt Conference and ranking second nationally in time of possession at 37:52 and are coming off an impressive effort against Maryland where they owned the time of possession at 39:49. The 39:49 against the Terps was the second-best TOP under Rick Stockstill behind the 40:41 established against North Texas in 2006.

GEE MOVING UP LIST

■ Junior Desmond Gee recently passed Demetric Mostiller and Damon Nickson on the all-time kickoff return yardage list. Gee now stands in fifth place all-time at Middle Tennessee with 898 career kickoff return yards and needs 145 more yards to overtake Orlando Crenshaw (1,042) for fourth place. Gee also has 44 career returns which ranks third all-time and trails only co-all-time leaders Orlando Crenshaw and Brigham Lyons (53).

SACK MASTERS

■ Since Rick Stockstill took over the Blue Raider program in 2006, Middle Tennessee has ranked among the nation's leaders in quarterback sacks. In fact, the Blue Raiders have tallied 65 sacks over the past two years which ranks them tied for 25th nationally with conference foe Troy. Middle Tennessee set a school record with 36 sacks in 2006 then came back with the second most in a single-season with 29 in 2007. The top five during this period (2006-07) are Oregon State (91), Penn State (86), Georgia Tech (83), Rutgers (82), and Ohio State (81). The Blue Raiders recorded three sacks in the win over Maryland to run the total to 70 sacks under Stockstill. The five sacks this season ranks second in the Sun Belt and 28th nationally.

INSTANT REPLAY

For the 2008 season, the rules committee is allowing several varying systems to implement video replay, as determined by each conference or institution. Each head coach is allowed one Instant Replay challenge per game, which is exercised by requesting a team timeout. A head coach may issue a challenge only if his team has one or more time-outs remaining in the half. If the challenged ruling is overturned, the timeout is not charged, but the coach has no more challenges during that game.

GOING OVERTIME

■ Middle Tennessee enters the Kentucky game having competed in four overtime games as a member of I-A (FBS) and is 2-2 in those contests. The Blue Raiders had one overtime contest in 2000 and played three in 2003. In 2003, the Blue Raiders lost in one overtime at No. 23 Missouri, then bounced back to take an overtime win at Idaho before losing a four overtime game at home against UL-Lafayette. The four overtime loss to ULL was the longest game in the history of MT football and was the longest in the history of the SBC at the time.

RAIDER ROUNDUP

■ WR Wes Caldwell, who is from Lexington, KY, hauled in a career-high six passes in the win over Maryland and now shares the team lead with 10 catches on the year.

■ QB Joe Craddock recorded his 14th and 15th career touch-down passes in the win over Maryland. He needs five more this year to jump into the top 10 all-time at MT.

■ Phillip Tanner's 1-yard touchdown against Maryland was the sixth rushing score of his career.

■ QB Dwight Dasher has not completed a pass in a game since Nov. 10, 2007 against ULL. He has missed on six consecutive passes and is 0-for-2 this year.

■ The Blue Raiders had a few late roster moves in preseason camp as quarterback Sancho McDonald moved to wide receiver and wide receiver D.D. Kyles went to running back. Also, tight end John Marc Stephens became the backup deep snapper.

■ The 48 points scored against North Texas in 2007 went down as the most in the Rick Stockstill era.

■ The Blue Raiders' safety against FIU in 2007 was the first in the FBS era for MT.

■ The Blue Raiders have won 506 football games all-time and have an overall record of 506-366-28.

■ Head Coach Rick Stockstill directed two shutouts in 2006 to become the first rookie coach at MT to accomplish that feat since Charles Murphy in 1947.

■ As a FBS (I-A) member (106 games), the Blue Raiders have scored 50 or more points nine times.

■ The Blue Raiders are 38-7 in the I-A era when leading at the half and are 41-7 when leading a game entering the 4th quarter during that time.

■ When trailing at the half, the Blue Raiders are just 7-48 in the FBS (I-A) era.

■ The Blue Raiders have scored in 132 of their last 136 games and broke a string of scoring in 69 straight when they were shutout at Oklahoma in 2006. The other three miscues were a 10-0 shutout on the road against UL-Monroe in 1999, a 55-0 loss in 2000 at Florida, and a 44-0 setback at LSU in 2007. MT has scored in 62 straight home games.

■ In the FBS (I-A) era, the Blue Raiders are 25-17 on turf, 10-32 on natural grass (12 of the losses came on road to SEC teams) and 12-10 on synthetic surfaces (6-5 at home).

■ Largest Margin of Victory in the I-A era: 56 points vs UConn 11/4/00 (66-10) ... Largest Margin of Defeat in the I-A era: 59 points vs Oklahoma 9/23/06 (59-0).

Troy 31, Middle Tennessee 17

Aug. 28, 2008 ❑ Floyd Stadium ❑ Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

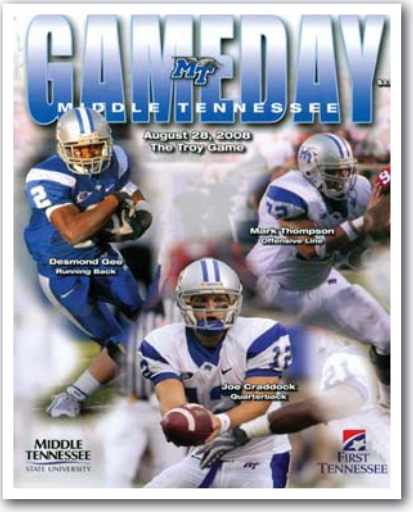
MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Deja vu nearly changed hands at MTSU Thursday night.

But the Blue Raiders' dramatic rally — similar to the one Troy handed them two years ago — was not to be. MTSU lost 31-17 to Troy in the season and Sun Belt opener.

Trailing 24-3 in the fourth quarter, MTSU scored two quick touchdowns in less than three minutes. But the Trojans answered with a time-consuming scoring drive to stave off a late collapse.

For a moment, MTSU's run was reminiscent of Troy's miraculous comeback in its last trip to MTSU when the Trojans rallied from a 13-point deficit in the final two minutes, 19 seconds to win 22-21.

"I was telling the guys the whole game, especially the offense, that Troy was getting tired," MTSU quarterback Joe Craddock said. "I still thought we were in good shape and that we could do something in the fourth quarter."



Craddock tossed a 46-yard touchdown pass to freshman Malcolm Beyah with 9:04 remaining in the game. Then MTSU linebacker Danny Carmichael recovered a Troy fumble, and the Blue Raiders scored on Phillip Tanner's 3-yard run.

Troy soured MTSU's comeback with a 79-yard drive, ending with DuJuan Harris' 13-yard touchdown run with 2:32 remaining.

But MTSU's grasp on the game was too loose early on.

A pair of early dropped passes — one each on offense and defense — were indicative of MTSU's night.

Freshman wideout Sancho McDonald dropped a potential game-tying touchdown pass on MTSU's third possession. And defensive end Chris McCoy bobbled and dropped a possible interception and sure touchdown return a few minutes later.

Neither grab was easy, but the Blue Raiders made them look harder than they were. Such was the theme of MTSU's season-opening loss in front of a crowd of 22,307 — the sixth largest in Floyd Stadium history.

"We had plenty of opportunities to win the game," MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said.

The Trojans weren't immensely better than MTSU, but they were far more opportunistic.

Troy put up 17 points on only 78 total yards in the first half, and two of its scoring drives went just three and four yards.

Meanwhile, MTSU turned 137 yards in the first half into only three points, falling behind 17-3 at halftime. MTSU forced three Troy turnovers in the first three quarters, but didn't score a single point off them.

Troy's punter mishandled a bouncing snap and fumbled the ball, giving MTSU possession at the Trojans' 21-yard line midway through the second quarter. The Blue Raiders had first-and-goal from the 3-yard line, but botched the remainder of the possession. Quarterback Dwight Dasher, who was the backup behind Craddock until that point, gained one yard on two rushes and then fumbled on fourth-and-goal from the 3.

Troy's Steve McLendon scooped the fumble and rumbled 67 yards. The Trojans kicked a field goal four plays later for a potential 10-point swing.

MTSU went scoreless in the third quarter despite forcing two Troy turnovers in the period. The Blue Raiders recovered a Troy fumble, but went three-and-out.

Then MTSU linebacker Ivon Hickmon picked off a pass, but Troy answered with its second goal-line stand of the night. MTSU had first-and-goal from the 5-yard line, but four straight runs left the Blue Raiders one yard shy of the end zone.

"We showed up and played a full four quarters," Troy linebacker Boris Lee said. "We had our backs against the wall, and we played.

"We have been waiting for this moment for a very long time and to finally get the opportunity feels great." Craddock was 20-of-32 passing for 200 yards, one touchdown and one interception. McDonald had a game-high six receptions for 65 yards. Safety Jeremy Kellem led MTSU with seven tackles.

"Overall I'm disappointed, but I'm not discouraged a bit," Stockstill said. "This team showed a lot of character, a lot of guts, a lot of fight. I told them after (the game) that if they keep doing that, they've got a chance to be a dang good team."

Middle Tennessee 24, Maryland 14

Sept. 6, 2008 ❑ Floyd Stadium ❑ Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - MTSU's finest moment finally arrived at Floyd Stadium Saturday night.

The Blue Raiders upset Maryland 24-14 as 22,605 blue-clad fans witnessed arguably MTSU's biggest win in school history — certainly the best at home.

"At Middle Tennessee, we've been close before and we've been right there on the edge," MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said. "The fans have wanted to rush the field and to celebrate like that, so I'm happy we gave them a reason tonight."

MTSU's frustrations over past losses in pivotal home games was snapped with a signature victory and an accompanying herd of fans who rushed the field at Floyd Stadium.

It marked the first home win over a major conference opponent in MTSU's FBS era (formerly Division I-A).

"Our fans have wanted a big one at home for years," MTSU quarterback Joe Craddock said. "They wanted to do it against Troy and in other big games and to see them ready to tear down the goal posts before and then get their hearts broken, that was tough.

"But all of the sudden, it happened tonight. This is a great night for the Middle Tennessee football program." MTSU (1-1) never trailed in the game and held onto its lead through a scoreless fourth quarter.

Maryland threatened to cut the Blue Raiders' lead with a late drive, but MTSU cornerback Alex Suber snagged an interception in the end zone with 2:19 remaining to seal the victory.

"I'm a smaller guy (5-foot-9) and I knew they'd come at me trying to get that touchdown," Suber said. "But I made a play to get us off the field. We made a lot of those in this one."

MTSU picked off three Maryland passes, two of which prevented Terps' touchdowns and another that set up a Blue Raiders' score.

Linebacker Danny Carmichael's interception, the first of his career, led to Phillip Tanner's 1-yard TD run three plays later to put MTSU ahead 17-7 in the third quarter. Cornerback Ted Riley's interception, also his first career pick, was made at the 1-yard line to keep the Terps from paydirt.

Offensively, MTSU controlled the game's tempo.

The Blue Raiders maintained possession for nearly two-thirds of the game and ran 82 plays to Maryland's 54 snaps. MTSU's first two scoring drives took a combined 27 plays while Maryland's defense was bludgeoned.

"I thought we dominated the game," Stockstill said. "I think offensively, we dominated their defense. We're in great shape, great condition, and you could see that they were getting tired. I thought we dominated the game, and every time they made a score we answered the bell."

Craddock was 28-of-40 passing for 256 yards, connecting with 10 different receivers on the night. He hit freshman wideouts Sancho McDonald and Malcolm Beyah on two touchdown passes — the latter coming as Beyah made a cut in the open field, lost his shoe and still sprinted past the Maryland secondary with a socked foot. "I caught it and he grabbed my leg. I lost my shoe, but I kept running," Beyah said. "I still had to score."

Maryland scored on two big plays, a 63-yard run by Da'Rel Scott and an 80-yard pass from Chris Turner to Darrius Heyward-Bey. But the Terps labored the remainder of the night against a relentless MTSU defense that made five tackles for loss and three sacks.

"We didn't do a very good job coaching or playing," Maryland coach Ralph Friedgen said. "We didn't do a good job at all. We are embarrassed with the way we played tonight. Middle Tennessee played very well and really outplayed us."
