SECOND ROUND AGAIN: For the third time in four years and the fourth time in school history, Middle Tennessee advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders won first-round contests in 1983, 2004 and 2005 as well as Saturday's 85-46 victory over Gonzaga. Middle Tennessee has never made the Sweet 16, dropping contests to Louisiana Tech in 1983, Notre Dame in 2004 and Texas Tech in 2005. By virtue of winning the Sun Belt Tournament for the fourth straight season, Middle Tennessee made its fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament and 11th overall in school history. Only one other time in school history have the Blue Raiders played in four straight NCAA Tournaments, from 1983-86 when the squad won four conference tournaments in a row in the Ohio Valley Conference. Middle Tennessee is now 5-9 overall in NCAA play and has won 3-3 in its last six NCAA Tournament contests.

GIVENS MOVES UP SCORING LIST: With 24 points in the victory over Gonzaga, senior Chrissy Givens moved into fifth place on the all-time scoring list at Middle Tennessee. Givens moved past former teammate Patrice Holmes (1,891, 2002-05) and now has 1,909 career points. She also moved into sixth place all-time in the Sun Belt Conference in scoring, passing Charlotte's Kristin Wilson (1,905, 1984-87). Louisiana Tech's Vickie Johnson (1,960, 1993-96) ranks fifth on the list.

DEFENSE IS THE KEY: Middle Tennessee entered Saturday's game forcing opponents into more than 26 turnovers per game, and the defensive effort was a big key once again. Gonzaga committed a season-high 37 turnovers and the Blue Raiders turned those miscues into 43 points. For the year Middle Tennessee has forced 881 turnovers by opponents, an average of 26.70 per game, and has scored 1,021 points off the miscues, an average of 30.93 per contest. The Blue Raiders also held Gonzaga to just 46 points, a season-low by a Middle Tennessee opponent this season. The previous low was 48 by Florida Atlantic on January 11.

THREE FOR 30: With Saturday's victory over Gonzaga, Middle Tennessee became just the third team in the nation to post 30 victories this season. The Blue Raiders joined Duke (30-1) and North Carolina (30-3) as the only teams in the country with 30 wins in 2006-07. Bowling Green (29-3) and Connecticut (29-3) can both pick up their 30th wins of the year on Sunday.

QUICK HITTERS FROM GONZAGA: Krystle Horton was 7-for-14 from the field, tying a season-high for field goal attempts ... Starr Orr hit two 3-pointers in the contest and posted her eighth double-figure scoring game of the year with 10 points. It was the sixth time this season Orr has knocked down a pair of trifectas in a game ... Latoya Barclay also hit two 3-pointers, her second outing this season with a pair of trifectas. The other came against South Alabama in the first game of the Sun Belt Tournament ... Chrissy Givens was a perfect 6-for-6 at the foul line and has made 35 of her last 36 charity stripe attempts ... Givens moved into 18th place all-time in the Sun Belt in assists with 432, passing VCU's Kelly Hoover (431, 1986-89). Western Kentucky's Dawn Warner (440, 1993-96) is next on the list ... Givens also moved past Western Kentucky's Clemette Haskins (285, 1984-87) for fifth place on the Sun Belt steals list. Givens has 288 career thefts.

SQUAD ADDS TO SCHOOL-RECORD VICTORIES MARK: Middle Tennessee claimed its 30th victory of the season with Saturday's win over Gonzaga, adding to its school-record for wins in a season. The Blue Raiders bested the mark of 26 triumphs set by the 1982-83 squad. The squad also set a record for regular season wins in 2006-07, posting 26 and bettering the previous high of 23, also by the 1982-83 club. It marks the 15th time in the 31-year history of the program the Blue Raiders have posted 20-plus wins and the fourth year in a row, also a school record. This season's Blue Raiders have played three teams who were ranked in the Top 10 in the nation at the time of the game (#1 Maryland, #4 Tennessee, #8 Georgia) and are 5-1 against teams in this year's NCAA field (Maryland, Georgia, Tennessee, Old Dominion, Chattanooga, Louisiana-Lafayette).

NO. 5 SEED TIES FOR BEST EVER: Middle Tennessee entered the NCAA Tournament as a No. 5 seed, tying the 1985 squad for the highest seed in school history. The Blue Raiders lost as a No. 5 seed at Western Kentucky, 90-83, in 1985, at a time when the NCAA field consisted of only 32 teams. Since the field expanded to 64 teams in 1994, Middle Tennessee has never been seeded higher than 12th, earning two No. 12's (2005, 2006), two No. 13's (1996, 2004) and one No. 15 (1998).

GIVENS VOTED ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN OF THE YEAR: Middle Tennessee senior Chrissy Givens has been voted the ESPN The Magazine Division I Academic All-American of the Year, as announced by CoSIDA on February 28. Givens was a First Team Academic All-America selection after garnering Second Team honors in 2006. The Monroe, La., native graduated in three years from Middle Tennessee with a bachelor's in Criminal Justice and a 3.89 grade-point-average. She is currently working on her master's in Sociology. She is just the second First Team All-American in school history, joining Melanie Manley (softball) in 1999. Givens was named the All-American of the PLAYING AWAY FROM HOME NO PROBLEM: Middle Tennessee added to its impressive record away from home this season with Saturday's 85-46 victory over Gonzaga. The Blue Raiders are now 17-1 away from Murphy Center in 2006-07, breaking the school record previously held by the 1982-83 squad (16-4). Middle Tennessee tied the school record this season with 13 road victories, including triumphs at Minnesota, Georgia, Western Kentucky and Louisiana-Lafayette. The only loss on the road for Middle Tennessee in 2006-07 came November 26 at then fourth-ranked Tennessee.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Blue Raiders on Radio

■ All Blue Raider basketball games can be heard on WMTS FM 88.3 in Rutherford County and 1400 AM WZNG in Shelbyville. David Reed is in his second season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-play announcer.

Interview Protocol

■ After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Rick Insell will be available for members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, the interview area is located just off the northeast corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Insell will be brought to an area designated by the home team. Player requests should be directed to assistant media relations director Jo Jo Freeman.

Credentials

■ Arrangement for media credentials for the 2006-07 basketball season should be directed to the Athletic Media Relations Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Jo Jo Freeman. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Middle Tennessee basketball on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space available basis.

Radio, Television Shows

■ The Rick Insell TV Show airs every other Tuesday on MTTV 10 in Murfreesboro beginning November 8 and following November 22; December 5 and 19; January 2, 16 and 30; and February 13 and 27. Coach Insell's radio show begins Monday, January 8, and airs each Monday for the remainder of the season. The radio show can be heard at 88.3 WMTS and also at GoBlueRaiders.com.

GoBlueRaiders.com

■ Middle Tennessee basketball statistics and notes are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at GoBlueRaiders.com. Media are invited to use the official web site for Middle Tennessee athletics for information regarding all Blue Raider athletic teams.

WIN STREAK LONGEST IN NATION: Middle Tennessee added to the nation's longest winning streak with Saturday's 85-46 victory over Gonzaga, 12 games better than the previous school record set from January 12-March 4, 1987. Only eight other times in school history before this season had a Blue Raider team won 10 games or more in a row. The Blue Raiders have not lost since November 26, a span of 112 days heading into Monday's second-round matchup against Marist. Wisconsin-Green Bay owns the nation's second longest winning streak at 25 games

GIVENS, HORTON BRING PLENTY OF NCAA EXPERIENCE: Middle Tennessee seniors Chrissy Givens and Krystle Horton have both played in six career NCAA Tournament games with Saturday's win over Gonzaga, posting a 3-3 mark and playing big parts in upsets over North Carolina and N.C. State in 2004 and 2005, respectively. Horton has scored in double figures in all six career NCAA outings, averaging 14.3 points and 5.2 rebounds per contest. She netted 16 points against UNC and then 18 two nights later versus Notre Dame in 2004. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native scored 11 points in the win over N.C. State and followed that with 18 points and 10 rebounds against Texas Tech in 2005. Last season Horton tallied 10 points versus Utah and collected 14 points and seven rebounds in Saturday's victory against Gonzaga. Givens came off the bench as a freshman and scored 14 points in the loss to Texas Tech in 2005. Her coming-out party to the nation came last season against Utah when the Monroe, La., native scored 25 points with seven rebounds and 11 assists despite playing the second half with a slight concussion. Givens netted 24 points with five rebounds, four assists and five steals in Saturday's triumph against Gonzaga. Horton and Givens are the only players in school history to play in four straight NCAA Tournaments. Juniors Lakira Boyd and Starr Orr have played in four NCAA games and junior Latoya Barclay saw nine minutes of action last year before playing 18 minutes against Gonzaga. Sophomore Johnna

SCOUTING MARIST: Middle Tennessee faces 13th-seeded Marist in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the first-ever meeting between the two schools. The Red Foxes have won 19 of their last 20 games overall and enter Monday's contest 28-5 overall, with losses to Duke, Maryland, Villanova and Yale out of conference and Loyola (MD), the squad's only conference loss in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. Julianne Viani, who averages 10.1 points per game, netted 24 points in Saturday's upset of seventh-ranked and fourth-seeded Ohio State. Viani hit six 3-pointers in the game, as Marist knocked down nine trifectas in the contest. Rachele Fitz leads Marist with 15.1 points and 6.3 rebounds per game, while Meg Dahlman averages 11.7 points and 6.0 boards per contest. The Red Foxes average just 11.5 turnovers per game, ranking first in the nation in fewest turnovers in the nation. Middle Tennessee is 1-1 all-time against schools from the MAAC, defeating Siena College, 103-62, on December 28, 1988 in New York, and dropping a 70-65 decision to Manhattan College on November 28, 2003, in Boca Raton, Fla.

GIVENS A STAT-SHEET STUFFER: Senior Chrissy Givens has gained national attention for her scoring prowess as a Blue Raider, but the Monroe, La., native is far from one-dimensional. Last season Givens led the Blue Raiders in points (21.5), rebounds (7.0), assists (4.8) and steals (3.2) and has continued to be a stat-sheet stuffer in 2006-07. She has scored in double figures in every game and leads the club as well as ranking 4th (March 12) in the nation in scoring (22.8 points per game). Givens also grabs 6.2 rebounds per outing, hands out 4.6 assists per contest and averages 3.0 steals per game this year, all team highs. Givens has scored 20-plus points 20 times this season and 16 or more points in all but three games this year. She has recorded six or more assists in a game 11 times this season, including seven vs. No. 1 Maryland, at Minnesota and at Western Kentucky, eight at Florida International and six against Arkansas State. One more thing – she also averages 35.5 minutes per game and has played all 40 minutes in 12 contests this season. Givens was voted the 2006-07 Sun Belt Player of the Year by coaches and the media on February 27, her second straight POY accolade, and was a Preseason Honorable Mention All-America selection by Street & Smith's magazine in October.

REBOUNDING IS HORTON'S SPECIALTY: The play of senior Krystle Horton was one of the biggest reasons Middle Tennessee ran the table in the Sun Belt Conference this season, finishing 21-0 against SBC opponents. Horton averaged 10.0 points and 6.8 rebounds per contest this season against Sun Belt foes, slightly above her season averages of 9.2 points and 6.3 boards. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native has posted five double-figure rebounding games this season, including four from January 24-February 24, a stretch of nine contests, and has 17 outings this year with seven or more rebounds. Her three double-doubles ties for second most on the club this year and her 14 career double-doubles is the most of any current Blue Raider (chart of all double-doubles of page 3 of these notes). Many of her caroms this season have come on the offensive glass, where Horton averages 3.27 rebounds per game. She also has scored in double figures 14 times in 2006-07, including a season-high 27 points in the season finale against Florida Atlantic on Senior Day, the second highest point total of her career.

HOLT FLOURISHES AS SECOND OPTION: Junior Amber Holt started the season strong with 28 points in the season opener versus Maryland and a double-double against South Dakota State three nights later. She also scored 27 points in mid-December versus Old Dominion and had five 20-plus point outings in the first 12 games of the season. Her scoring dipped a bit in the month of January, but Holt picked up her game considerably in the month of February, netting 27 points against South Alabama on February 3, 25 points at Louisiana-Monroe on February 7 and 24 points at Western Kentucky on February 11. She scored 20 of her 25 at ULM in the second half and posted 18 of her 24 at WKU in the first half. Holt garnered Sun Belt Player of the Week honors after her performances versus South Alabama and Louisiana-Monroe, her second POW accolade this season and the fifth by a Blue Raider (Chrissy Givens has the other three). Holt averaged 18.2 points in six February contests, with her season average at 17.0 points per game heading into Monday's contest against Marist in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Duluth, Ga., native has gotten better incrementally in the month of March, netting 13 points versus South Alabama, 15 against Denver, 20 versus Louisiana-Lafayette and then 23 against Gonzaga on Saturday. She is tied for first on the club with 6.3 rebounds per outing, as well, and ranks 78th nationally in scoring this week and is also 32nd in the country in steals (2.76) per game.

ORR BECOMES THE THIRD THIEF: Junior Starr Orr has watched teammate Chrissy Givens become one of the greatest thieves in the history of the Middle Tennessee program and also saw all-time steals leader Patrice Holmes for one season. Orr has put the knowledge to good use this season, making 77 steals, or 2.33 per game. The Danville, Ala., native ranks 84th nationally this week in steals per game. Orr has also contributed 4.3 rebounds per contest and has 10 games this season with six or more rebounds, including eight at Minnesota, six at Georgia and a season-high nine on February 24 versus Florida Atlantic. Eight times this year Orr has scored in double figures, including a season-high 14 points at Minnesota and three games in four outings at the beginning of February. Perhaps the most important stat of all about Orr – Middle Tennessee is 30-1 since she became a starter against Maine on November 18, with the only blemish at then fourth-ranked Tennessee on November 26.

TRIFECTAS RAINING DOWN: One of Middle Tennessee's primary offensive weapons is the 3-pointer, and the shots have fallen with consistency for most of the season. Middle Tennessee ranks fourth in the nation in 3-point FG made per game (8.18) and also ranks 33rd in the country in 3-pt. FG percentage (.354). On 11 occasions this season the Blue Raiders have made 10 or more 3-pointers in a game, including 17 versus North Dakota State on January 2 and 16 versus Louisiana-Monroe on December 17. Middle Tennessee broke the school record for 3-point attempts in a game with 48 on January 28 against Louisiana-Lafayette, just four short of the NCAA record. The Blue Raiders average 23.34 trifecta attempts per contest and have three players this season with at least 40 made 3-pointers. Freshman Brandi Brown is 60-for-166 from behind the arc this season and has hit four or more trifectas in a game eight times this year, including seven in one contest (North Dakota State). Sophomore Johnna Abney hits 42 percent (57-for-138) and Jackie Pickel makes 30 percent (46-for-155). Along with the injured Chelsia Lymon, who made 43 percent (33-for-76) of her 3-point attempts before tearing her ACL on February 11, the foursome accounts for 70 percent of the team's 3-point attempts this season (535) and 73 percent of the squad's makes (196).

CAUSING TURNOVERS A BIG KEY: Middle Tennessee's full court pressure has played havoc with just about every team on its schedule this season, causing all but one opponent into 20 turnovers or more. The Blue Raiders have forced opponents into 881 turnovers this season, and average of 26.70 per game this season. On 13 occasions this year, opponents have committed 29 or more turnovers, including 31 by Minnesota, 29 from Old Dominion, 34 by Western Kentucky in Murfreesboro, 37 against Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and a season-high 40 at New Orleans on January 13. Middle Tennessee has converted opponent turnovers into 1,021 points, an average of 30.93 points per game. A game-by-game breakdown of opponent turnovers and points off turnovers appears at the top of page 3 in these notes.

INSELL NUMBER ONE: The win over Florida International on February 15 was the 44th for Rick Insell as head coach of the Blue Raiders, the most in school history by a coach in his first two years. Insell broke the previous mark of 43 victories set by Lewis Bivens during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 campaigns. The Blue Raiders posted their 15th 20-win campaign in 31 seasons of varsity basketball this year, and Insell became just the second coach, along with Bivens, to have back-to-back 20-win campaigns to begin a career as head coach at Middle Tennessee. Insell enters Monday's NCAA Tournament contest against Marist 50-14 overall as head coach of the Blue Raiders.

BLUE RAIDERS RANK 17TH IN AP, 16TH IN COACHES POLL: Middle Tennessee dropped one spot in this week's Associated Press and remained 16th in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll heading into Monday's contest against Marist in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders have been ranked in the AP poll for the last 10 weeks and in the Coaches Poll for 11 consecutive rankings. The Blue Raiders had never been ranked in the AP poll before this season and had previously appeared in the coaches' poll just three times in school history, all at No. 25: March 12, 1985, December 20, 1988 and December 27, 1988. GIVENS RANKS IN SUN BELT CAREER RECORDS: Chrissy Givens has rewritten many of the Middle Tennessee records during her career and has also taken aim at several Sun Belt records as well. The Monroe, La., native ranks in the Top 25 in three categories in Sun Belt history. Givens currently ranks sixth all-time in scoring with 1,909 points, with Louisiana Tech's Vickie Johnson (1,960, 1993-96) next on the list. The Blue Raider senior is 18th in career assists with 432, with Western Kentucky's Dawn Warner (440, 1993-96) next on the list. The third list in which Givens appears is steals, where she is currently fifth with 288, behind Arkansas State's Crystal Tausan (303, 1993-96) and Louisiana Tech's Amanda Wilson (303, 1996-99).

ALL-TIME TIDBITS: Middle Tennessee stands 53-33 (.616) all-time in the month of March, including 21-6 (.778) in this decade. The Blue Raiders were 3-1 in the month of March last season in coach Rick Insell's first year at the helm of the program and are coming off three straight perfect months in 2006-07, posting a 6-0 mark in December, a 10-0 record in January and a 6-0 mark in February. Middle Tennessee was 5-1 in March in 2004, 5-1 in 2005 and 3-1 last season, with each loss in the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders have won the last four Sun Belt Championships, posting 13 combined victories in the four events.

RAIDERS SET SUN BELT VICTORIES MARK: Middle Tennessee set a school and Sun Belt record for conference victories in 2006-07, running the table against SBC foes and compiling an 18-0 record. In school history, the 1985-86 squad owned the previous best conference mark at 13-1. This season marks the 20th time in the 31-year history of varsity basketball that Middle Tennessee has posted double-figure wins in league play. The 1982-83 squad's 10-0 record is the only other undefeated conference record in school history. The Blue Raiders broke the previous Sun Belt high of 16 league wins set by Louisiana Tech in both 1999-00 and 2000-01. Middle Tennessee ended the season 21-0 against Sun Belt opponents after winnings its fourth consecutive SBC Tournament. Only three other teams in the 31-year history of the Sun Belt finished undefeated in conference play (Old Dominion, 6-0 in 1984-85, 1987-88; UAB, 6-0 in 1990-91; Louisiana Tech, 14-0 in 1993-94, 1995-96, 12-0 in 1998-99, 16-0 in 1999-00, 2000-01). Across the nation this season, only seven other programs out of 31 conferences posted undefeated marks, including: George Washington, 14-0 in the Atlantic 10; Tennessee, 14-0 in the SEC; Connecticut, 16-0 in the Big East; Duke, 14-0 in the ACC; Wisconsin-Green Bay, 14-0 in the Horizon; Coppin State, 18-0 in the MEAC; and UT-Arlington, 16-0 in the Southland.

SBC TOURNAMENT STREAK REACHES 13: Middle Tennessee won its fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament with a victory against Louisiana-Lafayette on March 6, running its streak of victories in the SBC Tournament to 13. Middle Tennessee won three games for the title in 2004 in Bowling Green, Ky., became the only team in league history to claim four wins in taking the 2005 championship in Denton, Texas, and won three games last season for the title in Murfreesboro. This year the Blue Raiders won three contests again, including the championship game over the homestanding Ragin' Cajuns. The average margin of victory in the 13 contests has been 17.7 points, including 21.0 in the three victories in 2006 and 21.0 in this year's three contests. Since joining the league, the Blue Raiders are 17-3 in the league tournament, including 15 victories in the last 16 games, with the only loss in the tournament final in 2003 to Western Kentucky in Bowling Green.

GIVENS, HORTON, HOLT VOTED ALL-TOURNAMENT: Middle Tennessee's Chrissy Givens, Krystle Horton and Amber Holt were all voted to the Sun Belt All-Tournament team, with Givens garnering Most Outstanding Player accolades for the second straight year. Givens broke the tournament scoring record, tallying 85 points in three games to eclipse the old mark by 11 points held by former teammate Patrice Holmes. Givens averaged 28.3 points and 6.0 rebounds in the three contests. Holt posted a double-double with 15 points and a career-high 11 boards in the semifinals against Denver and averaged 16.0 points and 7.3 rebounds per game in the tournament. Horton grabbed 7.7 boards during the tourney's three outings, including 13 of her 23 total rebounds on the offensive end. Givens and Horton finished 13-0 in the Sun Belt Tournament all-time.

RECORDS, RECORDS AND MORE RECORDS FOR GIVENS: Senior Chrissy Givens has continued to rewrite the record books at Middle Tennessee as well as the Sun Belt Conference. Givens earned the Sun Belt Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and SBC Tournament Most Outstanding Player awards for a second straight season in 2006-07, becoming the first player in league history to win the triumvirate two consecutive seasons. Givens set the SBC Tournament scoring record, netting 85 points in this year's three tournament games, eclipsing the mark of 74 held by former teammate Patrice Holmes. She ranks seventh all-time in SBC history in points with 1,875, 18th in assists with 428 and sixth in steals with 283. The Monroe, La., native set the single-season scoring record at Middle Tennessee during the Sun Belt Tournament and ranks in the Top 10 in eight other single-season categories. Givens ranks in the Top 10 in nine career statistics, including ranking sixth all-time in scoring and third in both steals and assists.

THREE RAIDERS NAMED ALL-CONFERENCE: Middle Tennessee placed two players on the First Team, one on the Third Team and garnered Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year honors in the All-Sun Belt selections announced February 27 by the conference office.

Senior Chrissy Givens added to a long list of accolades during her career at Middle Tennes-

Blue Raiders Rank 26th Nationally in Attendance

Each year the University of Wisconsin media relations office has compiled an unofficial attendance mark for women's basketball programs around the country. December 4 was the first of the weekly edition this season and this week Middle Tennessee ranks 26th nationally in average attendance and has played in front of two of the Top 50 crowds in the nation this year. The Blue Raiders are 26th in average attendance at 4,157 after 15 home games. The Blue Raiders are first in the Sun Belt, ahead of both Western Kentucky (2,190) and Arkansas State (1,880). Middle Tennessee's game at Tennessee on November 26 drew a crowd of 12,363, the 28th largest this year in the country, and the Blue Raiders season-opener versus top-ranked Maryland ranks 50th this season with a record-setting mark of 10,010 at Murphy Center.

see, earning First Team All-Sun Belt honors as well as Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year recognition. The Monroe, La., native became the first player since Louisiana Tech's Amanda Wilson in 1997-98 and 1998-99 to register back-to-back SBC Player of the Year honors (Louisiana Tech's Vickie Johnson, 1994-95, 1995-96 was the other) and the first player in Sun Belt history to garner two consecutive Defensive Player of the Year awards. Former teammate Patrice Holmes is the only other player in league history to win the defensive award twice in a career (2002-03, 2004-05) and with Givens' honor, Middle Tennessee has won the last five SBC Defensive Player of the Year awards (Keisha McClinic won the other in 2003-04). Givens was voted the Preseason Player of the Year and lived up to the billing, averaging 22.8 points per game along with 6.2 rebounds, 4.6 assists and 3.0 steals. She currently leads the Blue Raiders in three of the four categories and ranks fourth nationally in scoring, 62nd in assists and 18th in steals.

Holt has served as the compliment to Givens all season for the Blue Raiders, providing a second scoring option and posting her best performances in some of the biggest games of the year. She was voted First Team All-Sun Belt and Newcomer of the Year, Middle Tennessee's first Newcomer of the Year award. The Duluth, Ga., native scored 28 points in the season-opener against defending national champion Maryland and 21 points at then eighth-ranked Georgia. She also added 27 points against Old Dominion and 24 at Western Kentucky on February 11. Holt averages 17.0 points per game this season along with 6.3 rebounds and 2.8 steals. She ranks 78th in the country in scoring and 32nd in steals.

Senior Krystle Horton was voted Third Team All-Sun Belt after averaging 10.0 points and 6.7 rebounds per contest in league play. Horton was voted All-SBC all four years of her career, garnering First Team accolades as a freshman, Honorable Mention as a sophomore and Third Team honors last season. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native has played her best down the stretch for the Blue Raiders, posting back-to-back double-doubles in the final two games of the regular season. She scored 14 points with 10 rebounds at Troy on February 22 and netted a season-high 27 points with 10 rebounds on Senior Day against Florida Atlantic on February 24. Eleven of her 14 double-figure scoring games came against Sun Belt opponents and she has 10 contests with eight or more rebounds this year, including five double-figure outings.

INSELL VOTED COACH OF THE YEAR: After setting the school-record for wins with 30 and setting a Sun Belt record with 18 league victories, Rick Insell was voted Coach of the Year by his peers, as announced by the Sun Belt office on February 27. The Coach of the Year award is the first such honor for a Middle Tennessee head coach since Lewis Bivens in 1988. Insell has compiled a 50-14 record in his two seasons at the helm of the program, including this year's 30-3 mark, which includes the current 27-game winning streak. He has compiled more wins in his first two seasons than any other previous Blue Raider coach and has posted back-to-back 20-win campaigns for just the sixth time in school history.

LYMON OUT FOR REST OF SEASON: Freshman point guard Chelsia Lymon will miss the rest of the season after tearing the anterior cruciate ligament in her right knee during the first half of the February 11 win at Western Kentucky. Lymon was averaging 5.5 points in 16.3 minutes per game for the Blue Raiders and drew two starts this season, at New Orleans on January 13 and versus Denver on January 31. The Georgetown, Ky., native played in 26 games, making an immediate impact on the program with 13 points in the season-opener against top-ranked Maryland and 10 points three nights later versus South Dakota State. She also scored 11 points in the February 7 game at Louisiana-Monroe, basically her last of the year for the Blue Raiders, as she played just five minutes at WKU before injuring the knee playing defense. Junior Latoya Barclay will see increased playing time because of Lymon's injury.

BLUE RAIDERS SET SCHOOL RECORD FOR 3-POINTERS: Middle Tennessee attempted a school-record 48 3-pointers in the win over Louisiana-Lafayette on January 28 while connecting on 12. The 48 attempts were just four shy of the NCAA record of 52 attempts set by Cal Poly in 1999 and Alabama in 1995. The Blue Raiders broke the previous school record of 39 attempts, set versus Fairleigh Dickinson on December 30, 1995. Middle Tennessee ranks 33rd nationally in 3-point FG percentage (.354) and fourth in the country in 3-pointers made per game (8.18).

SEASON TIDBITS: Middle Tennessee committed a season-low eight turnovers in the game at Arkansas-Little Rock on January 20. The previous low was nine at eighth-ranked Georgia ... Middle Tennessee upped its record to 46-3 over the last two seasons and 28-0 in 2006-07 ... The Blue Raiders won their 21 Sun Belt games this season by an average margin of 22.5 points per game ... Middle Tennessee made a team season-high 38 field goals at South Alabama on December 14, the most in a contest this season by any Sun Belt Conference team. The Blue Raiders are also tops in the Sun Belt this season in 3-pt. FG made (17 vs. North Dakota State), 3-pt. FG attempts (48 vs. Louisiana-Lafayette), 3-pt. FG percentage (.833, 5-for-6 at Louisiana-Monroe), assists (26 vs. Louisiana-Monroe) and steals (28 at New Orleans)

... Middle Tennessee scored 61 first half points against Louisiana-Monroe on December 17, but it was not a school record. That distinction belongs to the 1994-95 team that poured in 68 during the first half against Fairleigh Dickinson.

GIVENS TABBED SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK THREE TIMES: Senior guard Chrissy Givens was voted the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week three times this season, including November 21, December 12 and January 15. Givens garnered the first honor in November after helping the Blue Raiders to back-to-back victories and claiming the Most Valuable Player award at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn. She was named MVP after the Blue Raiders posted wins over Maine and host Minnesota to win the four-team tournament. Givens posted 23 points against Maine and 25 versus Minnesota. The Monroe, La., native also tallied 20 rebounds, 13 assists and six steals in the two contests. Givens earned the accolade in December after helping the Blue Raiders defeat then eighth-ranked Georgia. Givens netted 25 points on 10-of-18 shooting, grabbed five rebounds and handed out three assists in 40 minutes of action in a 70-62 victory over Georgia on December 7 in Athens. The victory was the first over a Top 10-ranked opponent in program history and the first road win over a ranked foe in school history. In January she averaged 30.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.5 assists per game in Middle Tennessee victories over Arkansas State and at Arkansas-Little Rock. The senior netted 27 points with six assists and five steals in an 82-54 victory over then Western Division leader Arkansas State on January 18. She was 9-for-16 from the field and 9-of-10 at the foul line. In a 75-62 triumph at UALR, Givens scored a season-high 33 points on 13-of-22 shooting. Givens won the SBC POW award three times in 2005-06 as well.

HOLT GARNERS SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK TWICE: Junior forward Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on two occasions in 2006-07, on November 14 and again on February 5. The Duluth, Ga., native garnered the honor the first week of the season after leading the Blue Raiders in a pair of contests. Holt averaged 23.5 points and 9.0 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's first two games of the year, versus No. 1 Maryland and South Dakota State. Against the defending national champion Terrapins, Holt tallied 28 points on 11-of-24 shooting with eight rebounds. Her 15 first-half points kept the Blue Raiders in the contest when the Terrapins threatened to run away with the game. Against SDSU, Holt scored 19 points and added 10 boards for her first career double-double. In February, Holt averaged 20.0 points and 8.0 rebounds in the Middle Tennessee victories over Denver and South Alabama. The junior scored 13 points with eight boards and four assists versus Denver on January 31 before exploding for 27 points, eight rebounds, three assists and two steals against South Alabama on February 3. The 27-point effort was just one short of her career-high set in the season opener against Maryland and was her second 27-point effort of the season (Old Dominion on December 19 was the other). The Duluth, Ga., native was 11-for-16 from the field, tying her season-high for makes, and set career-highs by going 3-of-6 from 3-point range.

GIVENS VOTED ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT: Senior Chrissy Givens was voted First Team Academic All-District IV, as announced by the College Sports Information Directors of America on February 8. Givens was an ESPN The Magazine Second Team Academic All-American last season. The Monroe, La., native graduated with a 3.89 GPA last May with a bachelor's in Criminal Justice from Middle Tennessee. She is currently working on her master's in Sociology.

HOME DOMINATION CONTINUES VERSUS SBC FOES: Middle Tennessee's home dominance of Sun Belt foes has continued throughout this season, as the Blue Raiders won their 30th in a row versus league foes at Murphy Center with a win on February 24 against Florida Atlantic. The last time Middle Tennessee dropped a conference home game was February 5, 2004, in double overtime against Western Kentucky. Overall, the Blue Raiders have won 34 of their last 35 home conference games and head coach Rick Insell is a perfect 18-0 at the Glass House against SBC competition. In fact, since joining the Sun Belt before the 2000-01 season, the Blue Raiders are 46-6 at home against Sun Belt competition, an exquisite .885 winning percentage. Western Kentucky has won two games, with South Alabama, Florida International, North Texas and New Mexico State claiming one victory each.

HOME SWEET HOME: Middle Tennessee ended the 2005-06 season 15-1 at home, with its lone loss to then 17th-ranked Georgia on November 30, 2005. The Blue Raiders had their 12-game home winning streak snapped in this year's season-opener against top-ranked Maryland, losing 80-76, and then dropped a 72-61 decision three nights later to South Dakota State. But the squad rebounded, posting 13 straight victories at home and running head coach Rick Insell's mark on the home floor to 28-3 overall and 13-2 this season. Middle Tennessee owns an overall mark of 315-89 all-time at Murphy Center, a winning percentage of .780.

GIVENS POSTS SIX DOUBLE-DOUBLES: Senior Chrissy Givens led the way for the Blue Raiders this season with six double-doubles, including five with double-figure rebounds and one with

Givens Named to Preseason Naismith List

Middle Tennessee senior Chrissy Givens was one of 50 players named to the Naismith Trophy Preseason List announced December 11. The award is presented by Cingular Wireless and the Atlanta Tipoff Club. The Top 50 list was compiled by the Atlanta Tipoff Club's Board of Selectors, comprised of leading basketball journalists, coaches and administrators from around the country. The board based its preseason criteria on player performances from last season and expectations for the 2006-07 season. In January, the Board of Selectors will narrow its preseason list to the Top 30 players in the nation. Those players, and others who distinguish themselves throughout the season, will be eligible for the final ballot in March. Last year's Naismith Trophy recipient was repeat winner Seimone Augustus from LSU. Other notable women's college player of the year winners include Diana Taurasi, Cheryl Miller, Chamique Holdsclaw and Sheryl Swoopes. The Atlanta Tipoff Club has presented the Naismith Trophy since Lew Alcindor first won the award in 1969. The preseason candidates for the Naismith Trophy presented by Cingular Wireless, listed in alphabetical order, are as follows: Matee Ajavon, G, Rutgers; Jolene Anderson, G, Wisconsin; Morenike Atunrase, G/F, Texas A&M; Alison Bales, C, Duke; DeWanna Bonner, F, Auburn; Sha Brooks, G, Florida; Essense Carson, F, Rutgers; Cori Chambers, G, Georgia; Angela Clark, F, St. John's; Marissa Coleman, F, Maryland; Jazz Covington, F, Louisville; Jessica Davenport, C, Ohio State; Dee Davis, G, Vanderbilt; Jessica Dickson, G, South Florida; Shay Doron, G, Maryland; Sylvia Fowles, C, LSU; Katie Gearlds, G, Purdue; Chrissy Givens, G, Middle Tennessee; Devanai Hampton, C, California; Lindsey Harding, G, Duke; Kiera Hardy, G, Nebraska; Laura Harper, F, Maryland; Cameo Hicks, G, Washington; Alexis Hornbuckle, G, Tennessee; Charde Houston, F, Connecticut; Tasha Humphrey, F, Georgia; Tiffany Jackson, F, Texas; Tye Jackson, F, Houston; Crystal Kelly, F, Western Kentucky; Crystal Langhorne, Maryland; Erlana Larkins, North Carolina; Ivory Latta, North Carolina; Camille Little, North Carolina; Victoria Lucas-Perry, Michigan State; Dionne Marsh, New Mexico; Lindsey Medders, Iowa State; Renee Montgomery, Iowa State; Shay Murphy, Southern Cal; Courtney Paris, C, Oklahoma; Candace Parker, F, Tennessee; Armintie Price, G, Ole Miss; Allie Quigley, G, DePaul; Noelle Quinn, F, UCLA; Jillian Robbins, F, Tulsa; Megan Skouby, C, Iowa; Brooke Smith, F/C, Stanford; Kristi Tolliver, G, Maryland; Mercedes Walker, C, Pittsburgh; Emily Westerberg, F, Arizona State; Candice Wiggins, G, Stanford.

Givens Added to Wade Watch List

The State Farm Wade Trophy Committee decided unanimously on January 16 to add Baylor's Bernice Mosby, Duke's Abbey Waner, Middle Tennessee's Chrissy Givens and Cal-Berkley's Ashley Walker to the State Farm 2006-07 Wade Watch List. The four will be added to the list of 25 players who were selected during the preseason. The four players have been added due to their consistent play through midseason. The renowned "Wade Watch" list for the State Farm Wade Trophy is comprised of student-athletes who are members of an NCAA Division I institution and are selected based on the following criteria: game and season statistics, leadership, character, effect on their team and overall playing ability. The national awards committee who selects these candidates is comprised of leading basketball coaches, journalists and basketball administrators. With the four additions, the list now totals 29 players with the ACC leading the way with nine. The Pac-10 follows behind with five and the SEC is close behind with four. The Big East and Big 12 follow with three each. The Big Ten and the Sun Belt Conference each have two, with Conference USA having one player represented. The 25 preseason candidates for the Wade Trophy include: Rutgers' Matee Ajavon, Duke's Alison Bales, Maryland's Marissa Coleman, Louisville's Jazz Covington, Ohio State's Jessica Davenport, South Florida's Jessica Dickson, Maryland's Shay Doron, LSU's Sylvia Fowles, Purdue's Katie Gearlds, Duke's Lindsey Harding, Georgia's Tasha Humphrey, Texas' Tiffany Jackson, Western Kentucky's Crystal Kelly, Maryland's Crystal Langhorne, North Carolina's Erlana Larkins, North Carolina's Ivory Latta, Southern Cal's Eshaya Murphy, Oklahoma's Courtney Paris, Tennessee's Candace Parker, Mississippi's Armintie Price, UCLA's Noelle Quinn, Tulsa's Jillian Robbins, Stanford's Brooke Smith, Maryland's Kristi Tolliver and Stanford's Candice Wiggins.

double-digit steals. In the third game of the year, Givens posted 23 points and 13 rebounds versus Maine in a tournament in Minneapolis, Minn. Four games later the Monroe, La., native had 22 points and 11 boards at Tennessee Tech. On January 6 versus Troy, Givens posted 13 points and 11 rebounds in just 26 minutes before an injury knocked her out of the rest of the game. Three games later she set the single-game record for steals at Middle Tennessee with 11 and added 17 points in just 22 minutes of action. Her final two double-doubles of the year were in February, starting with 22 points and 12 rebounds at Western Kentucky and then 31 points and 13 boards at Troy last Thursday. Givens has 12 career double-doubles, including 10 in the last two seasons.

HORTON HAS THREE DOUBLE-DOUBLES IN EIGHT-GAME SPAN: Senior Krystle Horton has posted 14 career double-doubles, including three in the last eight games of the regular season in 2006-07. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., had 13 points and 12 rebounds on January 28 versus Louisiana-Lafayette and ended the year with two straight double-doubles. She recorded 14 points and 10 rebounds at Troy and finished the season with 27 points and 10 boards versus Florida Atlantic. On two other occasions this season, Horton posted double-figure rebounds, including 10 each versus Austin Peay and at North Texas.

HOLT RECORDS THREE DOUBLE-DOUBLES: Junior Amber Holt has been one of the main cogs in the Middle Tennessee success this season, recording three double-doubles and leading the Blue Raiders in either points and/or rebounds in 16 of the 32 games. Holt was the first to accomplish the double-double feat this season with 19 points and 10 rebounds against South Dakota State on November 13, just her second game as a Blue Raider. The Duluth, Ga., native then had 26 points and 10 boards versus Chattanooga on November 24. Holt's final double-double came during the Sun Belt Tournament, netting 15 points and grabbing a career-high 11 rebounds versus Denver in the semifinals. In the last two years the Blue Raiders have posted seven double-doubles as a team in each campaign and had 14 in 2003-04. This season the squad has 12 double-doubles as a team.

GIVENS, TEAM SET STEALS RECORD: Senior Chrissy Givens set an individual record and the Blue Raiders broke the team mark for steals in a game on January 13 at New Orleans. Givens recorded 11 thefts, all in the first half, besting the previous mark of nine held by both Givens (Eastern Kentucky, 11/25/05) and Sherry Tucker (Austin Peay, 2/20/95). Givens came within three steals of tying the NCAA record, and her 11 steals is tied for the second most by any player in the nation this season. Armintie Price of Ole Miss had 12 steals against Illinois in December and two other players -- Appalachian State's Whitney Tossie and UNC-Greensboro's Kristen Boone -- both have 11 steals in a game this year. As a team, Middle Tennessee broke the single-game school mark for steals in a game as well with 28, besting the old mark of 27 set against San Jose State on December 19, 1991. The Blue Raiders rank second nationally in steals per game this season with 13.75 per game.

DECEMBER A MONTH TO REMEMBER: Middle Tennessee recorded a 6-0 month of December this season, posting a monumental victory for the program along the way. The Blue Raiders had previously enjoyed only one other undefeated month of December, going 4-0 under head coach Pat Jones in the program's second year of varsity play in 1976-77. Middle Tennessee's win at eighth-ranked Georgia on December 7 was the first-ever triumph over a Top 10-ranked opponent and the program's first road win over a ranked foe. It was the first victory against Georgia in 12 tries in the history of the program and only the fourth regular season triumph over a ranked foe in the program's 31 years of varsity basketball (November 24, 1995, No. 20/23 Ole Miss, 88-86; December 3, 1988, NR/24 Clemson, 69-64). Middle Tennessee's only other victories against ranked competition both came in the NCAA Tournament, versus No. 12/11 North Carolina (March 21, 2004, 67-62 in South Bend, Ind.) and against No. 21/22 North Carolina State (March 19, 2005, 60-58 in Dallas, Texas).

HITTING THE CENTURY MARK: Middle Tennessee recorded its 25th 100-point game in school history and its first since 1996 in the 103-59 win over Louisiana-Monroe on December 17. The last time the Blue Raiders topped the 100-point mark was on February 19, 1996, in a 108-75 win over Morehead State. Middle Tennessee is now a perfect 25-0 when scoring 100 or more points in a game. The Blue Raiders are 16-0 when scoring 100 against a conference opponent.

WIN AT GEORGIA RANKS AS ALL-TIME BEST: Middle Tennessee's victory at Georgia on December 7 was perhaps the biggest in school history as far as the numbers go. It was the Blue Raiders first-ever triumph over a Top 10-ranked opponent and the program's first road win over a ranked foe. It was the first victory against Georgia in 12 tries in the history of the program and only the third regular season triumph over a ranked foe in the program's 31 years of varsity basketball (November 24, 1995, 20/23 Ole Miss, 88-86; December 3, 1988, NR/24 Clemson, 69-64). Middle Tennessee's only other victories against ranked competition both came in the NCAA Tournament, versus 12th-ranked North Carolina (March 21, 2004, 67-62 in South Bend, Ind.) and against 21st-ranked N.C. State (March 19, 2005, 60-58 in Dallas, Texas).

GIVENS, ORR MAKE ALL-TOURNAMENT: Senior Chrissy Givens and junior Starr Orr were both named to the All-Tournament team at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn., and Givens was awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy as well in the four-team tournament November 18-19. Givens posted games with 23 and 25 points in wins over Maine and host Minnesota, respectively, and tallied 20 rebounds, 13 assists and six steals in the two contests. Orr was all over the floor in both outings, netting 12 points versus Maine and a career-high 14 against Minnesota as well as grabbing 15 rebounds with 11 assists and four steals in the two games. It marks the first time Middle Tennessee has won two games in a tournament besides the conference championships since December 21-22, 2000, at the UCF Classic in Orlando, Fla., and just the 15th time in 52 in-season tournaments in the history of the program that the Blue Raiders won a pair games.

BLUE RAIDERS SET ATTENDANCE RECORD: Middle Tennessee set a new single-game record with a crowd of 10,010 for the season-opening contest versus No. 1-ranked Maryland at Murphy Center on Friday, November 10. The attendance shattered the old mark of 4,813 set March 7, 2006, versus Western Kentucky in the championship game of the Sun Belt Tournament. Middle Tennessee averaged 2,699 for 16 home dates during the 2005-06 season and led the nation in attendance increase last year with a more than 300 percent increase. The attendance mark of 10,010 is the 15th most to ever see a basketball game in the 11,500-seat Murphy Center and the third most to ever attend a women's basketball contest in Sun Belt Conference history.

PRESEASON NOTES

WOMEN SIGN THREE TO LETTERS-OF-INTENT: Middle Tennessee women's basketball coach Rick Insell announced the signing of T'Qwana Pendergrast, Emily Queen and Anne Marie Lanning to national letters-of-intent on Thursday, November 9, during the fall signing period. Pendergrast (Nashville) and Lanning (Murfreesboro) both hail from the Midstate, while Queen resides in Ashland, Ky.

Pendergrast attended Maplewood High School in Nashville and is a sophomore at Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., this season, where she is a First Team NJCAA Preseason All-America honoree. She averaged 20.1 points, 11.0 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.7 steals as a freshman at Motlow in helping the Lady Bucks to a 25-4 overall mark last season. Motlow finished 2005-06 ranked 18th nationally.

Queen has earned Second Team All-State honors as a sophomore and junior at Rose Hill Christian, helping her team to a state runner-up finish in 2006. She garnered Sweet Sixteen All-Tournament and All "A" State Tournament honors last season and was voted All-District, All-Region and All-Area each of the last two seasons. The 6-foot-2 all-everything has scored 2,311 points and grabbed 1,194 rebounds in her three seasons, including single-game school records of 46 points, 7-of-11 3-pointers and 26 rebounds. She even posted one game with a quadruple double of 26 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals. One more accolade for Queen - her team was the first girls small school in history to make the finals of the Kentucky State Tournament, where they lost to Lexington Catholic.

Lanning was named the Daily News Journal and District 7-AAA Player of the Year in 2005 at Riverdale High School in Murfreesboro. She was garnered All-District, All-Region and All-State accolades the past two years as well as Honorable Mention All-America from Street & Smith's. Lanning averaged 18.5 points, 2.2 assists and 1.9 steals last season, shooting 63.8 percent from the field, 34.4 percent from 3-point range and 84.7 percent from the free throw line.

GIVENS PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Senior Chrissy Givens was voted the Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year by the league coaches and media at the conference media days at the end of October. The Monroe, La., native was also voted to the Preseason All- Sun Belt First Team. The honor comes after the 5-11 guard was voted Sun Belt Player of the Year for the 2005-06 season. She was also voted Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year and Sun Belt Championships Most Outstanding Player. She is just the second player in Sun Belt Conference history to win all three awards in the same season. Givens' preseason honor is the second time in school history a Blue Raider women's basketball player was awarded the Preseason POY honor. In 2004 former Middle Tennessee standout Patrice Holmes was voted Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year.

BLUE RAIDERS TOPS IN THE EAST: For the second time since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee was tabbed to finish first in the Sun Belt preseason poll in the Eastern Division. The Blue Raiders received 74 points and nine first-place votes to take the top spot in the Eastern Division in a poll of the league's coaches prior to SBC Media Days. Middle Tennessee was also picked to finish first in 2004.

HORTON SECOND TEAM: Krystle Horton was voted to the Preseason All-Sun Belt Second Team in a poll of the league's coaches and media prior to the Sun Belt Media Days in October. It marks the third straight season Horton has been named to a Preseason All-SBC squad. The senior forward was a Third Team selection to close out the season in 2005-06, averaging 11.9 points per game and ranking second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage at 51.2 percent.

GIVENS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN: Senior Chrissy Givens was named a Preseason Honorable Mention All-America by Street & Smith's magazine in October after leading Middle Tennessee in points, rebounds, assists and steals in 2005-06. It is the second time in school history a Blue Raider player was named a Preseason All-American, with former standout Jonelda Buck garnering the accolade before the 1998-99 season.

Givens Added to Wooden Award List

The John R. Wooden Award Committee on February 5 announced the Midseason All-American Team for the Women's Wooden Award, and Middle Tennessee's Chrissy Givens is one of the 20 players. The midseason list includes the top 20 players to this point in the season who will contend for this year's player of the year award. This list is based on individual player performance and team records through the first half of the season. Givens was one of five newcomers added to the list who were not included on the preseason top 30, including Katie Gearlds (Purdue), Angel McCoughtry (Louisville), Bernice Mosby (Baylor) and Abby Waner (Duke). The list also includes: Marissa Coleman (Maryland), Jessica Davenport (Ohio State), Jessica Dickson (South Florida), Sylvia Fowles (LSU), Lindsey Harding (Duke), Tasha Humphrey (Georgia), Tiffany Jackson (Texas), Crystal Kelly (Western Kentucky), Crystal Langhorne (Maryland), Erlana Larkins (North Carolina), Ivory Latta (North Carolina), Courtney Paris (Oklahoma), Candace Parker (Tennessee), Armintie Price (Ole Miss) and Candice Wiggins (Stanford).

LAST TIME OUT FOR MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Lady Raiders zing Zags, will face Marist next
By MONTE HALE JR.
hale@dnj.com

STANFORD, Calif. — MTSU's Lady Raiders know what its like to win as a No. 12 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

What they didn't want to feel was the anguish of losing in the first round as a No. 5 seed.

No worries on this night as MTSU jumped all over Gonzaga Saturday from the onset and raced off for am 85-46 victory at Stanford's Maples Pavilion.

The Lady Raiders, who pulled upsets over North Carolina and North Carolina State as 13 and 12 seeds in 2004 and 2005, certainly didn't overlook No. 12 seed Gonzaga, which had won nine straight games.

"That's one thing we talked about before the game and in the huddle before the game — that we had two players, Chrissy (Givens) and Krystle (Horton), who had won two of these games as a 12 and 13 seed.

"Now they're three for four, and I thought we were ready and it showed."

MTSU improved to 30-3 — the most wins ever in one season — and won its 27th consecutive game.

Gonzaga's season ended at 24-10. MTSU will face Marist — which upset Ohio State 67-63 late Saturday — at a time to be determined.

"We came in with the mindset that we want to go to the Final Four," Givens said. "Everybody has laughed, but we believe. Tonight we were playing this game like was to go to the Final Four and we were ready to play and we aren't going to look past anyone."

MTSU never trailed Gonzaga and used a 12-0 run midway through the first half to take a 29-10 lead with 8:42 remaining.

Gonzaga handled the Lady Raiders' press well early but eventually wilted under the pressure. The Bulldogs had 21 first-half turnovers that led to 23 Lady Raider points.

Gonzaga was averaging just 16 turnovers a game but had a season-high 37.

"I was very impressed with Middle Tennessee," said Gonzaga coach Kelly Graves. "They played a great ball game. It obviously wasn't one of our better games, but they're very good defensively."

MTSU led by as many as 25 points in the first half and held a 44-20 halftime lead.

Gonzaga scored eight straight points during a stretch early in the second half to get within 20 points with 15:49 remaining, but the Lady Raiders had the lead back to 24 points in less than two minutes.

"Our defense was very good, with Starr (Orr) getting steals and us using our quickness," said MTSU junior Amber Holt, who had 23 points, six rebounds and four steals. "We were covering the middle good and we played our game."

Gonzaga made its final push when it got within 19 points, 56-37, with 11:33 left, but Horton scored back-to-back baskets to give the Lady Raiders a 60-37 cushion with 9:40 left.

POSTGAME NOTES

SECOND ROUND AGAIN: For the third time in four years and the fourth time in school history, Middle Tennessee advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders won first-round contests in 1983, 2004 and 2005 as well as Saturday's 85-46 victory over Gonzaga.

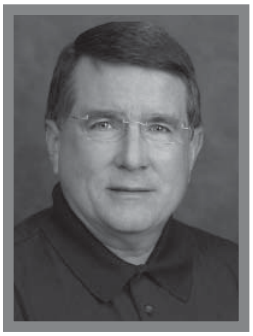
GIVENS MOVES UP SCORING LIST: With 24 points in the victory over Gonzaga, senior Chrissy Givens moved into fifth place on the all-time scoring list at Middle Tennessee. Givens moved past former teammate Patrice Holmes (1,891, 2002-05) and now has 1,909 career points.

DEFENSE IS THE KEY: Middle Tennessee entered Saturday's game forcing opponents into more than 26 turnovers per game, and the defensive effort was a big key once again. Gonzaga committed a season-high 37 turnovers and the Blue Raiders turned those miscues into 43 points. For the year Middle Tennessee has forced 881 turnovers by opponents, an average of 26.70 per game, and has scored 1,021 points off the miscues, an average of 30.93 per contest. The Blue Raiders also held Gonzaga to just 46 points, a season-low by a Middle Tennessee opponent this season. The previous low was 48 by Florida Atlantic on January 11.

THREE FOR 30: With Saturday's victory, Middle Tennessee became just the third team in the nation to post 30 victories this season. The Blue Raiders joined Duke (30-1) and North Carolina (30-3) as the only teams in the country with 30 wins in 2006-07. Bowling Green (29-3) and Connecticut (29-3) can both pick up their 30th wins of the year on Sunday.

QUICK HITTERS: Krystle Horton was 7-for-14 from the field, tying a season-high for field goal attempts ... Starr Orr hit two 3-pointers in the contest and posted her eighth double-figure scoring game of the year with 10 points. It was the sixth time this season Orr has knocked down a pair of trifectas in a game ... Latoya Barclay also hit two 3-pointers, her second outing this season with a pair of trifectas. The other came against South Alabama in the first game of the Sun Belt Tournament ... Chrissy Givens was a perfect 6-for-6 at the foul line and has made 35 of her last 36 charity stripe attempts.

Head Coach Rick Insell



In just his second season as the head coach, Rick Insell has surpassed even the greatest of expectations, leading Middle Tennessee to unprecedented heights in 2006-07, including the program's highest-ever national ranking, a Sun Belt regular season title and a fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament championship.

Insell has helped elevate the program into the national spotlight this season as well, with a victory at then eighth-ranked Georgia in early December showcasing the program. The victory in Athens was the first in program history over a ranked team on the road and just the fifth victory over a ranked foe in the 31-year history of the Middle Tennessee program.

The Blue Raiders own the nation's longest winning streak at 27 games heading into the NCAA Tournament and have not lost since November 26, a stretch of more than 100 days.

Middle Tennessee has already eclipsed the school record for victories in a season, besting the previous mark of 26 set by the 1982-83 squad. This year's team has also tied the record for consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, tying a mark set from 1983-86, and collected the program's fourth consecutive 20-win campaign, also a school record. The four straight conference tournament titles also ties a school record set from 1983-86.

Insell's two-year mark of 49-14 is the best back-to-back seasons in program history, bettering the mark of 48-17 posted during 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Fans have also taken notice of the program's entertaining playing style. Middle Tennessee led the nation in increased attendance percentage in 2005-06, drawing 2,699 fans per game, a 276 percent increase over the previous season. The Blue Raiders improved on that number in 2006-07 as well, setting a single-game record with 10,010 in the season opener against defending national champion Maryland and averaging 4,157 fans for 15 home games, an increase of 65 percent.

INSELL'S INS AND OUTS

- Janaury 17, 2007 - Rick Insell and Middle Tennessee features in two-page spread in USA Today about the program's rise to national prominence and success during his brief tenure.
- Voted Sun Belt Coach of the Year in 2006-07, his first SBC Coach of the Year honor and the first such accolade for a Middle Tennessee head coach since 1988.
- Led Middle Tennessee to school-record 29 victories in 2006-07, including a perfect 21-0 against Sun Belt opponents. The Blue Raiders won their fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament and will play in their fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament in 2006-07.
- Signed a recruiting class ranked in the Top 10 nationally after the 2005-06 season.
- Appeared on Dateline on December 26, 2004. The program produced a one-hour segment on Insell, focusing on him and his Shelbyville Eaglettes. The program was shown internationally.
- March 22, 2003 - Rick Insell was inducted into the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Hall of Fame.
- Insell and the Eaglettes received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement.
- In 1989, ESPN did a feature story on the Shelbyville Eaglettes that aired nationally several times. The story won the National Television Journalism Award later that year. It was the first of several stories ESPN did on Insell and his team.
- In 1992, Rick Insell was named Head Coach of the Girls High School All-American Game and from 1992-96 was a member of the All-American Selection Committee. He became the chairman of the All-American Selection Committee in 1996 and began serving as an advisor in 1999.
- Insell was named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors as High School Representative in 2001.

Middle Tennessee's attendance ranks in the Top 30 nationally and the crowd for the Maryland game was one of the Top 50 for attendance in the nation this year.

Insell has also developed one of the best players in school history in his two seasons. Senior Chrissy Givens registered the second most points in school history in 2005-06 and eclipsed the top mark in 2006-07, and has ranked in the Top 10 nationally in scoring both seasons.

The Woodbury, Tenn., native made a huge splash in his first year at the helm of the Middle Tennessee program, guiding the Blue Raiders to their third consecutive Sun Belt Tournament title and doing so in front of a record-setting home crowd in the finals of the SBC Championships.

Insell directed one of the most thrilling comebacks in Sun Belt Tournament history, leading Middle Tennessee to an 84-73 win over Western Kentucky after being down by as many as 14 points in the first half.

The 2005-06 campaign also saw another first in program history as three players – Givens, Tia Stovall and Krystle Horton – all joined the 1,000-point club. It marks the first time in school history three current players all were represented on the prestigious list, and the Blue Raiders were one of only four teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament to boast such an honor.

Middle Tennessee notched one of its biggest wins of the season when the Blue Raiders shocked Big 10 powerhouse Penn State, 79-65, in the UAB Blaze Tournament in December.

With the first conference title and NCAA Tournament appearance under his belt, Insell's recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally and included current freshmen Jackie Pickel, Brandi Brown and Chelsia Lymon.

A 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, Insell built a high school girls basketball dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, just a 30-minute drive from the Middle Tennessee campus. He guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today national championships (1989, 1991), as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure.

Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991 and he also was been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992). A name synonymous with high school girls basketball in Tennessee, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992), most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team so honored.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central won 23 district championships, 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. He developed six Tennessee Class AAA Middle Tennessee won its fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament in 2006-07, earning a fourth consecutive berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville during his time there, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom, as evidenced by his teams receiving the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000, an award based on team grade-point-average. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville from 1989-00 was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98. The academic emphasis has continued during his tenure at Middle Tennessee, as the Blue Raiders posted a cumulative 3.22 GPA in Fall 2006.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville team received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement and his teams also have been honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, the Tennessee State House and Senate and by two Tennessee Governors.

Insell had high praise for the head coaching position when he accepted the position at Middle Tennessee.

"Dreams do come true," Insell said after Director of Athletics Chris Massaro announced his hiring on May 18, 2005. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me, but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them, then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

Insell is married to Debbie and the couple have three sons, Tom, Kyle and Matt.

Women's college basketball has seen the gap narrow between the have's and have not's.

MTSU proved Friday night that it, too, has closed the gap in terms of competing with the top teams in the nation.

However, MTSU also found out why Maryland is the defending national champion as it overcame a five-point deficit with 5:14 remaining and stormed back to defeat the Blue Raiders 80-76 before a women's record crowd of 10,010 at Murphy Center.

"You can see why their national champions," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "They did the same thing in the finals last year against Duke. They've got great players, but we've got great players. They didn't luck into winning the national championship."

MTSU led the Terrapins 72-67 with 5:14 left in the game after freshman guard Chelsia Lymon scored on a three-point play. However, after a Maryland timeout, it reeled off a 13-4 run to close the game and hold on to its preseason No. 1 national ranking.

"I want to thank Middle Tennessee," said Maryland coach Brenda Frese. "They made us a better basketball team tonight. It was tremendous, it was one of the better college basketball games I've ever been a part of. Middle Tennessee is going to be very, very good. They obviously showed it and they've got to be excited about what's ahead."

The Blue Raiders trailed 76-74 with less than a mintue left, but Amber Holt's jumper was off the mark. On Maryland's next possession, All-American Crystal Langhorne scored on an offensive putback to with 25 seconds left to seal the victory.

Holt made a sterling debut, scoring 28 points and pulling down eight rebounds, and freshman point guard Chelsia Lymon — the Gatorade player of the year in Kentucky last year — scored 13 points in only nine minutes of play.

Maryland was led by Coleman with 19 points and 14 rebounds, while Langhorne had 16 points and 11 rebounds.

While the Blue Raiders pushed Maryland to the limit, it didn't look like it that way early. Coming out of the final media timeout in the first half with 2:55 remaining, MTSU trailed 36-23. Maryland had hit 15 of its first 21 shots for a sizzling 71-percent clip, while MTSU had made only 9 of its first 27 attempts.

However, after Maryland took its biggest lead of the half at 38-23, MTSU scored the final 10 points to close within 38-33 at intermission. Holt scored six in a row and Givens drove in the length of the floor in just six seconds and hit a layup to pull the Blue Raiders within five.

Maryland shot 61 percent from the field and outrebounded MTSU 37-29. The Blue Raiders shot 42 percent and forced 23 Terrapin turnovers.

There was no sugarcoating MTSU's 72-61 home loss to South Dakota State Monday night at Murphy Center.

"They came out, it was their first game and they stuck it to us," said second-year MTSU coach Rick Insell.

After playing No. 1 ranked Maryland to within four points Friday night and garnering 12 votes in the Top 25 poll Monday, MTSU did indeed get a dose of reality.

"They came in here and kicked our butts," said MTSU senior guard Chrissy Givens. "We took Maryland to four points and maybe we thought we were too good, but they kicked our butts. They did it here two years ago."

MTSU struggled offensively throughout, but tied the score at 52-52 with 6:52 left when Givens scored and converted a 3-point play.

However, MTSU was outscored 20-9 down the stretch as it was unable to run its half-court offense.

MTSU shot only 32 percent from the field, while the Jackrabbits shot 56 percent and outrebounded the Blue Raiders 37-29.

MTSU was led by junior Amber Holt's 19 points, while Givens had 17. However, the duo combined to go just 12-of-41 from the field.

South Dakota State hit 17-of-20 free throws after getting into the 1-and-1 with 10:39 left in the game. The Jackrabbits also hit 8-of-14 from behind the 3-point arc.

"There was no pressure for us to win this game," said SDSU coach Aaron Johnston. "We tried a basic offense. We kept it simple and told the kids about being strong and trying to drive.

"We talked about trying to pick up some fouls in the second half. If they are going to put that much pressure on us we've got to turn that pressure on them and get to the free throw line."

MTSU led 12-7 with 14:01 left in the first half but went more than four minutes without a point and found itself trailing 19-12.

The Blue Raiders scored eight unanswered points during one stretch to take a 24-22 lead, but SDSU closed the final four minutes of the half with a 5-2 run to take a 27-26 halftime lead.

MTSU shot just 32 percent in the first half (10-of-31), while the Jackrabbits hit 11-of-24 (46 percent).

SDSU had 13 first-halt turnovers, but MTSU could only turn them into six points.

Foul problems at the post also hurt MTSU as senior Krystle Horton picked up her second personal in less than three minutes, while sophomore Lakira Boyd was whistled for her second with 13:48 remaining before halftime.

Subway Classic Game #1

Chrissy Givens and Amber Holt both scored 23 points and Starr Orr added 12 in only her 10th career start, leading Middle Tennessee to an 87-60 victory over Maine Saturday in the Subway Classic.

Givens recorded her sixth career double-double, grabbing 13 rebounds and adding six assists and three steals. Holt tallied 18 of her 23 points in the first half when the Blue Raiders opened the lead to as many as 26 points.

Orr did exactly what she was inserted in the lineup to do, score and rebound (seven), and the Danville, Ala., native also had five assists in 27 minutes of action.

The Blue Raiders started the game with a 12-3 run and never looked back in the first half, taking a 47-26 advantage at the break. Holt posted 18 points and Givens 13 in the opening half, but it was a staunch defense and improved rebounding that were the biggest differences, limiting Maine to just 38 percent shooting (6-for-16) and a 30-9 rebounding margin for Middle Tennessee.

The Blackbears (1-1) had just six field goals in the first period, including a stretch of more than 10 minutes without a bucket. Middle Tennessee worked through foul problems in the opening 20 minutes as well, with 17 fouls whistled on the Blue Raiders allowing Maine to shoot 22 free throws.

Middle Tennessee led 20-12 after a Maine 3-point play from Abby Greene with 10:48 to play in the first half. The Blue Raiders then scored 23 of the next 28 points in the contest over a six-minute stretch, with Holt contributing nine points and Givens six during the run.

In the second half the Blue Raiders led by as many as 23 and the lead was never less than 16. Middle Tennessee knocked down seven 3-pointers in the second half and 12 for the game, as well as outrebounding the Blackbears Maine, 48-24, for the game.

"We shot the ball better in the first half and really hit the boards hard, one of things we've been working on in practice," head coach Rick Insell said. "We came out with more focus, especially early. We turned up the heat in practice and these young ladies responded well.

"Our depth was really a factor as well. We got in some foul trouble in the first half, but this year we're able to bring Chelsia [Lymon], Jackie [Pickel], LaCondra [Mason] and LaToya [Brown] off the bench at the guard spots and even Brandi [Brown] if we need her."

Holt added seven rebounds in the win and was 6-of-12 from the floor and 9-for-12 from the foul line.

Subway Classic Championship Game

Chrissy Givens scored 18 first-half points and helped Middle Tennessee build a 25-point lead early in the second half en route to a 79-61 victory over host Minnesota in the championship game of the Subway Classic Sunday at Williams Arena.

Givens, voted the tournament's most valuable player, was almost unstoppable in the first half, going 9-of-14 from the field, leading the Blue Raiders to a 14-point halftime lead.

Givens and teammate Starr Orr were both selected to the Subway Classic All-Tournament team.

Freshman Chelsia Lymon came off the bench in the opening minutes of the second half and provided an offensive spark, knocking down a pair of 3-pointers and a lay-up to help extend the lead to 57-34. Orr followed with eight consecutive points of her own, including another pair of trifectas, stretching the Middle Tennessee advantage to 65-38.

Minnesota made a run during the half when Middle Tennessee went without a bucket for more than six minutes, but the Golden Gophers never got closer than 14 after the break.

Givens led all scorers with 25 points while adding seven rebounds and seven assists in 40 minutes of action. Orr, in one of her best games as a Blue Raider, added 14 points, eight rebounds, six assists, and three steals.

Senior Krystle Horton scored the first three baskets of the game for the Blue Raiders and Johnna Abney knocked down a pair of 3-pointers, as Middle Tennessee quieted the crowd of 5,639 en route to an early 12-6 lead. Givens scored the next eight on a host of short jumpers and lay-ups for a 20-12 MT advantage with 7:51 to go in the half.

All of this was in the midst of an 18-4 run over a seven-minute stretch that put the Blue Raiders ahead, 34-14. The Blue Raiders built the lead by out-hustling the Golden Gophers, with one series of plays seeing Amber Holt make a steal but miss a break-away lay-up.

Not to be discouraged, Holt came racing back down the floor, made another steal falling out of bounds, saved the ball to Orr, who executed a 2-on-1 with Givens for another lay-up. The Blue Raiders built a 32-14 advantage at that point and led 38-24 at the halftime break even after a cheap lay-up at the buzzer by Minnesota's Kelly Roysland.

Givens had 18 in the first half and the Blue Raiders forced 18 Minnesota turnovers in the first 20 minutes and also limited the Golden Gophers to just 35 percent shooting from the floor while shooting 58 percent themselves.

It was a pick your poison night for Chattanooga at Murphy Center Friday.

Whether the Lady Mocs employed a man-to-man defense or a zone, it didn't matter, as MTSU broke down both en route to a 98-69 victory before a crowd of 2,524.

MTSU (3-2) shot 52 percent and hit 12 3-pointers, equaling a season high, as it won its third straight game and snapped a two-game losing streak at Murphy Center.

The 98 points were the most scored by MTSU under second-year coach Rick Insell, whose team lost 76-66 at Chattanooga last season.

"We're playing a little better offensively," Insell said, "but I wasn't as pleased with our defense tonight. We did a better job as the game went on, but not good enough if we're going to get to where we want to be."

The duo of senior guard Chrissy Givens and junior forward Amber Holt were devastating, as they combined for 55 points and 17 rebounds. Givens finished with 29 points and seven rebounds, while Holt had 26 points and 10 boards.

The offensive onslaught was a welcomed sight after the Blue Raiders had hit 30 percent their first two home games against Maryland and South Dakota State.

Coming out of the eight-minute timeout trailing 24-21, Chattanooga went to a zone defense, which played right into MTSU's hands.

Freshman guard Jackie Pickel hit back-to-back 3-pointers, which spearheaded a 14-4 run that gave MTSU a 38-25 lead with 4:33 left before halftime.

Chattanooga pulled to within seven in less than a minute, but the Blue Raiders closed the half with a 12-7 run to take a 50-38 halftime lead at intermission.

Pickel finished with a season-high 15 points, hitting 5-of-7 from 3-point range. Five different MTSU players hit at least one 3-pointer.

Both teams were plagued with foul problems in the first half, with Chattanooga being whistled for 13 and MTSU with 12.

Chattanooga's leading scorer, Alex Anderson (18 ppg), played only four minutes after picking up her second foul, while starters Brooke Hand and Kristen Spann each had three fouls.

MTSU sophomore guard Johnna Abney picked up three fouls in the first half, while Givens, Holt and Starr Orr each had two.

Givens scored MTSU's first eight points of the second half, and Abney followed with a 3-pointer to give the Blue Raiders a 61-44 advantage with 17:09 left.

MTSU outrebounded the Lady Mocs 40-28 and forced 21 turnovers.

MTSU was its own worst enemy Sunday, but the No. 4-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols had a lot to do with it.

Tennessee's stifling, trapping defense and impressive offensive talent was simply too much for MTSU, which suffered an 88-64 whipping before a crowd of 12,363 at Thompson Boling Arena.

MTSU dropped to 3-3, while Tennessee improved to 5-0.

"Tennessee is outstanding," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "We played hard, we didn't quit, but they just happen to be six inches taller than us at every position."

Leading just 16-15 with 11:57 remaining in the first half, Tennessee increased the intensity with its half-court trapping defense, which rendered MTSU helpless and helped the Lady Vols pull away for the easy victory.

Tennessee held MTSU scoreless for more than five minutes in the first half before Chrissy Givens hit two free throws at the 6:35 mark.

However, the Lady Raiders stayed within striking distance, trailing only 26-19 before Tennessee closed the final 5:45 of the first half with a 23-8 run to take a 49-27 lead at intermission.

Tennessee shot a sizzling 64 percent in the first half, made 6-of-9 form 3-point range and created too many mismatch problems for the Lady Raiders.

MTSU committed 15 first-half turnovers that led to 20 Lady Vol points. The Lady Raiders had just five turnovers in the second half.

"Like coach said, they had girls six inches taller than us and they were able to shoot right over us," Givens said. "But we missed a couple of screens, I didn't get around a couple of screens and they made their 3-point shots. We weren't counting on that. I think rebounding hurt us and we needed to cut those second-chance points in half."

Givens led MTSU with 26 points, but got little offensive support. Junior forward Amber Holt, the Lady Raiders' second-leading scorer, didn't get her first points until 15:33 left in the game. She finished with eight.

Lady Raider freshman Brandi Brown scored 12 points — all on 3-pointers — and MTSU hit a season-high 13 treys.

MTSU shot 45 percent overall and hit 8-of-15 from 3-point range in the second half and 50 percent overall.

"We didn't quit," Insell said. "They're a great basketball team. We're a good basketball team, although it might not have looked like it tonight. But we'll get better because of this game."

Tennessee was led by Sidney Spencer and Candace Parker with 16 points each. The Vols outrebounded MTSU 38-22 and were led by Parker's nine boards.

Tennessee Tech had the fight and grit, but athleticism and talent finally won out for MTSU's Lady Raiders Wednesday night.

Despite struggling for much of the first half, MTSU overcame the sloppy play and pulled away to defeat the Golden Eagles, 68-50, at Hooper Eblen Center.

"We didn't get off to a good start, but (Tennessee Tech) made some plays and that's a credit to them," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "I thought we settled down, though, and did what we needed to do. They played hard and we played hard, and it was a good ballgame."

MTSU (4-3) was lethargic early and fell behind 16-10 to the pesky Golden Eagles, who didn't surrender the lead until 5:58 left before halftime.

The Lady Raiders used a 20-3 run to take a 30-19 lead and held a 32-23 halftime advantage.

MTSU senior guard Chrissy Givens missed three shots to open the game and was pulled from the lineup. However, she responded upon her return by leading the Lady Raiders with 22 points, 11 rebounds and five assists.

"I'm a leader and I don't need to start a game like that," Givens said. "I know (Insell) was mad and I knew I was coming out. "When I came back in, I just tried to deflect balls, play defense and we all kind of gravitated to each other."

MTSU junior guard Starr Orr, recently inserted into the starting lineup, helped spark the first-half run with seven straight points on a short jumper, a steal and a layup and a 3-pointer.

"I haven't been playing too good lately," Orr said, "and coach told me I needed to step it up. When I got those steals, it got me going and then we started playing better. Our problem was we just couldn't knock our shots down early in the game. Once we hit a few, we got on a good roll."

MTSU hit just 37 percent from the field in the first half, but got into a better rhythm offensively in the second when it hit 11 of its first 18 shots.

Tennessee Tech stayed within 10 points until the 10-minute mark when the Lady Raiders used a 14-5 spurt to go ahead 62-43 with 6:59 remaining.

"I think our defensive tenacity got to them," Insell said. "They weren't really able to get into their sets much. I thought we stayed after them and wore them down."

Tennessee Tech shot just 39 percent in the second half and finished with 20 turnovers. The Lady Raiders outrebounded the Golden Eagles, 38-27.

Orr had 12 points, while junior Amber Holt and freshman Brandi Brown netted 10 apiece. MTSU hit 7-of-16 from 3-point range.

Tennessee Tech was led by Kendall Cavin with 15 points and Marissa Hensley with 11.

MTSU isn't ready to see senior guard Chrissy Givens leave, but the Lady Raiders did find out how they can play without her.

With Givens on the bench with three fouls at the halfway point of the first half, MTSU (5-3) not only maintained a double-digit lead, but extended it en route to hammering Austin Peay (2-6) 80-49 before a crowd of 3,204 at Murphy Center.

"We had a lead so there wasn't a lot of pressure on us," Insell said. "When you've got someone like Amber Holt who can step up, it also takes pressure off you.

"But overall we did a good job executing offensively and defensively tonight."

After Givens was whistled for her third foul with 10:32 left before intermission, she sat on the bench the remainder of the half and watched the Lady Raiders build an 18-8 advantage into a 40-18 halftime lead.

"I was very comfortable sitting on the bench," Givens said. "Amber Holt picked it up, and our defense kept picking it up.

"[Austin Peay] beat our butts last year and it was like a vengeance. Once we got them down, we wanted to keep them down."

MTSU's relentless defense forced 19 first-half turnovers that led to 21 points, and Austin Peay continuously panicked when trying to break the press and when it did manage to set up in the half court.

"We wanted to bring our practice to the game," said Holt, who had 19 points, nine rebounds and five steals. "We did that and they kept turning it over and turning it over."

The Lady Raiders picked up in the second half where the left off in the first, forcing four straight turnovers and building a 58-22 advantage with 13:50 left. MTSU led by as many as 36 points.

"It was an overall team victory," Insell said. "Last year we had an 18-point lead twice against them and lost the game. I think that is a lesson that has carried over, even into this year."

Despite playing just 18 minutes, Givens scored 19 points and dished out four assists. Senior forward Krystle Horton had eight points and a team-high 10 rebounds.

Junior forward Starr Orr continued her solid play with nine points and four rebounds, while freshman forward Brandi Brown added seven points.

MTSU shot 52 percent and outrebounded the Lady Governors 35-20.

Austin Peay, which shot 50 percent, was led by Breana Link's 18 points. However, the Lady Govs had a whopping 31 turnovers.

Rick Insell had a good feeling when MTSU's Lady Raiders left Murfreesboro Wednesday. Turns out he had a good reason to feel so confident.

Senior guard Chrissy Givens scored 25 points and junior forward Amber Holt had 21 to lead MTSU to a stunning 70-62 victory over No. 8 Georgia Thursday night at Stegeman Coliseum.

"I felt when we got on the charter bus headed to Athens that we were going to win," Insell said. "I've never been in a game that I didn't think I could win, but I really felt if we came out and got after them, we had a chance to get a victory. This one is big. This one will go a long way in helping our program. It's going to help our RPI, too."

MTSU (6-3) forced Georgia (7-1) into 22 turnovers in beating the Lady Bulldogs for the first time in 12 tries. It was the Lady Raiders' first win in three games against Top 10 teams this year, including an 88-64 loss to No. 4 Tennessee on Nov. 26 and an 80-76 loss to No. 1 Maryland in the season opener.

"Middle Tennessee is a difficult team for us to match up with," Landers said. "They are essentially playing guards inside, and that creates some difficult matchups for us. Holt was a point guard in junior college, and she was playing the four (power forward)."

Cori Chambers led Georgia with 23 points, and Angel Robinson came off the bench to score 10.

Chambers hit a 3-point basket 28 seconds into the second half to put Georgia ahead 34-33, but it was the last time Georgia led.

The Lady Raiders mounted a 12-4 run to take a 49-40 lead with 11:24 to play after Holt hit a layup. Tasha Humphrey completed a 3-point play with 6:36 to go to bring Georgia to within 54-52, but that was as close as Georgia got.

Holt answered with four baskets in two minutes to spark MTSU to a 63-54 lead with 4:28 left. Georgia got to 67-62 when Robinson put in a follow-up, but the Lady Bulldogs didn't score again.

Georgia bolted to an 11-5 lead, led by three baskets from Chambers. But Holt sandwiched a couple of baskets around a Givens layup to tie it 11-11 with 14:07 to go in the half, and the game remained tight until the break.

MTSU forced Georgia into 12 first-half turnovers in building a 33-31 halftime lead. Georgia stayed in the game because of a 23-14 edge in rebounding and MTSU's 40 percent shooting. However, MTSU shot 50 percent in the second half.

Mason, a sophomore guard, scored nine points off the bench — all on 3-pointers — in just 10 minutes of play. The Lady Raiders had just nine turnovers.

"We had some kids who just played their hearts out tonight," Insell said. "They cut the lead to two points, but we weren't fazed a bit and came right back down and scored. The look in (Georgia's) face was as if they couldn't believe it. What a team victory."

Chrissy Givens tied her season-high with 29 points to lead four double-figure scorers and Middle Tennessee overcame a sluggish start to both halves, forcing 29 turnovers in a 93-58 victory over South Alabama Thursday night at Mitchell Center.

South Alabama (5-5, 0-1 Sun Belt) began the game with a 13-4 run and started the second half with 12 straight points, but the Blue Raiders' defense was the big difference in the game, as the pressure forced 20 first-half turnovers by the Lady Jags and 29 in all.

Middle Tennessee (7-3, 1-0) freshman Brandi Brown finished with a career-high 17 points, hitting 5-of-8 from 3-point range, and Amber Holt added 16 points, as the Blue Raiders won the fourth straight in the series, including three in a row in Mobile. Senior Krystle Horton also scored 10 points, all in the second half, and added a team-high seven rebounds.

"The score is really not indicative of the game. We came out sluggish in both halves but I thought our 1-2-2 press bothered them and that was a big difference," head coach Rick Insell said. "We shot the ball well and what a night for Brandi Brown to come out and play well. She hit some three's and loosened up things for us."

Givens netted 17 of her 29 in the first half and had seven assists, four rebounds and four steals in 36 minutes of action. She tied her career-high with 14 made field goals. The Blue Raiders were 19-of-34 in both halves from the floor and turned the ball over just 12 times in the contest.

The Blue Raiders got off to a rough start and fell behind 13-4 in the first six minutes of the contest, but recovered with a 16-0 run over five minutes for a 20-13 edge. Givens and Holt both scored six points and Chelsia Lymon had four during the run.

The Blue Raiders turned up the pressure on defense after falling behind. South Alabama committed 10 turnovers during the Blue Raiders' run back into the game and had 20 first-half turnovers in all. Middle Tennessee outscored USA, 44-10, over the final 14 minutes of the half for a 48-23 lead at the break.

In the second half South Alabama tallied 12 consecutive points in less than four minutes until Givens hit a runner in the lane that drew a foul to end the run. Brown then hit her fourth 3-pointer of the contest and Starr Orr had two buckets, including one of the team's 10 3-pointers.

"I was relaxed tonight, ready to play and more focused," Brown said. "I was looking for my shot more, more offensive-minded, and I know [Coach Insell] would rather us take the shot than pass it up."

Johnna Abney started the scoring barrage and most everyone else joined in Sunday when MTSU ripped Louisiana-Monroe, 103-59, before a crowd of 2,317 at Murphy Center.

The sophomore point guard hit four straight 3-pointers in the first six minutes of the game, igniting a 61-point first half in which the Lady Raiders shot 67 percent (20-of-30) and made 8-of-11 3-pointers.

"My job is to get us into our offense, but if I'm open I'm going to shoot or I'll get in trouble," said Abney. "I had my shot and was open, so I just took them."

MTSU improved to 8-3 overall and 2-0 in the Sun Belt Conference, while ULM fell to 10-3 and 0-2.

MTSU's defense was relentless against the Warhawks, who could only get off 15 first-half shots and turned the ball over 20 times.

The 103 points was the most MTSU has scored this season and the most it has tallied since beating Morehead State 108-75 in 1996.

MTSU didn't let up in the second half, building as big as a 50-point lead.

The Lady Raiders forced 27 turnovers, but didn't press in the second half.

"Defense is our main thing," Givens said. "Every night we go out trying to get better and do better. We're not there yet and we're not perfect, but we're reading each other and that could be dangerous."

Added Martin: "I am very disappointed in how we played. We didn't handle their press at hall. We're a pressing team and we should be able to handle it."

The 16 3-pointers made were the most this season and just two shy of a team record. Eight different Lady Raiders made at least one 3-pointer, while Abney and freshman Jackie Pickel hit four apiece. The Lady Raiders shot a sizzling 58 percent and made 59 percent (16-of-27) from 3-point range.

"Our girls played their game and that's what I'm proud of," Insell said. "We didn't worry about the score. We just went out and executed offensively and defensively."

Givens' 19 points led MTSU, while junior Amber Holt had 14 and Abney and Pickel 12 apiece. ULM was led by LaJeanna Howard with 16 points.

With each passing game, the MTSU women's basketball team continues to serve notice to the old guard that there's a new kid on the block.

The Lady Raiders added another notch in that belt with an 86-71 victory over Old Dominion Tuesday night in front of 3,227 at the Murphy Center.

The win was the sixth in a row for MTSU and fourth this season — along with victories over Georgia, Minnesota and Louisiana-Monroe — over a former Final Four team.

MTSU overcame a rocky start to take control of what had been a back-and-forth game. Freshman Jackie Pickel came off the bench to knock down her first three 3-point attempts, and senior Krystle Horton had her best game of the season as the Lady Raiders improved to 9-3.

Horton scored a season-high 23 points, including 12 in the first half, as the senior from Riverdale almost single-handedly kept MTSU in the ballgame over the first 10 minutes.

The Lady Raiders shot just 32 percent in the first 20 minutes of the game, including hitting just eight of their first 28 attempts from the field. But on the strength of 13 first-half free throws and a five-point scoring flurry by Givens in the final minute, MTSU held a one-point lead (39-38) at intermission.

Old Dominion committed 16 first-half fouls and shot just five free throws in the first half.

MTSU gave itself some room early in the second with a 6-0 run to take a 45-38 lead. But ODU fought back, eventually tying the game at 51-51 on Tish Lyons' layup before taking a 54-53 lead on a 3-pointer by T.J. Jordan with 12:49 remaining in the game.

Two free throws by Lady Monarch point-guard Jazzmin Walters — who led the Lady Monarchs with 13 points — put ODU up 59-57 with just over eight-and-a-half minutes left.

Then the Jackie Pickel show started.

The 5-10 freshman from Cleveland connected on her first three attempts from long-range over a 2:40 span to turn a two-point deficit into a four-point lead with 5:56 remaining.

"That first shot is always huge," said Pickel, who knocked down four treys in Sunday's win over Louisiana-Monroe. "When I get in there and hit the first shot, it does a lot for my confidence, and tonight it really helped."

Pickel's long-range shooting sparked a 10-1 Blue Raider run over the next two-and-a-half minutes, which all but put the game away. Junior Amber Holt scored eight of her game-high 27 points in the final three minutes, including hitting 4-of-6 free throws.

The apparent blowout in the making didn't materialize, but MTSU's Lady Raiders nevertheless took round one in a battle of Sun Belt Conference heavyweights Wednesday night.

Paced by four players in double figures, MTSU built a big lead early, staved off a Western Kentucky rally and eventually subdued the Lady Toppers 76-62 before a crowd of 3,627 at Murphy Center.

"I thought overall it was the worst game we've played," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "We didn't shoot well. I don't know if it was the Christmas break, but I also think Western Kentucky had a lot to do with it."

MTSU, ranked 26th nationally in the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN coaches poll, improved to 10-3 overall and 3-0 in the Sun Belt Conference. Western Kentucky dropped to 6-4 and 2-1.

MTSU looked as if it was going to run way from the Lady Toppers as it led 46-29 with 15:07 remaining. However, Western Kentucky scored nine unanswered points and held the Lady Raiders scoreless for more than four minutes.

"It was a hard game and I think we both got tired," said MTSU senior forward Krystle Horton, who had 14 points. "With it being a conference game, you know it's going to be a game of runs. We kept our composure when they made their runs."

MTSU got the lead back to 16 points, 54-38, with 9:28 left, but Western Kentucky refused to wilt and had a chance to get the lead under 10 before the Lady Raiders used a 12-4 flurry to go up 70-54 with 3:12 left. Senior Chrissy Givens led the Lady Raiders with 19 points, while junior Amber Holt and sophomore Johnna Abney had 16 and 13, respectively.

Western Kentucky's defense disrupted MTSU's offense in the first half. The Lady Raiders had to hit their final four shots just to reach a 43-percent shooting clip.

However, MTSU's defense totally took the Lady Toppers out of their offense as they had 22 turnovers in the first half and managed only 10 shots in the first 13 minutes of play. Western Kentucky finished with 34 turnovers.

MTSU raced out to a 10-0 lead, holding Western Kentucky scoreless until the 15:57 mark of the first half.

The Lady Raiders built a 14-point lead, 26-12, with 5:17 left before intermission before Western Kentucky used a 8-0 spurt to pull within 26-20 at the 2:57 mark.

"We we're playing the score instead of the game," Insell said. "I'm glad we got the win, but we've got a lot of work to do."

MTSU then scored seven straight, highlighted by Abney's fourth 3-pointer of the half. Freshman guard Jackie Pickel drained a long 3-pointer with seven second left to give MTSU a 36-22 halftime lead.

Western Kentucky was led by junior post Crystal Kelly with 20 points and 16 rebounds.

Brandi Brown and Jackie Pickel were labeled as shooters with no conscience when they signed with MTSU.

North Dakota State will certainly attest to the fact after the freshmen combined for 13 3-pointers and 43 points in No. 25 MTSU's 93-63 victory at Murphy Center Tuesday night.

It was almost comical as the duo continued to hit 3-pointers as if they were having a contest amongst themselves.

Brown hit seven treys, Pickel nailed six, and the Lady Raiders hit a season-high 17 from beyond the bonus arc.

MTSU improved to 11-3 and won its eighth consecutive game. North Dakota State dropped to 6-6.

Just hours after earning its first national ranking in more than 18 years, MTSU didn't exactly look the part early against North Dakota State.

However, a flurry of 3-point shots midway through the first half all but rendered the Bison helpless and spearheaded the Lady Raiders to the 30-point blowout.

Leading just 16-10 with 13:30 remaining in the first half, MTSU went on a 16-2 run, which included back-to-back 3-pointers from Pickel.

Brown also hit two 3-pointers in the opening half, while freshman Chelsia Lymon nailed one as the Lady Raiders built a 47-26 halftime lead.

"We've got some pretty good shooters," said Insell. "We're not going to shoot like that every night. If we do, we'll be in the Final Four. I'm not real satisfied with our defense, and we'll come back (this morning) and work on that.

"We executed our offense in the second half, but we've still got a tendency to play the scoreboard and not the game, and we had too many defensive breakdowns."

MTSU made its debut Tuesday in the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll for the first time since December 1988 when it was coached by Lewis Bivens.

The ranking might have served as motivation for North Dakota State, but it was hardly a major distraction for MTSU, which lost to the Bison a year ago.

"Being No. 25 really doesn't suit us," said senior guard Chrissy Givens. "That's not what we're aiming for. ... It's an honor, but we've got a lot more we want to accomplish."

The Lady Raiders, who led by as many as 36 points in the second half, placed four players in double figures.

Brown scored a career-high 25 points, Pickel netted a career-high 18, junior Amber Holt had 18 and Givens chipped in 10 points and seven assists.

MTSU easily won the game, but the overriding concern is the status of senior guard Chrissy Givens.

A complete hush came over a Murphy Center crowd of 3,780 with 12:59 remaining Saturday night when Givens fell to floor, grabbed her left knee and to be helped off the floor. She returned to the bench with less than three minutes remaining with an icepack on her knee.

Givens' injury certainly put a damper on MTSU's ninth straight win — a 90-55 triumph over Sun Belt Conference foe Troy.

"She's having an MRI (Saturday night) and we'll know more then," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "I've coached a lot of great players, some that were on TV today, and she's as good as there is on and off the court. We're hoping for the best."

Added Givens: "I can put all of my weight on it. ... I was driving for a loose ball and caught by foot on the hardwood, and it bent and didn't allow me to bend it."

MTSU, ranked No. 25 in the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll, improved to 12-3 overall and 4-0 in the Sun Belt Conference. Troy slipped to 8-7 and 1-4. The last time MTSU won nine straight games was during the 1999-2000 season.

MTSU was hardly sharp offensively against Troy in the first half. However, one constant remained for MTSU and it was intense defensive pressure that forced 35 Troy turnovers — a season high — and totally disrupted the Trojans offensive attack.

"Defense is our main thing," said MTSU sophomore guard Johnna Abney. "We were putting pressure on and off the ball and we can do that I think we'll cause a lot of problems for teams."

MTSU shot just 33 percent in the first half, but Troy had 22 turnovers that led to 27 Lady Raider points.

The Trojans didn't reach double figures until inside the six-minute mark as they repeatedly turned the ball over against MTSU's press and in the half-court.

MTSU's two leading scorers, Givens and junior Amber Holt, scored just five and two points, respectively in the first 20 minutes. However, the Lady Raiders got 21 points off the bench.

MTSU used runs of 21-6 and 10-5 to build its biggest lead, 39-13, with 1:58 remaining before halftime, and it held a 41-19 advantage at intermission.

"We stress defense so much that even if we're off shooting, we shouldn't never take a not off on defense," said Givens, who had 13 points and 11 rebounds for the ninth double-double of her career.

Freshman Brandi Brown led MTSU with 19 points, including making five 3-pointers, while freshman Jackie Pickel netted 13 points and junior Amber Holt 10. Troy ws led by Kyle Morrisey's 22 points.

Chrissy Givens scored a season-high 32 points and Amber Holt added 19, as 21st-ranked Middle Tennessee shot better than 70 percent from the field for most of the second half, running away with an 86-52 victory over Florida International Tuesday night at Pharmed Arena.

The win runs Middle Tennessee's winning streak to 10 games this season, tying for the sixth longest in school history and the longest winning streak since a 10-game stretch in 1999-00.

Middle Tennessee (13-3, 5-0 Sun Belt) led 38-22 at the half and hit 19 of its first 25 shots after intermission, taking a 40-point lead at 84-44 with 4:57 left in the game. Freshman Brandi Brown also contributed 16 points, 13 in the first half.

Givens took over in the second half, scoring 25 of her 32 points, including 12 of the first 17. The senior drove the lane continually in the second half, making lay-ups and short jumpers. Givens also dished out eight assists with four rebounds and six steals in 34 minutes.

"I felt alright after the first practice when I was able to dribble [on Sunday] and I was cutting fine," Givens said. "I felt good the more I practiced and played [this week] and I felt like because it was a road game, I needed to come out and be more aggressive and score and do the things I needed to do. The shots fell tonight and we played real well defensively."

Middle Tennessee's Krystle Horton added eight points and eight rebounds and the Blue Raiders outrebounded a much taller FIU, 37-29, in the game. Middle Tennessee scored 38 points off 29 FIU turnovers in the game, while the Blue Raiders turned the ball over just 13 times, recorded 20 assists and made 18 steals.

"I thought Chelsia [Lymon] and Starr [Orr] were the difference up front and Krystle Horton down low with the rebounds and hard-nosed battling those players did for us tonight," head coach Rick Insell said. "The player Chelsia was guarding (FIU point guard Iva Ciglar) had 10 turnovers.

"Everybody that played tonight was able to contribute and that's what a team's all about. We've got to be able to play 10-12 players and give some others rest playing these road games. It was a great win and we played well."

Brown hit a trio of 3-pointers early in the first half and totaled 13 points in the first 20 minutes, as the Blue Raiders raced out to a 38-22 halftime lead. Brown entered the game just three minutes in and made her first basket before hitting nine consecutive points, all on trifectas, giving Middle Tennessee a 17-10 edge with 12:07 left in the half.

The Blue Raiders were ahead 38-18 after a Givens lay-up with 3:30 before the break, but did not score again, including Givens missing two free throws with 0.4 seconds remaining.

Chrissy Givens scored 19 of her 23 points in the first half, Amber Holt scored 14 points and Krystle Horton added 12 in a 78-48 victory over Florida Atlantic at FAU Arena Thursday night. The victory is the 11th straight for the Blue Raiders, who improve to 14-3 this season and 6-0 in Sun Belt action.

The Blue Raider defense was on full display in the first half, forcing 20 FAU turnovers and converting those into 18 points. Givens was 9-of-10 from the field in the opening 20 minutes, scoring 19 points, while Holt and Horton both had eight.

The Owls were just 5-of-22 in the first half from the field, shooting 18 percent, and had only one field goal over the final 11:22 before intermission. Middle Tennessee outscored the home team, 29-7, during the final 11 minutes of the half.

"We were going more to score in first half [against their pressure]," Horton said. "It's a long road trip and it's good to get another win. It's unusual to be on this long a trip, but it's good for us to maintain concentration on what we're doing, executing and staying healthy. It also gets us ready for the [Sun Belt] tournament."

In the second half the game turned very physical, with the two teams combining for 19 fouls. Freshman Chelsia Lymon scored seven of her eight points after the break and Holt netted six.

Middle Tennessee shot just 31 percent in the second half but hit the offensive glass for 20 rebounds in the contest. The Blue Raiders also forced 35 turnovers in the game by the Owls, tying a season high for an opponent.

FAU was led by Brittney Crenshaw's 10 points off the bench. The Owls shot just 34 percent from the field in the contest.

"We played hard in the first half and forced them into turnovers," head coach Rick Insell said. "In the second half we didn't focus as well and it was really a poorly played game from our side. We're thankful to get a win and get out of here without anyone getting hurt."

Rest is certainly merited for the road-wearied MTSU women's basketball team.

The No. 21-ranked Lady Raiders capped off a three-game road swing in five days Saturday morning by whipping New Orleans 78-50 to run their winning streak to 12 games.

MTSU defeated Florida International 86-52 Tuesday, Florida Atlantic 78-48 Thursday and quickly put away New Orleans Saturday when it led 46-17 at halftime and by as many as 47 points in the second half.

"I'm really proud of this basketball team," said MTSU coach Rick Insell said. "I don't know of too many basketball teams in the country that could have done what we did in conference play this week.

"I'm most pleased that we won (Saturday), played a lot of people and we got out of this trip with nobody hurt."

MTSU forced a season-high 40 turnovers against New Orleans, and senior guard Chrissy Givens had a school-record 11 steals — just three shy of the NCAA record — in only 22 minutes of play.

"Our pressure defense was key again," Insell said. "We forced a bunch of turnovers and our kids were just all over the place.

"Chrissy and Amber (Holt) were great again, and Starr Orr was everywhere. She was everywhere in every game we played this week. She was getting rebounds, forcing turnovers, getting steals, knocking down jumpers and hitting 3-pointers."

Givens' 17 points led MTSU, while Holt had 14, freshman Brandi Brown 12 and Orr 10. The Lady Raiders hit 10-of-25 3-pointers.

"We're definitely tired," said Orr, who also had six rebounds, four steals and three assists against UNO. "(Insell) told us we just had to come back and play hard and that's what we did.

"It all has come together for us. Chrissy and Amber are playing great, Krystle (Horton) has been great, I'm coming around, (point guards) Johnna (Abney) and Chelsia (Lymon) are running the team great, and everybody that comes in knows their role. We've got good chemistry. It was a hard week mentally and physically, but we won all three games."

MTSU forced 104 turnovers in the three-game road trip, and opponents have turned the ball over 486 times (27 per game) this season.

"We've got some athletic young ladies with great lateral quickness," Insell said. "There aren't a lot of teams in the country that have what we've got, and we're doing a good job taking advantage of it right now.

"I just have to give our kids all the credit in the world. They're very tired, physically and mentally, but that showed how resilient they are this week."

The blowout materialized, but it was a longer time in the making than MTSU fans have been accustomed to this season.

No. 20-ranked MTSU, which had outscored Sun Belt Conference foes by more than 31 points per game, certainly got a test from Arkansas State early at Murphy Center Thursday night.

However, behind senior guard Chrissy Givens 27 points and a stifling defense that forced 37 turnovers, the Lady Raiders overcome early shooting woes and raced off to an 82-54 victory before a crowd of 4,884.

MTSU won its 13th straight game to improve to 16-3 overall and 8-0 in the Sun Belt, while Arkansas State dropped to 13-6 and 7-2. The Lady Raiders' winning streak is the third longest in the nation behind undefeated Duke and North Carolina.

MTSU led just 39-32 at halftime, but Givens scored 10 of her team's first 16 points in the second half to ignite a 19-11 run that gave the Lady Raiders a 58-43 lead with 11:25 left.

"(Coach Insell) really chewed my butt at halftime. He really chewed it," Givens said. "He was right, too. Our team plays like I do, and I'm like a coach on the floor and I needed to get with it."

Arkansas State got no closer than 13 points, while MTSU's biggest lead was 80-50 in the final minute.

"We just need to play defense, rebound and stay focused," said MTSU junior forward Amber Holt, who had 19 points and seven rebounds. "We had a great crowd and we want to win for them, too."

MTSU missed a golden opportunity to put the game away in the first half when it forced 20 Arkansas State turnovers.

However, the Lady Raiders shot just 37 percent from the field and struggled from the perimeter (6-of-18 3-pointers). Meanwhile, when Arkansas State did beat MTSU's press and operate in the half-court setting, it sizzled. The Indians hit 11-of-16 (69 percent) and canned 4-of-5 3-pointers.

"We just didn't play well in the first half like we can," Insell said. "We got caught up in the crowd and not the game. But we came out in the second half and played like we can. We shot the ball better and kept getting turnovers."

MTSU jumped out to an 18-9 lead seven minutes in, but saw the Indians storm back to tie the score, 23-23, with 6:09 left when Ashley Anderson scored inside.

The Lady Raiders grabbed their biggest first-half lead, 39-29, with 57 seconds left before ASU's Rudy Sims hit a 3-pointer to cut the margin to 39-32 at intermission.

MTSU freshman Brandi Brown added 12 points, all on 3-pointers. Arkansas State was led by senior post Adrianne Davie's 16 points.

With her fan club on the opposing bench, MTSU's Chrissy Givens couldn't resist putting on a show.

After scoring a season-high 33 points in the No. 20 Lady Raiders' 75-62 win over Arkansas-Little Rock, Givens was asked to speak to the Trojans. She entered the opposing locker room to a standing ovation moments after cutting UALR's throats in a Sun Belt showdown.

Givens was MTSU's brightest star during an otherwise dim performance.

The usual sharp-shooting Lady Raiders (17-3, 9-0) made just 26 percent from 3-point range, narrowly missing their season low of 24 percent. But Givens carried the scoring load through the team's offensive struggles.

Givens carried the Lady Raiders through some critical dry spells.

When UALR (12-8, 5-5) went on a 23-13 run midway through the second half, she scored nine of MTSU's points to hold off the hard-charging Trojans. She added eight more points in the final 5:08 amid a pivotal Lady Raiders' run.

Despite some offensive lulls, the Lady Raiders led for more than 36 minutes of the game.

Holt had 13 points, and Horton added 10 points on 5-of-5 shooting.

MTSU's backcourt made only 3-of-13 from beyond the arc, and the team shot 20 percent from 3-point range in the second half. But sophomore Johnna Abney's trey with 5:22 remaining both revived the Lady Raiders and snapped an 0-for-7 skid beyond the arc. MTSU followed Abney's 3-pointer by forcing back-to-back turnovers and going on a 9-1 run to clinch the road win.

"Coach always tells us that it doesn't matter if we're missing them, just to keep shooting and we'll make our next one," Abney said. "We feed off those 3-pointers, and we did that here, too. We got some 2s and made some steals and got it going again to finish the game."

MTSU took advantage of a pair of fast starts. The Lady Raiders jumped out to a 32-15 lead in the first half, then started the second half with a 10-3 spurt. UALR outscored MTSU 44-33 in the remainder of the game.

The Lady Raiders extended their winning streak to 14 games, the third longest in the country and only one win shy of tying the school record. A 9-0 Sun Belt record is also the team's best conference start since 1988.

"It was a tough win against a good team," Insell said. "We got some key turnovers in key spots, and that helped us get a 13-point win. That's the bottom line."

Freshman Anshel Cooper led UALR with 20 points on 8-of-11 shooting. Kim Sitzmann added 18 points, but committed seven turnovers.

Middle Tennessee began the second half with an 18-2 run, breaking open a one-point game at the half, as the 19th-ranked Blue Raiders tied a school-record with their 15th straight victory in a 70-56 win over North Texas Wednesday night at the Super Pit.

Middle Tennessee (18-3, 10-0 Sun Belt) led by just one at the half after some sloppy play in the opening 20 minutes. The Blue Raiders rode the quick start and better defensive pressure after halftime, outscoring the Mean Green, 29-10, in the first 12 minutes of the second half.

The Blue Raiders opened the lead to as many as 20 points after the break, but UNT made a 10-0 run, cutting the Middle Tennessee lead to 12, but a 3-pointer from the corner by Starr Orr with 3:30 remaining sealed the victory.

Chrissy Givens led all scorers with 26 points, but the Blue Raiders shot just 40 percent from the floor in the game. Amber Holt added 16 points in the win for Middle Tennessee, their ninth road victory of the season and 10th away from home this year. Krystle Horton grabbed 10 rebounds and scored four points.

Despite a very shaky opening 20 minutes, the Blue Raiders led 32-31 at the break after failing to score for the final 3:36 of the half. Givens scored 15 before intermission but picked up her third foul on a charging call with 4:15 remaining in the break.

North Texas (5-13, 2-6 SBC) handled the Middle Tennessee full-court press fairly well in the half and Amber Jackson was an All-American, scoring 15 of the Mean Green's 31 points. Middle Tennessee used a three-quarters court and half-court trap in the second half, forcing 12 turnovers after intermission.

"[North Texas] is very athletic. They have lateral quickness and [Amber] Jackson is just deadly. She just did a great job," head coach Rick Insell said. "Right off the bat we let her get off.

"Then we got Chrissy Givens in foul trouble but I felt like we'd be alright. But they came out and really stuck it to us. They did a great job. They were prepared. They shut down some of the things we like to do and they did that because they were so athletic."

The Blue Raiders open a three-game homestand Sunday with a 2 p.m. contest against Western Division leader Louisiana-Lafayette.

It looked like MTSU might die by the 3-pointer against Louisiana-Lafayette Sunday afternoon.

However, after a horrific shooting performance in the first half, the No. 19-ranked Lady Raiders erupted with a second-half scoring frenzy that propelled them to a 84-57 victory before a crowd of 5,228 at Murphy Center.

MTSU missed its first nine 3-point attempts and made only 3-of-23 in the first half. However, the Lady Raiders made 9-of-25 in the second half. The Lady Raiders set a school record with 48 3-point attempts.

MTSU won its 16th consecutive game, which set a school record, and improved to 19-3 overall and 11-0 in the Sun Belt Conference. UL-Lafayette dropped to 17-6 and 9-3.

"It's a great win," Insell said. "I think we've been a little tired, but hopefully we're over that. We're just glad to be back at home."

Leading just 33-29 at halftime, the Lady Raiders opened the second half with an 18-5 run to take a 51-34 lead with 15:23 remaining.

Horton stole the ball from UL-Lafayette's Yolanda Jones on the Ragin' Cajuns' first possession of the second half and drove in for a layup to give MTSU a six-point cushion.

Freshman guard Chelsia Lymon hit consecutive 3-pointers, while Abney hit one and Brown two on three straight possessions to give the Lady Raiders a 57-34 lead with 13:10 left.

"Our plan was to make them shoot from the perimeter," said UL-Lafayette coach J. Kelley Hall. "We knew they're capable of making them, but we felt if they hit 10 or 11 we could still win. We've given up 11 and won this year. We felt like we should have had a lead at halftime."

MTSU held UL-Lafayette to 39 percent shooting and scored 30 points off the 29 Ragin' Cajuns floor mistakes.

Horton was also a key factor defensively, holding Jones to only 10 points — eight below her average.

"We knew she was a good player and we were well prepared," Horton said. "We knew she was capable of taking one on five, but we did a good job on her."

Horton had a double-double with 13 points and 12 rebounds. She also had three assists and three steals.

"Thirteen points and 12 rebounds ... I'll take that every night," added Insell.

Brown added 15 points in only 14 minutes of play, while Lymon had nine points and Amber Holt eight.

MTSU's streak wasn't in jeopardy, but the Lady Raiders did get a quick wake-up call Wednesday night at Murphy Center.

After a sluggish start, however, MTSU built a 14-point halftime lead and exploded with a 30-10 run in the first eight minutes of the second half to whip Denver 82-58 before a crowd of 3, 227.

MTSU, ranked No. 20 in the Associated Press poll and No. 19 in the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll, won its 17th straight game and improved to 20-3 overall and 12-0 in the Sun Belt. It's the fourth straight year the Lady Raiders have won at least 20 games.

MTSU led 37-23 at halftime before outscoring Denver 13-2 in less than four minutes and doubling up the Pioneers, 50-25.

Senior guard Chrissy Givens picked up her fourth foul with 13:20 remaining with MTSU leading 57-31. The Lady Raiders not only maintained the advantage but led by as many as 31 points.

Five MTSU players scored in double figures, led by Givens' 16. Freshman forward Brandi Brown had 15, junior forward Amber Holt 13, junior guard Starr Orr 11 and freshman guard Jackie Pickel 10.

MTSU fell behind 10-4 and trailed 14-9 before taking the lead, 17-14, on a Johnna Abney 3-pointer with 12:13 remaining.

Denver refused to wilt, however, as it stayed within three points until MTSU closed the final nine minutes of the half with a 17-6 run to take a 37-23 halftime lead.

Denver had success early breaking down MTSU's press and avoiding turnovers, yet it still finished with 13 in the first half.

However, MTSU had issues offensively, turning the ball over an uncharacteristic nine times in the first half.

The Lady Raiders shot 50 percent and hit five first-half 3-pointers during their key run.

Holt had a huge first half, scoring 11 points, pulling down six rebounds and dishing out four assists. She was 5-of-5 from the field.

MTSU returns to action Saturday when it plays host to South Alabama at 3 p.m. The Lady Raiders beat the Jaguars, 93-58, in their Sun Belt Conference opener.

MTSU coach Rick Insell made a statement Saturday, and his star player took it to heart.

Insell pulled senior Chrissy Givens from the court with nine minutes to play in the first half against South Alabama, and she did not return until the second half.

Givens made up for the lost time and her supporting cast — in particular Amber Holt — didn't miss a beat as the Lady Raiders whipped the Jaguars 86-58 before a crowd of 3,911 at Murphy Center.

MTSU, ranked No. 19 in the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll and No. 20 in the Associated Press poll, won its 18th straight game and improved to 21-3 overall and 13-0 in the Sun Belt Conference. South Alabama fell to 11-12 and 5-8.

"She wasn't doing what I wanted her to do," Insell said of taking Givens out of the game. "I love her, I wouldn't trade her for nobody, but she was missing one- and two-footers and I decided she needed to sit.

"She came back in the second half and did was she needed to do. She got everyone involved."

Givens finished with 16 points, including 14 in the second half. She also had six assists, five rebounds and five steals.

"I knew when he took me out I wasn't going back in," Givens said. "I wasn't knocking down shots and what does that say to our younger players?

"I'm very pleased that we played so well when I wasn't in there. It should give us a lot more confidence."

Holt, meanwhile, had her most dominant game in conference play with 27 points and eight rebounds. She hit 11-of-16 shots, including 3-of-6 from 3-point range.

MTSU held South Alabama scoreless for the first 5:42 of the first half en route to building a 10-2 advantage.

The Lady Raiders allowed just four points in the first eight minutes and stretched the lead to 17-4.

However, MTSU was not sharp offensively, shooting only 42 percent in the first half. The Lady Raiders led by as many as 19 points, but South Alabama scored the last seven points of the half to pull within 37-26 at intermission.

MTSU opened the second half with an 18-6 run to build a 55-32 lead with 15:47 left. The Lady Raiders led by as many as 30 points.

Junior guard Starr Orr had 11 points, all in the first half, while freshman guard Jackie Pickel had nine points and freshman guard Chelsia Lymon eight.

MTSU shot 62 percent in the second half and 51 percent overall. The Lady Raiders forced 23 turnovers that resulted in 26 points.

Chrissy Givens scored 18 points in the first half and Amber Holt had 20 in the second half, as 18th-ranked Middle Tennessee held off a tough Louisiana-Monroe team, 83-70, Wednesday night at Fant-Ewing Coliseum, extending the Blue Raiders school-record winning streak to 19 games.

Middle Tennessee (22-3, 14-0 Sun Belt) won their 10th road game of the season and ninth in a row. The Blue Raiders have not lost a game since November 26 and own the nation's third longest winning streak. The squad's record is the best in school history after 25 games as well.

Middle Tennessee led 45-32 at halftime, but ULM pulled to 68-58 with 7:53 remaining. The Blue Raiders pulled away behind Holt in the second half when the junior was 8-for-14, using an isolation play on the leftside of the court to score on trip after trip down the floor.

Holt finished with 25 points and Givens had 24, leading four Blue Raiders in double figures. Krystle Horton netted 13 points and Chelsia Lymon had 11 off the bench, including a fall-away 3-pointer with three minutes left in the game that put a dagger in the Warhawks.

After Givens had her high school jersey retired on Tuesday night, she played in her hometown for the first time in her career on Wednesday. The senior set the tone early, scoring nine of the team's first 14 points of the game.

Givens scored 18 points in the first half in all on 6-of-9 shooting from the field and 6-of-8 from the foul line. Horton and Lymon added eight points apiece for the Blue Raiders, who had 11 turnovers in the half but forced 15 by the Warhawks. Both teams shot better than 65 percent in the opening 20 minutes, including 70 percent (16-of-23) for Middle Tennessee.

In the second half Holt took over and actually missed at least four other shots in close. She hit eight field goals in the last 20 minutes and followed a 27-point effort on Saturday against South Alabama with 25 points in tonight's victory.

"When Chrissy [Givens] got Amber [Holt] involved in that isolation, [Amber] was able to make some big baskets for us," head coach Rick Insell said. "Chelsia [Lymon] and Johnna [Abney] and even Brandi Brown stepping up and hitting those 3-pointers when they did gave us a nice cushion."

The Blue Raiders shot a season-best 60 percent from the field, hitting 31-of-52, and making 6-for-9 on 3-pointers. Middle Tennessee also made 15-of-21 free throws.

Louisiana-Monroe ended the contest with 26 turnovers but made up for it by hitting 61 percent from the floor. Nedra Watson led the Warhawks with 15 points, while LeJeanna Howard had 14 and Shannon Lloyd netted 13.

MTSU had the look and the heart of a champion Sunday at Western Kentucky.

Despite being plagued with foul troubles, the loss of point guard Chelsia Lymon to a knee injury and a seven-point deficit in the first half, the Lady Raiders summoned the wherewithal to storm back and handily defeat Western Kentucky, 78-63, before a crowd of 4,492 at E.A. Diddle Arena.

"I'm real proud of our young ladies," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "We did have foul problems. We are aggressive and they were fouls."

No. 18-ranked MTSU improved to 23-3 overall and 15-0 in the Sun Belt, and it notched its 20th consecutive victory. It also was the Lady Raiders first win at Western Kentucky in the regular season since 2001. The Lady Toppers dropped to 17-6 and 11-3.

In the first half, senior forward Krystle Horton was whistled for her third foul with 14:07 remaining, while sophomore point guard Johnna Abney picked up her third foul with 10:51 left. Meanwhile, Lymon suffered a knee injury midway through the half and missed the rest of the game.

However, despite trailing by as many as seven points, MTSU rallied to take a 34-33 halftime lead.

"We felt real good at the half," said MTSU senior guard Chrissy Givens. "We had players like Lakira Boyd and Latoya Barclay who played great. Coach always says be ready when it's your time. Without Lakira and Barclay, we wouldn't have had this game."

Without Givens and junior forward Amber Holt, MTSU would have been in trouble.

Holt poured in a game-high 24 points and had seven rebounds, while Givens had 22 points, 12 rebounds and seven assists.

Western Kentucky did a good job controlling MTSU's 3-point shooting (5-of-12), but Givens, Holt and Horton dominated in the paint. Horton scored all 13 of her points in the decisive second half.

"Teams are taking the 3-pointer away from us, but when they do that we've got Amber, Chrissy and Krystle to go to inside," Insell said.

Western Kentucky's Kenzie Rich opened the second half with a 3-pointer to give Lady Toppers a 36-34 lead, but MTSU went on a 16-2 run to take a 50-38 lead with 15:38 left.

"We've got to put together a 40-minute basketball game," said Western Kentucky coach Mary Taylor Cowles. "... They have runs like that and those are the types of things you have to eliminate."

Western Kentucky got as close as seven points, but the Lady Raiders used a 13-0 spurt to go ahead 67-47 with 5:23 remaining.

MTSU shot 59 percent in the second half, while Western Kentucky shot only 36 percent.

Western Kentucky was led by senior guard Tiffany Zaragoza with 22 points, while Kelly had 14.

MTSU certainly got the close game coach Rick Insell said his team needed.

Florida International pushed the No. 17 Lady Raiders to the limit Thursday night before they finally held off the Panthers 66-59 before a crowd of 4,907 at Murphy Center.

MTSU led by as many as 21 points in the second half and looked to be on its way to another Sun Belt Conference blowout. However, the Panthers never wilted.

"We needed this game," Insell said. "We needed this type of game because we're going to have these types of games down the stretch."

MTSU started the second half with a 7-0 run to take a 44-23 lead with 17:33 remaining, but FIU answered with 10 unanswered points and eventually trimmed the Lady Raiders lead to six, 55-49, with 6:39 left in the game.

"They never panicked and we did some strange things," Insell said. "But we'll give [our players] a couple of days off and maybe will flush it out of our system."

MTSU won its school-record 21st consecutive game to improve to 24-3 overall and 16-0 in conference play. The 24 regular-season wins is a new school record, breaking the 1982-83 team that went on to win a record 26 games. The 16 sbc wins also ties Louisiana Tech for the most victories in Sun Belt history.

With MTSU struggling offensively throughout the second half (39.4 percent), senior forward Krystle Horton turned in one of her most key performances of the season.

The 6-foot-2 forward scored 10 of her 12 points in the second half and tied Chrissy Givens with a team-high nine rebounds. She also had a team-high six assists and three steals.

Horton's quickness and ability to drive to the goal hurt the much bigger FIU frontline, particularly when she was matched up with 6-4 center Lasma Jekabsone.

MTSU had an uncharacteristic 20 turnovers, but forced 28 FIU floor mistakes.

"We didn't take care of the basketball very well tonight," said Givens, who led MTSU with 17 points. "We didn't execute like we can, but we're glad to be 16-0 in the Sun Belt."

MTSU had no answer for FIU sophomore forward Marquita Hadley, a 6-foot bruising and athletic forward who had a game-high 23 points, including 10-of-11 shooting.

After FIU got as close as six points, MTSU extended the lead back to 12, 64-52, with 3:57 remaining. The Panthers never got closer than the final seven-point margin of victory.

MTSU also got 15 points from Holt, while freshman guard Jackie Pickel hit three 3-pointers to finish with nine points.

Jekabsone had 13 points and a game-high 11 rebounds for FIU, which dropped to 15-10 overall and 9-6 in conference play.

Seniors Chrissy Givens and Krystle Horton both recorded double-doubles and 17th-ranked Middle Tennessee used a 16-5 run to start the second half to take the lead and then held on for a 68-60 victory over Troy Thursday night at Trojan Arena. The win is the 22nd in a row for the Blue Raiders, who also set a Sun Belt Conference record with their 17th SBC win of the season.

Middle Tennessee (25-3, 17-0 Sun Belt) eclipsed a mark set twice by Louisiana Tech in the Sun Belt, recording its 17th consecutive win in conference play. The Blue Raiders were led by Givens with 31 points and 13 rebounds, her sixth double-double of the season, and Horton, who recorded 14 points and 10 rebounds.

The Blue Raiders struggled mightily from the field in the first half, shooting 34 percent, and the Trojans barely missed, hitting almost 60 percent for most of the half. Troy used a 24-6 run in the first half to open a lead as many as 11 points, the biggest deficit for Middle Tennessee since its last loss, November 26 at Tennessee.

Givens kept the Blue Raiders in the game with 19 points, while Horton added 10, including six at the foul line.

The epitome of the half came in the final seconds, when Jackie Pickel missed a good look from 3-point range, but Starr Orr grabbed the rebound and took a one-handed shot from about four feet just as the buzzer expired, only to have it roll all the way around the rim and miss. Still Middle Tennessee trailed just 36-33 at the break.

In the second half Amber Holt scored six of the first 12 points of the half for the Blue Raiders and Givens gave Middle Tennessee the lead with a bucket with 15:02 remaining. Middle Tennessee built the lead to as many as 12 points in the second half at 63-51 with 4:16 to play, but the Trojans refused to go away.

Troy went on a 9-2 run over the next three minutes to close to within five with 1:26 left, but Latoya Barclay hit two free throws to seal the victory with 37 seconds remaining.

The turning point of the second half may have come with just under five minutes remaining in the game and Troy down just six points. Troy's Amy Lewis beat her defender on a backdoor cut and had an easy lay-up, but she missed the gimme and the Blue Raiders came back down, with Barclay hitting a 16-footer from the wing to extend the lead back to eight. Givens then had two straight buckets to put Middle Tennessee up a dozen with just over four minutes to play.

Troy also went 6:20 at one point in the second half without a point, with the Blue Raiders outscoring the Trojans, 12-2.

Holt scored 14 points and had seven rebounds despite playing just 10 minutes in the first half after picking up two fouls. Givens was 15-for-29 from the field for 31 points, setting a career-high for makes and tying her career-high for attempts in a game. She also added six steals.

Horton was 8-for-9 at the foul line and also had a big bucket late in the game, hitting a lefthanded runner in the lane with 5:59 remaining.

It was only fitting that perfection was achieved on the strength of Chrissy Givens' and Krystle Horton's play Saturday afternoon.

The two MTSU seniors played the final game of their career at Murphy Center and combined for 58 points in a 78-63 victory over Florida Atlantic before a crowd of 5,505.

MTSU ended the regular season with a 26-3 record, an 18-0 Sun Belt Conference record and became the first team since Louisiana Tech (2001) to go undefeated in league play.

Givens' 31 points was two shy of her season high, while Horton scored a season-high 27 points and grabbed 10 rebounds.

"It's like a fairy tale," Givens said. "To come here four years ago and go out like this is great. I don't want to wake up. It's like a dream come true. I'm really glad the way it ended."

Added Horton: "It couldn't of ended any better. I'm glad I was able to have a game like that. I was hoping I wouldn't be nervous after the pregame stuff, and it's exciting to be where we're at."

MTSU's 26 victories is tied for the most in school history and it currently has a 23-game winning streak.

"I think when we clinched the No. 1 seed at Western [Kentucky], it got a little easier," Insell said of dealing with the pressure of trying to go unbeaten in league play. "I think we realized it was very possible, and we felt if we ran the table, we'd also clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament."

Though MTSU won by 13 points, it was a struggle the entire first half and in the early stages of the second. The Lady Raiders led 32-26 at halftime and just 41-38 with 16 minutes left before going on a 18-0 run to take a 59-38 advantage with 10:57 remaining.

"We didn't shoot the ball well," Insell said. "We're not real pleased with the way we played, but we won and that's all the mattered today."

MTSU suffered through one of its worst offensive halves of the season in the first 20 minutes when it made only 12-of-46 shots. If you took away Horton's 6-of-6 performance, the rest of the team made only 6-of-40 field goal attempts.

Despite scoring 11 points in the first half, Givens made only 3-of-14 shots, while junior forward Amber Holt was 0-of-6.

"There's something about this team that when things look bad, somebody gives us a spark," Givens said. "Starr Orr will get a big steal or Krystle [Horton] will get a big rebound. It seems when it starts to get close, we get a spark and start clicking."

Orr added seven points and nine rebounds for MTSU, which shot 34 percent. The Lady Raiders made just 3-of-26 3-pointers (11 percent).

FAU (6-24, 2-16) was led by Mistoria Brown with 14 points and Cristal Randolph with 12.

Any questions about whether MTSU had lost its focus or was in a rut were quickly answered Saturday in the quarterfinals of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament.

MTSU stormed out to a 14-0 lead and continued to ride the momentum to a 79-52 blowout over South Alabama at Louisiana-Lafayette's Cajun Dome.

The three-time defending champions and 17th-ranked Lady Raiders improved to 27-3 overall and won their 24th consecutive game — the longest streak in the nation after Duke lost Saturday to North Carolina State. The 27 victories also set a school record.

MTSU won its 11th straight tournament game. The Lady Raiders are 15-3 all-time in the tournament. The Lady Raiders advanced to play Denver Monday at 12:30 p.m.

MTSU held South Alabama scoreless until the 14:44 mark when Valencia Boswell hit two free throws, and the Jaguars didn't manage their first field goal until 10:17 left before halftime.

By that point, the Lady Raiders had sizzled offensively and built a 25-2 lead before Whitney Woodard hit the Jaguars' first field goal. The Lady Raiders led 39-6 with 4:20 left before halftime.

MTSU shot 54 percent in the first half and went to the locker room with a 46-18 lead.

The Lady Raiders had a balanced scoring effort, led by Givens' 24 points. Senior forward Krystle Horton and junior forward Amber Holt had 13 points apiece, while junior back-up guard Latoya Barclay had all 10 of her points in the first half.

Barclay was a key in MTSU's first-half dismantling of the Jaguars, recording three steals and hitting two 3-pointers.

"Coach Insell has confidence in me, and when I go in there I need to do what I do," Barclay said. "I just played my game and did what I can do."

MTSU scored 42 points off 25 turnovers by South Alabama, which had a combined 84 in its three games against the Lady Raiders this season.

"That's our bread and butter," Givens said of turning turnovers into points. "I wouldn't want to bring the ball up against Starr or Latoya. When they're defending like that, we're going to get a lot of turnovers and score off them."

MTSU didn't have a letdown in the second half, as it scored the first six points to go up 52-18 with 18:23 left. The Lady Raiders led by as many as 40 points on two occasions before the Jaguars closed the game with a 15-3 run to pull within the final 27-point margin.

"Whoever plays them (in the NCAA Tournament) is in deep trouble," said South Alabama coach Rick Pietri. "You can not simulate what they do, the way they play. Nobody plays that way."

South Alabama, which ended the season 14-16, was led by senior forward Whitney Woodard with 14 points and 11 rebounds.

MTSU's women took the suspense out of it early Monday and emphatically moved into the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game for the fifth straight year.

The No. 16-ranked Lady Raiders again used their harassing and pressing defense, which keyed their 76-50 semifinals victory over Denver at the Cajundome.

MTSU, which has won the last three league tournament titles, improved to 28-3 and extended the nation's longest winning streak to 25 games. The Lady Raiders have won 12 straight Sun Belt Tournament games.

"It's exciting to be going to the finals for the fourth time," said MTSU senior forward Krystle Horton, who played in her school-record 126th game. "We've come out with a lot of focus in the tournament. Everybody is prepared and ready for the challenge ahead of them."

MTSU jumped out to an 11-3 lead over Denver, and later used a 9-0 run to take a 25-7 advantage with 7:55 left in the first half.

"I was real pleased with the way we started the game," hea coach Rick Insell said. "We did a good job making adjustments, and I'm real satisfied with the way we picked things up."

The Lady Raiders led 43-17 at halftime and by as many as 40 points in the second half.

"I just think we have a lot of our goals still in front of us," said MTSU senior guard Chrissy Givens, who had a game-high 28 points, seven rebounds, five assists and three steals, and set the school's single-season scoring record with 695 points. "We're not just thinking about a conference championship. This is a stepping stone, and we're playing for a high seed in the NCAA Tournament."

Denver coach Pam Tanner said the Lady Raiders have the ability to do just that.

"I was surprised they didn't win in the first round last year," she said. "Whoever they play better have three guards who can take care of the basketball. ... They have the ability to go all the way to the Final Four."

Louisiana Tech is the only team in the Sun Belt to win four straight tournament championships. The Lady Techsters actually won six straight from 1996-2002.

MTSU junior forward Amber Holt had 15 points and 11 rebounds, while freshmen Brandi Brown and Jackie Pickel added nine apiece.

Denver, which barring an WNIT berth, ended its season at 20-11. The Pioneers were led by Nnenna Akotaobi's 11 points.

It was a test MTSU needed, and one it passed with grit, determination and the ability to answer anything Louisiana-Lafayette threw its way.

No. 16-ranked MTSU won its fourth consecutive Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship Tuesday, holding off the Ragin' Cajuns 77-67 in a title game that more than lived up to expectations.

"What a great game," said MTSU coach Rick Insell, whose team extended the nation's longest winning streak to 26 games and improved to 29-3. "Lafayette was well prepared, they're a quality team and they're well-coached."

MTSU is the first team since Louisiana Tech to win four straight tournament titles, and senior guard Chrissy Givens is the first player in Sun Belt history to win Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and tournament MVP awards in successive years.

"It's unbelievable, four straight," said Givens, who scored a game-high 33 points and set the tournament record for points scored (85). "It's great to see where this program is headed and it's great to be part of the building blocks."

MTSU senior forward Krystle Horton echoed Givens' sentiments.

"To be part of history is a great, great feeling," Horton said. "To be part of a group that is all about team makes it very special."

Although MTSU never trailed, it never did take off on one of its patented runs to put the game out of reach.

The Lady Raiders led by 12 in the first half, 31-19, at the 5:42 mark, but the Ragin' Cajuns (25-8) stormed back to pull within 33-29 with 2:51 left.

Givens then scored the final six points of the half, including a 10-footer at the buzzer to give the Lady Raiders a 39-29 halftime advantage.

The game stayed in the six- to 10-point range the entire second half until Amber Holt and Johnna Abney hit back-to-back 3-pointers to give MTSU a 61-45 lead with 9:43 left.

However, the Ragin' Cajuns got within 63-56 three minutes later.

"It was very important to have a game like that, with each team playing so well," said Horton, who had seven points and a team-high nine rebounds. "It prepared us for the NCAA tournament and it made us keep our focus on what we needed to do."

Holt sparked the final MTSU surge, scoring six points over a two-minute span that gave MTSU a 73-60 lead with 2:31 left.

Holt, an all-tournament selection along with Horton and Givens, finished with 20 points and seven rebounds, while Abney had 12 points — all on 3-pointers.

MTSU's Lady Raiders know what its like to win as a No. 12 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

What they didn't want to feel was the anguish of losing in the first round as a No. 5 seed.

No worries on this night as MTSU jumped all over Gonzaga Saturday from the onset and raced off for am 85-46 victory at Stanford's Maples Pavilion.

The Lady Raiders, who pulled upsets over North Carolina and North Carolina State as 13 and 12 seeds in 2004 and 2005, certainly didn't overlook No. 12 seed Gonzaga, which had won nine straight games.

"That's one thing we talked about before the game and in the huddle before the game — that we had two players, Chrissy (Givens) and Krystle (Horton), who had won two of these games as a 12 and 13 seed."

MTSU improved to 30-3 — the most wins ever in one season — and won its 27th consecutive game.

Gonzaga's season ended at 24-10. MTSU will face Marist — which upset Ohio State 67-63 late Saturday — at a time to be determined.

"We came in with the mindset that we want to go to the Final Four," Givens said. "Everybody has laughed, but we believe. Tonight we were playing this game like was to go to the Final Four and we were ready to play and we aren't going to look past anyone."

MTSU never trailed Gonzaga and used a 12-0 run midway through the first half to take a 29-10 lead with 8:42 remaining.

Gonzaga handled the Lady Raiders' press well early but eventually wilted under the pressure. The Bulldogs had 21 first-half turnovers that led to 23 Lady Raider points.

Gonzaga was averaging just 16 turnovers a game but had a season-high 37.

MTSU led by as many as 25 points in the first half and held a 44-20 halftime lead.

Gonzaga scored eight straight points during a stretch early in the second half to get within 20 points with 15:49 remaining, but the Lady Raiders had the lead back to 24 points in less than two minutes.

"Our defense was very good, with Starr (Orr) getting steals and us using our quickness," said MTSU junior Amber Holt, who had 23 points, six rebounds and four steals. "We were covering the middle good and we played our game."

Givens led all scorers with 24 points, including 18 in the first half, and added five rebounds, four assists and five steals.

"We just wanted to go out and play Middle Tennessee basketball," Givens said.

Gonzaga made its final push when it got within 19 points, 56-37, with 11:33 left, but Horton scored back-to-back baskets to give the Lady Raiders a 60-37 cushion with 9:40 left.
