Tournament History

Middle Tennessee is 6-6 in SBC Championship games since joining the league for the 2000-01 season, including last Wednesday's 72-64 win at Troy. The Blue Raiders are 5-4 in the SBC Championships under fifth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders have reached the semifinals twice (2003, 2004) and the championship once (2003) under Davis. In SBC Championships, Middle Tennessee is 3-2 in the first round, 2-2 in the quarterfinal round, 1-1 in the semifinals, and 0-1 in the championship.

Noteworthy

- Middle Tennessee is seeking its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1989.
- Middle Tennessee's six SBC road wins are the most since the 1986-87 season when it also won six.
- Point guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference third team in a vote of league coaches and media.
- Of the nine players who have seen action this season, seven are either freshmen or sophomores.
- Middle Tennessee leads the Sun Belt in scoring defense (64.0) and is third in the conference in field goal percentage defense (.421).
- Sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie is No. 10 nationally in assists with 6.1 per game.

On tap for the Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee beat Troy, 72-64, in the first round of the SBC Championships, in the third meeting of the season between the two teams and now the Blue Raiders turn their attention to No. 1 seed South Alabama, which they will be playing for the third time this season. The teams split the regular-season series with Middle Tennessee winning at South Alabama and falling to the Jaguars at home. South Alabama leads the all-time series, 8-7. Middle Tennessee and South Alabama have met once in conference tournament action with the Blue Raiders winning, 72-69, March 9, 2003 at Diddle Arena in Bowling Green, Ky. South Alabama and Middle Tennessee are in the SBC's East Division. The Jags are the defending SBC champions.

Middle Tennessee's all-time tournament play

Middle Tennessee is 29-30 all-time in conference tournament postseason action. This mark includes a 6-6 record in the Sun Belt and a 23-24 ledger in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Middle Tennessee vs. the field

Of the remaining eight teams in the SBC Championships, Middle Tennessee is 1-4 against teams in its half of the SBC Championship bracket. The Blue Raiders are 1-1 against South Alabama, 0-2 against Louisiana-Monroe, and 0-1 against North Texas. The Blue Raiders are 3-3 against the four teams in the lower portion of the bracket, including 2-0 vs. Florida Atlantic, 1-0 vs. New Orleans, 0-1 vs. Arkansas State and 0-2 vs. Western Kentucky. The Blue Raiders, seeded ninth, are the lowest remaining seed remaining in the field following last Wednesday's first-round contests. Middle Tennessee was the only lower seed to win in opening-round games.

New tournament format for SBC

The Sun Belt Conference announced a new format for its postseason tournament beginning in 2007. Beginning this season each division winner received a bye into the conference tournament, along with the team with the next best conference record regardlesss of division. The remaining 10 teams played first round games with the higher seed hosting the lower seed (seeds 4-through-8 will host first-round games). The winners of the five on-campus games advanced to join the top three seeds in Lafayette, La., where the quarterfinals, semifinals and finals will be held. Last Wednesday's first-round winners included Middle Tennessee, Louisiana-Monroe, North Texas, Florida Atlantic, and New Orleans.

Seeking to end postseason drought

Middle Tennessee will be looking to end an 18-year postseason absence by winning the Sun Belt's automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders last appeared in the NCAA Tournament in 1989 after winning the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament. They upset Florida State, 97-83, before falling to Virginia, 104-88. Middle Tennessee has played in the NCAA Tournament six times (1975, 1977, 1982, 1985, 1987, and 1989), posting a 2-6 overall record. The Blue Raiders have played in the National Invitation Tournament twice (1986, 1988), posting a 2-2 overall record.

How the Blue Raiders reached this point

Middle Tennessee reached the quarterfinals of the SBC Championships by virtue of its 72-64 win at No. 8 seed Troy last Wednesday night. The Blue Raiders, who had lost two regular-season meetings against the Trojans, used a 15-2 run late in the game to pull off the mild upset. Calvin O'Neil led the Blue Raiders with a career-high 21 points.

Kanaskie named All-Sun Belt

Middle Tennessee sophomore guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference team, earning a spot on the third team in a vote of league coaches and media, the league announced Tuesday. Kanaskie was one of 10 guards, including five on the third team, to earn a spot on the 15-member squad in a season when the SBC was perceived to be guard heavy. Kanaskie leads Middle Tennessee in scoring (12.4) and his 6.1 assist average not only leads the SBC, but also is 10th nationally. Kanaskie became the first Blue Raider in program history to register double-figure assists three times in the same season (13, 12, 11) and he is currently the only player in school history to lead his team in scoring, 3-point shooting, and assists in the same season. Kansakie's 182 assists are fifth on the single-season list. He has scored double figures in 20 games this season and has led the team in scoring 13 times, as well as leading it in assists in 24 games. He is tied for fifth on the single-season 3-point field goals made list with 65. He has made 41 consecutive starts dating to last season and his 30 starts this season are tied for ninth most by a Blue Raider in a single season. His 1,102 minutes played are sixth most by a Blue Raider in a single season. Kanaskie has played 32 minutes or more in 24 of the team's 30 games entering the SBC quarterfinals.

Kermit Davis File

In his fifth season at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders have registered four straight winning seasons under Davis, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is fourth on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 82.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 77th victory at UALR (01/20/07). He currently has 82 career victories and is two wins shy of tying Randy Wiel (84) for third on the all-time Blue Raider list. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.554) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces second-best wins mark after 125 games

Kermit Davis earned a win in his 125th game leading the Blue Raider program to give him a 71-54 mark. That record is the second-most wins for a Blue Raider coach in his first 125 games. Bruce Stewart won 83 of the first 125 games he coached at Middle Tennessee to top the list, while Jimmy Earle's 69 wins after 125 games is third most.

Davis notches 215th win

Kermit Davis secured his 215th win as a head coach against Louisiana-Lafayette (01/27/07). With four wins since, he presently has 219 career wins. He owns 153 wins in nine years at the Division I level and 66 in three years in junior college.

Kanaskie in class by himself

At the end of the regular season point guard Kevin Kanaskie is doing something no Blue Raider has in the 84-year history of the program. Entering the SBC Tournament Kanaskie is the only player to lead his team in scoring (12.4), 3-pointers (65), assists (182), and steals (31) in the same season. He moved into fifth on the single-season 3-point field goals made list with two against Troy in the quarterfinals - his 65th of the season. Kanaskie has hit at least one 3-pointer in 18 straight and 29 of the 30 games played. The only contest in which he failed to connect from beyond the arc was at Memphis.

Blue Raiders get it done on the road

Middle Tennessee set the school record for consecutive conference road wins with its sixth straight in a 61-60 win at UALR (01/20/07). Interestingly, the win streak began at UALR last February. The Blue Raiders, who have won eight of their last 12 SBC road games dating to last season, broke the previous school record of five consecutive road wins by the 1974-75 squad. The Blue Raiders saw the SBC road streak end in a 66-53 loss at North Texas (01/25/07). Middle Tennessee is 6-4 on the road in SBC contests this season and is just one of three league teams with a winning road record in conference play. The Blue Raiders notched their sixth SBC road win of the season with a 72-64 win at Troy in the quarterfinals of the SBC Championships, which equal the most road conference wins for a Middle Tennessee team since 1986-87 - a span of 20 seasons. The 1981-82 Blue Raiders won eight conference road games.

Blue Raiders enjoy SBC success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under fifth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the fourth-best winning percentage (55 percent) and has the fourth-most wins among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Western Kentucky (59), Louisiana-Lafayette (56), and South Alabama (47) are the only SBC members with more league wins than Middle Tennessee during this stretch. Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined.

Middle Tennessee SBC's best winning on road

One of the biggest reasons for Middle Tennessee's turn-around in the Sun Belt has been its ability to win on the road. Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring in 2002, Middle Tennessee was 2-17 on the road in SBC games but the Blue Raiders have 21 SBC road wins since - the most road wins of any SBC member during his four-plus seasons leading the program. Middle Tennessee, South Alabama, and Western Kentucky are the only Sun Belt Conference teams with winning road records since the start of the 2002-03 season.

Does the day of week matter?

If the day of the week the Blue Raiders play does matter then Middle Tennessee has to like its chances in the SBC Championships. The Blue Raiders are a combined 6-2 on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. They are 1-1 on Sunday, 4-1 on Monday and 1-0 on Tuesday. The SBC Championship quarterfinals are Sunday, semifinals on Monday, and the title game is Tuesday.

O'Neil in double figures good news for Blue Raiders

When Calvin O'Neil scores double figures the Blue Raiders are 6-1 this season with six straight wins. The only loss was at Tennessee in the season opener when he scored 11. O'Neil has played the best basketball of his young Blue Raider career down the stretch and is coming off a career-high 21-point performance against Troy in the SBC quarterfinals. Prior to the Troy game O'Neil had the second highest scoring output of his career with 15 in a win against Florida Atlantic in the regular-season finale. He is averaging 6.5 points for the season but he is averaging 18 points and shooting 60 percent from the field (12-of-20) in the last two games. In his last three games, O'Neil has 13 assists and just three turnovers.

Johnson on upswing

Nigel Johnson has scored double figures in three straight games for the first time as a Blue Raider and his play has sparked higher offensive output at the end of the season. Johnson helped spark Middle Tennessee to its highest-scoring output of the season with his second straight double-figure scoring game against Florida Atlantic in the regular-season finale. Johnson is averaging 11 points per game during the last three contests - five points higher than his season average.

Blue finishing strong

Senior Tim Blue is putting together his best stretch of the season at the most important time. He has scored double figures in three of the last five games, including 14 against Florida Atlantic in the regular-season finale, and he has pulled seven or more rebounds in four of the last five games. Over the last five games Blue is averaging 11.2 points and 7.2 rebounds while shooting 61 percent (23-of-38) from the field.

Kanaskie joins elite company

Sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie became the only player in school history to produce three double-figure assist games in the same season with 11 against Florida Atlantic in the regular-season finale, while committing no turnovers. Kanaskie, who is No. 10 nationally in assists per game (6.1), also had 12 in an earlier game at Florida Atlantic and a career-high 13 against Louisiana-Lafayette. He has an eye-popping 7.2-to-1 assist-to-turnover ration in those three games with 36 assists and just five turnovers. They are also three of the top 11 assist games in school history.

Kanaskie climbing Blue Raider charts

Kevin Kanaskie's ability to get players involved and put them good scoring opportunities has him putting up record numbers on a team that doesn't produce gaudy offensive numbers. He had a career-high 13 assists against Louisiana-Lafayette. Kanaskie has 182 for the season and 256 in his career. He is fifth on the single season list for assists at Middle Tennessee and the 252 career assists are ninth on the all-time list. Kanaskie's current 6.1 assists per game average is third on the single-season list and is the highest single-season average since Gerald Harris averaged 6.7 in 1988-89. Kanaskie's 13-assist performance against the Ragin' Cajuns were seventh most in a single game and the most by a Blue Raider since Greg Christian handed out 14 against Kennesaw State in 1990. Kanaskie assisted on 13 of Middle Tennessee's 25 field goals against Louisiana-Lafayette and he's assisted 26 percent of the team's 700 field goals this season. Over the last three games Kanaskie has 20 assists and just five turnovers.

Kanaskie responsible for 40 percent of offense

Kevin Kanaskie may not be confused as a one-man wrecking crew; however, the sophomore's numbers indicate he is as valuable to Middle Tennessee as any single player is to his team in the Sun Belt. Kanaskie leads the team in scoring at 12.4 points per game and when you factor in his 6.1 assists per game (considering each assist is worth at least two points) he is generating 40 percent of the Blue Raiders' offense. All told Kanaskie has scored 371 points and his assists have led to a minimum of 364 points for a total of 735 of Middle Tennessee's 1,880 points this season or 24.5 points per game. The Blue Raiders average 62.7 points per contest.

Kanaskie also scoring option for Blue Raiders

Sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie turned in his second double double of the season against Louisiana-Lafayette with a game-high 18 points and a career-high 13 assists against just two turnovers. Kanaskie recorded his first career double double 17 days earlier when he scored 19 points and added 12 assists against Florida Atlantic (01/10/07). Kanaskie has scored double figures in 20 of 30 games this season and he has led the Blue Raiders in scoring 12 times. He is the only player to start in every game and he is tied for third in the SBC for minutes played at 36.7 per game. He has made 41 consecutive starts dating to last season, the longest such streak on the team.

Kanaskie puts on shooting clinic at Troy

Sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie has enjoyed a solid season for Middle Tennessee but he turned in his best offensive performance of the season at Troy Thursday (02/22/07). Kanaskie scored a career-high 26 points and also established career highs for field goals made (10) and attempted (20), while tying his career marks for 3-point field goals made (5) and attempted (11). He was 8-of-12 in the second half when he scored 21 of his 26 points. The five 3-pointers against Troy give Kanaskie 62 for the season, which moves him into a tie for seventh on the single-season list in that category. He needs eight more treys to move into 10th on the career 3-point field goals made list. The 26-point performance against Troy was the most by a Blue Raider this season and the highest output since Mike Dean scored 30 against Arkansas State on Jan. 15, 2004. Kanaskie, who is 11th nationally in assists per game, also dished out five helpers and is averaging 6.0 for the season, which is third on the single-season list.

Frosh making solid impact for Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee freshman guard/forward Desmond Yates has proven to be an impact player during his rookie year in the Sun Belt Conference. Yates, who is averaging 10.9 ppg., is second among SBC freshmen in scoring. He is averaging 11.9 points in league games. Yates has turned in 18 double figure scoring games this season and he has led the Blue Raiders in scoring nine times. He ranks fifth in the SBC in field goal percentage (132-245, 53.9). Yates has scored double figures in 17 of the team's last 25 games and he is averaging 10.4 points and 3.7 rebounds over the last 10 games. Yates has scored 21 or more in a game four times this season, including his career high of 23 twice (vs. Belmont and Arkansas State).

Youth being served at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee features the youngest team in the Sun Belt in terms of game experience. The Blue Raiders have started two freshmen and three sophomores at times this season, while bringing another freshman and sophomore off the bench. Louisiana-Lafayette is the next youngest team in the SBC with five freshmen and one sophomore. Of the nine players who see action for Middle Tennessee, four entered the season with no Division I experience. Middle Tennessee's two leading scorers are a sophomore (Kevin Kanaskie, 12.4 ppg), and a freshman (Desmond Yates, 10.9). Additionally, sophomores Calvin O'Neil, Nigel Johnson and Theryn Hudson have seen action in every game, while freshman Darren Avery has played in 28 of 30, earning eight starts. Another freshman, Dino Hair, has played in 24 games and he has earned one start. In all, Middle Tennessee's three freshmen have combined for 26 starts. The seven underclassmen are responsible for 73 percent of the scoring, 67 percent of the rebounding, and 74 percent of the team's minutes so far this season.

Shooting touch nothing new for Young

Kyle Young, who tied the Paradise Jam record for shooting percentage in three games (72.7 percent), is second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage through 30 games with a 58.3 percentage (98-of-168). Young entered the 2006-07 season fifth on the career field goal percentage list at Middle Tennessee with a mark of 56.8 and has seen that rise to 57.3 percent (315-of-550), which is currently fourth on the career list at Middle Tennessee. Young shot 65.2 percent from the field in 2005-06, which was third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee. The only players in school history ever to shoot higher than Young in a single season are Warren Kidd, who shot 70 percent from the field in 1990-91, and 66.4 in 1991-92, and Bob Martin, who shot 57.4 from the field in 1976-78.

Young ties record in 'Paradise'

Kyle Young proved to be one of the most accurate shooters ever to play in the Paradise Jam Tournament during the team's stay at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Young was 16-of-22 from the field for a 72.7 field-goal percentage, which equaled the Paradise Jam Tournament record for best field-goal percentage by an individual. Young tied the mark set by Eastern Kentucky's Alonzo Hird (16-of-22) in 2005. Young was 4-of-5 from the field vs. then No. 10 Alabama, 5-of-7 vs. Toledo, and 7-of-10 vs. College of Charleston.

Young has been constant for Blue Raiders

Kyle Young has been a fixture in the Middle Tennessee lineup throughout his Blue Raider career and his consistency and durability have placed him on the program's career Top 10 list for games played and games started. Young has played in 117 career games, which is tied for second on the all-time list. Young's 88 career starts are sixth on the all-time list.

Young blocking opponents' path

With one block against Troy in the SBC quarterfinals, Kyle Young has 15 on the season and 59 for his career - fourth on the career list. Young is the sixth player in the Blue Raiders' 84-year history to register 50 or more career blocks.

Outshooting foes has been key once again

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under fifth-year coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 13-5 this season and 69-7 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo earlier this season despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 42 of the last 47 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition. The Blue Raiders, on the other hand, are 0-10 this season when the opponent has a higher shooting percentage.

Blue Raiders get defensive

Middle Tennessee has held 11 of its 29 opponents to 59 points or less this season and the team is 10-1 in those games. The Blue Raiders lead the SBC in scoring defense at 64.0 points per game. The Blue Raiders are third in the SBC in field goal percentage defense (.421). Middle Tennessee put together one of its finest defensive displays of the season on its first SBC road trip of the season at Florida International and South Alabama. The Blue Raiders held FIU to 46 points which were the second fewest under Head Coach Kermit Davis against a SBC member and the fewest since a 60-42 win against the Golden Panthers, March 1, 2004 - a span of 75 games. FIU managed just 13 field goals and its 24.5 shooting percentage (13-53) was the lowest against the Blue Raiders in a SBC contest. Middle Tennessee followed that performance by limiting defending SBC champion South Alabama to 51 points - its second lowest scoring output of the season.

Second-half vs. Denver a defensive dandy

Middle Tennessee tightened the clamps on Denver in the second half of its 75-49 win against the Pioneers (02/01/07). After allowing 32 first-half points, the Blue Raiders gave up just 17 points in the second half, limiting the Pioneers to just four field goals and an 18.2 percent showing from the field over the game's final 20 minutes. The four second-half field goals were the fewest allowed in a half by Middle Tennessee this season.

Unselfish play sparks top output

Middle Tennessee scored a season-high 19 points against Florida Atlantic in the regular-season finale and a key was the unselfish play exhibited by the guards. The Blue Raiders had a season-high 21 assists on their 29 field goals made and the starting trio of guards (Kevin Kanaskie, Nigel Johnson, and Calvin O'Neil) combined for 19 of them with just one turnover. The trio also combined for 33 points in the win.

Vogelsberg will redshirt in 2006-07

Senior guard Adam Vogelsberg will take a redshirt season in 2006-07 and return to the squad for the 2007-08 season.. Vogelsberg has been out of action since suffering a broken bone in his right foot in preseason practice the week of the opener. He made his first appearance of the season against Western Kentucky Thursday (12/28/06) and played three minutes late in the second half before returning to the bench. After spending an additional three weeks in a cast, Vogelsberg has returned to practice. Vogelsberg was an All-SBC performer last season and a preseason all-league pick this year. He was the team's leading scorer in 2005-06 and ended the season in the Top 10 of four Middle Tennessee single-season lists.

Team is 6-1 this season when scoring double figures ... Established career highs for points with 21 and tied career high for field goals made (6) in SBC quarterfinal win at Troy (02/28/07), while also setting personal bests for free throws made (8), attempted (8), and field goal attemtps (11) ... Has produced two of his top three career scoring games in last two outings, during which time he's averaging 18 points and shooting 60 percent (12-of-20) from the field ... Scored 17 points vs. Louisiana-Lafayette (01/27/07) ... Led team in scoring for second time in career with 15 in home win vs. Florida Atlantic (02/24/07) for the second-highest scoring game of his caree and has led squad in scoring in last two games and three times in his career ... Established career highs for field goals made (6) and attempted vs. Fla. Atlantic (02/24/07) and tied season high with two steals ... Has 13 assists and three turnover in last three games ... Had solid all-around game against Tennessee in the opener with 11 points and a team-high eight rebounds, which established a new career high ... Enjoyed a strong road trip against Florida International and South Alabama, where his point total wasn't as high; however, his presence on the perimeter keyed the Blue Raiders' defensive charge in each win ... Connected on two 3-point attempts against Troy (01/06/07), which set a new career high and also was his first 3-pointer since hitting his only attempt against Indiana State (11/30/06) ... Played career-high 40 minutes at New Orleans, where he produced his fourth career double-figure scoring game with 10.

Blue Raiders stay alive, beat Troy

TROY, Ala. — MTSU withstood Troy's final charge and lived to travel to Louisiana-Lafayette.

The No. 9 seed Blue Raiders defeated eighth-seeded Troy 72-64 in the first round of the Sun Belt Tournament Wednesday.

MTSU will play No. 1 seed and defending Sun Belt champion South Alabama on Sunday at 12:30 p.m. at Louisiana-Lafayette in the quarterfinal round.

"We're excited to still be playing and to be going to Lafayette," MTSU coach Kermit Davis said. " ... I know it's a coach's cliché, but we're the eighth seed and we think we can win it. That's how balanced this league is, and all eight teams have a chance in Lafayette."

Most of the way through a tight game that featured 20 lead changes, the Blue Raiders finally sprinted to a 60-47 lead with 1:31 remaining.

But Troy's final charge put some drama back into a pressure-packed game.

"When we were up 13, it felt like we were up one," Davis said. "I've seen it too many times from Troy, and I've seen the tapes when it's happened."

Troy made three straight 3-pointers to cut MTSU's lead to 60-56 with 54 seconds remaining, as the Blue Raiders committed two turnovers against the Trojans' full-court press.

But MTSU, the Sun Belt's best foul-shooting team, buried 12-of-14 free throws in the final 52 seconds to clinch the tournament victory.

"I thought (the Blue Raiders) were very relaxed and played with a lot of confidence for a young team," Troy coach Don Maestri said. "They played great in a pressure game on the road.

"Give them a lot of credit. They came into an environment that was very vocal and stayed very poised. Even when things got tight, they kept their composure."

Incidentally, MTSU's most significant win and run of the season was paced by a pair of role players.

During a 15-2 game-changing spurt late in the second half, redshirt freshman Dino Hair and sophomore Calvin O'Neil guided the Blue Raiders ahead for good.

Hair scored five of his career-high eight points during the five-minute run, including a key three-point play with 5:34 remaining.

"That really energized me and the team, and I thought that's what the team needed at that moment," said Hair, who also had a career-high four rebounds in only 10 minutes.

"We weren't ready for our season to end. We wanted to go to Lafayette."

O'Neil scored a career-high 21 points. Kevin Kanaskie had 13 points, and Nigel Johnson added 12 points.

"We lost to (Troy) twice already this year because they kept us on our heels," O'Neil said. "This time, we put them on their heels."

Unlike its previous meetings with Troy, MTSU attacked the rim and the boards with ferocity.

Three Blue Raiders recorded career highs in rebounds. Guards Johnson and Kanaskie alone snagged a combined 15 boards.

Troy was led by Cedric Jackson (16 points), O'Darien Bassett (14 points) and Boo Ramsey (13 points). However, the Trojans' perimeter shooters struggled, making only 10-of-31 3-pointers.

Overall, Troy shot 33 percent from the field.

Defense ruled the first half of the game.

MTSU's mostly man-to-man defense stifled Troy's perimeter shooting, as the Trojans made just 3-of-13 treys and shot 24 percent overall in the first half.

Despite leading 22-20 at halftime, MTSU shot just 40 percent from the field against Troy's zone defense and attempted only two free throws in the first half.

Both teams had significant early scoring slumps.

MTSU went more than six minutes without a field goal, and Troy's field-goal drought lasted more than seven minutes.

Jerome Odem's 3-pointer gave Troy a 20-18 lead before the Blue Raiders scored the final two baskets of the first half.

Theryn Hudson slammed home a putback, and Kanaskie followed with a baseline runner to put the Blue Raiders ahead 22-20 at halftime.

With the win, MTSU has made the Sun Belt quarterfinal round in every season since Davis' hiring in 2002.

Pogue: MTSU men under Davis have equity

By GREG POGUE
pogue@dnj.com

Guess MTSU men's basketball isn't ready to bid this season adieu just yet, although quite a few folks already had.

Instead, the Blue Raiders live to play again, beating host Troy in the opening round of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament Wednesday night to advance to the quarterfinal round Sunday in Lafayette, La., against defending champion South Alabama.

As March Madness arrives, this team continues to drive people crazy.

The 71-64 win at Troy was MTSU's second straight after a five-game losing streak had most likely doomed the Blue Raiders (14-16) to a first losing season during the five-year tenure of head coach Kermit Davis. Then again, there is the improbable of winning the Sun Belt tourney to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Unless that happens, it will leave some to question whether the program is headed in the proper direction. After any losing season, it's a fair question.

Davis admits not being happy with the season thus far. But he has offered very few excuses, although they seem abundant, including being the youngest team in the league.

"You have to make the point that we are the youngest team in the league," Davis said before Wednesday's win. "But that's done with. These guys have played a year.

"There are a lot of young teams in college basketball. And some of our players have had to play more minutes than we thought."

Seven of nine players seeing action have been freshmen and sophomores. That's really young, which they would have been even if leading returning scorer Adam Vogelsberg, a senior guard, had not sat out with a broken foot. He will return next season after taking a redshirt year.

Fun to coach

"Along the way, it has been a really fun team to coach, frustrating at times during games because of youth and different things," Davis said. "... We have a good frame of mind. It's been a fun group to be around. I just wish we would have won some more games."

The difference in winning and losing on the collegiate level is all about players. And that's where the Davis tenure will be measured for the long haul.

"But for the experience, you have to stay positive," Davis said. "I think it is going to help us be a really good team for the next two or three years."

In assessing MTSU men's basketball, step back and take a deep breath and look at the big picture. Then, we should agree Davis knows how to coach and run a program.

One losing season — and they're not there yet — shouldn't change what people thought of Blue Raiders basketball the previous four seasons.

In that regard, Davis has built plenty of equity, including Wednesday's win.

Guard swap gives Raiders a new look

By ADAM SPARKS
sparks@dnj.com

Kevin Kanaskie has already done what no MTSU point guard ever has.

But recently, Kanaskie hasn't even been a point guard.

"Kevin has grown into being our best perimeter scorer, and sometimes it's hard to (score) from the point," MTSU coach Kermit Davis said. "Nigel (Johnson) has gotten much better at the point in the last month, and especially in three of the last four games. That's allowed Kevin to move to (shooting guard) some."

Playing mostly at point guard this season, Kanaskie has become the first player in MTSU history to lead his team in scoring, assists, 3-pointers made and steals.

But without help on the perimeter, Kanaskie has looked more like a one-man offensive show than a distributor.

With that in mind, Johnson has assumed some of the point guard role as the Blue Raiders prepare to play at Troy Wednesday in the Sun Belt Tournament opener.

"We put a lot on Kevin," said Johnson, a sophomore transfer playing his first season at MTSU. "He's our leading scorer and our leader in assists. He's carrying so much, so it's important that I help run the point.

"We've been trying to do that all year, but I had trouble remembering all the plays. So it's really been a focus the last couple of games."

The pair of sophomores have increasingly shared the point guard role late in the season while Johnson has grown into a comfort level in the offense.

The switch really picked up momentum during MTSU's rally in a 73-70 loss at Troy last Thursday. Since halftime of that game, the Blue Raiders have outscored their opponents by 30 points. Kanaskie's play hasn't slipped despite playing some at the wing. He scored a career-high 26 points against Troy and dished out 11 assists (two shy of his career best) in a 79-59 win over Florida Atlantic Saturday.

Johnson has also benefited, scoring a combined 21 points on 5-of-10 shooting from 3-point range in the last two games.

"Nigel has run the point, and he's made some shots," Davis said. "Against the zone (defense), people have penetrated well and hurt teams. I think it's a critical part of (Wednesday's game against Troy's zone) that Nigel plays well.

"Nigel is playing much better now. He had done that in spots this year, but he's really gotten a better grasp lately. He's more comfortable in knowing what we're doing (offensively) and now he knows we have confidence in him at the point. He's going to have to be really good Wednesday night."

The light bulb may have come on at the perfect time for Johnson, who was a play-making point guard at Tallahassee Community College last season.

Blue, Young lead MTSU men into finale

By ADAM SPARKS
sparks@dnj.com

Neither Kyle Young nor Tim Blue wanted time away from the basketball court.

But both seniors may have met a blessing in disguise at MTSU.

"Having an extra year, I got better in a lot of things," Young said. "More time is never a bad thing, and I know that now."

Young and Blue will be recognized tonight on Senior Night as the Blue Raiders play host to Florida Atlantic.

Young is a fifth-year senior who was sidelined by injury his true freshman season. Blue, a junior college transfer, sat out his first year at MTSU to meet NCAA academic guidelines.

The pair have made the most of the extra time on campus.

"Both will be graduate, and that's important," MTSU coach Kermit Davis said. "Kyle already has graduated, and Tim Blue will get his degree in May.

"A ton of people in junior college and in his hometown (Palm Beach, Fla.) didn't think he would ever get his degree. His family thought he would, and we did."

Although hobbled by a knee injury this season, Blue has still averaged 9.1 points and 4.8 rebounds in 56 games at MTSU. He leads the Blue Raiders in rebounding this season.

Young's impact has been steady since his arrival in the 2003-04 season. The Lewisburg native has amassed more than 700 points and 500 rebounds in 115 career games.

When Young takes the floor tonight in the starting lineup, he will tie Lee Nosse for second place all-time in career games and move into sixth in career starts. Young's 58 blocks ranks fourth all-time, and his 57.7 career field-goal percentage is third-best in MTSU history.

But Young acknowledges his dual identity at MTSU that has included success both on and off the court.

"I'm fine with that, and I'm proud of that," said Young, who is on schedule to earn his Master's degree in Business Administration in 2008. "(Balancing academic and athletic success) is something I've always worked for, and my parents get credit for teaching me that. What I've gone through here will help me the rest of my life, and that means what I've learned on and off the court. That's as much as you can ask for."

Added Davis: "That was instilled in him with his parents. Kyle's parents (Spence and Peggy Young) have been as supportive as any two members of a player's family as I have ever been associated with. They come to games. Kyle struggled as a freshman, but his dad was so supportive. They've been great people throughout the whole process, and they are why Kyle is where he is."

But much like their MTSU debuts were postponed, the seniors want to also delay their farewell.

The outcome of tonight's game will determine MTSU's Sun Belt Tournament position, as the Blue

Raiders could finish the regular season anywhere from a seventh seed to 12th seed.

Seeds four through eight earn a first-round tournament home game, and seeds nine through 13 travel for their postseason opener.

A win over Florida Atlantic, combined with lots of help, would keep the Blue Raiders at home for Wednesday's tournament opener. Regardless of its result tonight, the more likely scenario is that MTSU will play on the road for the tournament opener.

With the parity in the league, Young said MTSU could handle any postseason position.

"The bottom teams are beating the top teams, and that usually doesn't happen at this time of the year," Young said. "I would love to play another game in the Murphy Center because I've been playing here for seven years (including three high school state tournaments). But with so many teams close together in the standings, I hope there's a lot more basketball left for us."

At one point this season, MTSU won eight of 11 games and a school-record five straight conference road games. But the Blue Raiders have now lost five in a row and face FAU, the league's hottest team touting a four-game winning streak.

"We think we've got one more run left in us," Blue said. "I like how things have gone at MTSU, but one thing missing is a championship. It would be very satisfying to get that when some people are counting us out."

Leader on the court

Kanaskie, son of a coach, will run the point for Blue Raiders

By ADAM SPARKS
sparks@dnj.com
— Adam Sparks, 278-5167

Kevin Kanaskie isn't unique because he broke the mold.

He's unique because he stayed within it.

Son of Penn State assistant basketball coach Kurt Kanaskie, the MTSU sophomore point guard follows his father's understanding of the game and on-court skill playing it.

Kurt Kanaskie was also a standout player at La Salle and NBA draft pick by the Golden State Warriors.

"(Being a coach's son) is not overrated," MTSU coach Kermit Davis said. "If you can get a good player, and on top of that he's a coach's son, then that's a great combination.

"One thing you've got to remember is that there are a lot of coaches' sons that aren't good players. But Kevin is both. He knows the game, and he's a good player."

Davis should know the relationship between coach and son well. His father, Kermit Davis Sr., was the head coach at Mississippi State in the 1970s.

But at 19 years old, Kanaskie has already been given the role of running the team. The burden doesn't bother the Blue Raider sophomore.

In fact, he feels like a veteran on an MTSU squad carrying 11 players with one season or less of Division I experience.

"Maybe we look young, but we don't feel young on this team," Kanaskie said. "Ask me or (sophomores Theryn Hudson or Calvin O'Neil), and we'll say we're experienced players. Yeah, we're sophomores but we have to play like seniors because we played a lot last year.

"So I'm fine with playing a lot. That's what I came here for."

Last season, Kanaskie's role was vital because he was the only true point guard on the roster. This season, his value is based more on level of play.

"From fall to right now, he's our most consistent player and probably our most valuable player," Davis said. "That doesn't mean he's going to lead us in scoring, but he's what keeps our team running."

He was also what fueled MTSU's late surge last season, winning eight of its last 10 regular season games with Kanaskie starting at point guard.

Kanaskie had a 3-to-1 assist/turnover ratio during his 11 starts and his overall assist/turnover ratio would have led the Sun Belt if he had played enough to register in the league's statistical list.

Kanaskie's on-court maturity could be a result of his tireless offseason work ethic and keen attention during practice. Davis said the youngster possesses both.

But coaching certainly counts in the equation.

"As a little kid, I know my dad being a coach really helped me," Kanaskie said. "I've been around basketball for a long time, and I have a good understanding of it. I've grown up seeing so many games at this level, and I've seen so many situations and plays. That prepares you pretty well to go out there and play."

Boogie Nights

Freshman Yates has name, game to make Blue Raider fans dance for joy

MTSU hoops coach Kermit Davis knew Desmond "Boogie" Yates was a special player as a freshman.

In fact, he knew it twice.

As a redshirt freshman forward at MTSU, Yates has sparked the Blue Raiders' three-game winning streak, just as his head coach predicted.

As a freshman at Fayette-Ware High five years ago, Yates drew the same reaction out of Davis.

"(Yates) was one of the first guys I saw in my first year at Middle Tennessee," Davis said. "(Former MTSU assistant coach) Jeff Walker and I were going down to recruit another kid there. We saw 'Boogie' as a ninth grader, and I said, 'That's the guy I want right there.'"

The guy was Yates, and his play as a lanky 6-foot-5, 15-year old even diverted some attention from Fayette-Ware teammate Frank Holmes, who now plays at University of Alabama-Birmingham.

"I remember when coach (Davis) came to recruit Frank Holmes," Yates said. "We were playing a pickup game, and I saw him there. I knew he would be back to see me in a few years, and he was."

And so were many others.

Yates was offered scholarships by Ole Miss and Western Kentucky, among others, and took an official visit to Knoxville shortly after Bruce Pearl was named Tennessee head coach.

"You can just kind of tell when you watch him," Davis said. "We saw his talent back then, and you can see it now."

Indeed, three years later Davis' projection rings true.

Yates may be MTSU's best offensive weapon just eight games into his college career and the catalyst behind the Blue Raiders' second wind.

Yates has averaged 17.3 points on 54 percent shooting and a 40 percent 3-point clip during MTSU's current three-game winning streak.

That's after the rookie averaged 4.8 points and 44 percent shooting from the field through MTSU's first five games, including four losses.

"It's confidence, and I think it's indicative of the rest of our team because we have young guys," Davis said. "As a freshman, you throw him out there at Tennessee and then play Alabama. Sometimes, you have to get through those games before you can get it going.

"(Yates) has got a nice talent level and a great body (6-7, 220 pounds), but he's young and hadn't done it before. Sometimes guys have to go through it, and I think he's made a pretty quick adjustment."

With an infectious mix of confidence and charisma, Yates has played beyond his inexperience. Only one Blue Raider, senior Tim Blue, has more field goal attempts, and MTSU has even altered its offense to give Yates more scoring opportunities while sharp-shooter Adam Vogelsberg is injured.

"With Adam out, we knew he would have to score for us and do it early," Davis said. "What he's got is a great mid-range game. He can shoot it around 8-10 feet. And he's got a great knack for scoring around the goal, and he finds a way to get it in the basket.

"We really recruited him to play the four (power forward), but with the injuries he's been at the three (small forward). So he's having to do more off the dribble, and that's what he's got to get better at. But we've moved him and changed some things in our offense to get his scoring."

Yates credits his upbringing and some bruising for his sudden success.

"In those early games, especially against Tennessee, it opened my eyes to how physical this game really is at the college level," Yates said. "Playing those games has taught me a lot about how aggressive and how physical I'm going to have to play every night.

"... I've learned a lot real quick, but that comes from my upbringing. I've played basketball my whole life, and the one person that's always been on me is my uncle (former Fayette-Ware star Thomas Yates)," Yates continued. "Listening to him for 18 years and then coming here, this is a little different but these coaches don't expect any more out of me than my uncle has. Even at the age of 12 and 13, I played with grown men because my uncle would say, 'Come down here and play with us, and you'll be better for it.' My uncle is a basketball junkie just like me, and so he taught me to listen to everything my coaches say because I want to be a real good college basketball player."
