Middle Tennessee (10-11)

When: March 20-21, 2007
Site: Memphis, Tenn./Nat Buring Stadium
Radio 88.3 FM WMTS -- Dick Palmer
Notes: Middle Tennessee is 8-2 in its last 10 games against Memphis ... The Blue Raiders were 3-2 on their recent five-game homestand ... Adam Warren has started all 21 games in centerfield. He is the only Blue Raider to start every game at the same position. Warren is tied for the team lead in multi-hit games (10), and he leads the Blue Raiders in multi-RBI games with seven ... First baseman Rawley Bishop (9) and designated hitter Matt Campbell (6) have current career-high hitting streaks going.

Inside the series

The in-state rivalry between Middle Tennessee and Memphis has been about as even as it gets with the Blue Raiders owning a slim 36-35 advantage in the 71 meetings between the teams. Middle Tennessee has had the upper hand of late, winning eight of the last 10 meetings. The Blue Raiders are 2-2 in Memphis during this stretch, and they are 17-19 all-time in Memphis. Middle Tennessee head coach Steve Peterson is 33-28 against Memphis.

Bluff City ties

Middle Tennessee has several players on its roster with ties to the Memphis area, including starting first baseman Rawley Bishop and starting centerfielder Adam Warren is from Jackson, Tenn., in west Tennessee. In all, Middle Tennessee has six players on its roster who hail from the west Tennessee area. They are: Bishop (Germantown/Houston HS); Adam Warren (Jackson/University School of Jackson); Matt Doss (Germantown/Germantown HS); Grant Box (Cordova/Christian Brothers HS); Travis Matthews (Cordova/Southwest Tennessee CC); and Hunter Dawson (Atoka/Munford HS).

Size doesn't matter

Middle Tennessee's starting middle infield includes 5-foot-6 shortstop Wayne Kendrick and 5-foot-7 second baseman Taylor Dennis, but the mighty mites are proving size doesn't matter. Kendrick, the Blue Raiders' regular at second base, made the move to shortstop against Southern Illinois (March 14) with Matt Ray nursing an injury, and Dennis got his shot at second base. Middle Tennessee is 4-1 with Kendrick at short and Dennis at second. Kendrick is hitting .376 this season, and is tied for the team lead with 10 multi-hit games. Dennis has made the most of his opportunity, hitting .333 in his five starts.

Reilley becoming reliable reliever

Senior right-hander Brett Reilley has been impressive out of the bullpen all season with a 3-0 record and 1.66 ERA, but he's been at his best in recent games. Reilley earned two wins out of the bullpen in Middle Tennessee's last three wins, including retiring all 10 batters he face in 3-1/3 innings of work Sunday (3/18) in the decisive game of the series against Louisiana-Lafayette. Reilley has appeared in four of Middle Tennessee's last five games. His numbers during this stretch are 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA, 5-2/3 innings, two hits, six strikeouts, and no walks.

Bishop getting into full swing

Sophomore first baseman Rawley Bishop is in a comfort zone at the plate and his offensive production helped Middle Tennessee go 3-2 on its recent homestand, including winning the weekend series from Louisiana-Lafayette. Bishop, who is hitting .368 in his last five games, began his hot streak by going 2-for-3 with a grand slam and five RBIs in a 9-8 win against Southern Illinois (3/14). He has a personal best six-game hitting streak in the works.

Warren putting together solid season

Senior centerfielder Adam Warren has been Middle Tennessee's most consistent and durable players this season. Warren has started all 21 games in centerfield and is the only Blue Raider to start every game at the same position. The Jackson, Tenn., native leads the Blue Raiders with a .402 batting average, and is also the team leader in hits (33), RBIs (21), and is tied for the team lead in stolen bases (8). Warren, who put together a nine-game hitting streak earlier this season, is tied for the team lead in multi-hit games with 10, including four three-hit games, and one four-hit outing. Warren also paces the squad in multi-RBI games with seven.

Blue Raiders getting relief

Middle Tennessee's bullpen has done a good job keeping the team in games and protecting leads throughout the season and has become more consistent in recent games. The bullpen has accumulated four of Middle Tennessee's 10 wins and two saves. For the season, Blue Raider relief pitchers are 4-2 with two saves and a 2.90 ERA in 83-2/3 innings. They have surrendered four home runs and opponents are hitting .224 against them.

Kendrick key to Blue Raider success

Middle infielder Wayne Kendrick is a cog in the Blue Raider offense but there's no doubting his value to the team's success, particularly at the start of the 2007 season. In Middle Tennessee's 10 wins, Kendrick is hitting a team-best 512 (21-for-41), with 15 runs scored (also a team high); however, in the team's 10 losses, Kendrick is hitting .250 with eight runs scored. His on-base percentage in the 10 wins is 57.4, and it is 31.3 in the 11 losses.

A Sun Belt first

Middle Tennessee faced a difficult task starting Sun Belt Conference play against defending champion and preseason favorite Troy, and a Louisiana-Lafayette team picked second in a preseason vote of league coaches. The teams were seperated by one first-place vote and one point; however, the Blue Raiders hurdled the feat and started league play with consecutive series wins for the first time since joining the SBC in 2001 when it took the decisive game from Louisiana-Lafayette Sunday (3/18). The Blue Raiders opened SBC play by taking 2-of-3 at Troy. Middle Tennessee earned both series wins by winning Sunday's rubber game. The series win against Louisiana-Lafayette also marked the first for Middle Tennessee against the Ragin' Cajuns since 2001.

Injuries Taking Their Toll

Middle Tennessee has been hit hard by injuries already this season and including the end of the 2006 season. Senior hurler Langdon Stanley missed the second half of the 2006 campaign and will not be available to pitch this year until sometime in April. Junior outfielder Nathan Hines, sophomore pitcher Chad Edwards and junior catcher Alex Watson were all lost for the season in February, while Hines and Edwards have both already undergone season-ending surgery. The injuries continued to rack up when senior shortstop Matt Ray dislocating his left shoulder diving for a ball on at Missouri State (3/10). Freshman Matt Yurus suffered an injury (3/11) after making a pitch to the plate. Ray and Yurus will be re-evaluated before the extent of their injuries can be determined.

* - Leadoff Home Run

Youth is Served

After the loss of four seniors and one junior from last year's starting lineup, Middle Tennessee head coach Steve Peterson had several holes to fill heading into 2007. Because of several factors, including injuries and continued good play, Peterson has two true freshmen and at least one redshirt freshman in the lineup everyday and there have been days with even more. Freshman Blake McDade got a chance to start opening weekend in rightfield and has been one of the team's most consistent players, batting .284 with 19 starts, including six doubles, two home runs and 19 RBIs, third on the team. Freshman Drew Robertson had to step in behind the plate and has been more than steady, starting 18 games, collecting three doubles with five RBIs and seven runs scored. He has also thrown out 4-of-9 attempted base stealers. Several other freshmen have seen extended playing time, including redshirt freshmen Myles Ervin and Justin Jones, along with freshman Zach Hudson. Ervin has started 14 games, scoring seven runs and driving in five more. Jones has started six times this year, including three games at Troy, batting .286 with three doubles, a home run and seven RBIs as well as five runs scored. Hudson has scored four runs in eight games and has one RBI.

Fielding makes a difference

Keeping mistakes to a minimum in the field has been a key in Middle Tennessee's 10 wins this season. The Blue Raiders have committed six errors in their 10 wins this season, but they are guilty of more than three times that with 20 miscues in the 11 losses. Middle Tennessee is third in the Sun Belt in team fielding at 96.9, just slightly behind the leader, Louisiana-Monroe (97.2), and Western Kentucky (97.1).

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 20th Season ● 614-485-2 (.558), 767-580-2 (.569) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter, and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try "winner."

Peterson was inducted into the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January 2007. He begins his 20th Blue Raider season as the school's all-time winningest coach, with 604 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Peterson's drive for excellence has resulted in consistent success and has made Middle Tennessee a model program. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles, and seven NCAA Regional berths including two at-large selections in the past five years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2007 season with a sterling 604-474-2 mark, has produced 12 seasons with 30 or more wins including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins including 2004's 40-22 record.

Consistent success during Peterson's tenure is a testament to his ability to recruit and develop talent, and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season in the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's top five baseball leagues at the time and consistently a top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "not at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama after their first year in the high-profile league, and the chief contributors were many of the same players who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 OVC championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference certainly helped Middle Tennessee's status. In their first five years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships and a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers but he's also won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. He has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, two First-Team All-Americans, five Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 43 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had outstanding success continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 55 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and four players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, and a large majority have taken skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Thirty-four former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college, or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable style has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players, and recruits alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of coaching, and as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark that year with 26,218 coming through the gates. The 2001 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, and set a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field but he's also been a successful fundraiser during his career. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon, and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have raised thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by leading efforts to expand the seating area, add an information center just inside the gate, and improve restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to enlarge the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also spearheading an effort that will totally renovate the stadium beginning in June 2007. The plans call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box to accommodate radio,television, and print media.

While Peterson has spent 19 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford before becoming the team's head coach. During1976-78 and 1985-87, he helped the Blue Raiders win two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981, and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96 for a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny, and John, and two grandchildren. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
