Middle Tennessee (12-14)

When: March 27-28, 2007
Site: Murfreesboro, Tenn. - Reese Smith Field/Nashville, Tenn. - Hawkins Field
Radio 88.3 FM WMTS -- Dick Palmer
Notes: Middle Tennessee begins a stretch of five of six contests at Reese Smith Field starting Tuesday against former OVC-rival Austin Peay ... The Blue Raiders are just 3-5 in midweek games this season, 1-1 at home and 2-4 on the road ... The pitching staff has posted a 6.22 ERA in midweek games in 2007 ... Sophomore Rawley Bishop enters Tuesday's game on a 14-game hitting streak, tied for the fifth longest hitting streak by a Blue Raider since 1999 ... Senior Matt Campbell has also hit in 11 straight, a career-long streak for him as well.

Bullpen Big Reason for Success

Middle Tennessee's bullpen has been a big reason for the team's success, posting a 6-3 mark and a 3.96 ERA so far in 2007. The bullpen has tossed 109.2 innings, just 11 innings less than the starting staff, and opponents are batting just .235 against the group through 26 games. Senior Brett Reilley has been the biggest contributor to the unit's success, working in 15 of the team's games and posting a 3-1 record with a 1.32 ERA. The righthander has one save in 27.1 innings of work, with opponents batting just .138. He has 24 strikeouts and has allowed just four earned runs. Reilley appeared in all three games last weekend at Arkansas State, taking a loss on Friday after allowing an unearned run in the 10th inning but coming back to pick up a save with a scoreless 10th inning on Saturday. He then tossed 2.2 scoreless frames in Sunday's 14-inning Blue Raider victory. Sophomore Jordan Alvis has also been a big contributor, appearing in 12 games with a 3.21 ERA. The righthander has 11 strikeouts in 14.0 innings of work and opponents are batting only .231. Alvis worked a collegiate-best 3.0 innings Saturday at Arkansas State, giving up just one hit with four strikeouts. Senior Josh Anderson has been the team's first lefthander out of the bullpen all season, appearing in nine games and working 12.2 innings. Anderson has posted a 2.84 ERA and opponents are batting .256.

Bishop Continues to Find Holes

Redshirt sophomore Rawley Bishop has used the first extended playing time of his career to put together one of the longest hitting streaks for a Middle Tennessee player in the last nine years. Bishop enters Tuesday's contest against Austin Peay with a 14-game hitting streak, tied for the fifth longest since 1999 and only three behind Todd Martin's 17-game streak from last season. The Germantown, Tenn., native is 19-for-56 (.339) during the streak with four doubles, three home runs, 13 RBIs and 13 runs scored. He was the victim of a strong wind blowing in at Arkansas State this past weekend, with at least two balls and perhaps three off his bat that would have easily been home runs. He has five multi-hit and three multi-RBI contests during the 14 games, including a five RBI outing on March 14 versus Southern Illinois. For the season the first baseman is batting .330 in 24 games. He has a team-leading eight doubles, seven home runs and 24 RBIs as well as 17 walks.

Warren Driving Home Opportunities

Senior Adam Warren drove in a career-high 41 runs last season and is one pace to easily surpass that number in 2007, leading the Blue Raiders with 24 RBIs through 26 games. The Jackson, Tenn., native has 37 hits and 14 runs scored as well. Warren has seven multi-RBI games this year and hit safely in 19 of 26 contests. He is on pace to drive in 52 runs this season and is currently tied for the team lead along with Rawley Bishop. Warren also leads the Blue Raiders with 10 stolen bases in 12 attempts and has just nine strikeouts in 105 at-bats, making for a tough out.

Weekend Starters Keep Raiders in Every Game

Middle Tennessee's weekend rotation of Matt Scott, Brad Robinson and Brett Smalley is a big reason the Blue Raiders are off to their best start in Sun Belt play since joining the league. Middle Tennessee is 6-3 against SBC foes and in the 16 starts made this year by the threesome of Scott, Robinson and Smalley, the Blue Raiders have posted a 9-7 record with a 3.29 ERA as a team. Scott has worked six innings or longer in four of his six outings and could have gone longer against Bowling Green on February 23 if not battling the flu. The righthander is 1-1 in three Sun Belt contests, tossing 20.0 innings. Robinson has just four starts among his eight appearances, but has posted a 2-0 mark and a 2.93 ERA in those starts, working 22.3 innings and getting into the sixth or seventh in three of the four outings. Opponents are batting just .231 against Robinson in his four starts. Smalley worked his way into the weekend rotation two weeks ago against Louisiana-Lafayette and pitched a career-high 7.0 innings this past weekend at Arkansas State. The righthander has worked 31.2 innings in his six starts this year.

A Sun Belt First

Middle Tennessee faced a difficult task starting Sun Belt Conference play against defending champion and preseason favorite Troy, and a Louisiana-Lafayette team picked second in a preseason vote of league coaches. The Blue Raiders started league play with consecutive series wins for the first time since joining the SBC in 2001 when it rubber games against both Troy and Louisiana-Lafayette on Sunday. The series win against UL also marked the first for Middle Tennessee against the Ragin' Cajuns since 2001. Middle Tennessee added to its impressive start to conference play, winning 2-of-3 games at Arkansas State this past weekend, with all three games going extra innings. The Blue Raiders are 6-3 in Sun Belt play, winning their first three conference series, something never done before since joining the league. The previous best start after three SBC weekends was 5-4, accomplished in both 2001 and 2006.

Season Tidbits

Sunday's 14-inning game at Arkansas State was the longest game for Middle Tennessee since playing 14 innings on March 20, 2005, at Missouri State. It was the longest Sun Belt contest since the Blue Raiders played 14 innings versus Louisiana-Lafayette on April 2, 2004 ... Senior Brett Reilley continues to impress, working in four of the team's five games last week, tossing 5.2 innings of relief and allowing just an unearned run. Reilley suffered the loss in Friday's 10-inning contest at Arkansas State but came back to get the save in Saturday's 10-inning affair. He also worked one scoreless inning on Wednesday at Memphis and 2.2 scoreless frames on Sunday versus ASU. For the year Reilley is 3-1 with a 1.32 ERA in 15 appearances, tossing 27.1 with 24 strikeouts. Opponents are batting just .138 against the righthander ... In the last 25 years, Middle Tennessee has never played three consecutive extra-inning games and Sunday's 14-inning game tied for the longest in recorded school history.

All-Time Against Austin Peay-Vanderbilt

Middle Tennessee leads the overall series with former OVC-rival Austin Peay, 74-35, including 39-14 at Reese Smith Field. The Blue Raiders have won eight in a row at home in the series and seven of the last eight overall. Vanderbilt leads the all-time series with Middle Tennessee, 40-20, including 25-7 in Nashville. The teams have split the last four games at Hawkins Field, including a 6-4 Blue Raider victory in 2005. The Commodores won at home last season, 4-1.

Injuries Taking Their Toll

Middle Tennessee has been hit hard by injuries already this season and including the end of the 2006 campaign. Senior hurler Langdon Stanley missed the second half of 2006 and will not be available to pitch this year until sometime in April. Junior outfielder Nathan Hines, sophomore pitcher Chad Edwards and junior catcher Alex Watson were all lost for the season in February, all three with season-ending surgery, while transfer Zach Dean came to Middle Tennessee with an injury and also underwent year-ending surgery in the fall. The injuries continued to rack up when senior shortstop Matt Ray dislocated his left shoulder diving for a ball on at Troy (3/10). Ray returned to the lineup this past weekend at Arkansas State, but in leftfield. Freshman Matt Yurus suffered an injury (3/11) after making a pitch to the plate at Troy as well. Yurus must make a decision about whether to undergo season-ending surgery or try rehab for the next 8-10 months.

Youth is Served

After the loss of four seniors and one junior from last year's starting lineup, Middle Tennessee head coach Steve Peterson had several holes to fill heading into 2007. Because of several factors, including injuries and continued good play, Peterson has two true freshmen and at least one redshirt freshman in the lineup everyday and there have been days with even more. Freshman Blake McDade got a chance to start opening weekend in rightfield and has been one of the team's most consistent players, batting .269 in 22 starts with six doubles, two home runs and 20 RBIs. Freshman Drew Robertson had to step in behind the plate and has been more than steady, starting 22 games, collecting three doubles with six RBIs and nine runs scored. Several other freshmen have seen extended playing time, including redshirt freshman Myles Ervin, along with freshmen Zach Hudson and Justin Jones. Ervin has started 16 games, scoring nine runs and driving in six more. Jones has started seven times this year, including three games at Troy, batting .240 with three doubles, a home run and seven RBIs as well as five runs scored. Hudson has scored four runs in 11 games and has one RBI.

Barrett Voted Player of the Week

Middle Tennessee third baseman Zach Barrett was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on March 13 after helping the Blue Raiders to three wins in four games, including a series victory at Troy. Barrett batted .588 (10-for-17) in four games, as the Blue Raiders won 3-of-4, including a series victory at Troy to open conference play. Barrett scored four runs and drove in seven, collecting three doubles, two walks and three stolen bases. The third baseman was 4-for-5 with two doubles and five RBIs in a victory at Belmont on March 7. He then had six hits in 12 at-bats in three games at Troy, collecting a pair of hits in each game against the Trojans. Barrett scored twice and drove in a run in the opening 13-4 victory on Friday against Troy and doubled, scored once and drove in a run in Sunday's series clincher.

Robinson Voted Pitcher of the Week

Middle Tennessee's Brad Robinson was voted Sun Belt Pitcher of the Week on March 6 after tossing a no-hitter for six innings in his first career start. In just the fifth appearance of his Middle Tennessee career, Robinson took a no-hitter into the sixth inning on Sunday against Missouri State before a single to center with one out. The righthander retired 17 of the first 19 batters of the game, walking the other two. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native worked 6.1 innings in the contest, allowing three runs on four hits with six strikeouts.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 20th Season ● 616-488-2 (.557), 769-582-2 (.568) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter, and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try "winner."

Peterson was inducted into the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January 2007. He begins his 20th Blue Raider season as the school's all-time winningest coach, with 604 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Peterson's drive for excellence has resulted in consistent success and has made Middle Tennessee a model program. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles, and seven NCAA Regional berths including two at-large selections in the past five years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2007 season with a sterling 604-474-2 mark, has produced 12 seasons with 30 or more wins including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins including 2004's 40-22 record.

Consistent success during Peterson's tenure is a testament to his ability to recruit and develop talent, and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season in the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's top five baseball leagues at the time and consistently a top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "not at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama after their first year in the high-profile league, and the chief contributors were many of the same players who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 OVC championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference certainly helped Middle Tennessee's status. In their first five years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships and a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers but he's also won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. He has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, two First-Team All-Americans, five Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 43 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had outstanding success continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 55 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and four players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, and a large majority have taken skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Thirty-four former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college, or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable style has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players, and recruits alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of coaching, and as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark that year with 26,218 coming through the gates. The 2001 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, and set a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field but he's also been a successful fundraiser during his career. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon, and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have raised thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by leading efforts to expand the seating area, add an information center just inside the gate, and improve restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to enlarge the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also spearheading an effort that will totally renovate the stadium beginning in June 2007. The plans call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box to accommodate radio,television, and print media.

While Peterson has spent 19 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford before becoming the team's head coach. During1976-78 and 1985-87, he helped the Blue Raiders win two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981, and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96 for a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny, and John, and two grandchildren. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
