The Series: MT leads 12-7-1

Saturday's football game between Middle Tennessee and Memphis will be the 21st meeting on the gridiron between the two schools and the first since 1954. The Blue Raiders went 5-0-1 against the Tigers in the first six games before Memphis won back-to-back games in 1933 and 1934. Middle Tennessee then won three straight by a combined score of 74-6 before Memphis bounced back with three consecutive wins in the series. The Blue Raiders went on to win four of the last six meetings, but lost the most recent contest in 1954, 27-7. Middle Tennessee, which has never played in the Liberty Bowl, is 4-5-1 in games played at Memphis.

MT-MEMPHIS CONNECTIONS

■ There are a lot of connections with the two coaching staffs at Middle Tennessee and Memphis with the most obvious being between the two head coaches. Rick Stockstill and Tommy West were assistants on Danny Ford's staff in 1989 at Clemson and from 1993 to 1998 Stockstill was on West's staff at Clemson. MT defensive line coach Les Herrin was also an assistant with West on Ford's staff from 1982 to 1984, again in 1989, and then served on West's Tiger staff from 1993 to 1998. Other coaching connections with West include Blue Raider wide receiver coach Justin Watts and strength coach Russell Patterson. Watts played receiver for West from 1996 to 1998 and Patterson served as a graduate assistant during the 1998 campaign.

1994	Clemson	Stockstill - Herrin (assistants for West)
1995	Clemson	Stockstill - Herrin (assistants for West)
1996	Clemson	Stockstill - Herrin (assistants for West)
1997	Clemson	Stockstill - Herrin (assistants for West)
1998	Clemson	Stockstill - Herrin (assistants for West)

MORE CONNECTIONS

■ Memphis assistants Darin Hinshaw and Derek Jones are former Blue Raider assistant coaches. Hinshaw was at MT from 2001 to 2005 while Jones served in 2005. Jones also has familiarity with MT linebacker coach Art Kaufman as both were on the 2005 Blue Raider staff and Jones was a GA at Ole Miss in 1998 and 1999 when Kaufman was the defensive coordinator. Also, current Tiger video graduate assistant Walt Bell played receiver at MT from 2003-06.

A LOOK BACK

■ In 1942, Middle Tennessee and Memphis met in the season opener in what would be the last season of football for both programs until 1946 due to World War II. The Blue Raiders made the trip to Memphis' Crump Stadium with a slim 21-man squad and played just 14 players in the stunning 21-13 Blue Raider victory. One of the team's three touchdowns was a reception by Charles "Wicher" Phillips who later managed the on-campus bookstore at MT which now bears his name. MT led 8-6 at halftime then erupted for 13 points in the third quarter to get the win.

BLUE RAIDERS VS C-USA

■ Middle Tennessee will be playing only its second game against a team from Conference USA when it takes on Memphis at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium. The Blue Raiders are 0-1 in games played against C-USA members with the lone outing coming against UAB in 2000. MT lost on the road to the Blazers, 14-9.

MT VS STATE FOES

■ Since joining the FBS in 1999, the Blue Raiders have enjoyed success against in-state foes. During that span, MT has a mark of 6-1 against teams from the state of Tennessee with three wins coming on the road against Vanderbilt. The

212 DEGREES

A motto the Blue Raider football team is following in 2007 is "212 Degrees: The Extra Degree" based off the motivational movie. Coach Stockstill read the book and showed the video to the team on its report day.

Workout sessions end with a chant of '212' and the team wears a t-shirt with 212 displayed on the back.

"We talk about what it stands for everyday," said Stockstill. "It means giving a little bit more every day to be great. The difference between good and great is one more ounce of effort, one more inch, one more yard. What's it worth to you to stay out there 10 extra minutes? Do you want to be good or do you want to be great?"

At 211 degrees, water is hot.
At 212 degrees, it boils.
And with boiling water, comes steam.
And steam can power a train.
One extra degree makes all the difference.
One extra degree of effort seperates good from great.

lone loss occured in 2002 when the Blue Raiders fell to No. 4 Tennessee in Knoxville, 26-3. Head Coach Rick Stockstill is 1-0 against in-state competition.

PROTECTING THE BALL

■ Head Coach Rick Stockstill has preached from day one about the importance of protecting the football and the Blue Raiders are getting the message. After committing eight turnovers in the first two games of the year, MT has turned it over only three times the past four outings and two of those came from reserves in a victory over FIU.

A DASHING START

■ True freshman Dwight Dasher, who leads the SBC and ranks 25th nationally in passing efficiency, has made the start at quarterback the past three games for the Blue Raiders and has played beyond his years. In three outings, Dasher has completed 41 of 74 passes for 590 yards and five touchdowns while adding 174 yards and two scores on the ground. As a team the last three games, Middle Tennessee has put up 1,001 total yards of offense and Dasher has accounted for 764 of those yards (76.3 percent). The most important statistic during Dasher's three starts is the fact he has not committed a turnover.

DASHER CHASING MARK

■ QB Dwight Dasher gives the Blue Raider offense an added dimension with his threat to run the football. In his three games as a starter, Dasher is averaging 58.0 yards a game on the ground and has a total of 219 rushing yards for the season. The most rushing yards by a quarterback in the FBS era is 486 by Andrico Hines in 2002 and the school record is 594 yards set by Marvin Collier in 1985.

DEFENSE IN A GROOVE

■ Over the last three games, the Blue Raider defense has been playing its best football of the season. During that span, the unit has given up just an average of 288.3 yards per game, forced eight total turnovers, and tallied 23 of their 37 tackles for loss. Leading the way for the defense during the three-game stretch has been freshman Jeremy Kellem who has 15 tackles, four pass breakups, two forced fumbles, and an interception.

CLUTCH NIGHT FOR DEFATTA

■ Sophomore punter David DeFatta enjoyed his best game as a Blue Raider and provided Middle Tennessee with excellent field position throughout the game against Virginia. DeFatta averaged a career-best 40 yards on his eight punts but the average was somewhat misleading considering he placed five of his eight efforts inside the 20. DeFatta, who had a long of 54, pinned the Cavaliers inside their 10 twice and inside the 15 four times.

FLOYD STADIUM

The home of Middle Tennessee football since 1933, Floyd Stadium has grown its original capacity from a facility with just a few portable bleachers to the present-day 30,788.

Floyd Stadium has undergone numerous renovations to make it one of the top facilities in the Sun Belt Conference and the region. New synthetic turf was installed during the summer of 2006 and the most recent addition was a state-of-the-art video board that was erected in 2007 to go along with new outdoor suites in the north endzone.

The Blue Raiders own an overall record of 252-100-13 at Floyd stadium and has won 12 of their last 17 in the facility.

WALDEN IS THE SACKMASTER

■ Erik Walden, who missed the FIU and UVA games with a toe injury, enters the Memphis game as the all-time sack leader in school history following a record-breaking junior season when he tallied 11.5 sacks. The Dublin, Ga., native owns 20.5 career sacks and is chasing the all-time Sun Belt Conference mark of 25.0 set by ULM's Brandon Guillory (2002-2005). Walden has yet to record a sack in 2007.

ALL-TIME SBC SACK LEADERS

1. Brandon Guillory, ULM (2002-05)	25.0
2. Adrian Awasom, NT (2001-04)	22.0
3. Erik Walden, MT (2004-Present)	20.5
4. Brandon Kennedy, NT (2001-03)	18.0
5. Antwan Barnes, FIU (2005-06)	17.0

KELLEM MAKING PLAYS

■ True freshman Jeremy Kellem has proved early in his career that he always seems to be around the football. In just six games and the last four as a starter, Kellem already has a fumble recovery, a blocked punt, five pass breakups, two forced fumbles, and an interception. Kellem added his first pick at the end of the first half against WKU off a tipped ball and a forced fumble in the third quarter against the Hilltoppers. For the year, Kellem leads the team in tackles with 29.

THE FUTURE IS NOW

■ Head Coach Rick Stockstill has not shied away from playing true freshmen in 2007. Some of it has been out of necessity due to the Blue Raiders' lack of numbers, but most of it has been the talent of the 2007 class. Entering the UVA game, the Blue Raiders have played 13 true freshmen, but the youth movement does not stop there as a total of 22 true and redshirt freshmen have played to date. Overall, 32 freshmen and sophomores have played entering the UVA game.

True Freshman Who Have Played

RB Marquise Branton	S Kevin Brown	WR Wes Caldwell
QB Dwight Dasher	LB Antwan Davis	OL Mark Fisher
DB Rod Issac	CB Jeremy Kellem	FB Jacob Longoria
TE Byron McLeod	DE Emmanuel Perez	LB Jeremy Perry
DL Dwight Smith

ROBINSON GETS IN TOP FIVE

■ Senior corner Bradley Robinson continued his climb up the all-time interception list with his second pick of the year last week against Virginia. The Duncan, S.C., native recorded his 11th career interception in the loss to UVA to tie Jimbo Pearson for fifth place on the all-time list. Robinson, who is one of only four Blue Raiders all-time to tally over 200 yards in interception returns, needs two more picks to tie Ray Oldham and Don Griffin for third place.

GEE IN ELITE GROUP

■ Sophomore Desmond Gee, who was a first team all-conference pick a year ago as an all-purpose player, is back to his same tricks in 2007. Gee spends most of his time at receiver but also is involved in the return game and rushing game. The Greenville, Fla., native is one of just 16 players in the country with statistics in receiving, rushing, kickoff returns, and punt returns. Here is the list of players: Antonio Brown, Central Michigan; Dorien Bryant, Purdue;

MEDIA INFORMATION

ON THE AIR

■ In 2007, the Blue Raider Network will once again have WNFN's 106.7 FM - The Fan as its flagship station in Nashville, Tenn., while local stations WGNS 1450 AM and 89.5 FM will be the Blue Raiders' hometown carriers. The combination of the three stations will provide coverage that will blanket the midstate area. 106.7 FM - The Fan and WGNS will carry all Blue Raider football and men's basketball games, along with the Rick Stockstill LIVE and Kermit Davis radio shows. Charlie McAlexander is in his second season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-play announcer, while MT graduate Chip Walters is handling the color analysis for the fifth year in a row.

ON THE NET

■ All Blue Raider football games can be heard over the internet by clicking on GoBlueRaiders.com. A link will be made available on the front page over on the righthand side.

RICK STOCKSTILL LIVE

■ Coach Rick Stockstill's weekly call-in show, Rick Stockstill LIVE, airs each Wednesday night from 7 to 8 PM from Bluesboro in Murfreesboro. The show will be aired on 106.7 FM - The Fan and WGNS 1450 AM, locally with Charlie McAlexander serving as host. The call-in number is 1-866-RAIDERS.

STOCKSTILL TV SHOW

■ The Rick Stockstill television show can be seen each Monday at 6:30 AM on CSS (local) and later that day at 7:30 PM) on CSN 49. The show can also be seen each Wednesday at 3 PM on CSS (regional). The show is hosted by radio play-by-play personality Charlie McAlexander. McAlexander is in his second year doing the show.

GOING OVERTIME

■ Middle Tennessee enters the Memphis game having competed in four overtime games as a member of I-A and is 2-2 in those contests. The Blue Raiders had one overtime contest in 2000 and played three in 2003. In 2003, the Blue Raiders lost in one overtime at No. 23 Missouri, then bounced back to take an overtime win at Idaho before losing a four overtime game at home against UL-Lafayette. The four overtime loss to ULL was the longest game in the history of MT football and was the longest in the history of the SBC at the time.

RAIDERS ON WATCH LISTS

■ Three Middle Tennessee players made three different preseason watch lists for 2007. Here is a list:
Outland Trophy: Franklin Dunbar
Rotary Lombardi: Erik Walden, Tavares Jones
Ted Hendricks Defensive End of Year: Tavares Jones

MT SETS ATTENDANCE MARK

■ With 17,812 fans at Middle Tennessee's final home game against Troy in 2006, the Blue Raiders set a new single-season attendance record. For the year, the Blue Raiders averaged 22,037 fans for their five home contests to break the previous high of 21,314 established in 1998 during a four-game home season.

MT GRADS

■ Since his arrival, Rick Stockstill has put a huge emphasis on academics and it is showing. The Blue Raiders have seen their APR score jump to 960, they received the SBC Team Academic Award in 2006, and have a number of players competing this year with degrees and many more on pace to pick up their diploma in December. TE Clinton Corder, S Dana Stewart, LB Chance Dunleavy, and QB Patrick Jackson are playing the 2007 season with degrees in hand, while DB Bradley Robinson, LB Derek Shropshire, WR Taron Henry, RB DeMarco McNair, DE Erik Walden, DT Derek Mason, and WR Jonathan Grigsby will all graduate in December.

QUICK HITTERS

■ Senior Erik Walden currently ranks fifth nationally among active players in career sacks with 20.5.

■ The Blue Raiders' safety against FIU earlier this year was the first in the FBS era for MT.

■ Middle Tennessee's crowd of 23,227 against UVA ranked as the fourth largest crowd in Floyd Stadium history.

■ Franklin Dunbar has started a team-best 24 straight games entering the Memphis contest.

■ The Blue Raiders have won 501 football games all-time and have an overall record is 501-363-28.

■ Head Coach Rick Stockstill directed two shutouts in 2006 to become the first rookie coach at MT to accomplish that feat since Charles Murphy in 1947.

■ As a I-A member (98 games), the Blue Raiders have scored 50 or more points nine times.

■ The Blue Raiders are 35-6 in the I-A era when leading at the half and are 38-6 when leading a game entering the 4th quarter during that time.

■ When trailing at the half, the Blue Raiders are just 6-46 in the I-A era.

■ The Blue Raiders have scored in 124 of their last 128 games and broke a string of scoring in 69 straight when they were shutout at Oklahoma in 2006. The other three miscues were a 10-0 shutout on the road against UL-Monroe in 1999, a 55-0 loss in 2000 at Florida, and a 44-0 setback at LSU in 2007. MT has scored in 58 straight home games.

■ In the I-A era, the Blue Raiders are 25-17 on turf, 10-32 on natural grass (12 of the losses came on road to SEC teams) and 7-7 on synthetic surfaces (4-3 at home).

■ Largest Margin of Victory in the I-A era: 56 points vs UConn 11/4/00 (66-10) ... Largest Margin of Defeat in the I-A era: 59 points vs Oklahoma 9/23/06 (59-0).

GAME 1 REVIEW

Turnovers, Penalties cost Blue Raiders in opener

Florida International 27, Middle Tennessee 14

Sept. 1, 2007 ❑ Lockhart Stadium ❑ Ft. Lauderdale, FL

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. - Middle Tennessee seemed to start its season two hours later than its Week One opponent.

The Blue Raiders' fourth-quarter surge still left them behind Florida Atlantic in a 27-14 loss in both teams' season and conference opener.

"I can't point out one thing that did it for us because it was a lot of things that went wrong," MTSU senior safety Damon Nickson said. "We fought hard, but (FAU) just outplayed us.

"... Hopefully, our first is our worst."

The loss was the first follow-up performance to MTSU's Sun Belt co-championship in coach Rick Stockstill's debut season, yet it lacked the luster and precision of the 2006 squad.

MTSU's offense played poorly, its defense wilted late and special teams dug the team into a hole it could not climb out of.

MTSU (0-1, 0-1) gained about half as many yards as FAU (217 to 411) and committed four turnovers to the Owls' one. The Blue Raider offense only had three drives of more than 10 yards in the game, but even some of its limited prosperity was squandered.

Trailing 24-0, MTSU managed two late touchdowns under odd circumstances.

MTSU junior quarterback Joe Craddock, making his first career start, made a circus under-handed pass to sophomore Desmond Gee for a 27-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter.

Craddock, pressured by FAU (1-0, 1-0) defenders all afternoon, stepped away from a pass rusher. With a hand around his foot, Craddock flipped the ball to Gee, who sprinted down the sideline for the late score.

On FAU's next possession, North Lauderdale native Jeremy Kellem blocked an Owls' punt. Junior Michael Cannon scooped it and scampered 32 yards to cut FAU's lead to 24-14.

But MTSU could not extend its momentum, as FAU added a late field goal, and Craddock tossed an interception in the end zone with 2:44 remaining in the game while trying to improvise a quarterback run into a pass on third-and-10.

"We were running out of time, and I thought the play was there," said Craddock, who was 20-of-32 passing for 199 yards, one TD and two interceptions. "It still felt like it was there. We thought maybe we could do what Troy did to us last year, where we score, kick an onside kick, and score again."

MTSU put itself behind seemingly just as the game began.

FAU was stopped on its opening possession, but the ensuing punt was short and struck MTSU freshman Kevin Brown on the leg and FAU recovered the ball. MTSU challenged the call, but it was upheld and the Owls responded with a nine-play, 35-yard touchdown drive.

FAU converted two third-down plays on the abbreviated drive, and Charles Pierre dove in for a 1-yard score.

Nickson, one of the nation's top kick returners last season, mishandled FAU's ensuing kickoff. The Owls recovered and missed a field goal soon after, but MTSU's offense remained stranded on the sideline.

"That was frustrating," MTSU junior offensive tackle Franklin Dunbar said. "We thought we were getting the ball, and then we don't get the ball. Then we're ready to get the ball again, and we still don't get it."

Ultimately, FAU had the ball twice, a total of 15 plays and more than six minutes, before MTSU's offense took a snap. And once the offense finally played, its appearance became instantly forgettable.

The Blue Raiders went three-and-out on their first two possessions, managed only 44 yards of total offense in the first half and didn't pick up its initial first down until early in the second quarter.

Stockstill recognized the compounded miscues.

"The first (turnover) was when the punt hit a freshman," Stockstill said. "Then Damon drops the kickoff, and there's no excuse for that. And there's no excuse for Joe throwing that last interception. I just don't understand it."

Even when the offense's tires weren't spinning in the first half, blunders squandered any hint of momentum. With MTSU trailing 7-0 in the second quarter, two passes gave the Blue Raiders their first back-to-back first downs of the day. But after driving to the FAU 29-yard line, the next three snaps were a one-yard loss, an illegal procedure penalty and a botched shotgun snap for a 22-yard loss.

Craddock's first interception came with 49 seconds remaining in the first half, and it set up an FAU field goal.

Then an MTSU drive early in the third quarter was halted by an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on Dunbar. FAU answered with TD passes to Jason Harmon and Cortez Gent.

FAU quarterback Rusty Smith was 12-of-26 passing for 195 yards and two scores. Charles Pierre added 95 yards on 16 rushes.

Blue Raiders fall short at No. 8 Louisville

#8 Louisville 58, Middle Tennessee 42

Sept. 6, 2007 ❑ Papa John's Stadium ❑ Louisville, KY

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - MTSU and No. 8 Louisville pushed the pedal to the floor before the Blue Raiders finally ran out of gas just shy of a monumental upset.

The teams combined to score 59 points in the first 19 minutes of the game, but Louisville pulled away for a 58-42 win.

The sellout crowd of 40,882 at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium and a national TV audience saw perhaps the most exciting start to a game of the young college football season.

"I told our team we went toe to toe with the eighth-ranked team in the country," MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said after the game. "And I couldn't be more proud of them. If we played a little bit smarter and not turned it over a couple of those times, we might have had a chance to win the ballgame."

Louisville scored touchdowns on its first, fourth and seventh plays of the game, as Heisman trophy hopeful quarterback Brian Brohm led the Cardinals on quick strikes. MTSU quarterback Joe Craddock led the Blue Raiders on five consecutive touchdown drives in the first half.

Brohm went 25-of-39 passing for a career-high 401 yards and five touchdowns without an interceptions. Likewise, Craddock, making his second career start, went 14-26 passing for a career-high 290 yards and three scoring passes.

"We put up big numbers and a lot of people played their best game," Craddock said. "It was nothing I did, but we can take positives from this. If a few more things go our way, we get a (win)."

Louisville's Anthony Allen (275 yards on 35 carries) and MTSU's Phillip Tanner (144 yards on nine carries) also crushed their career-high rushing marks.

Louisville's third score, a 5-yard run by Allen, followed MTSU senior Damon Nickson's fumble on a kick return. That stood as the only significant discrepancy between the two teams' scoring pace in the first half.

Despite Louisville lighting up MTSU for 409 yards in the first half, the Blue Raiders never flinched. MTSU answered the Cardinals' early scores with 21 first-quarter points in similar fashion to Louisville's explosive offense, and the Blue Raiders did not punt until the third quarter.

After Brohm hit tight end Gary Barnidge for an 81-yard touchdown pass on the game's opening snap, MTSU countered with a 78-yard catch-and-run touchdown grab from Craddock to DeMarco McNair.

MTSU sophomore Phillip Tanner scored his first career touchdown on a 23-yard run with 10:37 remaining in the first quarter.

Louisville came back with a 13-play march to the end zone, and then Craddock dropped a flawless fade-route pass into Bobby Williams' hands for a 24-yard pass to cut the Cardinals' lead to 28-21 with 2:22 still remaining in the first quarter.

Sparked by Bradley Robinson's vicious hit at the goal line, MTSU held Louisville to a field goal to start the second quarter, serving as the first failure of either team to reach the end zone.

McNair scampered for a 39-yard touchdown run 48 seconds later to draw boos from the Louisville home crowd, as MTSU trailed 31-28.

Shortly after, the Cardinals showed the wear from the Blue Raiders' rally, as wide receiver Patrick Honeycutt was left uncovered before the snap on MTSU's next possession. Craddock tossed the ball to the wide-open Honeycutt, who ran 51 yards to the Louisville 13-yard line. Tanner then dove over left guard for a touchdown, and MTSU trailed 38-35 at halftime.

Louisville scored 13 unanswered points in the third quarter, but Tanner answered with a 79-yard touchdown run, his third score of the night.

Brohm hit Douglas for a 10-yard score to put Louisville ahead 58-42 early in the fourth quarter, and Craddock tossed a late interception to seal the outcome.

No. 2 LSU shuts out Blue Raiders

#2 LSU 44, Middle Tennessee 0

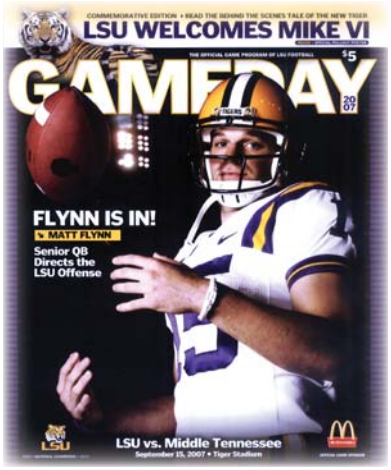
Sept. 15, 2007 ❑ Tiger Stadium ❑ Baton Rouge, LA

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

BATON ROUGE, La. - Middle Tennessee got its breaks, but couldn't do anything with them in a 44-0 loss to No. 2 LSU.

The Blue Raiders (0-3) forced LSU's first turnovers of the season and contained the Tigers' (3-0) offense early on. However, they could not muster an attack against perhaps the nation's best defense and a fleeting opportunity passed MTSU by.

"You have to play perfect against a team like LSU, and we had some early chances to score," MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said. "But give their defense credit. They swamped us. They stuffed us. We just couldn't sustain drives."



MTSU marched to LSU's 33-yard line on its first offensive drive of the night, but quarterback Joe Craddock was sacked on third-and-9. The loss pushed the Blue Raiders out of field-goal range and capped their longest drive until late in the game.

MTSU did not gain another first down until the second play of the fourth quarter, a span of eight offensive possessions without moving the chains. The Blue Raiders only gained 90 total yards on 52 plays in the game. "Once we got those turnovers and got on their side of the field, (LSU) really turned up the heat on defense," said Craddock, who finished 6-of-11 passing for 59 yards.

MTSU didn't look too overmatched early on, but it did not take advantage of LSU's few miscues.

MTSU safety Dana Stewart made his first career interception, returning the pick to the LSU 44-yard line. MTSU then lost seven yards on the next two plays and ultimately failed on a fourth-and-3 conversion attempt.

LSU scored on its next play, a 62-yard pass from quarterback Ryan Perrilloux to Demetrius Byrd to go ahead 17-0.

LSU fumbled on its next offensive play nearly two minutes later when MTSU cornerback Alex Suber stripped the ball from tight end Keith Zinger.

MTSU took over at its own 49-yard line, but responded with a 1-yard run, an incomplete pass and a 15-yard loss when Craddock was sacked on third down.

"We got off the field and got turnovers, and of course, it was a frustration that we went back out there so quick," Suber said. "But that's our job on defense. We have to be able to go right back at them."

MTSU had 11 offensive possession. Eight ended on punts, two on downs and one on Phillip Tanner's fumble.

"Regardless of where we got the ball, it was hard to move the ball," MTSU offensive tackle Franklin Dunbar said. "Whether it was 50-in or in the minus yardage on our side of the field, it was hard to move the ball all night.

"This was a pretty good defense, probably the best in the country and the best we'll ever see."

As MTSU spun its tires, LSU (3-0) gradually revved its offensive engine to excite a crowd of 92,407 at Tiger Stadium.

The Tigers took advantage of prime field position and scored on an MTSU defense that showed improvement from its loss to Louisville the week before.

LSU racked up 505 total yards and 26 first downs. Perrilloux, replacing injured starter Matt Flynn (high ankle sprain), went 20-of-25 passing for 298 yards, three touchdowns and one interception.

MTSU's defense contained the Tigers early on, allowing LSU to only complete short passes underneath.

LSU ran 10 times in a 64-yard game-opening drive, but MTSU made a goal line stand capped by redshirt freshman Gary Tucker's sack on third-and-goal from the 4-yard line.

LSU settled for Colt David's 29-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead.

MTSU's resistance began to wilt a bit beginning on LSU's second possession, as Perrilloux connected on five consecutive passes, including a 13-yard touchdown toss to running back Charles Scott.

Three Perrilloux completions converted third downs on the 12-play drive, including the scoring pass.

LSU's second touchdown didn't take nearly as long as the first. Perrilloux slung a 62-yard touchdown pass to Demetrius Byrd, who leaped over MTSU cornerback Bradley Robinson to make the grab. The score came only 12 seconds after MTSU was halted on a fourth-down play inside the LSU 40-yard line.

LSU soon sprinted away from MTSU with three third-quarter touchdowns.

Brandon LaFell ran an 18-yard reverse in for a TD, freshman Terrance Toliver snatched a 15-yard TD pass and Richard Murphy added an 8-yard scoring run.

WKU upsets Blue Raiders

WKU 20, Middle Tennessee 17

Sept. 20, 2007 ❑ Floyd Stadium ❑ Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - MTSU recalled a series from the past, but was bitten by a Western Kentucky team eager to step into the future.

The Blue Raiders lost 20-17 at Floyd Stadium to Western Kentucky, which is still two years away from reaching the highest level of college football (Football Bowl Subdivision), in the schools' first football meeting since 1991.

The victory served as a statement game for WKU, which joins MTSU (0-4) in the Sun Belt Conference in football in 2009. It marked MTSU's seventh consecutive loss, tied for the fourth-longest losing skid in the nation.

"Being a home opener just adds to the frustration because we were real jazzed to play this game," MTSU defensive end Erik Walden said. "Give them credit, and we didn't underestimate them, but it was mind-boggling that we played so bad."

MTSU's offense was handicapped and its playbook trimmed down, as true freshman Dwight Dasher got his first career start in place of injured starter Joe Craddock.

Dasher was solid, but the Blue Raider offense was stale. MTSU gained only 288 total yards, as WKU loaded the tackle box and bottled up the Blue Raiders' ground game.

Dasher was 14-of-24 passing for 169 yards. He also led MTSU in rushing with 53 yards and guided his team on a potential game-tying drive in the final 39 seconds. Dasher had runs of 21 and 15 yards and completed two passes on the final drive, but Matt King missed a 34-yard field goal as time expired.

"I couldn't be more pleased with the way we played in the last 39 seconds," MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said. "We gave ourselves an opportunity to tie the game and go to overtime.

"We knew this would be a 60-minute game, and we played all 60 minutes. It went down to the last four seconds, but we just couldn't convert on the kick."

WKU (3-1) took a 20-17 lead on K.J. Black's 22-yard touchdown pass to Jake Gaebler on the first play of the fourth quarter. It capped a 10-play, 75-yard drive.

Black was 5-of-7 for 74 yards and one TD. He also ran for 56 yards after replacing former Smyrna High standout and WKU starter David Wolke in the second half.

"This is our new rival," Black said. "We had to make a statement. We looked at it as our Sun Belt statement game with our new rivals. We came out here with a lot of fire and we pulled this one out."

In a back-and-forth battle, MTSU went ahead 17-13 on DeMarco McNair's 4-yard touchdown run, his second score, in the third quarter. The TD was set up by Taron Henry's 32-yard catch-and-run.

But the Blue Raiders missed other touchdown opportunities, including their first possession of the night.

Dasher ran MTSU's offense at a steady tempo after the opening kickoff. The Blue Raiders' devoured nearly 10 minutes of game clock, ran 17 plays and converted two fourth-down tries, but came away with no points.

MTSU called nine consecutive running plays to start the game, including four carries by Dasher. But holding and illegal procedure penalties on back-to-back plays halted MTSU's march, and King missed a 39-yard field goal.

WKU's defense rested little, as the Blue Raiders regained possession after Erik Walden popped Wolke from behind, forcing a fumble that was recovered by Wes Hofacker at the 18-yard line.

King hit a 19-yard field goal six plays later after Dasher's 1-yard touchdown run had been negated by an illegal procedure penalty.

WKU took its first lead with a seven-play, 60-yard drive that stretched midway through the second quarter. Similar to MTSU's early offense, the Hilltoppers remained on the ground with quarterback draws, option plays and well-executed runs. A 29-yard pass from Wolke to Gaebler and an unsportsmanlike penalty on the Blue Raiders moved WKU to the MTSU 4-yard line. After a WKU penalty, Tyrell Hayden galloped in for a 9-yard TD run to put the Hilltoppers ahead 10-3.

MTSU's second score again followed a Wolke fumble, which was recovered by Blue Raider linebacker Andrew Harrington at the Hilltoppers' 32-yard line.

Dasher connected on three passes to set up an MTSU touchdown just before halftime, including a 13-yard completion to Patrick Honeycutt on fourth-and-5. McNair scored on a 1-yard run to tie the score at 10.

MTSU was outrushed 234 yards to 119. WKU's Hayden rushed for a career-high 144 yards and one touchdown.

Blue Raiders ride freshman to rout of FIU

Middle Tennessee 47, Florida International 6

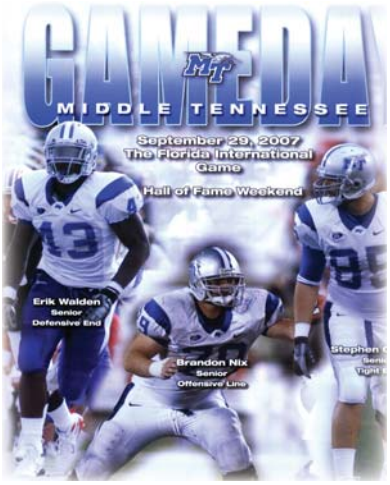
Sept. 29, 2007 ❑ Floyd Stadium ❑ Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - MTSU's slump-buster had a bit of hyperbole in the Blue Raiders' home conference opener.

The Blue Raiders broke a seven-game losing streak — their longest since 1980 — with a 47-6 rout of Florida International in front of 15,605 at Floyd Stadium.

FIU (0-5, 0-1 in Sun Belt Conference) extended the nation's longest losing streak to 17 games, last winning in the 2005 season finale against MTSU. The Blue Raiders (1-4) notched their first win since Nov. 11, 2006, and improved to 1-1 in Sun Belt play.



"It's a relief. It's a monkey off our back because we played like we know we can," MTSU wide receiver Bobby Williams said. "We've got goals we want to accomplish, and we're going to focus in on them from here on out."

MTSU started fast and furiously, posting 47 points in the first half behind multi-talented true freshman quarterback Dwight Dasher, who made his second career start in place of injured starter Joe Craddock.

Dasher accounted for five touchdowns just in the first half, including three passing and two rushing. Meanwhile, the Blue Raiders scored on seven of its first eight possessions before halftime.

"I don't know if how important it was to have a quick start, but I think it was important that something good happen to us," MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said. " ... With how our guys did this week, I sensed something special was going to happen. I was very impressed with how the team responded."

Dasher finished his night 10-of-17 passing for 240 yards, three touchdown passes and no interceptions. He also had nine rushes for 58 yards and two scores, leaving the game midway through the third quarter with MTSU leading 47-0.

His five touchdowns marked the most by an MTSU player since quarterback Josh Harris accounted for five scores on Nov. 15, 2003, in an overtime game versus Louisiana-Lafayette, and the most in regulation since 2001.

"I felt comfortable, not like a freshman," Dasher said. "I felt like I got the job done."

Dasher racked up 78 total yards on MTSU's game-opening 61-yard drive, which included two Blue Raider penalties to account for the statistical anomaly. He completed 5-of-7 passes on the first possession, the last going to Williams for a 14-yard touchdown pass.

On MTSU's third possession, Dasher escaped two tacklers in the backfield to break open a 22-yard touchdown run. It capped an abbreviated three-play drive where the Blue Raiders took advantage of prime field position, a trend throughout the first half.

Dasher ran three times and passed once on the Blue Raiders' third scoring march. He faked a quarterback draw, then stepped back to toss a 27-yard TD pass to Desmond Gee to put the Blue Raiders ahead 21-0 through one quarter.

MTSU's fourth score — a 71-yard TD toss from Dasher to DeMarco McNair — had more to do with McNair's legs than Dasher's arm. The senior tailback caught a screen pass near the line of scrimmage and sprinted past half of the FIU defense down the sideline to paydirt.

The Blue Raiders' first-half scoring spree ended with a pair of 1-yard TD runs by both Dasher and McNair and Matt King's 39-yard field goal.

MTSU also added a safety off a botched FIU punt following a high snap. FIU's Chance Attaway scored a touchdown early in the fourth quarter on a botched MTSU punt, but the Golden Panthers missed the extra-point kick.

MTSU outgained FIU 405 yards to 145, and the Golden Panthers had only 34 yards in the first half.

"They jumped out on us early and didn't stop," FIU coach Mario Cristobal said. "They outplayed us in every facet of the game. ... They coached better, they played better, and they executed better."

GAME 6 REVIEW

Virginia 23, Middle Tennessee 21

Oct. 6, 2007 ❑ Floyd Stadium ❑ Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Virginia kicker Chris Gould's 34-yard game-winning field goal staved off a monumental upset by MTSU and saved the very goal posts through which he kicked.

MTSU fell 23-21 at Floyd Stadium, narrowly missing its most significant win in program history. Gould's kick came with eight seconds remaining, burying the Blue Raiders' celebration before a crowd of 23,227 in Floyd Stadium.

"Our guys hurt because they had a chance to do something very special (Saturday night)," MTSU coach Rick Stockstill said. "It was a phenomenal game, and our players displayed unbelievable effort.

"... Our want-to was bigger than their want-to, but they just got us in the end."

The Blue Raiders took a 21-20 lead midway through the fourth quarter when Bradley Robinson picked off a Virginia pass, and DeMarco McNair scored on a 1-yard run one play later.

MTSU milked the clock late in the fourth quarter, but left the Cavaliers too much time. Virginia quarterback Jameel Sewell completed five consecutive passes to lead the Cavaliers on a 63-yard drive in only one minute, 18 seconds, setting up Gould's game-winner.

"I made the play, and I thought that could be the play to make it for us," Robinson said. "We felt like we did what we had to do in order to get a big win, but we didn't make the plays when we had to on the last drive."

Robinson's interception was the only turnover by either team in the game, which was a back-and-forth struggle.

True freshman quarterback Dwight Dasher led MTSU in rushing and passing for a second time in his three career starts. He was 17-of-33 passing for 181 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed 17 times for 63 yards.

"I felt like the way we played would be enough to win the game," Dasher said. "The end of the game changed all that."

Virginia broke a 14-14 tie on Andrew Pearman's 5-yard touchdown run on the third play of the fourth quarter, capping a 15-play, 85-yard drive.

However, Virginia was flagged for a false start on the ensuing extra-point kick. On a second try, Gould missed the PAT, and Virginia only led 20-14.

MTSU drew first blood, and Virginia chased the Blue Raiders early on.

MTSU scored on Dasher's 24-yard touchdown pass to Taron Henry near the front pylon at the goal line. Henry's grab, which came with a defender in his face, capped an 11-play, 67-yard drive on MTSU's second possession of the night.

It was also only the second pass on the drive, a steady march that included seven rushes between three and eight yards each.

The Blue Raiders held Virginia to four-plays-and-out on the ensuing possession, but gave the Cavaliers got new life on a holding penalty during the punt. MTSU's Alex Suber, who was defending Virginia's wideout on the punt, was called for holding before the kick, which gave the Cavaliers a first down.

"You'll have to ask those ACC officials about that," Stockstill said.

Virginia took advantage of its second chance, finishing the final 43 yards of the drive. Tight end John Phillips snagged a 20-yard touchdown pass from Sewell on third-and-4 to tie the score 7-7 early in the first quarter.

MTSU had two chances to make a field goal and retake the lead in the second quarter. Matt King's first field goal attempt, a 38-yarder, missed wide left but was negated by a Virginia penalty. His second try, a 33-yarder, was blocked.

"We might just have to start going for it on fourth down," Stockstill said.

About three minutes later, MTSU finished a scoring opportunity when Dasher hit Bobby Williams on a quick slant for a 7-yard touchdown pass and a 14-7 lead.

Virginia countered with a 10-play, 85-yard drive that took less than three minutes. Pearman scampered around right end and dove from the 3-yard line to paydirt to finish his 21-yard scoring run.

Sewell finished 22-of-37 passing 223 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

Anthony Glover led MTSU with seven tackles, and Trevor Jenkins had two tackles for loss.
