Appalachian State, Lipscomb and San Jose State join Middle Tennessee in making up the four-team tournament in a round-robin format. The teams will play three games in three days with the first game tipping at 5 PM daily and the second contest to follow 30 minutes following the completion of the first game. What is First Shot Basketball?

Former Middle Tennessee assistant coach Andy Herzer is the director and founder of First Shot Basketball, a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide an opportunity for all levels of basketball players (boys and girls) to excel in a safe environment. The goal of First Shot is to develop its participants, the majority of which are underpriveleged and without resources generated by First Shot would not be able to participate in the program. The aim is to build self-confidence and to work with others effectively. As part of the First Shot Exempt Basketball Tournament, close to 500 youngsters will attend a free clinic Saturday from 3-to-5 p.m. at the Middle Tennessee Recreation Center and they will attend Saturday's closing game of the tournament. First Shot Basketball is in its second year. For more information, visit www.FirstShotBasketball.net.

Blue Raiders against the First Shot Tournament Field

Middle Tennessee is 32-20 against the First Shot Tournament Field with 50 of the 52 games being played against neighboring Lipscomb; however, the Blue Raiders have not played any of the teams in the field since November, 1991 when they played the Bisons. Middle Tennessee is 31-19 all-time vs. Lipscomb, 1-1 vs. Appalachian State, and the meeting against San Jose State is the first between the two schools. The series against Lipscomb began in 1937-38 and the last meeting between the schools was in 1991. Middle Tennessee faced Appalachian State in 1969 and 1971.

California teams not regular on schedule

When the Blue Raiders open the season against San Jose State in the opening game of the First Shot Exempt Tournament Thursday it will mark only the fifth time in program history they have faced a team from California; however, they have enjoyed success against teams from the "Golden State." Middle Tennessee is 3-1 all-time against California-based teams with wins against Cal-Poly, Cal State-Fullerton, and UC-Santa Barbara. The only setback was against Pepperdine.

Familiar face on Appalachian State bench

Appalachian State's appearance in the First Shot Exempt Tournament in Murfreesboro will be a homecoming of sorts for its head coach - Houston Fancher. A native of Newport, Tenn., Fancher graduated from Middle Tennessee with a degree in education in 1988. He was a student manager for former Blue Raider head coach Bruce Stewart. Fancher will be coaching against his alma mater for the first time. He is in his eighth season at Appalachian State and has compiled an overall record of 106-106 at the Boone, N.C., school. Fancher is 150-147 overall in 11 seasons as a head coach. He guided the Mountaineers to a 25-8 record and NIT appearance in 2006-07.

Blue Raiders in home, season openers

Middle Tennessee is 8-2 in its last 10 home openers, including wins in four straight contests. The Blue Raiders are 4-1 in home openers under head coach Kermit Davis including four straight wins and they are 30-4 in home openers at Murphy Center. The Blue Raiders are 36-15 overall in season openers dating to the 1956-57 season. Records prior to that season are incomplete in terms of home and away. They are 20-5 in their last 25 season openers regardless of the venue.

On tap for the Blue Raiders in 2007-08

Middle Tennessee closed the 2006-07 season with some momentum after winning two games in the SBC Championships to reach the semifinals for the third time in five seasons under Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders return the bulk of their team in 2007-08 with 75 percent of the scoring, 68 percent of the rebounding, and 75 percent of the minutes back for this season. Seven of the nine players on the Blue Raider roster who saw action in 2006-07 will return in 2007-08. The depth of the squad will be tested early as the Blue Raiders play four games in the first six days of the season including three games in three days to open the season in the First Shot Exempt Tournament at Murphy Center before hitting the road for a game at No. 7 Tennessee.

Another strong schedule on horizon

No one can accuse Kermit Davis of shying away from tough competition. Middle Tennessee's strength of schedule was toughest in the Sun Belt Conference in 2006-07 and this season's non-conference slate is shaping into another Top 30 schedule. Middle Tennessee will face two Top 10 teams in the first nine games of the season. The Blue Raiders will face Memphis Dec. 15 in a "home game" at the Sommet Center in downtown Nashville and they will travel to Tennessee, Nov. 23. Memphis is currently ranked No. 3 in the AP and USA Today Coaches Polls. Tennessee is ranked seventh in both polls. Another non-conference opponent, Houston, is also receiving votes in the AP Top 25 poll.

O'Neil in double figures is good news for Blue Raiders

When junior guard Calvin O'Neil scores double figures it usually leads to a successful outcome for the Blue Raiders. Middle Tennessee was 7-1 with seven straight wins in 2006-07 when O'Neil scored double figures. The only loss was in the season opener at Tennessee when he scored 11. He played the best basketball of his Blue Raider career at the end of last season, averaging 10.8 points, 3.8 rebounds, and shooting 47 percent (17-of-36) from the field in the last five games.

Kermit Davis File

In five seasons at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is fourth on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 83.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 77th victory at UALR (01/20/07). He finished 2006-07 with 83 career victories and is one win shy of tying Randy Wiel (84) for third on the all-time Blue Raider list. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.553) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces third-best wins mark after 150 games

Kermit Davis coached in 150 games in his first five seasons as Middle Tennessee's head coach and his 83-67 mark in those contests represent the third most wins for a Blue Raider head coach in his first 150 games. Bruce Stewart (101-49) and Jimmy Earle (89) are the only former Blue Raider coaches with more wins in their first 150 games.

Davis notches 220th win

Kermit Davis secured his 220th win as a head coach when Middle Tennessee beat defending SBC champion and No. 1 seed South Alabama in the 2007 SBC quarter-finals. He owns 154 wins in nine years at the Division I level and 66 in three years in junior college.

Blue Raiders picked third in preseason Sun Belt poll

Middle Tennessee was picked to finish third in the SBC East Division in a preseason vote of the league's head coaches. The Blue Raiders received 51 points in the voting to finish behind Western Kentucky and South Alabama, respectively. Louisiana-Monroe was the favorite to win the West.

Kanaskie named to All-Sun Belt team

Middle Tennessee junior guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the preseason All-Sun Belt Conference team, earning a spot on the third team in a vote of league coaches. He was named to the All-SBC team in 2006-07 after becoming the only player in Middle Tennessee history to lead the team in scoring (12.2), 3-point field goals made (67), and assists (185) in the same season. He led the Sun Belt in assists and assist/turnover ratio. Kanaskie scored double figures in 20 games and led the team in scoring 13 times.

Kanaskie climbing career charts

Kevin Kanaskie is starting to make a move on the Middle Tennessee career records charts with two full seasons remaining. The State College, Pa., native is ninth all-time with 259 assists and needs 16 more to move into eighth place. He is averaging 30.0 minutes for his career, which is 11th on the all-time list, and his 84 career 3-pointers are three shy of 10th on the all-time list.

Middle Tennessee, WKU in Sun Belt Classic

Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky will be featured live on national television when they play host to the Sun Belt Classic Dec. 15 at the Sommet Center in Nashville. Middle Tennessee will face Memphis at 6 p.m., in a game that will be televised on ESPN2, while WKU faces Tennessee at 8:30 p.m., on ESPNU. Officials at Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky are expecting sellouts for the Sun Belt Classic.

Veteran Blue Raider squad still has room to grow

Middle Tennessee coach Kermit Davis will put his most experienced team on the court this winter with eight returning players who have combined to play in 297 college basketball games and earn 140 combined starts. While veteran leadership is evident the unit still has plenty of room to mature and continue to develop as there are no seniors on the roster. The Blue Raider breakdown includes six juniors, four sophomores, and two freshmen.

Yates looking to surpass outstanding rookie season

Desmond Yates enjoyed a breakout freshman season for Middle Tennessee and he believes the invaluable experience he gained as a rookie will enable him to have an even stronger sophomore campaign. Yates proved to be one of the best true freshmen to play for the Blue Raiders as he averaged right at 11 points, started 18 games and played in all 32. Yates had 19 double-figure scoring games and he led the team in scoring 10 times. In order to continue to improve and elevate his game Yates needs to become more of a force on the boards. The 6-foot-7 forward averaged 3.4 rebounds as a freshman.

Talented transfer awaits Blue Raider debut

After sitting out the 2006-07 season due to NCAA transfer rules, Middle Tennessee junior guard Demetrius Green is eagerly anticipating his debut as a Blue Raider. Green was a third-team junior college All-American at Daytona Beach Community College in 2004-05, averaing 11.7 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.1 assists in 32 games. He was the No. 2 prospect in Kentucky by the Louisville Courier Journal and Lexington Herald-Leader entering his season season. Green was named MVP of the Kentucky State Tournament as a sophomore and was runner-up Mr. Basketball in Kentucky to current Tennessee volunteer Chris Lofton.

Outshooting foes has been key

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 70-7 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher than the opponent. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo last season, despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 43 of the last 48 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 336 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.
