RAIDERS BEGIN THREE-GAME ROAD SWING: Middle Tennessee heads to Houston, Texas, to take on the Cougars in the first contest in a three-game road swing that also includes Arizona and Chattanooga. The Blue Raiders and Cougars have met seven times previously, with UH winning five of the contests, including both meetings in Houston. Middle Tennessee won the last meeting between the two schools, 62-35, in Murfreesboro on November 22, 2005, giving third-year head coach Rick Insell his first collegiate victory. In what was an horrendous night for shooting, the two teams were a combined 36-for-105 (.343) from the field, including 1-for-31 (.032) from 3-point range. The Blue Raiders led just 29-19 at halftime. Krystle Horton and Tia Stovall both had 13 points for Middle Tennessee, while Monique Martin added 11 despite shooting just 5-of-16. Sha'Ratta Hawkins led UH with 10 points. A full game story and box score from the contest appears on page 7 of these notes.

LYMON GETS GOING: Sophomore Chelsia Lymon had a big night last Wednesday against Tennessee Tech, scoring a career-high 15 points and setting career-high marks for FG made (5) and FG attempts (11). She also added four steals and a pair of 3-pointers in the victory as well. The Georgetown, Ky., native has returned to the court at full strength just nine months after tearing her ACL on February 11 at Western Kentucky. Lymon averaged 5.5 points in 16.3 minutes per game in 2006-07 and showed signs of her scoring prowess during her freshman campaign, including three double-figure scoring contests – 13 points versus top-ranked Maryland, 10 points against South Dakota State and 11 points at Louisiana-Monroe, her last game of the year before hurting her knee. Her return to the floor helps the Blue Raiders in several ways – adding to the depth at the point guard position as well as experience on a very young team, and also a scoring punch from the guard position.

ORR RETURNS FROM SUSPENSION: Senior Starr Orr was suspended for the two exhibition games as well as the first two contests of the regular season, at Old Dominion and versus Tennessee Tech, due to a violation of athletic department policy. The Danville, Ala., native will hit the court for the first time this season Monday at Houston. Orr averaged 5.5 points, 4.4 rebounds and 2.4 steals per game last season and the Blue Raiders were 30-2 when she started. She ranked 76th nationally in steals per game and scored in double figures eight times, including 10 points versus Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Orr's presence is a major factor in Middle Tennessee's pressure defense, as she is the quickest and perhaps longest player on the floor for the Blue Raiders, a big reason for her 80 steals last season.

BARCLAY CONTINUES TO IMPRESS: Senior Latoya Barclay has taken full advantage of being in the starting lineup for the first two games this season, scoring double figures in both contests, including a career-high 17 points at Old Dominion in the season opener on November 10. In just her second career start, Barclay was 6-of-9 shooting, including 3-of-5 from behind the arc, at ODU. The Harvest, Ala., native almost single-handedly brought the Blue Raiders back from a 17-point second-half deficit, hitting three straight 3-pointers during an 11-1 run that cut the deficit to three with just over three minutes remaining in the game. Not only did Barclay set a career high for points, but the Sparkman High School product also set career highs in FG made (6), 3-point FG made (3), 3-point FG attempts (5) and minutes (31), and tied her career high with nine FG attempts and four rebounds. She followed that performance with 11 points and three rebounds in the victory over Tennessee Tech. In her first three seasons in Murfreesboro, Barclay had scored in double figures just four times, including only once in 2006-07 (10 points vs. South Alabama on February 3).

BROWN STEPS UP HER GAME: Sophomore Brandi Brown came to Middle Tennessee as a heralded freshman in 2006-07 and showed flashes of her abilities on several occasions, scoring in double figures 11 times and hitting four or more 3-pointers in a game in eight different contests. The Jamestown, Tenn., native has been thrust into a more prominent role this season because of the Blue Raiders lack of depth along the frontline. That role was even more prevalent in the season opener at Old Dominion when Amber Holt picked up three fouls in the first six minutes of the game, making Brown the most experienced player on the floor at times. The York Institute product answered the call against ODU, scoring 13 points with four rebounds in a career-high 35 minutes, but even more than that continually battling underneath the rim for rebounds and deflections against the much taller Lady Monarchs. Brown will be asked to expand her play as the season progresses, as the Blue Raiders look for leadership as well as a second scoring option.

ily Queen made quite an impression in her first collegiate game, grabbing a team-high seven rebounds in just 16 minutes of action in the season opener at Old Dominion. The Ashland, Ky., native also scored three points, all from the foul line, and had one steal in the contest. Queen had to play crucial minutes against ODU, especially in the first half, after Amber Holt picked up three fouls in the first six minutes of the game. The Rose Hill Christian School product came to Middle Tennessee as the all-time leading scorer in school history with 1,513 career caroms. Queen showed her scoring prowess in the victory over Tennessee Tech, stepping behind the arc to hit three 3-pointers and posting nine points in the contest. Queen scored 2,907 career points in high school.

HOLT QUIETLY PRODUCTIVE: Senior Amber Holt did not play the way she wanted in the season opener at Old Dominion, picking up three fouls in the first six minutes of the game and then her fourth foul less than four minutes into the second half. But the Duluth, Ga., native played the final 12:26 of the contest with four fouls and posted very productive numbers despite playing just 22 minutes. Holt finished the game with 14 points and six rebounds as well as a career-high six assists. The Meadowcreek High School product followed that with 19 points and five rebounds, both team highs, in the Blue Raiders victory over Tennessee Tech last Wednesday. Holt was 9-of-14 from the field and played just 23 minutes in the contest.

ON THIS DATE: Middle Tennessee is 3-1 all-time on November 19, including 2-0 on the road. The Blue Raiders defeated Minnesota, 79-61, on this date last season at the Subway Classic, with Chrissy Givens scoring 25 points and Starr Orr adding 14 points and eight rebounds in the tournament championship game. Middle Tennessee won 73-63 at UAB in 1998, the other road game all-time on this date.

BLUE RAIDERS MISS THE MARK: Middle Tennessee shot just 22-of-64 (.344) from the field in the season opener at Old Dominion. The Blue Raiders had just one game last season where they shot worse, making 20-of-65 (.308) against South Dakota State on November 13. The squad has posted just two other games with a worse shooting percentage under head coach Rick Insell – at Chattanooga on November 18, 2005 (24-of-70, .343) and at Florida International on February 27, 2006 (22-of-67, .328). Middle Tennessee picked up its shooting in the victory over Tennessee Tech last Wednesday, hitting 33-of-65 (.508), including 12-of-26 (.462) from 3-point range.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Blue Raiders on Radio

■ All Blue Raider basketball games may be heard on WMOT FM 89.5, a 100,000 watt station that originates in Murfreesboro. Dick Palmer begins his first season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-play announcer and his 27th year of calling basketball at Middle Tennessee.

Interview Protocol

■ After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Rick Insell will be available for members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, the interview area is located just off the northeast corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Insell will be brought to an area designated by the home team. Player requests should be directed to assistant media relations director Jo Jo Freeman.

Credentials

■ Arrangement for media credentials for the 2007-08 basketball season should be directed to the Athletic Media Relations Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Jo Jo Freeman. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Middle Tennessee basketball on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space available basis.

Radio, Television Shows

■ The Rick Insell TV Show airs every other Tuesday on MTTV 10 in Murfreesboro beginning November 6 and following November 20; December 4 and 18; January 1, 15 and 29; February 12 and 26; and March 11. Coach Insell's radio show begins Monday, January 7, and airs each Monday for the remainder of the season. The radio show can be heard at 89.5 WMOT and also at GoBlueRaiders.com.

some of the nation's top teams, including 28 points and eight rebounds against top-ranked Maryland, 26 points and 10 boards versus Chattanooga and 21 points, including 15 in the second half, in Middle Tennessee's victory at eighth-ranked Georgia. Holt also scored 27 points against Old Dominion, tallied 15 points and 11 rebounds in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Championships versus Denver and posted 23 points against Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Duluth, Ga., native made it to the final cut this past summer for USA Basketball's Pan American Games Team.

Middle Tennessee received four first-place votes in the East Division and had 69 total points. The coaches picked Western Kentucky first in the division, with the Lady 'Toppers receiving nine first-place votes and 74 total points. Florida International was selected third in the East, with Troy and South Alabama tied for fourth and Florida Atlantic sixth.

BLUE RAIDERS 27TH IN FIRST ESPN/USA TODAY POLL: Middle Tennessee was ranked 27th in the Preseason ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll released October 31 and missed the Top 25 by just seven points. Defending national champion Tennessee was ranked No. 1 and garnered 26 of the 31 first-place votes in the poll, while Connecticut received four first-place votes and LSU, who Middle Tennessee plays on December 28 in Murfreesboro, garnered the remaining top vote. The Blue Raiders posted 71 points in the poll, while 25th-ranked N.C. State had 78 points. DePaul received 75 points and was ranked 26th. Middle Tennessee received 15 votes in the second ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll released November 13, ranking 33rd nationally.

The Blue Raiders were ranked in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll last season for the first time since 1988 and appeared in the final 12 rankings of the season, reaching as high as No. 16 and ending the year rated 23rd nationally. Middle Tennessee's 30-4 mark in 2006-07 was the best ever in the history of the program and one of the best in Sun Belt history, as the Blue Raiders rolled through league play and the conference tournament with a 21-0 mark against SBC competition.

HOLT SECOND TEAM ALL-AMERICAN, TEAM RANKED 13TH BY SPORTING NEWS: Middle Tennessee was ranked 13th and senior Amber Holt was named Second Team All-American by the Sporting News in their Preseason College Basketball magazine. It was the second preseason ranking for the Blue Raiders after Lindy's rated the club 22nd nationally. Middle Tennessee ended the 2006-07 season ranked 17th by the Associated Press and 23rd in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. The Blue Raiders return three starters and seven letterwinners from last year's record-setting 30-4 club.

Holt garnered First Team All-Sun Belt honors last season after averaging 16.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 2.7 steals per game. She started all 34 contests and scored in double figures in 30 games. The Duluth, Ga., native netted 28 points and eight rebounds in her first career game, versus top-ranked Maryland, and followed that with the first of three double-doubles during the season with 19 points and 10 boards against South Dakota State. Holt scored 26 points with 10 rebounds versus Chattanooga and 21 points, including 15 in the second half, in a victory at eighth-ranked Georgia. She also posted 27 points with eight boards, including 10-of-12 free throws, against Old Dominion. Holt registered 20-plus points in three straight games in February, scoring 27 against South Alabama, 25 at Louisiana-Monroe and 24 at Western Kentucky. She added 15 points and 11 rebounds versus Denver in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Championships and netted 20 points in the championship game against Louisiana-Lafayette. Holt scored 23 points versus Gonzaga in the opening contest of the NCAA Tournament.

RAIDERS 28TH IN FIRST AP POLL: Middle Tennessee was ranked 28th in the first Associated Press poll released on November 3. The Blue Raiders appeared in the final 10 AP polls in 2006-07, reaching as high as No. 16 on March 5. Last season's ranking was the first-ever in school history in the Associated Press poll for Middle Tennessee. The Blue Raiders ended the year ranked 17th in the final AP poll of 2006-07. Middle Tennessee was tied for 33rd in the second AP poll this year, released November 13, with nine votes.

BLUE RAIDERS 22ND IN LINDY'S: Middle Tennessee was ranked 22nd in a preseason poll released in Lindy's 2007-08 College Basketball Magazine. The Blue Raiders ended the 2006-07 season ranked 17th by the Associated Press and 23rd in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. Middle Tennessee returns three starters and seven letterwinners from last year's 30-4 club, including senior Amber Holt, who averaged 16.7 points and 6.3 rebounds per game. She also posted 2.7 steals per contest and scored in doubles figures in 30 of the 34 games. The Blue Raiders play three other teams in Lindy's Top 5, including Tennessee (No. 1), Maryland (No. 4) and LSU (No. 5).

HOLT NOW THE FIRST OPTION: Senior Amber Holt flourished as the second option in Middle Tennessee's offense last season, averaging 16.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 2.7 steals per contest. The Duluth, Ga., native will become the first option this season in head coach Rick Insell's motion offense. Holt had 10 games with 20-plus points last season, including 28 in the season opener versus Maryland and 27 points in mid-December against Old Dominion. Holt picked up her game considerably in the month of February, netting 27 points against South Alabama on February 3, 25 points at Louisiana-Monroe on February 7 and 24 points at Western Kentucky on February 11. She averaged 18.2 points in six February contests, netted 20 versus Louisiana-Lafayette in the championship game of the Sun Belt Championships and then posted 23 points against Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. She tied for first on the club with 6.3 rebounds per outing. Holt ranked 82nd nationally in scoring and 33rd in the country in steals per game last season.

WHO WILL BE THE SECOND OPTION: With Amber Holt becoming the team's first option on the offensive end, someone must step into the role as the second scorer for the Blue Raiders. The squad has several candidates for the position, but consistency from one of last year's role players is the key. Every returning player had at least one game in double figures last season and the six players combined for 32 double-digit contests – Brandi Brown (11), Starr Orr (8), Jackie Pickel (5), Johnna Abney (4), Chelsia Lymon (3) and Latoya Barclay (1).

HOME SWEET HOME: Middle Tennessee ended the 2005-06 season 15-1 at home, with its lone loss to then 17th-ranked Georgia on November 30, 2005. The Blue Raiders had their 12-game home winning streak snapped in last year's season-opener against top-ranked Maryland, losing 80-76, and then dropped a 72-61 decision three nights later to South Dakota State. But the squad rebounded, posting 13 straight victories at home and running head coach Rick Insell's mark on the home floor to 28-3 overall and 13-2 last season. Middle Tennessee owns an overall mark of 315-89 all-time at Murphy Center, a winning percentage of .780.

INSELL NUMBER ONE: With the win over Florida International on February 15, 2007, head coach Rick Insell posted his 44th victory at Middle Tennessee, the most in school history by a coach in his first two years. Insell broke the previous mark of 43 victories set by Lewis Bivens during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 campaigns. The Blue Raiders posted their 15th 20-win campaign in 31 seasons of varsity basketball this year, and Insell became just the second coach, along with Bivens, to have back-to-back 20-win campaigns to begin a career as head coach at Middle Tennessee. Insell begins his third season at Middle Tennessee with an overall record of 50-15.

Middle Tennessee 20-win seasons

- Pat Jones (20-5, 1977)
- Larry Inman (23-10, 1980; 20-5, 1982; 26-5, 1983; 23-7, 1985; 20-10, 1986)
- Lewis Bivens (22-8, 1988; 21-6, 1989; 21-7, 1993; 21-7, 1994; 24-6, 1996)
- Stephany Smith (24-8, 2004; 24-9, 2005)
- Rick Insell (20-11, 2006; 30-3, 2007)

RAIDERS VERY YOUNG IN 2007-08: Middle Tennessee will start the 2007-08 season with just 11 players available for head coach Rick Insell's relentless style of full court basketball, and only three of those players have played more than one season at Middle Tennessee – seniors Starr Orr and Latoya Barclay and junior Johnna Abney. Senior Amber Holt has been in Murfreesboro one year after transferring from Southeastern Illinois College. The rest of the squad is made up of three sophomores (Jackie Pickel, Chelsia Lymon and Brandi Brown), one redshirt freshman (Angelique Burtts) and three true freshmen (Emily Queen, Morgan Boyd and Anne Marie Lanning).

record for conference victories in 2006-07, running the table against SBC foes and compiling an 18-0 record. Last season marked the 20th time in the 31-year history of varsity basketball that Middle Tennessee has posted double-figure wins in league play. The 1982-83 squad's 10-0 record is the only other undefeated conference record in school history. The Blue Raiders broke the previous Sun Belt high of 16 league wins set by Louisiana Tech in both 1999-00 and 2000-01. Middle Tennessee ended the season 21-0 against Sun Belt opponents after winnings its fourth consecutive SBC Tournament. Only three other schools in the 31-year history of the Sun Belt finished undefeated in conference play (Old Dominion, 6-0 in 1984-85, 1987-88; UAB, 6-0 in 1990-91; Louisiana Tech, 14-0 in 1993-94, 1995-96, 12-0 in 1998-99, 16-0 in 1999-00, 2000-01). Across the nation last season, only seven other programs out of 31 conferences posted undefeated marks, including: George Washington, 14-0 in the Atlantic 10; Tennessee, 14-0 in the SEC; Connecticut, 16-0 in the Big East; Duke, 14-0 in the ACC; Wisconsin-Green Bay, 14-0 in the Horizon; Coppin State, 18-0 in the MEAC; and UT-Arlington, 16-0 in the Southland.

INSELL VOTED COACH OF THE YEAR: After setting the school-record for wins with 30 and setting a Sun Belt record with 18 league victories, Rick Insell was voted Coach of the Year by his peers in 2006-07. The Coach of the Year award is the first such honor for a Middle Tennessee head coach since Lewis Bivens in 1988. Insell has compiled a 50-15 record in his two seasons at the helm of the program, including last year's 30-4 mark, which included a 27-game winning streak. He compiled more wins in his first two seasons than any other previous Blue Raider coach and posted back-to-back 20-win campaigns for just the sixth time in school history.

HOLT GARNERS SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK TWICE: Forward Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on two occasions in 2006-07, on November 14 and again on February 5. The Duluth, Ga., native averaged 23.5 points and 9.0 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's first two games of the year, versus No. 1 Maryland and South Dakota State. Against the defending national champion Terrapins, Holt tallied 28 points on 11-of-24 shooting with eight rebounds. Her 15 first-half points kept the Blue Raiders in the contest when the Terrapins threatened to run away with the game. Against SDSU, Holt scored 19 points and added 10 boards for her first career double-double. In February, Holt averaged 20.0 points and 8.0 rebounds in the Middle Tennessee victories over Denver and South Alabama. The junior scored 13 points with eight boards and four assists versus Denver on January 31 before exploding for 27 points, eight rebounds, three assists and two steals against South Alabama on February 3. The 27-point effort was just one short of her career-high set in the season opener against Maryland and was her second 27-point effort of the season (Old Dominion on December 19 was the other). The Duluth, Ga., native was 11-for-16 from the field, tying her season-high for makes, and set career-highs by going 3-of-6 from 3-point range.

HOME DOMINATION CONTINUES VERSUS SBC FOES: Middle Tennessee's home dominance of Sun Belt foes continued throughout last season, as the Blue Raiders won their 30th in a row versus league foes at Murphy Center with a win on February 24 against Florida Atlantic. The last time Middle Tennessee dropped a conference home game was February 5, 2004, in double overtime against Western Kentucky. Overall, the Blue Raiders have won 34 of their last 35 home conference games and head coach Rick Insell is a perfect 18-0 at the Glass House against SBC competition. In fact, since joining the Sun Belt before the 2000-01 season, the Blue Raiders are 46-6 at home against Sun Belt competition, an exquisite .885 winning percentage. Western Kentucky has won two games, with South Alabama, Florida International, North Texas and New Mexico State claiming one victory each.

HOLT RECORDS THREE DOUBLE-DOUBLES: Junior Amber Holt was one of the main cogs in Middle Tennessee's success this season, recording three double-doubles and leading the Blue Raiders in either points and/or rebounds in 16 of the 32 games. Holt was the first to accomplish the double-double feat last season with 19 points and 10 rebounds against South Dakota State on November 13, just her second game as a Blue Raider. The Duluth, Ga., native then had 26 points and 10 boards versus Chattanooga on November 24. Holt's final double-double came during the Sun Belt Tournament, netting 15 points and grabbing a career-high 11 rebounds versus Denver in the semifinals. In 2004-05 and 2005-06, the Blue Raiders posted seven double-doubles as a team in each campaign and had 14 in 2003-04. Last season the squad had 12 double-doubles as a team.

BLUE RAIDERS RANK SIXTH IN ATTENDANCE INCREASE: After leading the nation in increased attendance in his first season as head coach, Rick Insell and Middle Tennessee ranked sixth nationally in increased attendance for the 2006-07 season, according to official figures released by the NCAA. Middle Tennessee ranked sixth in the country in increased attendance in 2006-07, averaging 4,157 fans for 15 home games. The 4,157 fans per contest ranked 26th nationally for average attendance per game, ahead of traditional women's basketball powers such as Kansas State, national runner-up Rutgers, Old Dominion, Stanford and Louisiana Tech. The Blue Raiders set a single-game record with 10,010 for the season-opener against top-ranked Maryland and had six total crowds over 4,000 during the 2006-07 campaign (Arkansas State - 4,884; Louisiana-Lafayette - 5,228; South Alabama - 4,711; Florida International - 4,907; Florida Atlantic - 5,505). The women's program has increased its attendance more than 550 percent over the last two seasons, going from 744 per contest in 2004-05 to 2,699 last season to this year's 4,157.

LAST TIME VERSUS HOUSTON

Houston not a problem

Lady Raiders answer last year's 24-point loss with blowout victory for Insell's first win

By Monte Hale Jr.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — Rick Insell has left the Murphy Center floor a winner numerous occasions. He can now add Nov. 22, 2005, to the victory milestone column.

Spearheaded by a tenacious defensive effort and aided by a horrible offensive showing by Houston, MTSU's Lady Raiders gave Insell his first collegiate victory as they dismantled the Cougars, 62-35, before a crowd of 2,622.

Despite the hoopla surrounding his first win as MTSU's coach, Insell said his players deserved credit for Tuesday's victory.

"I've put all of those wins (at Shelbyville) and put them on the shelf," said Insell. "I'm 1-1 and I'm proud to be 1-1.

"We've never talked about it being my first win here — ever. It's important that the spotlight is on our kids and what they did."

It wasn't necessarily a thing of beauty at times as MTSU (1-1) shot just 36 percent from the field, including 1-of-19 from 3-point range. However, the Cougars (1-2) shot just 31 percent and committed 29 turnovers, which MTSU converted into 24 points.

"I'm proud of the girls," Insell said. "Forty-four rebounds to 33, we knew we had to keep them off the boards ... To hold a team like that to 35 points is an accomplishment."

MTSU trailed just once, 5-4, early in the game and built a 29-19 halftime lead after closing the last six minutes with an 8-2 run.

"We felt real good at the half," Insell said. "The only negative was we had 11 turnovers and we've got to do a better job taking care of the basketball. And a lot of those were unforced."

MTSU wasted little time in building a 16-point lead in the second half as it held Houston to just two field goals in the first nine minutes after intermission.

MTSU junior forward Krystle Horton picked up her third foul with 17:52 left in the game, and senior forward Tia Stovall was tagged with her fourth with 14:13 left, but Houston never made a run and could get no closer than 14 points. The Lady Raiders led by as many as 27 points.

"I think it was very important what we did tonight — it kind of set the tone for the season," said Stovall, who had 13 points and five rebounds in just 19 minutes of play. "Not only to do it for (Insell), but for ourselves and our university."

MTSU, which lost to Houston 80-56 last season, had won just once in five previous meetings against the Cougars.

"Last year we didn't play that well," said Horton, "and we wanted to make sure we played better and that they knew we're not the same team, even though they may have lost some players."

MTSU held Houston to just 12 field goals, including four in the second half. The Cougars fared little better at the free throw line, where they hit just 11-of-21.

Horton had 13 points and seven rebounds, and sophomore Monique Martin added 11 points. Junior Chrissy Givens had eight points, seven rebounds and six assists.

GAME NOTES

INSELL'S OPENER: Middle Tennessee Head Coach Rick Insell won his first game as a collegiate coach tonight against Houston of Conference USA. After a disappointing season-opening loss at Chattanooga, Insell's Blue Raiders bounced back for a convincing victory. Insell, who won 775 games as a legendary high school coach at Shelbyville, picked up his first win at home in front of a crowd of 2,622.

BIG CROWD: Tonight's crowd of 2,622 was the largest home crowd since 2001 when the Blue Raiders drew 2,819 against Western Kentucky on Feb. 24. Middle Tennessee won that game as well, 75-70.

SHUT DOWN: The Blue Raiders won tonight's game with defense as they held Houston to just 35 total points and 30.8 percent shooting from the field. The point total is the fewest allowed by Middle Tennessee since giving up just 30 points against New Orleans in the first round of the SBC Tournament last year.

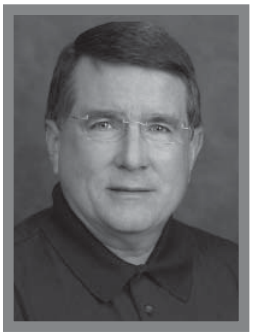
GIVENS HAS CAREER-HIGH: Junior Chrissy Givens set a personal-best in the win over Houston with six steals. Givens' previous high in that category was four on five different occasions. Givens now has 97 steals for her career.

HORTON HAS SOLID NIGHT: Junior Krystle Horton enjoyed a solid all-round game against Houston to help key the Blue Raider win. The Murfreesboro native poured in 13 points on 5-for-7 shooting to go along with seven rebounds, two assists, and two steals. It marked the 48th time during Horton's career she has scored in double figures.

BANGIN' THE BOARDS: Middle Tennessee dominated the glass against Houston by a 44-34 advantage as six different players pulled down at least five caroms to key the victory. More importantly, the Blue Raiders owned the offensive boards by a count of 19 to nine. Freshman Brittany Pittman led the way on the offensive end with four, while Lakira Boyd and Krystle Horton added three each. The Blue Raiders have now won the rebound battle in both games to start the 2005-06 season.

TIDBITS: Freshman LaCondra Mason made her first collegiate start tonight against Houston ... Freshman Brittany Pittman came off the bench to grab five rebounds in just eight minutes of action ... The win over Houston was just the second in seven attempts against the Lady Cougars ... The Middle Tennessee bench outscored the Houston bench, 19-6 ... Lakira Boyd equaled her career-high with five rebounds off the bench ... Monique Martin, playing her first home game as a Blue Raider, scored in double figures for the first time in her career with 11 points ... Chrissy Givens played all 40 minutes tonight and has now played 79 of 80 possible minutes this season.

Head Coach Rick Insell



Rick Insell begins his third season as head coach at Middle Tennessee amid great expectations after a record-breaking season in 2006-07 that included a school-record 30 victories, a fourth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament and a No. 16 national ranking by the Associated Press and the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll.

Insell has helped elevate the program into the national spotlight, including last season's victory at then eighth-ranked Georgia in early December. The victory in Athens was the first in program history over a ranked team on the road and just the fifth victory over a ranked foe in the 32-year history of the Middle Tennessee program.

The Blue Raiders won 27 games in a row in 2006-07, the longest streak in the nation at one point, and did not lose for more than 100 days.

Middle Tennessee eclipsed the school record for victories in a season as well last year, posting a 30-4 overall record, besting the previous mark of 26 set by the 1982-83 squad. The 2006-07 squad also tied the record for consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, tying a mark set from 1983-86, and collected the program's fourth consecutive 20-win campaign, also a school record. The four straight conference tournament titles also ties a school record set from 1983-86.

Insell's two-year mark of 50-15 is the best back-to-back seasons in program history, bettering the mark of 48-17 posted during 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Fans have also taken notice of the team's entertaining playing style. Middle Tennessee led the nation in increased attendance percentage in 2005-06, drawing 2,699 fans per game, a 276 percent increase over the previous season. The Blue Raiders improved on that number in 2006-07 as well, setting a single-game record with 10,010 in the season opener against defending national champion Maryland and averaging 4,157 fans for 15 home games, an increase of 65 percent. Middle Tennessee's attendance ranked in the Top 30 nationally and the crowd for the Maryland game was one of the Top 50 for attendance in the nation in 2006-07.

Insell also developed one of the best players in school history over the last two seasons. Chrissy Givens registered the second-most points in school history in 2005-06 and eclipsed the top mark in 2006-07, and ranked in the Top 10 nationally in scoring both seasons.

Insell, a Woodbury, Tenn., native, made a huge splash in his first year at the helm of the Middle Tennessee program, guiding the Blue Raiders to their third consecutive Sun Belt Tournament title and doing so in front of a record-setting home crowd in the finals of the Sun Belt Championships.

Insell directed one of the most thrilling comebacks in Sun Belt Tournament history, leading Middle Tennessee to an 84-73 win over Western Kentucky after being down by as many as 14 points in the first half.

The 2005-06 campaign also saw another first in program history as three players – Givens, Tia Stovall and Krystle Horton – all joined the 1,000-point club. It marked the first time in school history three current players all were represented on the prestigious list, and the Blue Raiders were one of only four teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament to boast such an honor.

Middle Tennessee notched one of its biggest wins of the season when the Blue Raiders defeated traditional Big 10 power Penn State, 79-65, in the UAB Blaze Tournament in December.

With the first conference title and NCAA Tournament appearance under his belt, Insell's recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally and included current sophomores Jackie Pickel, Brandi Brown and Chelsia Lymon.

A 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, Insell built a high school girls basketball dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, just a 30-

INSELL'S INS AND OUTS

- Janaury 17, 2007 - Rick Insell and Middle Tennessee featured in two-page spread in USA Today about the program's rise to national prominence and success during his brief tenure.
- Voted Sun Belt Coach of the Year in 2006-07, his first SBC Coach of the Year honor and the first such accolade for a Middle Tennessee head coach since 1988.
- Elected to National High School Hall of Fame in Febraury 2007, one of only six Tennesseans inducted by the National Federation of State High School Associations.
- Led Middle Tennessee to school-record 30 victories in 2006-07, including a perfect 21-0 against Sun Belt opponents. The Blue Raiders won their fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament and played in their fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament in 2006-07.
- Signed a recruiting class ranked in the Top 10 nationally after the 2005-06 season.
- Appeared on Dateline on December 26, 2004. The program produced a one-hour segment on Insell, focusing on him and his Shelbyville Eaglettes. The program was shown internationally.
- March 22, 2003 - Rick Insell was inducted into the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Hall of Fame.
- Insell and the Eaglettes received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement.
- In 1989, ESPN did a feature story on the Shelbyville Eaglettes that aired nationally several times. The story won the National Television Journalism Award later that year. It was the first of several stories ESPN did on Insell and his team.
- In 1992, Rick Insell was named Head Coach of the Girls High School All-American Game and from 1992-96 was a member of the All-American Selection Committee. He became the chairman of the All-American Selection Committee in 1996 and began serving as an advisor in 1999.
- Insell was named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors as High School Representative in 2001.

minute drive from the Middle Tennessee campus. He guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today national championships (1989, 1991), as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure.

Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991 and he also was been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992). A name synonymous with high school girls basketball in Tennessee, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992), most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team so honored.

For his accomplishments at Shelbyville, Insell was elected to the National High School Hall of Fame in February 2007 and was inducted with a class of 12 in July 2007. Insell is one of only six Tennesseeans, including just the fourth coach, elected to the National High School Hall of Fame.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central won 23 district championships, 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. He developed six Tennessee Class AAA Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Middle Tennessee won its fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament in 2006-07, earning a fourth consecutive berth in the NCAA Tournament.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville during his time there, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom, as evidenced by his teams receiving the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000, an award based on team grade-point-average. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville from 1989-00 was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98. The academic emphasis has continued during his tenure at Middle Tennessee, as the Blue Raiders posted a cumulative 3.22 GPA in Fall 2006.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville team received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement and his teams also have been honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, the Tennessee State House and Senate and by two Tennessee Governors.

Insell had high praise for the head coaching position when he accepted the position at Middle Tennessee.

"Dreams do come true," Insell said after Director of Athletics Chris Massaro announced his hiring on May 18, 2005. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me, but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them, then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

Insell is married to Debbie and the couple have three sons, Tom, Kyle and Matt.

LAST TIME OUT FOR MIDDLE TENNESSEE

A quick drubbing
Lady Raiders make short work of visiting Tennessee Tech
By Monte Hale, Jr.
hale@dnj.com

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. -- It didn't take long for MTSU to set the tempo for its home opener against Tennessee Tech Wednesday night at Murphy Center.

It didn't take long, either, for the Lady Raiders to race out to a 89-62 rout before a crowd of 2,614.

MTSU hit seven of its first 10 shots, which proved to a sign of things to come as the Lady Raiders drained 12 3-pointers and shot 51 percent from the field.

"Anytime you shoot the ball like we shot it, and we got some good looks and kept knocking them down, you're going to have a chance to have a good night," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "Overall, I was pleased with our intensity."

MTSU forced 33 Golden Eaglette turnovers, including 20 in the first half.

Tennessee Tech continuously struggled to get the ball in the half-court against the Lady Raiders' pressure defense. The Golden Eaglettes managed just eight shots in the first 12 minutes and only 15 in the first half.

"We take a lot of pride in our press and we were able to contain the ball," said MTSU sophomore guard Chelsia Lymon, who had four of MTSU's 24 steals. "They're a good team with good shooters, and we did a good job rotating."

Seven different Lady Raiders hit 3-pointers and five players hit for double figures, led by senior forward Amber Holt's 19. Freshman Emily Queen hit three 3-pointers, while Lymon, Anne Marie Lanning and Jackie Pickel hit two apiece.

"Hopefully we won't ever start off shooting like we did against Old Dominion," Pickel said of the Lady Raiders' shooting woes in a 76-68 season-opening loss Saturday. "When one of us hits one, we do gravitate and feel the energy off each other."

MTSU led 58-24 at halftime and went ahead by as many as 44 points in the second half, when it outscored Tennessee Tech 16-6 in the first five minutes. However, the Lady Raiders scored just 15 points in the final 15 minutes.

"We changed our press in the second half," Insell said, "but we needed to work on some things that we'll have to do later. We gave up some easy baskets, but they were things we needed to work on.

"We've got a lot of work to do, but it was a good win tonight."

Lymon had 15 points, while Lanning had 12 and Latoya Barclay 11. Queen netted nine.

Tennessee Tech (1-1) was led by Cara Reed's 13 points, while freshman and former Smyrna standout Jasmine White netted 11. The Golden Eaglettes shot 64 percent (23-of-36) but were obviously plagued by the 33 floor mistakes.

MTSU begins a three-game road swing Monday at Houston. The Lady Raiders return home Dec. 2 against Western Carolina.

GAME NOTES

Middle Tennessee improved to 22-11 all-time in home openers. The Blue Raiders are now 32-37 all-time against Tennessee Tech and have won three in a row in the series and three straight at home over the Golden Eagles ... Middle Tennessee made 12 3-pointers in the contest after making 11 at Old Dominion last Saturday. The Blue Raiders now have 18 games with double-digit 3-pointers made under third-year head coach Rick Insell after posting five such contests in 2005-06 and 11 more last season ... Sophomore Chelsia Lymon had a big night, scoring a career-high 15 points and setting career-high marks for FG made (5) and FG attempts (11). She also added four steals and a pair of 3-pointers in the victory ... Freshman Anne Marie Lanning came back from a tough game at ODU to score 12 points, hand out four assists and make seven steals versus TTU ... Middle Tennessee improved to 48-4 under Insell when leading at the half and upped its mark to 43-3 when holding an opponent under 65 points.

Freshman Anne Marie Lanning scored 18 points, leading four double figure scorers, and senior Amber Holt netted 12 points and grabbed 14 rebounds in just 19 minutes of action, as Middle Tennessee defeated North Alabama, 82-36, in women's exhibition action Thursday night at Murphy Center.

Middle Tennessee scored 20 of the game's first 22 points, but went cold late in the half and led just 31-22 at the break. But the Blue Raiders went on a 21-3 run to start the second half and pull away from the Lions.

Middle Tennessee won the battle of the boards, 54-30, with Holt leading with way with her 14 caroms, including 12 in the first half. Freshman Emily Queen scored 11 points and sophomore Chelsia Lymon added 10 for the Blue Raiders in front of 1,681 in the first of two exhibition games over the next five days.

The Blue Raiders scored 20 of the game's first 22 points, including an 11-0 run to start the game over the first three minutes. Amber Rutherford netted UNA's first basket at the 16:45 mark and she also scored the Lions second bucket at 13:48.

UNA got back into the game when Middle Tennessee went six minutes with just one basket. The Lions put together a 14-5 run over an eight minute stretch to pull within 29-21, but the Blue Raiders scored the final four points of the half on free throws, two each from Lanning and Queen.

Holt scored eight points and grabbed 12 rebounds in the first half, while Lanning added seven points.

In the second half Lanning netted eight of her 18 points during the 21-3 run, while Holt and Latoya Barclay each added four. Lanning was a perfect 8-for-8 at the foul line in the contest, grabbed six rebounds, dished out four assists and made four steals.

Sophomore Jackie Pickel had seven rebounds for the Blue Raiders, sophomore Brandi Brown added nine points and five boards, and redshirt freshman Angelique Burtts netted nine points in her first career game.

Amber Holt scored 22 points and Anne Marie Lanning added 21, leading six double-figure scorers, and Middle Tennessee hit 15 3-pointers in the contest, as the Blue Raiders rolled to a 108-49 victory over Henderson State Monday night in women's basketball exhibition action at Murphy Center.

Middle Tennessee took advantage of aggressive play from Henderson State, who committed 30 personal fouls in the contest, putting the Blue Raiders at the foul line 31 times. Holt hit 10-of-11 at the foul line and Middle Tennessee made 25-of-31 as a team.

The Blue Raiders struggled from the field in a very sloppy first half, hitting just 32 percent from the floor and 25 percent from 3-point range. The Lady Reddies committed 18 personal fouls in the half, allowing Middle Tennessee to shoot 19 free throws in the opening 20 minutes, of which the Blue Raiders made 16.

Holt was 8-of-9 from the foul line and tallied 14 points in the half, while Lanning had nine points and Emily Queen grabbed seven rebounds.

In the second half Middle Tennessee turned up the defensive pressure and scored 70 points over the final 20 minutes, shooting 57 percent from the field and 52 percent from behind the arc. The Blue Raiders forced 18 second half turnovers and turned them into 32 points.

Middle Tennessee opened the second half with a 15-4 run, highlighted by six points from Holt. The Blue Raiders made 11 trifectas in the second half, including five from Johnna Abney, who finished with 15 points.

Queen grabbed a game-high 10 boards, while Morgan Boyd and Angelique Burtts both scored 11 points and Jackie Pickel added 10. Burtts also had seven rebounds in just 13 minutes of action.

For 32 minutes, Middle Tennessee looked out-of-place and out-of-sync Saturday night against Old Dominion. But then the Blue Raiders dialed up the defense, forcing five straight turnovers and cutting the deficit to three points, but Old Dominion pulled away in the end en route to a 76-68 season-opening victory at the Ted Constant Convocation Center.

Middle Tennessee (0-1) trailed by as many as 17 points in the second half and was down 68-55 with 6:11 remaining in the game. But the Blue Raiders scored 12 of the game's next 13 points, started by a 3-pointer from Brandi Brown and including a trio of trifectas from senior Latoya Barclay. The 12-1 spurt took just over three minutes, pulling the Blue Raiders with three points at 69-66.

After another ODU turnover, Middle Tennessee had the ball with a chance to tie, but Jackie Pickel missed a 3-pointer from the corner. Lady Monarch Shalida Williams drove to the basket on the other end, hitting Megan Pym for a driving layup and taking the momentum away from the Blue Raiders.

Pym had another layup on a putback the next time up the floor and Old Dominion made their free throws over the final minute, just as they had all night.

Barclay finished the game with a career-high 17 points, including 15 in the second half, in just the second start of her career. Brown was also a major factor for the Blue Raiders, netting 14 points with four rebounds in 35 minutes of action.

Everyone on the Blue Raiders had to step into a more prominent role after senior Amber Holt played just six minutes in the first half because of three fouls and then picked up her fourth foul less than four minutes into the second half. The Duluth, Ga., native did play the final 12:26 of the contest without fouling out, scoring 14 points with six rebounds in just 22 minutes of action.

Middle Tennessee trailed by seven at the half, but the Lady Monarchs scored the first six points after intermission before the Blue Raiders answered with a pair of 3-pointers, one from Holt and the other from Pickel, who scored nine points in the game on a trio of trifectas.

But ODU expanded the lead to 17 points in the second half thanks to the charity stripe, the Lady Monarchs best friend for most of the game. ODU's Tiffany Green hit 6-of-7 in the second half and ODU was 11-of-15 after the break and 27-for-35 in the contest. Compare that to Middle Tennessee, who shot just three free throws after halftime and only 17 foul shots in the game.

Anne Marie Lanning grabbed six rebounds and Emily Queen came off the bench to contribute seven boards for the Blue Raiders, who were outrebounded only 44-41 despite a large difference in size at almost every position. T.J. Jordan led four double figure scorers for ODU with 19 points, while Williams had 15, Green added 12 and Jessica Canady scored 13 off the bench.

It didn't take long for MTSU to set the tempo for its home opener against Tennessee Tech Wednesday night at Murphy Center.

It didn't take long, either, for the Lady Raiders to race out to a 89-62 rout before a crowd of 2,614.

MTSU hit seven of its first 10 shots, which proved to a sign of things to come as the Lady Raiders drained 12 3-pointers and shot 51 percent from the field.

"Anytime you shoot the ball like we shot it, and we got some good looks and kept knocking them down, you're going to have a chance to have a good night," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "Overall, I was pleased with our intensity."

MTSU forced 33 Golden Eaglette turnovers, including 20 in the first half.

Tennessee Tech continuously struggled to get the ball in the half-court against the Lady Raiders' pressure defense. The Golden Eaglettes managed just eight shots in the first 12 minutes and only 15 in the first half.

"We take a lot of pride in our press and we were able to contain the ball," said MTSU sophomore guard Chelsia Lymon, who had four of MTSU's 24 steals. "They're a good team with good shooters, and we did a good job rotating."

Seven different Lady Raiders hit 3-pointers and five players hit for double figures, led by senior forward Amber Holt's 19. Freshman Emily Queen hit three 3-pointers, while Lymon, Anne Marie Lanning and Jackie Pickel hit two apiece.

"Hopefully we won't ever start off shooting like we did against Old Dominion," Pickel said of the Lady Raiders' shooting woes in a 76-68 season-opening loss Saturday. "When one of us hits one, we do gravitate and feel the energy off each other."

MTSU led 58-24 at halftime and went ahead by as many as 44 points in the second half, when it outscored Tennessee Tech 16-6 in the first five minutes. However, the Lady Raiders scored just 15 points in the final 15 minutes.

"We changed our press in the second half," Insell said, "but we needed to work on some things that we'll have to do later. We gave up some easy baskets, but they were things we needed to work on.

"We've got a lot of work to do, but it was a good win tonight."

Lymon had 15 points, while Lanning had 12 and Latoya Barclay 11. Queen netted nine.

Tennessee Tech (1-1) was led by Cara Reed's 13 points, while freshman and former Smyrna standout Jasmine White netted 11. The Golden Eaglettes shot 64 percent (23-of-36) but were obviously plagued by the 33 floor mistakes.
