GAME DAY NOTES: The Lady Raiders will try to bounce back from its first Sun Belt Conference loss when Middle Tennessee faces offf against the University of New Orleans. The game will technically be played at a neutral cite as the two teams will play in the Aliro Center. Middle Tennessee holds a 2-0 advantage over UNO as the Lady Raiders won both games played in the Murphy Center. Western Kentucky is coming off a 63-54 loss to Western Kentucky on Thursday. The Lady Privateers are led by Monique Taylor who is averaging 12.5 points and 5.2 rebounds per game.

LAST GAME: Middle Tennessee women's basketball dropped its first Sun Belt Conference game of the year in the Lady Raiders opening road game 72-58 against South Alabama. Middle Tennessee took the lead for the first time since 2-0 on a Patrice Holmes three-point bucket with 17:10 to play in the game. Taneshia Russell answered with a trey of her own to tie the game 34 all. The Lady Raiders led 38-34 at the 15-minute mark, but then South Alabama proceeded to go on a 14-0 run that included three treys and the Lady Raiders could never recover. South Alabama hit nine three-point shots in the game with seven coming in the second half. Taneisha Russell three of the treys and ended the game with 17 points. Overall the Lady Raiders shot a frosty 32 percent from the field and hit only 9-out of-15 free throws. South Alabama shot 53 percent from the field and 52 percent from the three-point line.

MEDIA INFORMATION

WEBPAGE: For updated releases and game notes, statistics, boxscores, and player and coach bios, please click on GoBlueRaiders.com for all your requests. The media relations office will have game notes on the site one day before the upcoming contest and will have boxscores and game recaps available immediately following all contests. Also, 300 dpi player and coach mugshots can be obtained by media outlets at Media.GoBlueRaiders.com.

CREDENTIALS: All credentials must be requested from Denise Gideon, Assistant Media Relations Director, at least 24 hours prior to tipoff. Media accomodations are on a PRIORITY basis: daily newspapers, originating radio stations, national electronic media outlets and local and regional television crews. All credential requests must be submitted on letterhead to the MT Athletic Media Relations Office. No credentials will be mailed unless you specifically request such service -- your credentials can be picked up at the media gate at Murphy Center on gameday. Access to press row Mulb be granted only to authorized persons with press row passes for that specific game. Spouses, dates, children and other non-workers are not permitted in the working press areas.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Both the Middle Tennessee and visiting locker rooms are located on the lower concourse of Murphy Center on the east side. Approximately 10 minutes after the game, Stephany Smith will come to the interview room first, located in room G-102 of Murphy Center, followed by the visiting coach. At home games, Middle Tennessee players will be available following a 10-minute cooling off period.

On the road, the MT coaches and players will be available following a 10-minute cooling off period. Smith will meet with the media following her postgame talk with the team, and players will be made available upon request.

STEPHANY SMITH RADIO SHOW: Stephany Smith and men's basketball coach Kermit Davis will once again participate in the Blue Raider Basketball show on Monday evenings beginning at 6 p.m. The show, which is broadcast live each week from Toot's restaurant in Murfreesboro, will be aired on WBOZ FM 104.9. The show will feature comments from the coaches about their team's performances and upcoming games. Each coach will also field questions from audience members.

Stephany Smith

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Sixth Season as Head Coach/Tenth at MT

Middle Tennessee head women's basketball coach Stephany Smith in her sixhth season at the helm of the Lady Raiders in 2002-03, and her 10th in the MT program. The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches, compiling a 96-66 mark in her six seasons as the head coach in Murfreesboro.

As she coaches in her sixth campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills and knowledge of the game.

During her tenure in Murfreesboro, Smith has both an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. Three of Smith's teams have competed in postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at MT to former head coach Lewis Bivens, heading up the team's recruiting efforts during that time. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1994-95 and 1995-96, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the MT staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first atlarge bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB coordinating recruiting for the Blazers before her arrival at Middle Tennessee. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, 91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, 92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989.

Teams associated with Smith have a 221-133 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win seasons.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting, and she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. Two of her former players at UAB have gone on to the professional ranks.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain. Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark. with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. with an emphasis in Physical Education in August 1989.

Smith began her collegiate experience at the University of Mississippi before transferring to Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding, and also spent a year as the Head Girls Track Coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

The personable Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful summer camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow." She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).

Smith's father was inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2002. Ralph "Catfish" Smith won two national championships as a member of the Ole Miss football team in 1959 and 1960, and played 10 years in the NFL.

Officials: Felicia Grinter, Jay Davis, Ernest Jones Technical fouls: C-N-None. MT-None.

GAME NOTES:
After seeing limiting playing time last season, Eboni Kirby made the most of her starting nod against Carson Newman. It was her second double figure scoring effort of the exhibition season as she scored 10 points against against Georgia College and State University and 26 against Carson Newman. Middle Tennessee started slow in the first half but shot 75 percent in the second half to pull away from the Lady Eagles.

GAME NOTES:
Middle Tennessee picked up its 500th victory as a program. Freshman Tia Stovall and junior Jennifer Justice each had 14 points to lead the Lady Ralders. Middle Tennessee fell behind early, but took the lead on a Tiffany Fisher steal and bucket to make it 14-12 in the first half and never looked back. The Lady Ralders held Tennessee Tech to just two field goals in final 10 minutes of the first half.

Middle Tennessee's 18 turnovers was too much for the Lady Raiders to overcome, as Cincinnati only had nine. The Lady Raiders trailed 32-27 at the half, and came to within six (47-41) run but couldn't fight off the tough play of Debbie Merrill and Valerie King. Sophomore Patrice Holmes led the Lady Raiders with 18 points.

GAME NOTES:
Sophomore Patrice Holmes had a chance for the win in the final two seconds of the game, but her three-point attempt hit the rim and rolled off. The Lady Raiders tied the game on a Holmes three with 11 seconds left to play, but a shooting foul called on Paula Pentitla put UWM's Jessica Wilhite at the free throw line and she drained both for the lead and the win. Holmes, who was named to the Wildcat Classic All-Tournament Team, led the Lady Raiders with a season-high 25 points.

GAME NOTES:

Sophomore Eboni Kirby scored a career-high 20 points to help lead Middle Tennessee (6-4) to an 83-62 win over Tennessee State (2-7) Saturday in Murphy Center. After trailing for most of the first half, Middle Tennessee entered the locker room with a 31-27 advantage. The Lady Raiders shot 63 percent in the second half and outscored the Lady Tigers 52-35 in the second half to pull away and take the win. Kirby was near perfection from the field shooting 9-of-10 and also snagged six rebounds. She led three other Lady Raiders in double figure scoring as Patrice Holmes and Tia

Stovall each added 14 and Paula Penttila had 12.

GAME NOTES

Five players scored in double figures to help lead Middle Tennessee's Lady Raiders (7-5, 1-0) to a 74-62 win over Western Kentucky (5-7, 0-1) Saturday in opening action of Sun Belt Conference play. Western Kentucky committed 29 turnovers in the game and Middle Tennessee capitalized on the Lady Topper mistakes by scoring 27 points off turnovers. The Lady Raiders also won the war in the paint as the team scored 28 points to the Lady Toppers 20. From the opening basket, scored by Eboni Kirby, Middle Tennessee never relinquished the lead. The Lady Raider led by 20 (71-51) with 1:33 left to play in the game, but three straight three-point shots by WKU cut the lead to 73-62 with 14 seconds left to play. Kirby finished the game with 10 seconds left when she was 1-of-2 from the free throw line, and the Western Kentucky's Lesile Logsdon's three-point shot was off the mark as the buzzer sounded.

GAME NOTES:

The Lady Raiders scored 31 points off 27 Arkansas-Little Rock turnovers to assist Middle Tennessee to its 68-29 win over UALR on Saturday January 11. The 29 points scored by Arkansas-Little Rock ties the Lady Trojan's school record for lowest offensive output. It is the third lowest opponent score total a Middle Tennessee team has allowed in school history. With the score tied 6-6 with 15:49 left to play in the first half, Middle Tennessee went on a 14-0 run to pull away for Arkansas-Little Rock and the team never looked back. The Lady Raiders shot 50 percent from the field as opposed to Arkansas-Little Rock's frosty 23-9 percent. The Lady Raiders also got 34 points in the paint and recorded 26 points off the

GAME NOTES:

Middle Tennessee women's basketball dropped its first Sun Belt Conference game of the year in the Lady Raiders opening road game 72-58 against South Alabama. Middle Tennessee took the lead for the first time since 2-0 on a Patrice Holmes three-point bucket with 17:10 to play in the game. Taneshia Russell answered with a trey of her own to tie the game 34 all. The Lady Raiders led 38-34 at the 15-minute mark, but then South Alabama proceeded to go on a 14-0 run that included three treys and the Lady Raiders could never recover. South Alabama hit nine three-point shots in the game with seven coming in the second half. Taneisha Russell three of the treys and ended the game with 17 points. Overall the Lady Raiders shot a frosty 32 percent from the field and hit only 9-out of-15 free throws. South Alabama shot 53 percent from the field and 52 percent from the three-point line.
