HOLT LEADING OFFENSE IN SECOND HALF: Senior Amber Holt has been Middle Tennessee's offensive leader in three of the club's first four games this season, but Holt's biggest contribution has come in the second half where she has scored in double figures in all four contests. The Duluth, Ga., native is averaging 22.5 points per game this season, including 14.3 per outing in the second half. The last two contests, at Houston and Arizona, Holt has played her best after the break and helped the Blue Raiders to a pair of road triumphs. At Houston, she scored 17 of her career-high 30 points after halftime, including nine straight in the second half after the Cougars tied the game. At Arizona this past Sunday, the Meadowcreek HS product tallied 19 of her game-high 27 points after the break, including the first six points of the second half and seven of the team's final 11 points of the contest. Holt also scored 11 of her 14 points at Old Dominion in the season opener and 10 of her 19 points versus Tennessee Tech in the second half.

The Blue Raiders are 2-1 on the road this season with consecutive victories at Houston and Arizona on this road swing. Middle Tennessee posted a school-record 13 road wins last season and upped its mark to 19-11 on the road under third-year head coach Rick Insell with last Sunday's victory at Arizona. The Blue Raiders have won 15 of their last 17 games on opponents' home floors, with losses at Tennessee (11/26/06) and Old Dominion (11/10/07) the only setbacks.

HOLT VOTED SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Middle Tennessee's Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on November 20 after helping the Blue Raiders to a pair of victories.

Holt averaged 24.5 points and 10.0 rebounds per game in Middle Tennessee victories over Tennessee Tech and at Houston. The senior set career-highs with 30 points and 15 rebounds in the 69-68 triumph at Houston, including scoring nine straight points in the second half after the Cougars tied the game. She also had career-highs in field goals made (13) and field goal attempts (27) and added four assists and three steals in 37 minutes in the contest. Against Tennessee Tech, Holt scored 19 points with five rebounds, three assists and two steals. It is Holt's third career Player of the Week accolade after garnering the honor twice last season – November 14 and February 5.

THREE BALL, CORNER POCKET: During head coach Rick Insell's first two seasons in Murfreesboro, Middle Tennessee's offensive style has included a bevy of 3-pointers each and every contest. Nothing has changed this season, as the Blue Raiders are averaging 25.8 3-point attempts per contest. Middle Tennessee is shooting 37 percent from behind the arc, down a bit after Sunday's 7-for-26 performance at Arizona. But the shots in Tucson were quality looks and just didn't go down, with three or four spinning around the rim before falling out. The Blue Raiders have two contests this season with double-digit 3-point makes (11 at Old Dominion, 12 vs. Tennessee Tech) and have 18 games with double-digit 3-pointers made under Rick Insell after posting five such contests in 2005-06 and 11 more last season.

BARCLAY PROVIDES A SPARK: Senior Latoya Barclay has provided the Blue Raiders with a much-needed spark during the young season with both her defense and scoring. Barclay scored in double figures in the first two games of the year, including a career-high 17 points at Old Dominion in the season opener. In just her second career start, Barclay was 6-of-9 shooting, including 3-of-5 from behind the arc, at ODU. The Harvest, Ala., native almost single-handedly brought the Blue Raiders back from a 17-point second-half deficit, hitting three straight 3-pointers during an 11-1 run that cut the deficit to three with just over three minutes remaining in the game. Not only did Barclay set a career high for points, but the Sparkman High School product also set career highs in FG made (6), 3-point FG made (3), 3-point FG attempts (5) and minutes (31), and tied her career high with nine FG attempts and four rebounds. She followed that performance with 11 points and three rebounds in the victory over Tennessee Tech on November 14. This past Sunday at Arizona, Barclay came off the bench and was a big part of Middle Tennessee expanding a two-point halftime lead en route to victory against the Wildcats. She hit a 3-pointer in the corner before Amber Holt had a bucket underneath. Barclay then got a deflection and a steal and dribbled in to take a mid-range jumper off the glass for a nine-point advantage with 7:43 remaining in the contest. For the season Barclay is second on the squad with 8.8 points per game and also has seven assists and five steals while averaging 24.8 minutes per outing.

season's 30-4 campaign, has been its ability to force turnovers and turn those into points but also the team's knack for limiting its own miscues. In 2006-07 the Blue Raiders turned the ball over 14.6 times per game but forced 26.3 miscues by opponents, turning those into 30.2 points per outing. Through this season's first three games, Middle Tennessee had committed 19.7 turnovers per game, but the Blue Raiders improved on that number drastically in Sunday's win at Arizona, posting just 14 turnovers in the 70-60 victory. Middle Tennessee has continued to use its defense to force opponents into turnovers. Through the four games in 2007-08, opponents have committed 93 miscues, or 23.3 per game, and the Blue Raiders have 99 points off those turnovers, or 24.8 per contest.

RAIDERS VERY YOUNG IN 2007-08: Middle Tennessee will play the 2007-08 season with just 11 players available for head coach Rick Insell's relentless style of full court basketball, and only three of those players have played more than one season at Middle Tennessee – seniors Starr Orr and Latoya Barclay and junior Johnna Abney. Senior Amber Holt has been in Murfreesboro one year after transferring from Southeastern Illinois College. The rest of the squad is made up of three sophomores (Jackie Pickel, Chelsia Lymon and Brandi Brown), one redshirt freshman (Angelique Burtts) and three true freshmen (Emily Queen, Morgan Boyd and Anne Marie Lanning). A good example of the program's youth came November 25 at Arizona. The Blue Raiders played at the McKale Center against Utah in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06, but only three players remain on the squad who played in that contest – Orr, Barclay and Abney.

ON THIS DATE: Middle Tennessee owns a 5-3 record all-time on November 28, which includes a current three-game losing streak. The Blue Raiders are 0-2 in road games on this date, defeats at UAB in 2000 and Houston in 2004.

SERIES WITH CHATTANOOGA: Middle Tennessee owns a 24-16 all-time record against Chattanooga, with the Blue Raiders 11-8 all-time on the road in the series. The Lady Mocs defeated the Blue Raiders, 76-66, two years ago at McKenzie Arena in the season opener for both teams and the collegiate coaching debut of Middle Tennessee's Rick Insell. Middle Tennessee had won four of the last five meetings at UTC before the 2005 defeat. Last year in Murfreesboro, the Blue Raiders won 98-69 behind 29 points from Chrissy Givens and 26 points and 10 rebounds from Amber Holt. A full listing of the series scores may be found on page 139 in the Middle Tennessee media guide.

The Blue Raiders had just one game last season where they shot worse, making 20-of-65 (.308) against South Dakota State on November 13. The squad has posted just two other games with a worse shooting percentage under head coach Rick Insell – at Chattanooga on November 18, 2005 (24-of-70, .343) and at Florida International on February 27, 2006 (22-of-67, .328). Middle Tennessee picked up its shooting in the victory over Tennessee Tech last Wednesday, hitting 33-of-65 (.508), including 12-of-26 (.462) from 3-point range.

Preseason Notes

HOLT VOTED FIRST TEAM, BLUE RAIDERS PICKED SECOND IN SBC: Middle Tennessee senior Amber Holt was voted First Team All-Sun Belt and the Blue Raiders were picked second in the East in a poll of league coaches released during the Sun Belt Media Days in Mobile, Ala. Holt was a First Team All-SBC selection last season after averaging 16.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 2.7 steals per contest. She is one of three starters returning for the Blue Raiders from last year's record-setting 30-4 club.

She had her best games in 2006-07 against some of the nation's top teams, including 28 points and eight rebounds against top-ranked Maryland, 26 points and 10 boards versus Chattanooga and 21 points, including 15 in the second half, in Middle Tennessee's victory at eighth-ranked Georgia. Holt also scored 27 points against Old Dominion, tallied 15 points and 11 rebounds in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Championships versus Denver and posted 23 points against Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Duluth, Ga., native made it to the final cut this past summer for USA Basketball's Pan American Games Team.

Middle Tennessee received four first-place votes in the East Division and had 69 total points. The coaches picked Western Kentucky first in the division, with the Lady 'Toppers receiving nine first-place votes and 74 total points. Florida International was selected third in the East, with Troy and South Alabama tied for fourth and Florida Atlantic sixth.

BLUE RAIDERS 27TH IN FIRST ESPN/USA TODAY POLL: Middle Tennessee was ranked 27th in the Preseason ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll released October 31 and missed the Top 25 by just seven points. Defending national champion Tennessee was ranked No. 1 and garnered 26 of the 31 first-place votes in the poll, while Connecticut received four first-place votes and LSU, who Middle Tennessee plays on December 28 in Murfreesboro, garnered the remaining top vote. The Blue Raiders posted 71 points in the poll, while 25th-ranked N.C. State had 78 points. DePaul received 75 points and was ranked 26th. Middle Tennessee received 15 votes in the second ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll released November 13, ranking 33rd nationally.

The Blue Raiders were ranked in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll last season for the first time since 1988 and appeared in the final 12 rankings of the season, reaching as high as No. 16 and ending the year rated 23rd nationally. Middle Tennessee's 30-4 mark in 2006-07 was the best ever in the history of the program and one of the best in Sun Belt history, as the Blue Raiders rolled through league play and the conference tournament with a 21-0 mark against SBC competition.

HOLT SECOND TEAM ALL-AMERICAN, TEAM RANKED 13TH BY SPORTING NEWS: Middle Tennessee was ranked 13th and senior Amber Holt was named Second Team All-American by the Sporting News in their Preseason College Basketball magazine. It was the second preseason ranking for the Blue Raiders after Lindy's rated the club 22nd nationally. 2006-07 Notes

HOME SWEET HOME: Middle Tennessee ended the 2005-06 season 15-1 at home, with its lone loss to then 17th-ranked Georgia on November 30, 2005. The Blue Raiders had their 12-game home winning streak snapped in last year's season-opener against top-ranked Maryland, losing 80-76, and then dropped a 72-61 decision three nights later to South Dakota State. But the squad rebounded, posting 13 straight victories at home and running head coach Rick Insell's mark on the home floor to 28-3 overall and 13-2 last season. Middle Tennessee owns an overall mark of 315-89 all-time at Murphy Center, a winning percentage of .780.

INSELL NUMBER ONE: With the win over Florida International on February 15, 2007, head coach Rick Insell posted his 44th victory at Middle Tennessee, the most in school history by a coach in his first two years. Insell broke the previous mark of 43 victories set by Lewis Bivens during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 campaigns. The Blue Raiders posted their 15th 20-win campaign in 31 seasons of varsity basketball this year, and Insell became just the second coach, along with Bivens, to have back-to-back 20-win campaigns to begin a career as head coach at Middle Tennessee. Insell begins his third season at Middle Tennessee with an overall record of 50-15.

RAIDERS SET SUN BELT VICTORIES MARK: Middle Tennessee set a school and Sun Belt record for conference victories in 2006-07, running the table against SBC foes and compiling an 18-0 record. Last season marked the 20th time in the 31-year history of varsity basketball that Middle Tennessee has posted double-figure wins in league play. The 1982-83 squad's 10-0 record is the only other undefeated conference record in school history. The Blue Raiders broke the previous Sun Belt high of 16 league wins set by Louisiana Tech in both 1999-00 and 2000-01. Middle Tennessee ended the season

21-0 against Sun Belt opponents after winnings its fourth consecutive SBC Tournament. Only three other schools in the 31-year history of the Sun Belt finished undefeated in conference play (Old Dominion, 6-0 in 1984-85, 1987-88; UAB, 6-0 in 1990-91; Louisiana Tech, 14-0 in 1993-94, 1995-96, 12-0 in 1998-99, 16-0 in 1999-00, 2000-01). Across the nation last season, only seven other programs out of 31 conferences posted undefeated marks, including: George Washington, 14-0 in the Atlantic 10; Tennessee, 14-0 in the SEC; Connecticut, 16-0 in the Big East; Duke, 14-0 in the ACC; Wisconsin-Green Bay, 14-0 in the Horizon; Coppin State, 18-0 in the MEAC; and UT-Arlington, 16-0 in the Southland.

INSELL VOTED COACH OF THE YEAR: After setting the school-record for wins with 30 and setting a Sun Belt record with 18 league victories, Rick Insell was voted Coach of the Year by his peers in 2006-07. The Coach of the Year award is the first such honor for a Middle Tennessee head coach since Lewis Bivens in 1988. Insell has compiled a 50-15 record in his two seasons at the helm of the program, including last year's 30-4 mark, which included a 27-game winning streak. He compiled more wins in his first two seasons than any other previous Blue Raider coach and posted back-to-back 20-win campaigns for just the sixth time in school history.

HOLT GARNERS SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK TWICE: Forward Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on two occasions in 2006-07, on November 14 and again on February 5. The Duluth, Ga., native averaged 23.5 points and 9.0 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's first two games of the year, versus No. 1 Maryland and South Dakota State. Against the defending national champion Terrapins, Holt tallied 28 points on 11-of-24 shooting with eight rebounds. Her 15 first-half points kept the Blue Raiders in the contest when the Terrapins threatened to run away with the game. Against SDSU, Holt scored 19 points and added 10 boards for her first career double-double. In February, Holt averaged 20.0 points and 8.0 rebounds in the Middle Tennessee victories over Denver and South Alabama. The junior scored 13 points with eight boards and four assists versus Denver on January 31 before exploding for 27 points, eight rebounds, three assists and two steals against South Alabama on February 3. The 27-point effort was just one short of her career-high set in the season opener against Maryland and was her second 27-point effort of the season (Old Dominion on December 19 was the other). The Duluth, Ga., native was 11-for-16 from the field, tying her season-high for makes, and set career-highs by going 3-of-6 from 3-point range.

HOME DOMINATION CONTINUES VERSUS SBC FOES: Middle Tennessee's home dominance of Sun Belt foes continued throughout last season, as the Blue Raiders won their 30th in a row versus league foes at Murphy Center with a win on February 24 against Florida Atlantic. The last time Middle Tennessee dropped a conference home game was February 5, 2004, in double overtime against Western Kentucky. Overall, the Blue Raiders have won 34 of their last 35 home conference games and head coach Rick Insell is a perfect 18-0 at the Glass House against SBC competition. In fact, since joining the Sun Belt before the 2000-01 season, the Blue Raiders are 46-6 at home against Sun Belt competition, an exquisite .885 winning percentage. Western Kentucky has won two games, with South Alabama, Florida International, North Texas and New Mexico State claiming one victory each.

HOLT RECORDS THREE DOUBLE-DOUBLES: Junior Amber Holt was one of the main cogs in Middle Tennessee's success this season, recording three double-doubles and leading the Blue Raiders in either points and/or rebounds in 16 of the 32 games. Holt was the first to accomplish the double-double feat last season with 19 points and 10 rebounds against South Dakota State on November 13, just her second game as a Blue Raider. The Duluth, Ga., native then had 26 points and 10 boards versus Chattanooga on November 24. Holt's final double-double came during the Sun Belt Tournament, netting 15 points and grabbing a career-high 11 rebounds versus Denver in the semifinals. In 2004-05 and 2005-06, the Blue Raiders posted seven double-doubles as a team in each campaign and had 14 in 2003-04. Last season the squad had 12 double-doubles as a team.

BLUE RAIDERS RANK SIXTH IN ATTENDANCE INCREASE: After leading the nation in increased attendance in his first season as head coach, Rick Insell and Middle Tennessee ranked sixth nationally in increased attendance for the 2006-07 season, according to official figures released by the NCAA. Middle Tennessee ranked sixth in the country in increased attendance in 2006-07, averaging 4,157 fans for 15 home games. The 4,157 fans per contest ranked 26th nationally for average attendance per game, ahead of traditional women's basketball powers such as Kansas State, national runner-up Rutgers, Old Dominion, Stanford and Louisiana Tech. The Blue Raiders set a single-game record with 10,010 for the season-opener against top-ranked Maryland and had six total crowds over 4,000 during the 2006-07 campaign (Arkansas State - 4,884; Louisiana-Lafayette - 5,228; South Alabama - 4,711; Florida International - 4,907; Florida Atlantic - 5,505). The women's program has increased its attendance more than 550 percent over the last two seasons, going from 744 per contest in 2004-05 to 2,699 last season to this year's 4,157.

LAST TIME VERSUS CHATTANOOGA

LADY RAIDERS STEAMROLL CHATTANOOGA
By MONTE HALE JR.
hale@dnj.com

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - It was a pick your poison night for Chattanooga at Murphy Center Friday. Whether the Lady Mocs employed a man-to-man defense or a zone, it didn't matter, as MTSU broke down both en route to a 98-69 victory before a crowd of 2,524.

MTSU (3-2) shot 52 percent and hit 12 3-pointers, equaling a season high, as it won its third straight game and snapped a two-game losing streak at Murphy Center. The 98 points were the most scored by MTSU under second-year coach Rick Insell, whose team lost 76-66 at Chattanooga last season.

"We're playing a little better offensively," Insell said, "but I wasn't as pleased with our defense tonight. We did a better job as the game went on, but not good enough if we're going to get to where we want to be."

The duo of senior guard Chrissy Givens and junior forward Amber Holt were devastating, as they combined for 55 points and 17 rebounds. Givens finished with 29 points and seven rebounds, while Holt had 26 points and 10 boards.

The offensive onslaught was a welcomed sight after the Blue Raiders hit 30 percent their first two home games against Maryland and South Dakota State.

Coming out of the eight-minute timeout trailing 24-21, Chattanooga went to a zone defense, which played right into MTSU's hands. Freshman guard Jackie Pickel hit back-to-back 3-pointers, which spearheaded a 14-4 run that gave MTSU a 38-25 lead with 4:33 left before halftime.

Chattanooga pulled to within seven in less than a minute, but the Blue Raiders closed the half with a 12-7 run to take a 50-38 halftime lead at intermission. Pickel finished with a season-high 15 points, hitting 5-of-7 from 3-point range. Five different MTSU players hit at least one 3-pointer.

"(Coach Insell) had told me all week to be ready," Pickel said. "I had been struggling with my shot, but he gives us so much confidence, and it's even better when you hit your first shot."

Both teams were plagued with foul problems in the first half, with Chattanooga being whistled for 13 and MTSU with 12. Chattanooga's leading scorer, Alex Anderson (18 ppg), played only four minutes after picking up her second foul, while starters Brooke Hand and Kristen Spann each had three fouls.

MTSU sophomore guard Johnna Abney picked up three fouls in the first half, while Givens, Holt and Starr Orr each had two. Givens scored MTSU's first eight points of the second half, and Abney followed with a 3-pointer to give the squad a 61-44 advantage with 17:09 left. MTSU outrebounded the Lady Mocs 40-28 and forced 21 turnovers.

The Lady Mocs were led by Anderson with 16 points and Shanara Hollinquest with 13.

POSTGAME NOTES

PICKEL GOING DOWNTOWN: Freshman Jackie Pickel was recruited for her long range shooting out of Bradley Central High School, but she had struggled so far this season with her shot, making just 2-of-13 (.154) heading into Friday's contest. Pickel found her stroke during the week and found the open areas in the Chattanooga zone defense on Friday, knocking down 5-of-7 3-point attempts for a career-high 15 points. The Blue Raiders tied their season-high with 12 made 3-pointers and are shooting 35 percent (43-for-122) from the behind the arc this season.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF FREE CHANCES: Middle Tennessee continues to excel at the foul line this season, hitting 80 percent (16-for-20) in Friday's win over Chattanooga. Junior Amber Holt is the catalyst at the charity stripe, making 8-of-10 versus the Lady Mocs and 33-for-40 (.825) this season at the line. As a team the Blue Raiders are making 79 percent from the free throw line, going 66-of-84.

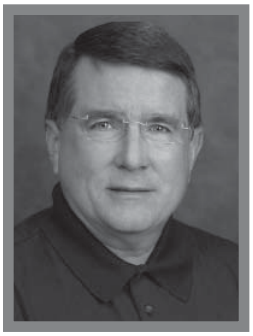
HOLT WITH ANOTHER DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Junior Amber Holt recorded her second double-double of the season with 26 points and 10 rebounds versus Chattanooga, a workmanlike effort for the first-year Blue Raider. Holt finished 9-for-13 from the field and 8-of-10 at the foul line. It marked her third 20-plus point effort in five outings this season and tied her career-high in rebounds, set versus South Dakota State on November 13. For the season the Duluth, Ga., native is shooting 43 percent (35-for-81) from the field and an outstanding 83 percent (33-for-40) at the foul line. Holt is second on the club in scoring at 21.2 points per outing and first in rebounding at 8.2 boards per game.

GIVENS MOVES UP CAREER SCORING LIST: Senior Chrissy Givens passed two players on the all-time scoring list with her 29 points versus Chattanooga, including current teammate Krystle Horton. Givens moved into 12th place all-time at Middle Tennessee with 1,255 points, passing Kay Willbanks (1984-86, 1,236 pts) as well as Horton, who has 1,243 points during her career after a six-point outing against UTC. Givens also moved into eighth place on the career steals list with four thefts against the Lady Mocs and has 203 all-time. She needs five more steals to pass Jennifer McFall (1982-85, 205) and Cortney Neeley (1996-99, 207) for sixth. Givens stands 10th on the career FG attempts chart at Middle Tennessee with 1,042, just ahead of former teammate Tia Stovall (2003-06, 1,011).

GIVENS THE ULTIMATE STAT-SHEET STUFFER: Senior Chrissy Givens led Middle Tennessee in points, rebounds, assists and steals last season and currently ranks first in three of the four categories so far in 2006-07, ranking second only in rebounds. Givens tallied a season-high 29 points in Friday's win over Chattanooga, grabbing seven rebounds with five assists and four steals. She was 11-for-23 from the field, a season-high in FG attempts, and was 5-of-6 from the foul line, both season-highs. For the season Givens is averaging a team-leading 43 percent from the field (45-for-104) and 78 percent at the foul line (14-for-18) and leads the squad with 28 assists and 15 steals. Her only issue has been from behind the 3-point line, where the Monroe, La., native has greatly struggled, shooting just 18 percent (4-for-22) after hitting 34 percent last season.

TIDBITS: Middle Tennessee's 98 points were the most under second-year head coach Rick Insell and the most since the Blue Raiders scored 99 against Eastern Illinois on January 9, 1999, a span of 235 games ... As a team Middle Tennessee set season-highs in the game with 35 field goals made and 16 steals, tied a season-high with 12 3-pointers made and shot a season-best 39 percent (12-for-31) from 3-point range ... Johnna Abney tied her season-high for the third time with three assists, second only to five from Chrissy Givens in the contest ... Senior Krystle Horton recorded a season-high five rebounds in the victory ... Freshman Brandi Brown contributed a pair of 3-pointers in the game as the Blue Raiders hit a dozen trifectas in the contest. Brown tied her season-high with six points ... With the win the Blue Raiders improved to 24-16 all-time against Chattanooga, including 13-7 at Murphy Center. Middle Tennessee has won six-in-a-row in the series at home and five-out-of-six overall in the series.

Head Coach Rick Insell



Rick Insell begins his third season as head coach at Middle Tennessee amid great expectations after a record-breaking season in 2006-07 that included a school-record 30 victories, a fourth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament and a No. 16 national ranking by the Associated Press and the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll.

Insell has helped elevate the program into the national spotlight, including last season's victory at then eighth-ranked Georgia in early December. The victory in Athens was the first in program history over a ranked team on the road and just the fifth victory over a ranked foe in the 32-year history of the Middle Tennessee program.

The Blue Raiders won 27 games in a row in 2006-07, the longest streak in the nation at one point, and did not lose for more than 100 days.

Middle Tennessee eclipsed the school record for victories in a season as well last year, posting a 30-4 overall record, besting the previous mark of 26 set by the 1982-83 squad. The 2006-07 squad also tied the record for consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, tying a mark set from 1983-86, and collected the program's fourth consecutive 20-win campaign, also a school record. The four straight conference tournament titles also ties a school record set from 1983-86.

Insell's two-year mark of 50-15 is the best back-to-back seasons in program history, bettering the mark of 48-17 posted during 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Fans have also taken notice of the team's entertaining playing style. Middle Tennessee led the nation in increased attendance percentage in 2005-06, drawing 2,699 fans per game, a 276 percent increase over the previous season. The Blue Raiders improved on that number in 2006-07 as well, setting a single-game record with 10,010 in the season opener against defending national champion Maryland and averaging 4,157 fans for 15 home games, an increase of 65 percent. Middle Tennessee's attendance ranked in the Top 30 nationally and the crowd for the Maryland game was one of the Top 50 for attendance in the nation in 2006-07.

Insell also developed one of the best players in school history over the last two seasons. Chrissy Givens registered the second-most points in school history in 2005-06 and eclipsed the top mark in 2006-07, and ranked in the Top 10 nationally in scoring both seasons.

Insell, a Woodbury, Tenn., native, made a huge splash in his first year at the helm of the Middle Tennessee program, guiding the Blue Raiders to their third consecutive Sun Belt Tournament title and doing so in front of a record-setting home crowd in the finals of the Sun Belt Championships.

Insell directed one of the most thrilling comebacks in Sun Belt Tournament history, leading Middle Tennessee to an 84-73 win over Western Kentucky after being down by as many as 14 points in the first half.

The 2005-06 campaign also saw another first in program history as three players – Givens, Tia Stovall and Krystle Horton – all joined the 1,000-point club. It marked the first time in school history three current players all were represented on the prestigious list, and the Blue Raiders were one of only four teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament to boast such an honor.

Middle Tennessee notched one of its biggest wins of the season when the Blue Raiders defeated traditional Big 10 power Penn State, 79-65, in the UAB Blaze Tournament in December.

With the first conference title and NCAA Tournament appearance under his belt, Insell's recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally and included current sophomores Jackie Pickel, Brandi Brown and Chelsia Lymon.

A 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, Insell built a high school girls basketball dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, just a 30-minute drive from the Middle Tennessee campus. He guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today national championships (1989, 1991), as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure.

Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991 and he also was been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992). A name synonymous with high school girls basketball in Tennessee, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992), most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team so honored.

For his accomplishments at Shelbyville, Insell was elected to the National High School Hall of Fame in February 2007 and was inducted with a class of 12 in July 2007. Insell is one of only six Tennesseeans, including just the fourth coach, elected to the National High School Hall of Fame.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central won 23 district championships, 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. He developed six Tennessee Class AAA Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Middle Tennessee won its fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament in 2006-07, earning a fourth consecutive berth in the NCAA Tournament.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville during his time there, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom, as evidenced by his teams receiving the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000, an award based on team grade-point-average. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville from 1989-00 was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98. The academic emphasis has continued during his tenure at Middle Tennessee, as the Blue Raiders posted a cumulative 3.22 GPA in Fall 2006.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville team received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement and his teams also have been honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, the Tennessee State House and Senate and by two Tennessee Governors.

Insell had high praise for the head coaching position when he accepted the position at Middle Tennessee.

"Dreams do come true," Insell said after Director of Athletics Chris Massaro announced his hiring on May 18, 2005. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me, but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them, then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

Insell is married to Debbie and the couple have three sons, Tom, Kyle and Matt.

LAST TIME OUT FOR MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Holt, Barclay Lead Another Road Victory
Blue Raiders post 70-60 victory at Arizona

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Amber Holt scored 27 points and grabbed nine rebounds and Latoya Barclay came off the bench and provided a big spark with seven points and three assists in Middle Tennessee's 70-60 victory over Arizona Sunday at McKale Center.

Holt netted 19 of her 27 in the second half and Barclay was all over the floor, including in the middle of a huge 7-0 run in the middle of the second half that opened the Middle Tennessee advantage from two points to nine. Barclay hit a 3-pointer in the corner before Holt had a bucket underneath. Barclay then got a deflection and a steal and dribbled in to take a mid-range jumper off the glass for a 53-44 lead with 7:43 remaining.

The Blue Raiders battled against the much bigger Wildcats and were outrebounded by just one, 28-27, but Middle Tennessee hit the offensive glass, getting 14 boards, including two from Brandi Brown to start the second half and big ones by Starr Orr and Barclay in the final minute to seal the victory.

Johnna Abney was the only other Blue Raider in double figures, hitting a trio of 3-pointers, including one from at least eight feet from behind the arc. It was a total team effort, as Brandi Brown added eight points, Orr had six and Anne Marie Lanning scored five.

The first half was a seesaw affair, with six ties and six lead changes, and a late flurry by the Blue Raiders gave the visitors a 32-30 edge at the break. Middle Tennessee had great opportunities in the opening 20 minutes but shot just 34 percent from the field, while Arizona made 69 percent from the floor.

But that number was deceiving, as the Wildcats also had 14 turnovers and the Blue Raiders were whistled for nine fouls in the half. UA either hit a bucket, was fouled or turned the ball over on almost every possession before intermission.

Middle Tennessee started hot, thanks to a driving layup from Chelsia Lymon, a 3-pointer by Brown and a turnaround jumper in the lane from Holt for an early 7-2 lead and a timeout by Arizona. The Wildcats made a living in the paint in the half, though, scoring 20 points near the bucket on a host of layups and backdoor cuts.

The Blue Raiders held UA scoreless over the final 3:03 of the half and took advantage, with Orr hitting a driving layup as the shot clock expired and Brown nailing another trifecta for the two-point halftime lead.

In the second half Holt scored the first six points for the Blue Raiders, who never trailed after intermission. Arizona kept the came within a bucket until Middle Tennessee's 7-0 run led by Barclay that helped the Blue Raiders pull away.

It was Middle Tennessee's second road victory of the young season after posting 13 last season.

The Blue Raiders struggled from the field in a very sloppy first half, hitting just 32 percent from the floor and 25 percent from 3-point range. The Lady Reddies committed 18 personal fouls in the half, allowing Middle Tennessee to shoot 19 free throws in the opening 20 minutes, of which the Blue Raiders made 16.

For 32 minutes, Middle Tennessee looked out-of-place and out-of-sync Saturday night against Old Dominion. But then the Blue Raiders dialed up the defense, forcing five straight turnovers and cutting the deficit to three points, but Old Dominion pulled away in the end en route to a 76-68 season-opening victory at the Ted Constant Convocation Center.

Middle Tennessee (0-1) trailed by as many as 17 points in the second half and was down 68-55 with 6:11 remaining in the game. But the Blue Raiders scored 12 of the game's next 13 points, started by a 3-pointer from Brandi Brown and including a trio of trifectas from senior Latoya Barclay. The 12-1 spurt took just over three minutes, pulling the Blue Raiders with three points at 69-66.

After another ODU turnover, Middle Tennessee had the ball with a chance to tie, but Jackie Pickel missed a 3-pointer from the corner. Lady Monarch Shalida Williams drove to the basket on the other end, hitting Megan Pym for a driving layup and taking the momentum away from the Blue Raiders.

Pym had another layup on a putback the next time up the floor and Old Dominion made their free throws over the final minute, just as they had all night.

Barclay finished the game with a career-high 17 points, including 15 in the second half, in just the second start of her career. Brown was also a major factor for the Blue Raiders, netting 14 points with four rebounds in 35 minutes of action.

Everyone on the Blue Raiders had to step into a more prominent role after senior Amber Holt played just six minutes in the first half because of three fouls and then picked up her fourth foul less than four minutes into the second half. The Duluth, Ga., native did play the final 12:26 of the contest without fouling out, scoring 14 points with six rebounds in just 22 minutes of action.

Middle Tennessee trailed by seven at the half, but the Lady Monarchs scored the first six points after intermission before the Blue Raiders answered with a pair of 3-pointers, one from Holt and the other from Pickel, who scored nine points in the game on a trio of trifectas.

But ODU expanded the lead to 17 points in the second half thanks to the charity stripe, the Lady Monarchs best friend for most of the game. ODU's Tiffany Green hit 6-of-7 in the second half and ODU was 11-of-15 after the break and 27-for-35 in the contest. Compare that to Middle Tennessee, who shot just three free throws after halftime and only 17 foul shots in the game.

Anne Marie Lanning grabbed six rebounds and Emily Queen came off the bench to contribute seven boards for the Blue Raiders, who were outrebounded only 44-41 despite a large difference in size at almost every position. T.J. Jordan led four double figure scorers for ODU with 19 points, while Williams had 15, Green added 12 and Jessica Canady scored 13 off the bench.

It didn't take long for MTSU to set the tempo for its home opener against Tennessee Tech Wednesday night at Murphy Center.

It didn't take long, either, for the Lady Raiders to race out to a 89-62 rout before a crowd of 2,614.

MTSU hit seven of its first 10 shots, which proved to a sign of things to come as the Lady Raiders drained 12 3-pointers and shot 51 percent from the field.

"Anytime you shoot the ball like we shot it, and we got some good looks and kept knocking them down, you're going to have a chance to have a good night," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "Overall, I was pleased with our intensity."

MTSU forced 33 Golden Eaglette turnovers, including 20 in the first half.

Tennessee Tech continuously struggled to get the ball in the half-court against the Lady Raiders' pressure defense. The Golden Eaglettes managed just eight shots in the first 12 minutes and only 15 in the first half.

"We take a lot of pride in our press and we were able to contain the ball," said MTSU sophomore guard Chelsia Lymon, who had four of MTSU's 24 steals. "They're a good team with good shooters, and we did a good job rotating."

Seven different Lady Raiders hit 3-pointers and five players hit for double figures, led by senior forward Amber Holt's 19. Freshman Emily Queen hit three 3-pointers, while Lymon, Anne Marie Lanning and Jackie Pickel hit two apiece.

"Hopefully we won't ever start off shooting like we did against Old Dominion," Pickel said of the Lady Raiders' shooting woes in a 76-68 season-opening loss Saturday. "When one of us hits one, we do gravitate and feel the energy off each other."

MTSU led 58-24 at halftime and went ahead by as many as 44 points in the second half, when it outscored Tennessee Tech 16-6 in the first five minutes. However, the Lady Raiders scored just 15 points in the final 15 minutes.

"We changed our press in the second half," Insell said, "but we needed to work on some things that we'll have to do later. We gave up some easy baskets, but they were things we needed to work on.

"We've got a lot of work to do, but it was a good win tonight."

Lymon had 15 points, while Lanning had 12 and Latoya Barclay 11. Queen netted nine.

Tennessee Tech (1-1) was led by Cara Reed's 13 points, while freshman and former Smyrna standout Jasmine White netted 11. The Golden Eaglettes shot 64 percent (23-of-36) but were obviously plagued by the 33 floor mistakes.

Amber Holt recorded her fourth career double-double with career-highs of 30 points and 15 rebounds, including nine straight points in the second half when the game was tied, as Middle Tennessee held on for a 69-68 victory over Houston Monday night at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Houston's Tye Jackson and Twiggy McIntyre had potential game-winning shots in the final 10 seconds of the game. The Cougars scored the final 10 points of the game over two minutes.

The Blue Raiders put together a 20-9 run after Houston tied the contest at 49 with 12:53 remaining in the contest. At that point Holt took over, hitting four straight buckets plus a free throw and then hit Anne Marie Lanning for a layup on the next possession.

Lanning had two free throws of her own on the next trip down the floor to extend the lead to 60-49 for the Blue Raiders, but Houston had a mad rush at the end, highlighted by a pair of 3-pointers from Brittney Scott. Courtney Taylor also had two layups in the final minute after a Blue Raider turnover and a missed shot.

After another Middle Tennessee (2-1) miscue, Jackson brought the ball up the floor with nine seconds remaining, but her jumper in the lane was short and missed the rim completely. McIntyre grabbed the rebound and tried to come from underneath the basket for a shot, but it fell harmlessly on the floor as the buzzer sounded and Middle Tennessee escaped.

Lanning scored 11 points for the Blue Raiders, while Taylor came off the bench to lead the Cougars with 18 points. Jackson added 15 points, while Scott had 14 and McIntyre scored 11.

After missing its first four shots of the game, turning the ball over four times in the first four-plus minutes and failing to score, the Blue Raiders found the range from the field, hitting six of their next 11 shots, including four 3-pointers, for a 16-9 advantage at the 12-minute media timeout.

Middle Tennessee raced out to a 14-point advantage after an Emily Queen putback with 8:15 remaining in the half, prompting a Cougars timeout. Houston cut the deficit in half at intermission thanks to three straight buckets from McIntyre, and the Blue Raiders headed to the locker room with a 41-34 advantage.

After missing their first three 3-pointers of the half, the Blue Raiders were 7-of-13 over the remaining 15 minutes. Holt scored 11 points and Chelsia Lymon had eight off the bench before the break.

UH scored 15 of the first 23 points after halftime, knotting the contest at 49 after a steal and layup from McIntyre, before Holt scored on four straight possessions to give the Blue Raiders the lead for good.

Amber Holt scored 27 points and grabbed nine rebounds and Latoya Barclay came off the bench and provided a big spark with seven points and three assists in Middle Tennessee's 70-60 victory over Arizona Sunday at McKale Center.

Holt netted 19 of her 27 in the second half and Barclay was all over the floor, including in the middle of a huge 7-0 run in the middle of the second half that opened the Middle Tennessee advantage from two points to nine. Barclay hit a 3-pointer in the corner before Holt had a bucket underneath. Barclay then got a deflection and a steal and dribbled in to take a mid-range jumper off the glass for a 53-44 lead with 7:43 remaining.

The Blue Raiders battled against the much bigger Wildcats and were outrebounded by just one, 28-27, but Middle Tennessee hit the offensive glass, getting 14 boards, including two from Brandi Brown to start the second half and big ones by Starr Orr and Barclay in the final minute to seal the victory.

Johnna Abney was the only other Blue Raider in double figures, hitting a trio of 3-pointers, including one from at least eight feet from behind the arc. It was a total team effort, as Brandi Brown added eight points, Orr had six and Anne Marie Lanning scored five.

The first half was a seesaw affair, with six ties and six lead changes, and a late flurry by the Blue Raiders gave the visitors a 32-30 edge at the break. Middle Tennessee had great opportunities in the opening 20 minutes but shot just 34 percent from the field, while Arizona made 69 percent from the floor.

But that number was deceiving, as the Wildcats also had 14 turnovers and the Blue Raiders were whistled for nine fouls in the half. UA either hit a bucket, was fouled or turned the ball over on almost every possession before intermission.

Middle Tennessee started hot, thanks to a driving layup from Chelsia Lymon, a 3-pointer by Brown and a turnaround jumper in the lane from Holt for an early 7-2 lead and a timeout by Arizona. The Wildcats made a living in the paint in the half, though, scoring 20 points near the bucket on a host of layups and backdoor cuts.

The Blue Raiders held UA scoreless over the final 3:03 of the half and took advantage, with Orr hitting a driving layup as the shot clock expired and Brown nailing another trifecta for the two-point halftime lead.

In the second half Holt scored the first six points for the Blue Raiders, who never trailed after intermission. Arizona kept the came within a bucket until Middle Tennessee's 7-0 run led by Barclay that helped the Blue Raiders pull away.

It was Middle Tennessee's second road victory of the young season after posting 13 last season.
