Closer look at Memphis

Memphis is ranked No. 2 in both the Associated Press poll and the ESPN/USA Today poll. The ranking is the highest for Memphis since the 1985-86 season when the Tigers were ranked second in early February of 1986. The Tigers (7-0) return to action after an 11-day layoff. They last beat Southern California, 62-58, in overtime in the 2007 Jimmy V Classic. Chris Douglas-Roberts leads the high-octane Tigers with 20.1 points per game, while Derrick Rose is averaging 15.9 points and 4.3 assists per contest. Memphis is averaging 82.3 points per game and allowing just 65.7. It has topped the century mark twice this season and has scored 80 or more in five of the seven games played. John Calipari in his eighth season at Memphis. He has a 188-63 record with the Tigers.

Memphis, Middle Tennessee meet for 39th time

Memphis and Middle Tennessee will be playing for the 39th time when the teams meet in the opening game of the Sun Belt Classic at the Sommet Center in Nashville with the Tigers owning a 23-15 advantage in the series that began in the 1929-30 season. Memphis has won 11 straight in the series and 14 of the last 15 games played dating to the 1949-50 season. Tonight's game is the final game of a three-game contract between the schools that saw Middle Tennessee play in Memphis (1/4/06 and 12/23/06) prior to the Tigers playing one game in Nashville. Prior to the current three-year deal, the teams had not played on the hardwood since Dec. 8, 1990.

Attendance record will fall at Sommet Center

Attendance at Middle Tennessee home games has been on the rise under sixth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis and the Blue Raiders will be part of two new standards during the Sun Belt Classic at the Sommet Center. Capacity for basketball at the venue is 16,334 and more than 16,000 tickets already have been sold so the current record of 8,118 for a men's basketball game at the facility should be more than doubled during the Sun Belt Classic. The current record was established Dec. 18, 2006 when 8,118 attended the Tennessee-Oklahoma State game in Nashville. Middle Tennessee's contest vs. Memphis is considered a "home" game for the Blue Raiders so the all-time home attendance record of 11,807 is expected to be broken. The current home attendance record of 11,807 was established vs. Western Kentucky, Feb. 26, 2004, in Davis' second season. The Blue Raiders have enjoyed a 65 percent attendance increase in Davis' first five years leading the program and the last two seasons have generated the highest home attendance average in the last 15 seasons (4,275).

Sun Belt Classic draws national attention

Two nationally-ranked teams and a national television audience is part of the first Sun Belt Classic, a joint venture between Middle Tennessee, Western Kentucky and the Sun Belt Conference. It includes No. 2-ranked Memphis vs. Middle Tennessee in the opening game (aired on ESPN2), while No. 12 Tennessee faces Western Kentucky on ESPNU in the second game of the event.

Blue Raiders have enjoyed most notable wins in Nashville

Middle Tennessee's basketball team has enjoyed some of its most notable wins in Nashville during its history, including two wins against nationally-ranked teams in the NCAA Tournament in the Music City. The Blue Raiders upset No. 4 seed and 16th-ranked Florida State, 97-83, in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament at Vanderbilt in the 1989 NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders earned the OVC's automatic bid into the Field of 64 by winning the league tournament at Municipal Auditorium in Nashville that same year. Ironically, the OVC Tournament was only being played in Nashville because Middle Tennessee was the host but could not play at Murphy Center due to the TSSAA Girls State Basketball Tournament. Middle Tennessee's most notable win all-time also occured in Nashville when the Blue Raiders shocked No. 15 ranked Kentucky, 50-44, in the 1982 NCAA Regional at Vanderbilt. Kentucky was the No. 6 seed and Middle Tennessee was seeded 11th. The Blue Raiders lost to eventual Final Four participant Louisville in the second round. The Blue Raiders are 2-1 in the Music City under Head Coach Kermit Davis.

No. 2-ranked Memphis equals highest-ranked Blue Raider foe

Memphis is ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls. When the Blue Raiders face Memphis in the opening game of the Sun Belt Classic it will match the highest-ranked team Middle Tennessee has ever faced. Kansas was ranked No. 2 when Middle Tennessee faced it Nov. 27, 2000. Dating back to the 1991-92 season, the Blue Raiders have played 16 Top 25 teams, including eight ranked fifth or higher. Middle Tennessee's last win against a Top 25 opponent was against No. 16 Florida State, 97-83, in the 1989 NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders will be playing their ninth Top 25 team under Head Coach Kermit Davis.

Middle Tennessee - Memphis connections

Today's game vs. Memphis is a reunion of sorts for two Blue Raiders. Junior guard Nigel Johnson (Wooddale HS) and freshman guard Broderick Gilchrest (Hamilton) hail from Memphis. Middle Tennessee assistant coach Thomas Johnson was head boys basketball coach at Wooddale, where he coached Nigel Johnson (no relation). Thomas Johnson coached at Wooddale four seasons (2002-03-to-2005-06) prior to being hired at Middle Tennessee.

Kermit Davis File

In five-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is third on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 86.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 77th victory at UALR (01/20/07). He finished 2006-07 with 83 career victories and currently is third all-time with 86 wins. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.544) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces third-best wins mark after 150 games

Kermit Davis coached in 150 games in his first five seasons as Middle Tennessee's head coach and his 83-67 mark in those contests represent the third most wins for a Blue Raider head coach in his first 150 games. Bruce Stewart (101-49) and Jimmy Earle (89) are the only former Blue Raider coaches with more wins in their first 150 games.

Davis notches 220th win

Kermit Davis secured his 220th win as a head coach when Middle Tennessee beat defending SBC champion and No. 1 seed South Alabama in the 2007 SBC quarterfinals. He owns 156 wins in his ninth season at the Division I level and 66 in three years in junior college.

Blue Raiders forced to carry on without O'Neil, Vogelsberg

Middle Tennessee is down two scholarship players it was counting on heavily prior to the 2007-08 season. Junior guard Calvin O'Neil underwent surgery on his right knee (12/7) and has begun rehab with athletic trainer Drew Shea. O'Neil suffered the season-ending injury in the season opener against San Jose State. Regarded as the team's top perimeter defender and all-around leader, O'Neil entered the season with 53 career games in his first two seasons, including 24 starts. Vogelsberg took a redshirt for the 2006-07 season after suffering a broken bone in his right foot prior to the start of the season. After taking additional time off during the summer to recover from three different surgeries in as many years, Vogelsberg informed Head Coach Kermit Davis of his decision to bypass his senior season citing the excessive injuries and pain to his body as the reasons. Vogelsberg led the team in scoring as a junior in 2005-06 and earned All-Sun Belt Conference. He was also a preseason all-SBC pick in 2006-07.

Kanaskie climbing career charts

Kevin Kanaskie is starting to make a move on the Middle Tennessee career records charts with two seasons remaining. The State College, Pa., native moved into eighth all-time with 281 career assists after dishing out seven against Tennessee Wesleyan (11/23/07). He now has 293 career assists. Kanaskie is seven assists shy of becoming only the eighth player in Middle Tennessee's 85-plus seasons to record 300 or more assists in a career. No. 7 on the list is Pancakes Perry, who had 303 assists from 1979-83. Kanaskie has also moved into the career 3-point field goals made list with 96 during his career. Kanaskie has connected on 12 long-range shots so far this season and needs four more to become one of only 10 players in school history to have 100 or more 3-pointers during their career. Kanaskie has hit at least one 3-pointer in 28 of the last 29 games, dating to last season. The junior guard scored his 575th career point against Houston.

Hudson cracks career marks

Center Theryn Hudson is starting to come into his own as one of the SBC's top big men in his third season in the Blue Raider program. Hudson's .595 career field goal percentage is currently second on the all-time Middle Tennessee list. Hudson is also 13th on the career blocks list with 42 and needs four more to break into the top 10.

Kanaskie named to All-Sun Belt team

Middle Tennessee junior guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the preseason All-Sun Belt Conference team, earning a spot on the third team in a vote of league coaches. He was named to the All-SBC team in 2006-07 after becoming the only player in Middle Tennessee history to lead the team in scoring (12.2), 3-point field goals made (67), and assists (185) in the same season. He led the Sun Belt in assists and assist/turnover ratio. Kanaskie scored double figures in 20 games and led the team in scoring 13 times.

Blue Raiders picked third in preseason Sun Belt poll

Middle Tennessee was picked to finish third in the SBC East Division in a preseason vote of the league's head coaches. The Blue Raiders received 51 points in the voting to finish behind Western Kentucky and South Alabama, respectively. Louisiana-Monroe was the favorite to win the West.

Kanaskie proves it's not whether you start

Junior guard Kevin Kanaskie had his streak of 50 consecutive starts snapped when he was not in the starting lineup vs. Belmont (12/12). Kanaskie had suffered a hip flexor during Monday's practice and did not participate in workouts Tuesday. He was not expected to play against the Bruins Wednesday but he urged coach Kermit Davis to give him a chance. Davis did and Kanaskie came off the bench, played 31 minutes and scored a season-high 16 points in the Blue Raiders' 86-80 overtime win. Kanaskie was 11-of-13 from the free throw line, establishing career highs for makes and attempts from the charity stripe, and he tied his season high with six rebounds in the triumph.

Yates heeds coach's plea for better board work

Desmond Yates has been a consistent scorer in his one-plus seasons as a Blue Raider but Head Coach Kermit Davis has consistently said his prized recruit needed to improve in the rebounding department in order to become a more complete player. Yates averaged 10.9 points as a freshman but just 3.4 rebounds. Numbers support Davis' reasoning as Yates averaged 20.2 points in the six games in which he pulled six or more rebounds as a freshman. After averaging just 2.7 caroms in the first three games of the 2007-08 season Davis challenged Yates to either improve his rebounding from the 4 position or see his playing time decrease. The warning did not fall on deaf ears as Yates is averaging 5.5 rebounds over the last three games. Coincidentally, he is averaging 15.7 points during the last three games which is tops on the team over this three-game span.

What's in a name? Yates prefers 'Boogie'

Junior forward Desmond Yates' nickname is "Boogie," which he says was given to him by his grandmother when he was 1-year-old. Yates isn't sure why his grandmother gave him the particular nickname but he has always liked it and prefers to go by "Boogie," as opposed to Desmond.

Newcomer Green making adjustment

Junior guard Demetrius Green is making a smooth transition into Division I basketball after sitting out last season following his transfer from Daytona Beach Community College. Green has played his best basketball of late and is averaging 13.3 points over the last four games. Green is also averaging 5.3 rebounds and shooting 88 percent (14-of-16) from the free-throw line during this span. The Lexington, Ky., native is also averaging 31.8 minutes over the last four games.

Hudson, Yates form strong inside duo of late

Junior center Theryn Hudson and sophomore forward Desmond Yates have been a strong one-two punch for the Blue Raiders over the last four games. They have combined to shoot 64 percent (47-74) from the field, 75 percent (15-of-20) from the free-throw line, averaging 11.3 rebounds and 28 points per game during this four-game span. Yates is averaging a team-high 15.3 points and 4.5 rebunds while shooting 61 percent in the last four games, while Hudson is averaging 12.5 points, 6.8 rebounds and shooting a sizzling 67 percent (22-33) from the field in these four games. Hudson narrowly missed a double double against Belmont (12/12) when he scored a career-high 16 points and tied his career high with nine rebounds.

Second half has been good to Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee has been a strong offensive team in the second half of games so far this season. The Blue Raiders are averaging almost 40 points (39.6) after intermission through the first eight games of the season. They have scored 44 or more points in the second half four times, including 51 vs. Tennessee Wesleyan, 48 vs. Appalachian State, 47 vs. San Jose State, and 44 vs. Houston.

80 points or more usually good news

When Middle Tennessee has been able to light up the scoreboard under Head Coach Kermit Davis the results have been staggering. Middle Tennessee has won 96 percent of the 27 games in which it has scored 80 or more points in Davis' five-plus seasons. The Blue Raiders are 26-1 in such games, including a 2-0 mark this season. The only time Middle Tennessee failed to win under Davis when scoring more than 80 was an 85-83 overtime setback at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005. The Blue Raiders have won 11 straight overall when scoring 80 or more points.

Green strong in Blue Raider debut

Junior guard Demetrius Green's long-awaited debut lived up the hype. Green sat out the 2006-07 season after transferring from Daytona Beach Community College but he made up for lost time with a sensational debut for the Blue Raiders. Green scored 17 points and pulled six rebounds, both game highs, against San Jose State in the season opener. He was 6-of-6 from the field, including 2-of-2 from 3-point range.

Players shine in Raider debuts

While Demetrius Green made the most noise in his Blue Raider debut, he was not the only Middle Tennessee player to debut during the First Shot Exempt Tournament. All three Blue Raider newcomers debuted in the tournament and they scored. In addition to Green, Broderick Gilchrest and Uriah Hethington saw action against San Jose State. Gilchrest, a freshman from Memphis, played six minutes and had one point against the Spartans and Hethington, a 6-8 junior forward from Cairo, Ga., played 10 minutes and had four points.

NUMEROLOGY

8

Junior point guard Kevin Kanaskie is eighth on the career assist list at Middle Tennessee with 293.

Middle Tennessee is averaging 17 wins per season in Kermit Davis' first five seasons leading the program. That is the second-highest average for any Blue Raider coach after his first five seasons.

Consecutive games Middle Tennessee has made at least one 3-point field goal.

Outshooting foes has been key

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 71-7 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher than the opponent. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo last season, despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 44 of the last 49 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Who says you can't get something for free?

Middle Tennessee took advantage of charity in its 86-80 overtime win against Belmont (12/12) when the Blue Raiders shot a sizzling 93 percent (26-of-28) from the charity stripe. In fact, Kevin Kanaskie, who set career marks for free throws made (11) and attempted (13) in the game was the only Blue Raider to miss from the free-throw line. Demetrius Green was 6-of-6 in the game and Desmond Yates connected on all four of his attempts. Yates has made 11 straight free throws.

Freshman putting up in-Sain numbers

Middle Tennessee freshman Josh Sain returned from a three-game suspension to score seven points, pull three rebounds and dish out three assists in 11 minutes of action in an 86-80 overtime win against Belmont (12/12). Sain has made the most of his opportunities in the four games he has played for the Blue Raiders. The Jackson, Tenn., native, who was the MVP of the Class AA state championship game at Murphy Center last March, is averaging almost one point per minute played. He has scored 29 points in 43 minutes of action or 0.7 points per minute. In the four games he has played, Sain has played just a little more than the equivalent of one game (40 minutes). In that time he has scored 29 points, grabbed nine rebounds, dished out four assists and collected three steals.

Blue Raiders ink two during NCAA Early Signing Period

Middle Tennessee signed two players to national letters of intent during the NCAA Early Signing Period, which began Wednesday (11/14). The Blue Raiders landed in-state prospect DeMario Williams from Culleoka High School, and they also signed Aundra Williams, a highly-regarded forward from Orlando, Fla. DeMario Williams is a top-10 prospect in Tennessee and he averaged 18 points, eight assists and eight rebounds in 2006-07. The 6-3 point guard is a two-time Mr. Basketball Finalist. He is one of two players to be named Mr. Basketball Finalist in Tennessee as a sophomore and junior. The other was former North Carolina standout and NBA first-round pick Brandan Wright. Aundra Williams is a 6-8, 235-pound forward at Boone High in Orlando, Fla. He was rated a top-50 Florida prospect by Hoopscoop and the ABA team Miami Tropics' recruiting service.

Yates looking to surpass outstanding rookie season

Desmond Yates enjoyed a breakout freshman season for Middle Tennessee and he believes the invaluable experience he gained as a rookie will enable him to have an even stronger sophomore campaign. Yates proved to be one of the best true freshmen to play for the Blue Raiders as he averaged right at 11 points, started 18 games and played in all 32. Yates had 19 double-figure scoring games and he led the team in scoring 10 times. In order to continue to improve and elevate his game Yates needs to become more of a force on the boards. The 6-foot-7 forward averaged 3.4 rebounds as a freshman.

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 345 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.
