HOLT LOVES THE SECOND HALF: Amber Holt averages 23.8 points per game this season, but the senior has been much more productive after halftime. The Duluth, Ga., native has scored in double figures in all nine games in the second half, netting 136 of her 214 points (15.1 per game) this season after intermission. Holt scored 12 of her 16 points at No. 3/6 Maryland in the second half and posted 20 of her team-high 28 at No. 1 Tennessee after the break. She added 18 of her career-high 33 at Austin Peay in the second half as well. Holt had 14 points en route to a game-high 27 in the second half against Western Carolina on December 2 and 19 of her game-high 27 points after intermission at Arizona on November 25, including the first six points of the second half and seven of the team's final 11 points of the contest. The chart below breaks down Holt's field goals in the first and second halves, points in the second half and total points in the game.

Tennessee ended the season 21-0 against Sun Belt opponents after winnings its fourth consecutive SBC Tournament. Only three other schools in the 31-year history of the Sun Belt finished undefeated in conference play (Old Dominion, 6-0 in 1984-85, 1987-88; UAB, 6-0 in 1990-91; Louisiana Tech, 14-0 in 1993-94, 1995-96, 12-0 in 1998-99, 16-0 in 1999- 00, 2000-01). Middle Tennessee's last SBC loss came February 27, 2006 at Florida International, a 73-57 defeat.

HOLT GARNERS SECOND SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR: Middle Tennessee senior Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on Tuesday after averaging 30.5 points and 9.0 rebounds in contests against top-ranked Tennessee and at Austin Peay last week. Holt also posted 5.0 assists and 2.5 steals in the two contests, hitting 20-of-32 field goals, 5-for-10 3-pointers and 18-of-22 free throws. Against the top-ranked Lady Vols, Holt netted 28 points, hitting 8-of-16 from the floor and 10-of-11 at the foul line. She added five assists in playing all 40 minutes, as the Blue Raiders trailed by just six points with six minutes to play. Against Austin Peay, the senior scored a career-high 33 points, making 12-of-16 shots and 8-of-11 free throws. She grabbed 14 rebounds with five assists and three steals. It was her third double-double this season and the sixth of her career. She also has double-doubles this season at Houston and at Maryland. This is Holt's second SBC Player of the Week honor this season and the fourth of her career. She garnered SBC accolades on November 20 after helping the Blue Raiders to victories over Tennessee Tech and at Houston, averaging 24.5 points and 10.0 rebounds per game. Holt is averaging 23.8 points, 8.2 rebounds and 4.1 assists per game this season, all team-highs for Middle Tennessee. She ranks first in the Sun Belt in scoring, third in rebounding and tied for seventh in assists. Her 23.8 points per game also ranks second nationally this week through games of December 16. She is also 23rd in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.18) and 64th in field goal percentage (.521).

BLUE RAIDERS PLAY JUST THIRD HOME GAME: Middle Tennessee plays just its third home game of the season Wednesday against Florida International and the first since December 2. The Blue Raiders have played seven of their nine contests in 2007-08 on the road, posting a 3-4 mark, including victories at Houston and Arizona and suffering three defeats by a combined 16 points. Middle Tennessee is 1-1 at home thus far this season, defeating Tennessee Tech, 89-62, on November 14 and suffering a 77-71 loss to Western Carolina on Dec. 2, breaking the club's 14-game winning streak. The Blue Raiders have won 30 consecutive games in a row against Sun Belt competition dating to the 2004 season.

RAIDERS DOMINATE AT HOME VERSUS SBC FOES: Middle Tennessee's home dominance of Sun Belt foes continued throughout last season, as the Blue Raiders won their 30th in a row versus league foes at Murphy Center with a win on February 24 against Florida Atlantic. The last time Middle Tennessee dropped a conference home game was February 5, 2004, in double overtime against Western Kentucky. Overall, the Blue Raiders have won 34 of their last 35 home conference games and head coach Rick Insell is a perfect 18-0 at the Glass House against SBC competition. In fact, since joining the Sun Belt before the 2000-01 season, the Blue Raiders are 46-6 at home against Sun Belt competition, an exquisite .885 winning percentage. Western Kentucky has won two games, with South Alabama, Florida International, North Texas and New Mexico State claiming one victory each.

SQUAD TURNS UP THE DEFENSE: Middle Tennessee's defensive pressure is many times described as relentless and never-ending, and the Blue Raiders have continued to turn up the pressure with each passing game this season. Opponents are averaging 23.0 turnovers per game this season, including 26 by Western Carolina on December 2 and 19 by No. 1 Tennessee on December 13. The Blue Raiders forced a season-high 39 turnovers on December 15 against Austin Peay, turning those mistakes into 43 points. Middle Tennessee is averaging 25.1 points per game this year off opponent turnovers, scoring 226 total points in nine games.

3-POINTER BIG PART OF OFFENSE: One of Middle Tennessee's trademarks under third-year head coach Rick Insell has been shooting and making a high percentage of 3-pointers. The Blue Raiders made 37 percent from behind the arc in 2005-06 and 35 percent last season and started this year very hot, making 31-of-77 (.403) in the first three games of the year. The squad struggled over the next three contests, making just 15-for-73 (.205), including a 2-for-18 effort against Western Carolina on December 2. But the club's touch from behind the arc has returned in the last three outings, road games at No. 3/6 Maryland, No. 1/1 Tennessee and Austin Peay, with the Blue Raiders making 31-of-87 attempts (.356). Middle Tennessee was 12-of-39 at Maryland on December 5, a season-high for attempts for the Blue Raiders, and came back with an 11-for-24 (.458) performance at Tennessee, the team's best percentage outing of the year. The Tennessee contest marked the fourth time this year the squad has made double-digit 3-pointers in a game and the 20th time under head coach Rick Insell. Middle Tennessee had 11 trifectas at Old Dominion and 12 versus Tennessee Tech earlier this season.

QUEEN ENJOYS STARTING ROLE: Freshman Emily Queen has made the most of her playing time since joining the starting lineup two games ago, helping the Blue Raiders play two of their best games of the year. Queen was inserted into the lineup to add more size and a more physical presence in the low post. She had her first game as a starter at No. 1/1 Tennessee on December 13 and played 14 minutes

MEDIA INFORMATION

Blue Raiders on Radio

■ All Blue Raider basketball games may be heard on WMOT FM 89.5, a 100,000 watt station that originates in Murfreesboro. Dick Palmer begins his first season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-play announcer and his 27th year of calling basketball at Middle Tennessee.

Interview Protocol

■ After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Rick Insell will be available for members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, the interview area is located just off the northeast corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Insell will be brought to an area designated by the home team. Player requests should be directed to assistant media relations director Jo Jo Freeman.

Credentials

■ Arrangement for media credentials for the 2007-08 basketball season should be directed to the Athletic Media Relations Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Jo Jo Freeman. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Middle Tennessee basketball on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space available basis.

Radio, Television Shows

■ The Rick Insell TV Show airs every other Tuesday on MTTV 10 in Murfreesboro beginning November 6 and following November 20; December 4 and 18; January 1, 15 and 29; February 12 and 26; and March 11. Coach Insell's radio show begins Monday, January 7, and airs each Monday for the remainder of the season. The radio show can be heard at 89.5 WMOT and also at GoBlueRaiders.com.

GoBlueRaiders.com

■ Middle Tennessee basketball statistics and notes are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at GoBlueRaiders.com. Media are invited to use the official web site for Middle Tennessee athletics for information regarding all Blue Raider athletic teams.

before fouling out. But the Ashland, Ky., native responded with a big game at Austin Peay on December 15 in her second start, scoring a career-high 14 points on 5-of-7 shooting along with six rebounds and two steals in a season-high 24 minutes of action. Queen is second on the team in total rebounds with 29 and averages just 14.8 minutes per game.

LYMON'S SEASON UP-AND-DOWN: Sophomore point guard Chelsia Lymon has seen several highs and lows in the team's first nine games of the year, but her return to the court just nine months after a major knee injury has also been a big help for the Blue Raiders. Lymon scored a career-high 15 points on November 14 against Tennessee Tech, added eight points on November 19 at Houston and netted 14, including a pair of 3-pointers, at No. 3/6 Maryland on December 5. But she played one of the worst games of her career on December 13 at Tennessee, committing five of the team's 17 turnovers in the game. She also did not score against the Lady Vols. One of Lymon's greatest traits is her resiliency, and the Georgetown, Ky., native came back with 14 points and three assists as well as just one turnover at Austin Peay on December 15. For the season Lymon is averaging 6.7 points and 1.7 assists per game while playing 19.0 minutes per contest.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE FOR HOLT: Amber Holt continued her all-around play at Austin Peay on December 15, posting her third double-double of the season and the sixth of her career with a career-high 33 points along with 14 rebounds. Holt had one of her best all-around games of her career at Maryland on December 5, scoring 16 points with 10 rebounds and a career-high seven assists in 39 minutes of action. The Duluth, Ga., native also posted a double-double November 19 at Houston when she had career-highs of 30 points and 15 rebounds.

RAIDERS HOLD OWN ON THE ROAD: Middle Tennessee has played seven of their nine contests in 2007-08 on the road, posting a 3-4 mark, including victories at Houston and Arizona and suffering three defeats by a combined 16 points. Couple that with a loss at No. 1 Tennessee, a game in which the Blue Raiders trailed by just six points with six minutes to play, and the young squad has performed very well away from Murphy Center. The season-opening loss at Old Dominion ended a 13-game road winning streak for Middle Tennessee dating to last season, and the team has won 16 of its last 20 contests on opponents' home floors, with all four losses this season – versus ODU, Chattanooga, Maryland and Tennessee. Of the team's 29 regular season games in 2007-08, 17 will be played on the road.

HOLDING TURNOVERS TO A MINIMUM: One of head coach Rick Insell's stressing points to his team is always valuing possessions and limiting turnovers. In 2006-07 the Blue Raiders turned the ball over 14.6 times per game. Through this season's first three games, Middle Tennessee was committing 19.7 turnovers per game, but the Blue Raiders have improved on that number drastically over the last six contests, committing just 13.3 miscues during that stretch. Middle Tennessee had only 14 turnovers at Arizona, 10 miscues at Chattanooga, 11 turnovers versus Western Carolina and 13 miscues at Maryland. The Blue Raiders have also turned up their defense as the season has progressed, with opponents averaging 23.0 turnovers per game in 2007-08. Middle Tennessee forced a season-high 39 turnovers on December 15 against Austin Peay, turning those mistakes into 43 points. The Blue Raiders averaging 25.1 points per game this year off opponent turnovers, scoring 226 total points in nine games.

RAIDERS LEADERS ARE TRIPLE THREATS: Amber Holt not only leads Middle Tennessee with 23.8 points per game, but the senior also ranks first on the club with 8.2 rebounds and 4.1 assists per game, continuing an eight-year trend where the club's leading scorer also ranks near the top in both rebounds and assists. Chrissy Givens led the Blue Raiders in scoring and assists the last two seasons and also ranked first in rebounds in 2005-06 before tying for second in boards last year. Patrice Holmes was first in scoring and assists her final three years as a Blue Raider and ranked first in rebounding twice and fourth once. Jamie Thomatis was also first in scoring and rebounding as a junior and senior and ranked second and third in assists during those seasons as well.

BLUE RAIDERS IN DECEMBER: Middle Tennessee owns a 117-84 mark all-time in the month of December, including 11-6 under third-year head coach Rick Insell. The Blue Raiders were 4-3 in Insell's first season and a perfect 6-0 last year, including victories at eighth-ranked Georgia and over Western Kentucky.

SERIES WITH FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL: Middle Tennessee owns an 8-6 all-time record against Florida International, with all 14 meetings taking place since the Blue Raiders joined the Sun Belt prior to the 2000-01 season. FIU won four of the first five meetings between the two teams, but Middle Tennessee has claimed seven of the last nine. The Blue Raiders are 6-1 against the Golden Panthers at Murphy Center, including five consecutive victories. FIU gave Middle Tennessee one of its closest games of the season during a 27-game winning streak last year in Murfreesboro, a 66-59 outing.

RAIDERS RANK 27th IN ATTENDANCE: The first unofficial national attendance rankings of the year were released December 3, with Middle Tennessee ranking 23rd despite playing just two home games this season. The Blue Raiders rank 27th this week in the national attendance figures compiled by the University of Wisconsin. Middle Tennessee is averaging 3,210 fans per game after drawing 2,614 for the home opener versus Tennessee Tech and 3,806 against Western Carolina. Middle Tennessee ranked 26th nationally in attendance last season after averaging 4,157 fans per game.

BROWN STEPS UP AT MARYLAND: Sophomore Brandi Brown took advantage of a switch in the lineup at Maryland on December 5. The Blue Raiders started three forwards, allowing Brown to play more on the perimeter and look for her shot, something she has been hesitant to do for much of the season. The Jamestown, Tenn., native responded with a season-high 22 points, including 6-of-12 from 3-point range. It was just the second 20-point effort of her career after the career-high 25 points last season against North Dakota State. The York Institute product tied her season-highs with 22 points, 8-of-15 FG attempts and 6-for-12 3-point FG attempts. Brown is second on the team in scoring with 7.9 points per game, ranking eighth in the Sun Belt in 3-point FG percentage at 42 percent.

BURTTS HITS THE BOARDS: Redshirt freshman Angelique Burtts played sparingly in the first five games of the season but burst onto the scene against Western Carolina December 2. Burtts entered the game early in the second half because of foul trouble in the Blue Raiders frontcourt and made her 11 minutes of action count. The Conyers, Ga., native scored 12 points on 5-of-5 shooting and grabbed five rebounds, including four on the offensive glass. She had played just 18 minutes in the team's first five games this year and had taken just three shots in her career before the performance against the Lady Catamounts. Her play earned the Rockdale HS product her first career start December 5 at Maryland where she grabbed a pair of rebounds in 14 minutes. Burtts added to her rebounding totals December 13 at No. 1/1 Tennessee, grabbing five more boards in 10 minutes before fouling out.

ORR BREAKS OUT: Starr Orr missed the first two games of the season because of suspension due to a violation of athletic department policy. The senior had a good game at Chattanooga on November 28, her third game back, scoring 11 points on 5-of-10 shooting, but the Danville, Ala., native posted her best performance of the year December 13 at No. 1/1 Tennessee. Orr hit a career-high four 3-pointers and finished with 12 points along with three rebounds, two assists and two steals against the Lady Vols. Orr had never made more than two 3-pointers in a game during her Blue Raider career and her previous high for attempts was five before attempting nine in Knoxville. She followed her performance against the Lady Vols with seven points and five steals in 25 minutes at Austin Peay on December 15. For the season Orr is averaging 6.4 points, 3.3 rebounds and 2.0 steals per contest.

ABNEY SOLID AGAIN AT THE POINT: Johnna Abney has been a three-year starter at point guard for the Blue Raiders because of her steady play and ability to knock down 3-pointers. The junior was a little up-and-down at the beginning of the year, as the Mt. Vernon, Ky., native had just one double-figure scoring game but more importantly averaged 3.0 turnovers per outing in the first five contests of the season. Since coming off the bench against Western Carolina on December 2, Abney has stepped up her game, distributing the ball more effectively and cutting down on her turnovers, posting only six miscues in the last four games combined versus WCU, No. 3/6 Maryland, No. 1/1 Tennessee and Austin Peay. The Rockcastle HS product has also found the range from behind the arc as well, knocking down a pair of 3-pointers at Maryland and hitting three more trifectas and 11 total points at Tennessee. Abney is shooting 38 percent (12-for-32) from 3-point range this season, third best on the club and 13th best in the Sun Belt heading into Wednesday's game against Florida International.

HOLT VOTED SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Middle Tennessee's Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on November 20 after helping the Blue Raiders to a pair of victories. Holt averaged 24.5 points and 10.0 rebounds per game in Middle Tennessee victories over Tennessee Tech and at Houston. The senior set career-highs with 30 points and 15 rebounds in the 69-68 triumph at Houston, including scoring nine straight points in the second half after the Cougars tied the game. She also had career-highs in field goals made (13) and field goal attempts (27) and added four assists and three steals in 37 minutes in the contest. Against Tennessee Tech, Holt scored 19 points with five rebounds, three assists and two steals. It is Holt's third career Player of the Week accolade after garnering the honor twice last season – November 14 and February 5.

SQUAD VERY YOUNG IN 2007-08: Middle Tennessee will play the 2007-08 season with just 11 players available for head coach Rick Insell's relentless style of full court basketball, and only three of those players have played more than one season at Middle Tennessee – seniors Starr Orr and Latoya Barclay and junior Johnna Abney. Senior Amber Holt has been in Murfreesboro one year after transferring from Southeastern Illinois College. The rest of the squad is made up of three sophomores (Jackie Pickel, Chelsia Lymon and Brandi Brown), one redshirt freshman (Angelique Burtts) and three true freshmen (Emily Queen, Morgan Boyd and Anne Marie Lanning). A good example of the program's youth came November 25 at Arizona. The Blue Raiders played at the McKale Center against Utah in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06, but only three players remain on the squad who played in that contest – Orr, Barclay and Abney.

Preseason Notes

HOLT VOTED FIRST TEAM, BLUE RAIDERS PICKED SECOND IN SBC: Middle Tennessee senior Amber Holt was voted First Team All-Sun Belt and the Blue Raiders were picked second in the East in a poll of league coaches released during the Sun Belt Media Days in Mobile, Ala. Holt was a First Team All-SBC selection last season after averaging 16.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 2.7 steals per contest. She is one of three starters returning for the Blue Raiders from last year's record-setting 30-4 club.

She had her best games in 2006-07 against some of the nation's top teams, including 28 points and eight rebounds against top-ranked Maryland, 26 points and 10 boards versus Chattanooga and 21 points, including 15 in the second half, in Middle Tennessee's victory at eighth-ranked Georgia. Holt also scored 27 points against Old Dominion, tallied 15 points and 11 rebounds in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Championships versus Denver and posted 23 points against Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Duluth, Ga., native made it to the final cut this past summer for USA Basketball's Pan American Games Team.

Middle Tennessee received four first-place votes in the East Division and had 69 total points. The coaches picked Western Kentucky first in the division, with the Lady 'Toppers receiving nine first-place votes and 74 total points. Florida International was selected third in the East, with Troy and South Alabama tied for fourth and Florida Atlantic sixth.

BLUE RAIDERS 27TH IN FIRST ESPN/USA TODAY POLL: Middle Tennessee was ranked 27th in the Preseason ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll released October 31 and missed the Top 25 by just seven points. Defending national champion Tennessee was ranked No. 1 and garnered 26 of the 31 first-place votes in the poll, while Connecticut received four first-place votes and LSU, who Middle Tennessee plays on December 28 in Murfreesboro, garnered the remaining top vote. The Blue Raiders posted 71 points in the poll, while 25th-ranked N.C. State had 78 points. DePaul received 75 points and was ranked 26th. Middle Tennessee received 15 votes in the second ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll released November 13, ranking 33rd nationally.

The Blue Raiders were ranked in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll last season for the first time since 1988 and appeared in the final 12 rankings of the season, reaching as high as No. 16 and ending the year rated 23rd nationally. Middle Tennessee's 30-4 mark in 2006-07 was the best ever in the history of the program and one of the best in Sun Belt history, as the Blue Raiders rolled through league play and the conference tournament with a 21-0 mark against SBC competition.

RAIDERS 28TH IN FIRST AP POLL: Middle Tennessee was ranked 28th in the first Associated Press poll released on November 3. The Blue Raiders appeared in the final 10 AP polls in 2006-07, reaching as high as No. 16 on March 5. Last season's ranking was the first-ever in school history in the Associated Press poll for Middle Tennessee. The Blue Raiders ended the year ranked 17th in the final AP poll of 2006-07. Middle Tennessee was tied for 33rd in the second AP poll this year, released November 13, with nine votes.

BLUE RAIDERS 22ND IN LINDY'S: Middle Tennessee was ranked 22nd in a preseason poll released in Lindy's 2007-08 College Basketball Magazine. The Blue Raiders ended the 2006-07 season ranked 17th by the Associated Press and 23rd in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. Middle Tennessee returns three starters and seven letterwinners from last year's 30-4 club, including senior Amber Holt, who averaged 16.7 points and 6.3 rebounds per game. She also posted 2.7 steals per contest and scored in doubles figures in 30 of the 34 games. The Blue Raiders play three other teams in Lindy's Top 5, including Tennessee (No. 1), Maryland (No. 4) and LSU (No. 5).

HOLT SECOND TEAM ALL-AMERICAN, TEAM RANKED 13TH BY SPORTING NEWS: Middle Tennessee was ranked 13th and senior Amber Holt was named Second Team All-American by the Sporting News in their Preseason College Basketball magazine. It was the second preseason ranking for the Blue Raiders after Lindy's rated the club 22nd nationally. Middle Tennessee ended the 2006-07 season ranked 17th by the Associated Press and 23rd in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. The Blue Raiders return three starters and seven letterwinners from last year's record-setting 30-4 club.

Holt garnered First Team All-Sun Belt honors last season after averaging 16.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 2.7 steals per game. She started all 34 contests and scored in double figures in 30 games. The Duluth, Ga., native netted 28 points and eight rebounds in her first career game, versus top-ranked Maryland, and followed that with the first of three double-doubles during the season with 19 points and 10 boards against South Dakota State. Holt scored 26 points with 10 rebounds versus Chattanooga and 21 points, including 15 in the second half, in a victory at eighth-ranked Georgia. She also posted 27 points with eight boards, including 10-of-12 free throws, against Old Dominion. Holt registered 20-plus points in three straight games in February, scoring 27 against South Alabama, 25 at Louisiana-Monroe and 24 at Western Kentucky. She added 15 points and 11 rebounds versus Denver in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Championships and netted 20 points in the championship game against Louisiana-Lafayette. Holt scored 23 points versus Gonzaga in the opening contest of the NCAA Tournament.

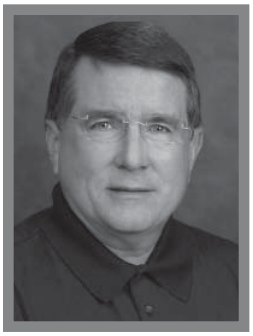
Head Coach Rick Insell



Rick Insell begins his third season as head coach at Middle Tennessee amid great expectations after a record-breaking season in 2006-07 that included a school-record 30 victories, a fourth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament and a No. 16 national ranking by the Associated Press and the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll.

Insell has helped elevate the program into the national spotlight, including last season's victory at then eighth-ranked Georgia in early December. The victory in Athens was the first in program history over a ranked team on the road and just the fifth victory over a ranked foe in the 32-year history of the Middle Tennessee program.

The Blue Raiders won 27 games in a row in 2006-07, the longest streak in the nation at one point, and did not lose for more than 100 days.

Middle Tennessee eclipsed the school record for victories in a season as well last year, posting a 30-4 overall record, besting the previous mark of 26 set by the 1982-83 squad. The 2006-07 squad also tied the record for consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, tying a mark set from 1983-86, and collected the program's fourth consecutive 20-win campaign, also a school record. The four straight conference tournament titles also ties a school record set from 1983-86.

Insell's two-year mark of 50-15 is the best back-to-back seasons in program history, bettering the mark of 48-17 posted during 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Fans have also taken notice of the team's entertaining playing style. Middle Tennessee led the nation in increased attendance percentage in 2005-06, drawing 2,699 fans per game, a 276 percent increase over the previous season. The Blue Raiders improved on that number in 2006-07 as well, setting a single-game record with 10,010 in the season opener against defending national champion Maryland and averaging 4,157 fans for 15 home games, an increase of 65 percent. Middle Tennessee's attendance ranked in the Top 30 nationally and the crowd for the Maryland game was one of the Top 50 for attendance in the nation in 2006-07.

Insell also developed one of the best players in school history over the last two seasons. Chrissy Givens registered the second-most points in school history in 2005-06 and eclipsed the top mark in 2006-07, and ranked in the Top 10 nationally in scoring both seasons.

Insell, a Woodbury, Tenn., native, made a huge splash in his first year at the helm of the Middle Tennessee program, guiding the Blue Raiders to their third consecutive Sun Belt Tournament title and doing so in front of a record-setting home crowd in the finals of the Sun Belt Championships.

Insell directed one of the most thrilling comebacks in Sun Belt Tournament history, leading Middle Tennessee to an 84-73 win over Western Kentucky after being down by as many as 14 points in the first half.

The 2005-06 campaign also saw another first in program history as three players – Givens, Tia Stovall and Krystle Horton – all joined the 1,000-point club. It marked the first time in school history three current players all were represented on the prestigious list, and the Blue Raiders were one of only four teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament to boast such an honor.

Middle Tennessee notched one of its biggest wins of the season when the Blue Raiders defeated traditional Big 10 power Penn State, 79-65, in the UAB Blaze Tournament in December.

With the first conference title and NCAA Tournament appearance under his belt, Insell's recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally and included current sophomores Jackie Pickel, Brandi Brown and Chelsia Lymon.

A 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, Insell built a high school girls basketball dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, just a 30-

INSELL'S INS AND OUTS

- Janaury 17, 2007 - Rick Insell and Middle Tennessee featured in two-page spread in USA Today about the program's rise to national prominence and success during his brief tenure.
- Voted Sun Belt Coach of the Year in 2006-07, his first SBC Coach of the Year honor and the first such accolade for a Middle Tennessee head coach since 1988.
- Elected to National High School Hall of Fame in Febraury 2007, one of only six Tennesseans inducted by the National Federation of State High School Associations.
- Led Middle Tennessee to school-record 30 victories in 2006-07, including a perfect 21-0 against Sun Belt opponents. The Blue Raiders won their fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament and played in their fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament in 2006-07.
- Signed a recruiting class ranked in the Top 10 nationally after the 2005-06 season.
- Appeared on Dateline on December 26, 2004. The program produced a one-hour segment on Insell, focusing on him and his Shelbyville Eaglettes. The program was shown internationally.
- March 22, 2003 - Rick Insell was inducted into the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Hall of Fame.
- Insell and the Eaglettes received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement.
- In 1989, ESPN did a feature story on the Shelbyville Eaglettes that aired nationally several times. The story won the National Television Journalism Award later that year. It was the first of several stories ESPN did on Insell and his team.
- In 1992, Rick Insell was named Head Coach of the Girls High School All-American Game and from 1992-96 was a member of the All-American Selection Committee. He became the chairman of the All-American Selection Committee in 1996 and began serving as an advisor in 1999.
- Insell was named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors as High School Representative in 2001.

minute drive from the Middle Tennessee campus. He guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today national championships (1989, 1991), as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure.

Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991 and he also was been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992). A name synonymous with high school girls basketball in Tennessee, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992), most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team so honored.

For his accomplishments at Shelbyville, Insell was elected to the National High School Hall of Fame in February 2007 and was inducted with a class of 12 in July 2007. Insell is one of only six Tennesseeans, including just the fourth coach, elected to the National High School Hall of Fame.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central won 23 district championships, 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. He developed six Tennessee Class AAA Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Middle Tennessee won its fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament in 2006-07, earning a fourth consecutive berth in the NCAA Tournament.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville during his time there, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom, as evidenced by his teams receiving the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000, an award based on team grade-point-average. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville from 1989-00 was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98. The academic emphasis has continued during his tenure at Middle Tennessee, as the Blue Raiders posted a cumulative 3.22 GPA in Fall 2006.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville team received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement and his teams also have been honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, the Tennessee State House and Senate and by two Tennessee Governors.

Insell had high praise for the head coaching position when he accepted the position at Middle Tennessee.

"Dreams do come true," Insell said after Director of Athletics Chris Massaro announced his hiring on May 18, 2005. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me, but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them, then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

Insell is married to Debbie and the couple have three sons, Tom, Kyle and Matt.

Givens Nets 32 in Blue Raiders 86-52 Triumph
Blue Raiders push winning streak to 10

MIAMI, Fla. - Chrissy Givens scored a season-high 32 points and Amber Holt added 19, as 21st-ranked Middle Tennessee shot better than 70 percent from the field for most of the second half, running away with an 86-52 victory over Florida International Tuesday night at Pharmed Arena.

The win runs Middle Tennessee's winning streak to 10 games this season, tying for the sixth longest in school history and the longest winning streak since a 10-game stretch in 1999-00.

Middle Tennessee (13-3, 5-0 Sun Belt) led 38-22 at the half and hit 19 of its first 25 shots after intermission, taking a 40-point lead at 84-44 with 4:57 left in the game. Freshman Brandi Brown also contributed 16 points, 13 in the first half.

Givens took over in the second half, scoring 25 of her 32 points, including 12 of the first 17. The senior drove the lane continually in the second half, making lay-ups and short jumpers. Givens also dished out eight assists with four rebounds and six steals in 34 minutes, returning to the court after injuring her knee in Saturday's win over Troy.

"I felt alright after the first practice when I was able to dribble [on Sunday] and I was cutting fine," Givens said. "I felt good the more I practiced and played [this week] and felt like because it was a road game, I needed to come out and be more aggressive and score and do the things I needed to do. The shots fell tonight and we played real well defensively."

Middle Tennessee's Krystle Horton added eight points and eight rebounds and the Blue Raiders outrebounded a much taller FIU, 37-29, in the game.

"I thought Chelsia [Lymon] and Starr [Orr] were the difference up front and Krystle Horton down low with the rebounds and hard-nosed battling those players did for us tonight," head coach Rick Insell said. "The player Chelsia was guarding (FIU point guard Iva Ciglar) had 10 turnovers.

"Everybody that played tonight was able to contribute and that's what a team's all about. We've got to be able to play 10-12 players and give some others rest playing these road games. It was a great win and we played well."

Middle Tennessee scored 38 points off 29 FIU turnovers in the game, while the Blue Raiders turned the ball over just 13 times, recorded 20 assists and made 18 steals.

Brown hit a trio of 3-pointers early in the first half and totaled 13 points in the first 20 minutes, as the Blue Raiders raced out to a 38-22 halftime lead. Brown entered the game just three minutes in and made her first basket before hitting nine consecutive points, all on trifectas, giving Middle Tennessee a 17-10 edge with 12:07 left in the half.

The Blue Raiders were ahead 38-18 after a Givens lay-up with 3:30 before the break, but did not score again, including Givens missing two free throws with 0.4 seconds remaining.

POSTGAME NOTES

GIVENS MOVES INTO SEVENTH: With a season-high 32 points Tuesday against Florida International, senior Chrissy Givens passed Stephanie Capley (1988-91) and Sharon McClanahan (1976-79) for seventh place on the all-time scoring list at Middle Tennessee. Givens has 1,486 points and is now chasing Jennifer McFall (1982-85), who finished her career with 1,834 points.

DEFENSE ... DEFENSE: Middle Tennessee stepped up its full-court press even more against Florida International, forcing 29 turnovers and converting those miscues into 38 points. The Blue Raiders also limited the Golden Panthers to just 38 percent shooting from the field (.378, 17-for-45), the second lowest for the Middle Tennessee opponent this season (.377, Minnesota).

BENCH CONTINUES TO PLAY A FACTOR: Middle Tennessee's improved depth this season continues to play a big factor in each game. Freshman Brandi Brown has led the bench brigade for most of the season, but never more so than over the last three games when the Jamestown, Tenn., native is averaging 20.0 points per contest. Brown hit four more 3-pointers Tuesday against Florida International and finished with 16 points. Meanwhile freshman Chelsia Lymon had a trio of 3-pointers as well and forced FIU point guard Iva Ciglar into 10 turnovers on the defensive end. Lymon also tied her career-high with three rebounds in the triumph.

SQUAD FINDING ROAD SUCCESS: Middle Tennessee ran its record away from Murphy Center this season to 6-1, including 5-1 in road games. The five victories equal the number of road triumphs the Blue Raiders posted all of last season. The only road loss for Middle Tennessee this season came at fourth-ranked Tennessee on November 26, also the team's last defeat overall.

WIN STREAK REACHES 10: With Tuesday's victory the Blue Raiders ran their current winning streak to 10 games, tying for the fifth longest winning streak in school history and the longest since the 1999-00 squad won 10 consecutive contests from February 3-29, 2000. The 10-game winning stretch in 2000 is the longest by any Middle Tennessee team over the last decade. The 1986-87 club posted a school-record 15-game winning streak from January 12-February 26, 1987.

TIDBITS: Senior Chrissy Givens posted season-highs in points (32), assists (8) and steals (6) in the victory. Her 30-plus point effort was the first 30-point game by a Blue Raiders since Givens scored a career-high 36 points against Louisiana-Lafayette in last year's Sun Belt Championships ... Givens has eight games this season with six or more assists ... Senior Krystle Horton tied her career-high with four assists ... With the victory Middle Tennessee improved to 18-4 under head coach Rick Insell against Sun Belt competition ... The Blue Raiders outrebounded FIU, 37-29, the fourth straight game Middle Tennessee has grabbed more rebounds than its opponent.

A welcome test
Lady Raiders fend off upset bid by Florida International
By MONTE HALE JR.
hale@dnj.com

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. -- MTSU certainly got the close game coach Rick Insell said his team needed.

Florida International pushed the No. 17 Lady Raiders to the limit Thursday night before they finally held off the Panthers, 66-59, before a crowd of 4,907 at Murphy Center.

MTSU led by as many as 21 points in the second half and looked to be on its way to another Sun Belt Conference blowout. However, the Panthers never wilted.

"We needed this game," Insell said. "We needed this type of game because we're going to have these types of games down the stretch."

MTSU started the second half with a 7-0 run to take a 44-23 lead with 17:33 remaining, but FIU answered with 10 unanswered points and eventually trimmed the Lady Raiders lead to six, 55-49, with 6:39 left in the game.

"They never panicked and we did some strange things," Insell said. "But we'll give [our players] a couple of days off and maybe will flush it out of our system."

MTSU won its school-record 21st consecutive game to improve to 24-3 overall and 16-0 in conference play. The 24 regular-season wins is a new school record, breaking the 1982-83 team that went on to win a record 26 games. The 16 SBC wins also ties Louisiana Tech for the most victories in Sun Belt history.

With MTSU struggling offensively throughout the second half (39.4 percent), senior forward Krystle Horton turned in one of her most key performances of the season.

The 6-foot-2 forward scored 10 of her 12 points in the second half and tied Chrissy Givens with a team-high nine rebounds. She also had a team-high six assists and three steals.

"I thought Krystle Horton was the difference in the game," Insell said. "Without her, we would have been in trouble."

Horton's quickness and ability to drive to the goal hurt the much bigger FIU frontline, particularly when she was matched up with 6-4 center Lasma Jekabsone.

"Most teams are going to be keying on Amber (Holt) and Chrissy (Givens), so at times I've got to do what I've got to do," Horton said. "If I see an opening I'm going to take it."

MTSU had an uncharacteristic 20 turnovers, but forced 28 FIU floor mistakes.

"We didn't take care of the basketball very well tonight," said Givens, who led MTSU with 17 points. "We didn't execute like we can, but we're glad to be 16-0 in the Sun Belt."

MTSU had no answer for FIU sophomore forward Marquita Adley, a 6-foot bruising and athletic forward who had a game-high 23 points, including 10-of-11 shooting.

"I really think that we let (Adley) just go off," Givens said. "Coach (Kevin) McMillan said she was a player that hurt us. We had a hard time matching up with her."

After FIU got as close as six points, MTSU extended the lead back to 12, 64-52, with 3:57 remaining. The Panthers never got closer than the final seven-point margin of victory.

MTSU also got 15 points from Holt, while freshman guard Jackie Pickel hit three 3-pointers to finish with nine points.

Jekabsone had 13 points and a game-high 11 rebounds for FIU, which dropped to 15-10 overall and 9-6 in conference play.

"They've got a very good basketball team," Insell said. "They're well-coached and they came in here tonight with a plan of action. I can see why they've won six out of their last seven."

POSTGAME NOTES

BLUE RAIDERS TIE RECORD: Middle Tennessee picked up its 16th Sun Belt Conference win with the victory over Florida International on Thursday. The 16 wins equals the most league victories in the history of the SBC, as Louisiana Tech registered 16 wins in 1999-00 and again in 2000-01. Due to the conference increasing the league schedule by two games this season, the Blue Raiders have a chance to set a new SBC win record.

MT SETS NEW MARK: The Blue Raiders picked up their 24th regular season victory with the win over FIU to set a new single-season record at Middle Tennessee. The previous mark of 23 regular season wins was set by the 1982-83 squad that went on to win a school-record 26 games.

INSELL NUMBER ONE: The win over FIU on Thursday was the 44th for Rick Insell as head coach of the Blue Raiders. That goes down as the most in school history by a coach in his fi rst two years and breaks the previous mark of 43 victories set by Lewis Bivens from 1988-89.

HORTON SETS CAREER-HIGH IN SOLID GAME: The one constant in an otherwise off night by the Blue Raiders on Thursday was senior Krystle Horton. The Murfreesboro native scored 12 points, collected nine rebounds, dished out a career-high six assists, and added three steals. Horton, who has 25 points in her last two games with 23 of those in the second half, is shooting a combined 72.7 percent from the field over the last three contests.

21 STRAIGHT: The Blue Raiders ran their winning streak to a school-record 21 in a row with Thursday's win over Florida International. The current streak is the second longest nationally behind Duke (26).

30 SBC HOME WINS IN A ROW: Middle Tennessee's home dominance of Sun Belt foes continued against Florida International, as the Blue Raiders won their 30th in a row versus league foes at Murphy Center. The last time Middle Tennessee dropped a conference home game was February 5, 2004, in double overtime against Western Kentucky. Overall, the Blue Raiders have won 34 of their last 35 home conference games and head coach Rick Insell is a perfect 19-0 at the Glass House against SBC competition.

HORTON PASSES TWO MORE: Senior Krystle Horton moved up two spots on the career rebounding list after ripping down nine caroms in the win over FIU. Horton jumped past Jamie Thomatis and Kay Willbanks into ninth place and stands just two shy of tying Kim Webb for eighth. Horton ran her career total to 690 rebounds.

QUICK HITTERS: Chrissy Givens played in her 118th career game to tie for the third most in school history ... MT is now 24-0 this season when leading at halftime ... Chrissy Givens played the full 40 minutes tonight for the 11th time this season.

LAST TIME OUT FOR MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Holt scores 33 as Lady Raiders win
By MONTE HALE JR.
hale@dnj.com

CLARKSVILLE — Two days removed from scoring 28 points against No. 1 Tennessee, Amber Holt picked up where she left off against Austin Peay Saturday night.

The MTSU senior forward poured in a career-high 33 points and pulled down 14 rebounds as the Lady Raiders routed Austin Peay, 95-60, at the Dunn Center.

"We've got a lot of people who can shoot the 3, so they have to get out on them," Holt said. "Tonight, we just ran our offense real well and I got a lot of chances."

Holt made 12-of-16 shots and hit 8-of-11 at the free throw line. She also had five assists and three steals.

"What can you say — that's Amber Holt," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "She had 33 points, 14 rebounds and only had two turnovers in 34 minutes."

The victory snapped a four-game losing streak — the longest MTSU skid since the 1998-99 season. MTSU improved to 4-5, while Austin Peay slipped to 4-5.

"We needed this win," Holt said. "I feel like we could have won every game we've lost, so it felt good tonight."

MTSU led 36-23 at halftime, but had the lead up to 20 points in less than two minutes. Holt scored eight of the Lady Raiders first 11 points after intermission

MTSU's defense was relentless, forcing 39 Austin Peay turnovers that equated into 43 Raider points.

"We had to have a little talk at halftime," Insell said. "We spent a lot of energy the other night at Tennessee, but we came out in the second half more focused and more aggressive.

"Austin Peay is not a bad basketball team and it was a good win for our kids. Now, the real stuff starts (Wednesday) with conference play."

Four Lady Raiders scored in double figures. Freshman forward Emily Queen had a career-high 14 points, while sophomore guard Chelsia Lymon had 14 and freshman guard Anne Marie Lanning 11.

"I'm not necessarily looking to score," said Queen, who hit 5-of-7 attempts. "I'm in there for rebounding and defense, and when you do those things, the scoring comes to you.

"We're running our offense much better right now and we've got a lot of people who can score."

MTSU scored the first eight points of the game and built a 20-7 lead with 12:52 left.

Austin Peay got as close as seven pints, 20-13, with 11:38 before MTSU closed the half with a 16-10 run to take a 36-23 halftime advantage.

Holt scored 15 points and had eight rebounds in the first half, which coupled with 20 Austin Peay turnovers, allowed the Lady Raiders to build the 13-point cushion.

The Lady Govs were led by senior guard Ashley Herring's 19 points.

MTSU opens Sun Belt Conference play Wednesday at home against Florida International. Tipoff is schedule for 7 p.m. at Murphy Center.

Freshman Anne Marie Lanning scored 18 points, leading four double figure scorers, and senior Amber Holt netted 12 points and grabbed 14 rebounds in just 19 minutes of action, as Middle Tennessee defeated North Alabama, 82-36, in women's exhibition action Thursday night at Murphy Center.

Middle Tennessee scored 20 of the game's first 22 points, but went cold late in the half and led just 31-22 at the break. But the Blue Raiders went on a 21-3 run to start the second half and pull away from the Lions.

Middle Tennessee won the battle of the boards, 54-30, with Holt leading with way with her 14 caroms, including 12 in the first half. Freshman Emily Queen scored 11 points and sophomore Chelsia Lymon added 10 for the Blue Raiders in front of 1,681 in the first of two exhibition games over the next five days.

The Blue Raiders scored 20 of the game's first 22 points, including an 11-0 run to start the game over the first three minutes. Amber Rutherford netted UNA's first basket at the 16:45 mark and she also scored the Lions second bucket at 13:48.

UNA got back into the game when Middle Tennessee went six minutes with just one basket. The Lions put together a 14-5 run over an eight minute stretch to pull within 29-21, but the Blue Raiders scored the final four points of the half on free throws, two each from Lanning and Queen.

Holt scored eight points and grabbed 12 rebounds in the first half, while Lanning added seven points.

In the second half Lanning netted eight of her 18 points during the 21-3 run, while Holt and Latoya Barclay each added four. Lanning was a perfect 8-for-8 at the foul line in the contest, grabbed six rebounds, dished out four assists and made four steals.

Sophomore Jackie Pickel had seven rebounds for the Blue Raiders, sophomore Brandi Brown added nine points and five boards, and redshirt freshman Angelique Burtts netted nine points in her first career game.

Amber Holt scored 22 points and Anne Marie Lanning added 21, leading six double-figure scorers, and Middle Tennessee hit 15 3-pointers in the contest, as the Blue Raiders rolled to a 108-49 victory over Henderson State Monday night in women's basketball exhibition action at Murphy Center.

Middle Tennessee took advantage of aggressive play from Henderson State, who committed 30 personal fouls in the contest, putting the Blue Raiders at the foul line 31 times. Holt hit 10-of-11 at the foul line and Middle Tennessee made 25-of-31 as a team.

The Blue Raiders struggled from the field in a very sloppy first half, hitting just 32 percent from the floor and 25 percent from 3-point range. The Lady Reddies committed 18 personal fouls in the half, allowing Middle Tennessee to shoot 19 free throws in the opening 20 minutes, of which the Blue Raiders made 16.

Holt was 8-of-9 from the foul line and tallied 14 points in the half, while Lanning had nine points and Emily Queen grabbed seven rebounds.

In the second half Middle Tennessee turned up the defensive pressure and scored 70 points over the final 20 minutes, shooting 57 percent from the field and 52 percent from behind the arc. The Blue Raiders forced 18 second half turnovers and turned them into 32 points.

Middle Tennessee opened the second half with a 15-4 run, highlighted by six points from Holt. The Blue Raiders made 11 trifectas in the second half, including five from Johnna Abney, who finished with 15 points.

Queen grabbed a game-high 10 boards, while Morgan Boyd and Angelique Burtts both scored 11 points and Jackie Pickel added 10. Burtts also had seven rebounds in just 13 minutes of action.

For 32 minutes, Middle Tennessee looked out-of-place and out-of-sync Saturday night against Old Dominion. But then the Blue Raiders dialed up the defense, forcing five straight turnovers and cutting the deficit to three points, but Old Dominion pulled away in the end en route to a 76-68 season-opening victory at the Ted Constant Convocation Center.

Middle Tennessee (0-1) trailed by as many as 17 points in the second half and was down 68-55 with 6:11 remaining in the game. But the Blue Raiders scored 12 of the game's next 13 points, started by a 3-pointer from Brandi Brown and including a trio of trifectas from senior Latoya Barclay. The 12-1 spurt took just over three minutes, pulling the Blue Raiders with three points at 69-66.

After another ODU turnover, Middle Tennessee had the ball with a chance to tie, but Jackie Pickel missed a 3-pointer from the corner. Lady Monarch Shalida Williams drove to the basket on the other end, hitting Megan Pym for a driving layup and taking the momentum away from the Blue Raiders.

Pym had another layup on a putback the next time up the floor and Old Dominion made their free throws over the final minute, just as they had all night.

Barclay finished the game with a career-high 17 points, including 15 in the second half, in just the second start of her career. Brown was also a major factor for the Blue Raiders, netting 14 points with four rebounds in 35 minutes of action.

Everyone on the Blue Raiders had to step into a more prominent role after senior Amber Holt played just six minutes in the first half because of three fouls and then picked up her fourth foul less than four minutes into the second half. The Duluth, Ga., native did play the final 12:26 of the contest without fouling out, scoring 14 points with six rebounds in just 22 minutes of action.

Middle Tennessee trailed by seven at the half, but the Lady Monarchs scored the first six points after intermission before the Blue Raiders answered with a pair of 3-pointers, one from Holt and the other from Pickel, who scored nine points in the game on a trio of trifectas.

But ODU expanded the lead to 17 points in the second half thanks to the charity stripe, the Lady Monarchs best friend for most of the game. ODU's Tiffany Green hit 6-of-7 in the second half and ODU was 11-of-15 after the break and 27-for-35 in the contest. Compare that to Middle Tennessee, who shot just three free throws after halftime and only 17 foul shots in the game.

Anne Marie Lanning grabbed six rebounds and Emily Queen came off the bench to contribute seven boards for the Blue Raiders, who were outrebounded only 44-41 despite a large difference in size at almost every position. T.J. Jordan led four double figure scorers for ODU with 19 points, while Williams had 15, Green added 12 and Jessica Canady scored 13 off the bench.

It didn't take long for MTSU to set the tempo for its home opener against Tennessee Tech Wednesday night at Murphy Center.

It didn't take long, either, for the Lady Raiders to race out to a 89-62 rout before a crowd of 2,614.

MTSU hit seven of its first 10 shots, which proved to a sign of things to come as the Lady Raiders drained 12 3-pointers and shot 51 percent from the field.

"Anytime you shoot the ball like we shot it, and we got some good looks and kept knocking them down, you're going to have a chance to have a good night," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "Overall, I was pleased with our intensity."

MTSU forced 33 Golden Eaglette turnovers, including 20 in the first half.

Tennessee Tech continuously struggled to get the ball in the half-court against the Lady Raiders' pressure defense. The Golden Eaglettes managed just eight shots in the first 12 minutes and only 15 in the first half.

"We take a lot of pride in our press and we were able to contain the ball," said MTSU sophomore guard Chelsia Lymon, who had four of MTSU's 24 steals. "They're a good team with good shooters, and we did a good job rotating."

Seven different Lady Raiders hit 3-pointers and five players hit for double figures, led by senior forward Amber Holt's 19. Freshman Emily Queen hit three 3-pointers, while Lymon, Anne Marie Lanning and Jackie Pickel hit two apiece.

"Hopefully we won't ever start off shooting like we did against Old Dominion," Pickel said of the Lady Raiders' shooting woes in a 76-68 season-opening loss Saturday. "When one of us hits one, we do gravitate and feel the energy off each other."

MTSU led 58-24 at halftime and went ahead by as many as 44 points in the second half, when it outscored Tennessee Tech 16-6 in the first five minutes. However, the Lady Raiders scored just 15 points in the final 15 minutes.

"We changed our press in the second half," Insell said, "but we needed to work on some things that we'll have to do later. We gave up some easy baskets, but they were things we needed to work on.

"We've got a lot of work to do, but it was a good win tonight."

Lymon had 15 points, while Lanning had 12 and Latoya Barclay 11. Queen netted nine.

Tennessee Tech (1-1) was led by Cara Reed's 13 points, while freshman and former Smyrna standout Jasmine White netted 11. The Golden Eaglettes shot 64 percent (23-of-36) but were obviously plagued by the 33 floor mistakes.

Amber Holt recorded her fourth career double-double with career-highs of 30 points and 15 rebounds, including nine straight points in the second half when the game was tied, as Middle Tennessee held on for a 69-68 victory over Houston Monday night at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Houston's Tye Jackson and Twiggy McIntyre had potential game-winning shots in the final 10 seconds of the game. The Cougars scored the final 10 points of the game over two minutes.

The Blue Raiders put together a 20-9 run after Houston tied the contest at 49 with 12:53 remaining in the contest. At that point Holt took over, hitting four straight buckets plus a free throw and then hit Anne Marie Lanning for a layup on the next possession.

Lanning had two free throws of her own on the next trip down the floor to extend the lead to 60-49 for the Blue Raiders, but Houston had a mad rush at the end, highlighted by a pair of 3-pointers from Brittney Scott. Courtney Taylor also had two layups in the final minute after a Blue Raider turnover and a missed shot.

After another Middle Tennessee (2-1) miscue, Jackson brought the ball up the floor with nine seconds remaining, but her jumper in the lane was short and missed the rim completely. McIntyre grabbed the rebound and tried to come from underneath the basket for a shot, but it fell harmlessly on the floor as the buzzer sounded and Middle Tennessee escaped.

Lanning scored 11 points for the Blue Raiders, while Taylor came off the bench to lead the Cougars with 18 points. Jackson added 15 points, while Scott had 14 and McIntyre scored 11.

After missing its first four shots of the game, turning the ball over four times in the first four-plus minutes and failing to score, the Blue Raiders found the range from the field, hitting six of their next 11 shots, including four 3-pointers, for a 16-9 advantage at the 12-minute media timeout.

Middle Tennessee raced out to a 14-point advantage after an Emily Queen putback with 8:15 remaining in the half, prompting a Cougars timeout. Houston cut the deficit in half at intermission thanks to three straight buckets from McIntyre, and the Blue Raiders headed to the locker room with a 41-34 advantage.

After missing their first three 3-pointers of the half, the Blue Raiders were 7-of-13 over the remaining 15 minutes. Holt scored 11 points and Chelsia Lymon had eight off the bench before the break.

UH scored 15 of the first 23 points after halftime, knotting the contest at 49 after a steal and layup from McIntyre, before Holt scored on four straight possessions to give the Blue Raiders the lead for good.

Amber Holt scored 27 points and grabbed nine rebounds and Latoya Barclay came off the bench and provided a big spark with seven points and three assists in Middle Tennessee's 70-60 victory over Arizona Sunday at McKale Center.

Holt netted 19 of her 27 in the second half and Barclay was all over the floor, including in the middle of a huge 7-0 run in the middle of the second half that opened the Middle Tennessee advantage from two points to nine. Barclay hit a 3-pointer in the corner before Holt had a bucket underneath. Barclay then got a deflection and a steal and dribbled in to take a mid-range jumper off the glass for a 53-44 lead with 7:43 remaining.

The Blue Raiders battled against the much bigger Wildcats and were outrebounded by just one, 28-27, but Middle Tennessee hit the offensive glass, getting 14 boards, including two from Brandi Brown to start the second half and big ones by Starr Orr and Barclay in the final minute to seal the victory.

Johnna Abney was the only other Blue Raider in double figures, hitting a trio of 3-pointers, including one from at least eight feet from behind the arc. It was a total team effort, as Brandi Brown added eight points, Orr had six and Anne Marie Lanning scored five.

The first half was a seesaw affair, with six ties and six lead changes, and a late flurry by the Blue Raiders gave the visitors a 32-30 edge at the break. Middle Tennessee had great opportunities in the opening 20 minutes but shot just 34 percent from the field, while Arizona made 69 percent from the floor.

But that number was deceiving, as the Wildcats also had 14 turnovers and the Blue Raiders were whistled for nine fouls in the half. UA either hit a bucket, was fouled or turned the ball over on almost every possession before intermission.

Middle Tennessee started hot, thanks to a driving layup from Chelsia Lymon, a 3-pointer by Brown and a turnaround jumper in the lane from Holt for an early 7-2 lead and a timeout by Arizona. The Wildcats made a living in the paint in the half, though, scoring 20 points near the bucket on a host of layups and backdoor cuts.

The Blue Raiders held UA scoreless over the final 3:03 of the half and took advantage, with Orr hitting a driving layup as the shot clock expired and Brown nailing another trifecta for the two-point halftime lead.

In the second half Holt scored the first six points for the Blue Raiders, who never trailed after intermission. Arizona kept the came within a bucket until Middle Tennessee's 7-0 run led by Barclay that helped the Blue Raiders pull away.

It was Middle Tennessee's second road victory of the young season after posting 13 last season.

Basketball seasons afford teams to learn a lot of valuable lessons. MTSU's Lady Raiders learned one Wednesday night when they lost 57-54 at Chattanooga The McKenzie Center.

"We came out sluggish in the second half and it was like we didn't care," said senior forward Amber Holt. "I think we learned if you come out like that you're going to get your butt kicked big time."

The sluggishness in reference came early in the second half when MTSU missed five straight 3-point attempts and made just two of its first 12 field goal attempts.

The Lady Raiders (3-2) led 29-28 at halftime, but fell behind 32-31 early in the second half and never regained the lead.

"We didn't execute," said senior guard Starr Orr. "We had people pass up shots, we didn't rebound and we didn't execute."

MTSU trailed 45-41 with eight minutes left before Holt scored back-to-back baskets to tie the game with 6:04 left.

Chattanooga's Jenaya Wade-Fray hit a 3-pointer out of the corner with 2:11 remaining and MTSU never got closer than two points.

"They've got a very good basketball team and I knew they felt they had something to prove after a bad second half against Louisville the other night," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "They played hard, we played hard and they had some kids make some plays down the stretch."

Added Chattanooga coach Wes Moore: "It was a good win. ... I told them that this was a game we could take if we took care of the little things."

MTSU made just 6-of-29 3-pointers, while Chattanooga hit 5-of-14. The Lady Raiders shot just two free throws — both coming after Moore was hit with a technical foul in the first half. The Lady Mocs cashed in on 16-of-20 attempts at the free throw line.

"I don't know if I've ever played a game — from junior pro, to middle school, to coaching high school, to coaching here — that we shot two free throws," Insell said. "... Wes gave us those and we appreciate it.

"That's not the difference in the game, but I've never seen that. They had a good game plan and they made the tough plays."

MTSU was outrebounded 38-31 — another statistic Holt pointed to as a difference in the outcome.

"We just need our five to step up and rebound," she said. "Basically, we need to rebound better. Hopefully the next game we'll come ready."

Added Orr: "We've got to box out better and we've got to help Amber rebound."

Holt led the Lady Raiders with 19 points and seven boards, while Orr scored 11. Freshman Anne Marie Lanning netted 10 points, all in the first half.

The growing pains continued for MTSU's women's basketball team Sunday. Plagued by another poor shooting performance, a terrible rebounding performance and foul problems, the Lady Raiders fell, 77-71, to Western Carolina before a crowd of 3,806 at Murphy Center.

"I thought we had a chance in the second half to take the game by the neck," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "... But they did a good job of getting the ball to the people they wanted to. In Division I basketball you've got to make plays, and we didn't make enough plays."

MTSU shot just 40 percent from the field and made only 2-of-18 from 3-point range. The Lady Raiders also were outrebounded, 53-27, and made just 15-of-24 at the free-throw line.

The game was tied 13 times and there were 12 lead changes, with the final one coming when Kristen Feemster gave the Lady Catamounts a 59-58 lead with 9:13 remaining.

MTSU trailed just 72-69 with 3:06 remaining after Amber Holt scored in the paint, but the Lady Raiders could get no closer.

"Our rebounding, we've got to box out better," said Holt, who had a game-high 28 points. "We didn't score off their turnovers and we didn't make our free throws. If we had rebounded, scored off their turnovers and made our free throws we would have won the game."

One positive was the play of freshman forward Angelique Burtts, who came off the bench to score 12 points and grab five rebounds in 11 minutes of play.

"Angelique gave us good minutes," Insell said. "She's got to build on it now. She deserved it. She's been yelled at a lot."

Burtts was inserted into the game due to the fact the Lady Raiders were in so much foul trouble in the second half.

"I didn't go into to score," Burtts said. "I went in to rebound and play defense. When I rebounded, I guess the scoring came. I've got to come back to practice hard and build on this. Sometimes I'm not into it, and I've got to work harder."

MTSU got several open looks from 3-point range, but the Lady Raiders were 2-for-11 in the first half and 0-for-7 in the second.

"We come to practice, but we don't bring it on the floor," Holt said. "I really don't know why."

Western Carolina opened the game with an impressive 15-6 run before MTSU took a 19-16 lead with a 13-1 spurt at the 9:07 mark of the first half.

MTSU led 29-25, its biggest cushion in the first half before Western Carolina came back to tie the game at 37 at intermission.

Holt and Burtts were the only two Lady Raiders in double figures. Western Carolina was led Lauren Powell with 17 points, while Monique Dawson had 14, including going 12-of-12 at the free-throw line. Six-foot-4 post Brooke Johnson had 12 points and a game-high 20 rebounds.

Maryland F/O: Coleman @ 1:46

An 11-0 run with four minutes remaining in the game gave third-ranked Maryland the lead for good and the Terps held on to defeat Middle Tennessee, 74-69, Wednesday night at the Comcast Center.

Middle Tennessee senior Amber Holt had 16 points and 10 rebounds and sophomore Brandi Brown scored a season-high 22 points, hitting six 3-pointers in the contest. Sophomore Chelsia Lymon added 14 points off the bench, but a charging call on Lymon with 35.1 seconds left in the game and the Blue Raiders down just three was the final blow to the visitors.

The teams were nip-and-tuck almost the entire second half. The contest had seven ties and 16 lead changes and Middle Tennessee led 62-61 with 4:32 left in the contest before Tolliver took over, hitting a 3-pointer and then a 15-footer the next time down the floor. UMD's All-America point guard added four free throws, including two with 12.1 seconds remaining to ice the game for the Terrapins.

Tolliver's 3-pointer and jumper started the 11-0 run for the Terps, but Middle Tennessee came back with seven straight points. Brown hit the last of her trifectas, then Lymon made a steal and got a layup before Holt hit a tough fall away jumper in the lane with the shot clock running down to cut the deficit to three with 1:10 left.

The Blue Raiders got a stop on Maryland's next possession. Lymon went to the right and drove to the bucket, laying the ball up and looking like she drew a foul, but former Shelbyville High School star Ashleigh Newman was laying at the bottom of the pile, drawing a charge to help UMD survive for the second straight year against Middle Tennessee.

The Blue Raiders used a 10-4 run to start the second half, tying the contest at 39, and took the lead at 45-44 after a bucket from Holt with 13:59 remaining. From that point there were two ties and eight lead changes as the teams headed down the stretch.

Tolliver led the Terps with 19 points, while Laura Harper had 16 and Crystal Langhorne added 14.

"We've been shooting the ball poorly, but we shot the ball better tonight," head coach Rick Insell said. "We're not as big as Maryland, but we match up pretty good with them because all of our kids can shoot the three and it kind of spreads [Maryland] out a little bit. My kids have the green light to shoot anytime," Insell said.

The Blue Raiders started the game quickly with 3-pointers from Johnna Abney and Brown. Langhorne and Harper scored the first 14 points for Maryland, but Middle Tennessee stayed with the Terps by hitting the offensive glass, grabbing 13 offensive rebounds, and also making seven 3-pointers in the opening 20 minutes.

Anne Marie Lanning's trifecta from the top of the key just before the break cut the UMD advantage to 35-29 at intermission. Holt was just 2-of-10 from the field but grabbed eight rebounds. Middle Tennessee actually outrebounded the much talker Terps, 23-20, in the first half.

With six minutes remaining in the game, MTSU coach Rick Insell patted the heads of freshmen forwards Emily Queen and Angelique Burtts and sophomore forward Brandi Brown.

All three were on the bench — having fouled out.

Each, at times, was charged with trying to guard Tennessee All-American Candace Parker, who scored 34 points in leading the No. 1 Lady Vols to a 84-61 victory at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Parker, a 6-foot-4 junior, also had 13 rebounds and made 17-of-21 at the free throw line.

MTSU senior forward Amber Holt nearly matched Parker's performance, scoring a team-high 28 points and making 10-of-11 at the free throw line. She also had five assists, four rebounds and two steals.

"I had trust in my teammates," Holt said. "When I can get out and shoot the 3, they have to guard me. When they come out and guard me, I can drive to the basket. I guess the best thing is to keep the ball away from me."

Despite the 23-point final margin of victory, Tennessee found itself in a much closer game than most expected.

MTSU (3-5) trailed just 61-55 left with seven minutes remaining in the game before the Lady Vols (8-0) scored 18 unanswered points. Eight came at the free throw line.

Meanwhile, MTSU was playing with such a small lineup that even freshman guard Anne Marie Lanning (5-foot-10) was guarding Parker at times.

MTSU cut a nine-point halftime deficit to four, 41-37, with 17:51 left, but Tennessee used a 8-0 spurt to take a 49-37 advantage with 15:45 remaining. The Lady Vols built as big as a 15-point lead before the Lady Raiders stormed back to make it 58-53 with 7:53 remaining on back-to-back 3-pointers from Holt and Johnna Abney.

MTSU was outrebounded 47-26, and the Lady Vols were deadly at the free throw line, making 28-of-37.

MTSU senior guard Starr Orr jump-started MTSU early, hitting three straight 3-pointers to give the Lady Raiders a 14-6 advantage with 16:20 left in the first half.

However, after the first media timeout with 15:59 left, MTSU didn't score until almost six minutes later.

Tennessee was unable to run away, though, as it never led by more than nine points in the first half.

MTSU had a chance to cut the lead to 34-30, but it missed two easy shots down low. The Lady Vols took a 39-30 into the locker-room at intermission.

MTSU was plagued by foul problems in the first half. Brown had four personals, while Queen and Burtts had three apiece.

Orr finished with a season-high 12 points, while Abney added 11. Alexis Hornbuckle added 17 for Tennessee, while former Shelbyville standout Alex Fuller had 16.

Two days removed from scoring 28 points against No. 1 Tennessee, Amber Holt picked up where she left off against Austin Peay Saturday night.

The MTSU senior forward poured in a career-high 33 points and pulled down 14 rebounds as the Lady Raiders routed Austin Peay, 95-60, at the Dunn Center.

Holt made 12-of-16 shots and hit 8-of-11 at the free throw line. She also had five assists and three steals.

"What can you say — that's Amber Holt," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "She had 33 points, 14 rebounds and only had two turnovers in 34 minutes."

The victory snapped a four-game losing streak — the longest MTSU skid since the 1998-99 season. MTSU improved to 4-5, while Austin Peay slipped to 4-5.

"We needed this win," Holt said. "I feel like we could have won every game we've lost, so it felt good tonight."

MTSU led 36-23 at halftime, but had the lead up to 20 points in less than two minutes. Holt scored eight of the Lady Raiders first 11 points after intermission

MTSU's defense was relentless, forcing 39 Austin Peay turnovers that equated into 43 Raider points.

"We had to have a little talk at halftime," Insell said. "We spent a lot of energy the other night at Tennessee, but we came out in the second half more focused and more aggressive.

"Austin Peay is not a bad basketball team and it was a good win for our kids. Now, the real stuff starts (Wednesday) with conference play."

Four Lady Raiders scored in double figures. Freshman forward Emily Queen had a career-high 14 points, while sophomore guard Chelsia Lymon had 14 and freshman guard Anne Marie Lanning 11.

"I'm not necessarily looking to score," said Queen, who hit 5-of-7 attempts. "I'm in there for rebounding and defense, and when you do those things, the scoring comes to you.

"We're running our offense much better right now and we've got a lot of people who can score."

MTSU scored the first eight points of the game and built a 20-7 lead with 12:52 left.

Austin Peay got as close as seven pints, 20-13, with 11:38 before MTSU closed the half with a 16-10 run to take a 36-23 halftime advantage.

Holt scored 15 points and had eight rebounds in the first half, which coupled with 20 Austin Peay turnovers, allowed the Lady Raiders to build the 13-point cushion.

The Lady Govs were led by senior guard Ashley Herring's 19 points.
