Time (s): 6:30 p.m., 2 p.m., 1 p.m. Radio: 88.3 FM, Neil Price

Notes: The Blue Raiders continue their string of seven straightroad games with a three-game series at Louisiana-Lafayette beginning Friday evening at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field. Louisiana-Lafayette leads the series, 4-2, since Middle Tennessee joined the Sun Belt Conference, including a series sweep last season in Murfreesboro. The Blue Raiders won two-of-three games in Lafayette two years ago, led by Dewon Brazelton's 10-inning effort on Friday night in a 2-0 Middle Tennessee victory.

Jaggers Out One to Three Weeks

Sophomore Nate Jaggers injured his left ankle in the March 11 win over Samford and will miss one to three weeks with the injury. The Louisville, Ky., native was hurt turning a doubleplay, as the runner slid into Jaggers' left ankle, injuring ligaments. Jaggers leads the Blue Raiders in hitting at .452 (19-for-42) and had missed just one game in his career before the injury.

Carroll Stays Hot, Cooper Right Behind

Sophomore Brett Carroll continues to lead the Blue Raiders at the plate in Nate Jaggers absence, batting .424 (14-for-33) over his last nine games with 10 runs scored, three home runs and 11 RBIs. Carroll has settled into the No. 3 spot in the order for the last seven games and has made just two errors over his last 15 games. Senior Chad Cooper has been right behind, batting .421 (16-for-38) during his current nine-game hitting streak. Cooper has scored 11 times and added five stolen bases and five RBIs during the streak.

Swing Shutting Them Down

Sophomore Chase Swing had a rough outing Wednesday at Memphis, but had been the bullpen stopper over the last three weeks for head coach Steve Peterson. Even with the loss to Memphis, Swing has worked 16-plus innings, allowing 11 hits and four runs with 19 strikeouts in his last seven outings. Swing got a save in last Friday's conference opener against New Mexico State, working 2.1 hitless innings with four strikeouts to preserve the one-run victory for the Blue Raiders.

Trio Out for Season

A trio of freshman Middle Tennessee baseball players have undergone season-ending surgery. Pitcher Matt Scott went under the knife in mid-January to repair a partially torn meniscus in his left knee. Scott first suffered the injury last March but continued to play through the high school and summer seasons and then again this fall at Middle Tennessee. Infielder Matt Campbell also played through the fall with a shoulder injury, limiting his defensive abilities. Campbell underwent surgery in mid-December to repair a torn rotator cuff and will also miss the 2003 campaign. Robert Toline, a redshirt freshman transfer, underwent shoulder surgery in late February and will also miss the entire campaign.

This and That

John Williams struck out 12 in the outing last Saturday, his second straight double-digit strikeout performance against New Mexico State. The junior had 13 K's last year in Las Cruces and now has 32 strikeouts in 19.2 IP against NMSU ... The Blue Raiders won their fourth straight conference opener and third consecutive in the Sun Belt with the 6-4 win Friday night over NMSU. Middle Tennessee's last loss in a conference opener came to Eastern Illinois in 1999 in the OVC ... Steve Kline tied his career-high with eight strikeouts for the second straight start Friday night against NMSU. Kline walked his first batter of the year in the contest.

Streaks ...

Chad Cooper brings a nine-game hitting streak into the weekend against the Ragin' Cajuns, a season-best for the Blue Raiders. Cooper is batting .421 (16-for-38) with five RBIs and five stolen bases during the streak. Brett Carroll had his streak of eight straight games with a hit broken in the second game of the doubleheader against Memphis on Wednesday. Carroll has a .424 average over his last nine contests with 10 runs scored, three home runs and 11 RBIs. Josh Archer has hit in five straight contests, while Jeff Beachum and Shane Kemp have hit safely in their last three outings.

Versus ...

The Blue Raiders are 2-4 against the Ragin's Cajuns since joining the Sun Belt Conference, including 2-1 in Lafayette. Middle Tennessee won two of three from the Cajuns in 2001 in Lafayette, but the Blue Raiders were swept last season in Murfreesboro. Saturday starter John Williams got a victory in Lafayette two years ago, going six innings and allowing four runs with two walks and three strikeouts. Josh Archer was 4-for-10 with an RBI in last year's three games.

Blue Raiders Picked Fifth By Coaches

The 2003 Blue Raiders were picked to finish fifth by league coaches in a poll released by the conference office in January. South Alabama received seven first-place votes and 79 points to top the Preseason Poll. Florida International and Louisiana-Lafayette follow in a tight race for second place in the coaches poll. New Orleans ended up fourth in the preseason poll with 49 points, followed by the Blue Raiders with 38 points. New Mexico State and Western Kentucky tied for sixth place with 33 points each. # Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 16th Season ● 479-389-2 (.551)

Steve Peterson is the personification of Middle Tennessee baseball.

In his 16th season as the team's skipper, Peterson has become the program's winningest coach with a record of 479-

389-2. In fact, Peterson has produced eight seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school record 42 victories during the 1990 slate.

Long known for his keen managerial mind, Peterson teaches a hard-nosed and aggressive style of baseball. His personable demeanor has made him a big hit among fans, boosters, players and recruits alike.

Peterson also adheres to the philosophy that defense and pitching wins championships. He has long been known for outstanding defensive teams, and the Blue Raiders have featured some of the area's most feared hurlers throughout the years. Peterson has seen three of his pitchers earn All-America honors, including the only First Team All-American in school history, Dewon Brazelton. Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have seen eight single-season and eight career pitching records established.

The offensive output of the team has not been ignored under Peterson, as his recruits established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee. Peterson has developed three players that have hit .400 or better in a season along with the school's season and career home run records. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

However, aside from wins and losses, Peterson has been instrumental in leaving the Blue Raiders' mark on college baseball in other ways. He brought home seven consecutive conference championships (either regular season or tournament) during one stretch and has guided his team to an NCAA Regional on six different occasions. During his tenure, Peterson has captured one Sun Belt crown, eight OVC titles and seven OVC tournament titles. For his efforts, Peterson has twice been named OVC Coach of the Year. He brought national attention to the program in the 2001 season as his team found itself in the national rankings for the first time since 1982.

His efforts were clearly in evidence during the magical 2001 season. The Blue Raiders established the single-game attendance record at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2.733 on hand to witness the Blue Raiders' Friday night tilt against South Alabama. The team went on to set the season attendance mark as well with 26,218 coming through the gate at Reese Smith Field. Peterson's squad saw 10 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season.

If the team accolades and accomplishments aren't enough, consider that Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, three Freshman All-Americans, and 33 First Team All-Conference players.

In terms of sending players to the next level, Peterson is second to none. Professional baseball has seen 44 former Peterson protégés pass through the ranks with four players logging time in the Major Leagues.

Aside from playing baseball for a living, numerous former players have entered the coaching profession. Currently 25 former Blue Raiders are coaching at the high school, college or professional level.

He has also been responsible for the tremendous growth of Blue Raider baseball camps. Since taking over the camp program in 1984, Peterson has developed one of the area's premier camps with most sessions becoming sold out.

Peterson took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's skipper. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1984-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1978-1984, Peterson took his team to a Tennessee Junior College title in 1981 and was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

His expertise also ranges away from on-the-field coaching. He is known as one of the top recruiters in the region and has a knack for keeping local talent close to home.

Peterson's reputation extends into fundraising as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament have become mainstays on the calendars of baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

He spearheaded the effort to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the amount of time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the entire country.

Reese Smith Field has also benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concessions facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the current stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television along with print media.

Peterson, a native of Huntsville, Ala., spent his playing days at Jacksonville State under the legendary Rudy Abbott, where he stood out as a catcher. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1973 and later earned a master's degree from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John. Away from the diamond, he enjoys fishing for small mouth bass.
