Closer look at South Alabama

South Alabama is off to a hot start under Head Coach Ronnie Arrow, who is in the first season of a second tour of duty leading the Jaguar program. South Alabama is 8-3 and won its Sun Belt opener against Troy at the Mitchell Center Thursday. The Jags have impressive non-conference wns against Mississippi State and Southern Miss, among others. South Alabama's talented backcourt duo of Demetric Bennett and Daon Merritt provide a tough defensive challenge. Bennett poured in a career-high 39 points in the win against Mississippi State and was not only named the Sun Belt's Player of the Week, but he also earned national Player of the Week honors for his play. Bennett is a preseason first-team All-SBC selection. South Alabama was picked second in the East in a preseason vote of league coaches.

Middle Tennessee, South Alabama series even

Middle Tennessee and South Alabama have met on the hardwood 16 times with each team winning eight contests; however, the Blue Raiders have had the upper hand against the Jags on their homecourt at the Mitchell Center under Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 2-1 against South Alabama under Davis in Mobile, Ala., and 4-5 against the Jags in nine meetings under Davis. Middle Tennessee has won two of the last three meetings. The Blue Raiders are 5-6 against South Alabama as Sun Belt members.

Teams familiar with one another

Middle Tennessee and South Alabama will be playing for the fourth time in the 2007 calander year when they meet Saturday. The teams have already played three times in 2007 (Jan. 2, Feb. 3, March 4) with Middle Tennessee owning a 2-1 edge. They split the season series and the Blue Raiders upset the top-seeded Jags in the quarterfinals of the Sun Belt Tournament.

Attendance record falls at Sommet Center

Middle Tennessee established a new "home" attendance record when 18,071 attended its game vs. No. 2 Memphis in the Sun Belt Classic at the Sommet Center in downtown Nashville, Dec. 15. The previous record for a Blue Raider home basketball was 11,807 vs. Western Kentucky, Feb. 26, 2004. That mark still stands as the all-time record at Murphy Center; however, since the game against Memphis was a designated home game for Middle Tennessee it does count on the home attendance. The sellout also set a new attendance record for a regular-season game at the Sommet Center. The previous record was 8,118 when Tennessee played Oklahoma State in the facility, Dec. 18, 2006. The two largest crowds ever to watch the Blue Raiders play in a home game have taken place under Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders have enjoyed a 65 percent attendance increase in Davis' first five years leading the program and the last two seasons have generated the highest home attendance average in the last 15 seasons (4,275).

Blue Raiders reverse fortunes, enjoy Sun Belt success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under sixth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee is has the third-best winning percentage (56 percent) and has the third-most wins among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Western Kentucky (60) and Louisiana-Lafayette (57) are the only SBC members with more league wins than Middle Tennessee during this stretch. Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined.

Middle Tennessee proves to be SBC's best winning away from home

One of the biggest reasons for Middle Tennessee's turn-around in the Sun Belt has been its ability to win on the road. Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring in 2002, Middle Tennessee was 2-17 on the road in SBC games but the Blue Raiders have 21 SBC road wins since - the most road victories of any SBC member during his five-plus seasons leading the program. Middle Tennessee, South Alabama, and Western Kentucky are the only Sun Belt Conference teams with winning road records since the start of the 2002-03 season. The Blue Raiders were 5-4 in SBC road games in 2005-06.

Kanaskie proves it's not whether you start

Junior guard Kevin Kanaskie had his streak of 50 consecutive starts snapped when he was not in the starting lineup vs. Belmont (12/12) after suffering a hip flexor earlier in the week. He was not expected to play against the Bruins Wednesday but he urged coach Kermit Davis to give him a chance. Davis did and Kanaskie came off the bench, played 31 minutes and scored a season-high 16 points in the Blue Raiders' 86-80 overtime win. Kanaskie was 11-of-13 from the free throw line, establishing career highs for makes and attempts from the charity stripe, and he tied his season high with six rebounds in the triumph.

Kermit Davis File

In five-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is third on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 87.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 77th victory at UALR (01/20/07). He finished 2006-07 with 83 career victories and currently is third all-time with 87 wins. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.547) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces third-best wins mark after 150 games

Kermit Davis coached in 150 games in his first five seasons as Middle Tennessee's head coach and his 83-67 mark in those contests represent the third most wins for a Blue Raider head coach in his first 150 games. Bruce Stewart (101-49) and Jimmy Earle (89) are the only former Blue Raider coaches with more wins in their first 150 games.

Davis notches 220th win

Kermit Davis secured his 220th win as a head coach when Middle Tennessee beat defending SBC champion and No. 1 seed South Alabama in the 2007 SBC quarterfinals. He owns 156 wins in his ninth season at the Division I level and 66 in three years in junior college.

Blue Raiders forced to carry on without O'Neil, Vogelsberg

Middle Tennessee is down two scholarship players it was counting on heavily prior to the 2007-08 season. Junior guard Calvin O'Neil underwent surgery on his right knee (12/7) and has begun rehab with athletic trainer Drew Shea. O'Neil suffered the season-ending injury in the season opener against San Jose State. Regarded as the team's top perimeter defender and all-around leader, O'Neil entered the season with 53 career games in his first two seasons, including 24 starts. Vogelsberg took a redshirt for the 2006-07 season after suffering a broken bone in his right foot prior to the start of the season. After taking additional time off during the summer to recover from three different surgeries in as many years, Vogelsberg informed Head Coach Kermit Davis of his decision to bypass his senior season citing the excessive injuries and pain to his body as the reasons. Vogelsberg led the team in scoring as a junior in 2005-06 and earned All-Sun Belt Conference. He was also a preseason all-SBC pick in 2006-07.

Kanaskie climbing career charts

Kevin Kanaskie is starting to make a move on the Middle Tennessee career records charts with two seasons remaining. The State College, Pa., native moved into eighth all-time with 281 career assists after dishing out seven against Tennessee Wesleyan (11/23/07). He now has 297 career assists. Kanaskie is three assists shy of becoming only the eighth player in Middle Tennessee's 85-plus seasons to record 300 or more assists in a career. No. 7 on the list is Pancakes Perry, who had 303 assists from 1979-83. Kanaskie has also moved into the career 3-point field goals made list with 97 during his career. Kanaskie has connected on 13 long-range shots so far this season and needs three more to become one of only 10 players in school history to have 100 or more 3-pointers during their career. Kanaskie has hit at least one 3-pointer in 29 of the last 31 games, dating to last season. The junior guard scored his 575th career point earlier this season against Houston.

Hudson cracks career marks

Center Theryn Hudson is starting to come into his own as one of the SBC's top big men in his third season in the Blue Raider program. Hudson's .587 career field goal percentage is currently third on the all-time Middle Tennessee list. Hudson is also 13th on the career blocks list with 42 and needs four more to break into the top 10.

Kanaskie named to All-Sun Belt team

Middle Tennessee junior guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the preseason All-Sun Belt Conference team, earning a spot on the third team in a vote of league coaches. He was named to the All-SBC team in 2006-07 after becoming the only player in Middle Tennessee history to lead the team in scoring (12.2), 3-point field goals made (67), and assists (185) in the same season. He led the Sun Belt in assists and assist/turnover ratio. Kanaskie scored double figures in 20 games and led the team in scoring 13 times.

Blue Raiders picked third in preseason Sun Belt poll

Middle Tennessee was picked to finish third in the SBC East Division in a preseason vote of the league's head coaches. The Blue Raiders received 51 points in the voting to finish behind Western Kentucky and South Alabama, respectively. Louisiana-Monroe was the favorite to win the West.

Yates' scoring surges key victories

Desmond "Boogie" Yates tied his career high with 23 points in Middle Tennessee's 72-63 win against Florida International (12/18/07), marking the seventh time the high-scoring sophomore has topped the 20-point mark. The Blue Raiders are 5-2 in those games. They were 3-1 last season and they are 2-1 so far this season when he scores 20 or more. The only losses were to Arkansas State last season and at Houston earlier this season. Yates has scored 20 or more in three of the last four games. He scored 20-plus in consecutive games for the second time in his career with 21 at Houston (12/1) and 20 against Belmont (12/12). Yates has scored double figures in 25 of 42 career games. He scored his 475th career point on breakaway dunk to seal win vs. FIU (12/18/07).

Twas the game before Christmas

Middle Tennessee has provided its fans with holiday cheer through the years as they have enjoyed a 31-20 mark in the final game they play prior to Christmas dating back to 1956-57. The Blue Raiders are 3-2 in the final game before Christmas under Head Coach Kermit Davis and 5-5 in such games over the last 10.

What's in a name? Yates prefers 'Boogie'

Junior forward Desmond Yates' nickname is "Boogie," which he says was given to him by his grandmother when he was 1-year-old. Yates isn't sure why his grandmother gave him the particular nickname but he has always liked it and prefers to go by "Boogie," as opposed to Desmond.

Blue Raider defense continues to shine vs. No. 2 Memphis

After being lit up on the scoreboard and in regard to defensive field goal percentage in the early going, Middle Tennessee's defense has been more representative in the last four games. The Blue Raiders continued their strong defensive play against No. 2 Memphis, holding the high-octane Tigers to 65 points, which was almost 20 points below their 82-point-per-game average. The Blue Raiders held the Tigers' two leading scorers - Chris Douglas-Roberts and Derrick Rose to 17 points below their combined season average of 36 points per game between them. After holding Memphis to 65 points, Middle Tennessee clamped down and allowed just 63 points to Florida International.

Hudson coming into own

Junior center Theryn Hudson has played the most consistent and best basketball of his Blue Raider career of late. Hudson established a new career high with 16 points in the win vs. Belmont (12/12/07) and tied his career high with nine rebounds. Two games later he equaled his career high with 16 points and had eight rebounds in the win vs. Florida International (12/18/06). In his last three games vs. Belmont, No. 2-ranked Memphis, and Florida International, Hudson is averaging 13.3 points, 5.7 rebounds and shooting 72 percent (18-of-25) from the field. For the season, he is averaging 10.4 points and his 63 percent (44-of-70) shooting percentage is fourth in the Sun Belt.

Hudson, Yates deserve high five

Junior center Theryn Hudson and sophomore forward Desmond Yates have been a strong one-two punch for the Blue Raiders over the last five games. They have combined to shoot 62 percent (57-92) from the field, 73 percent (19-of-26) from the free-throw line, averaging 8.8 rebounds and 27.6 points per game during this five-game span. Yates is averaging a team-high 15.0 points and 3.6 rebounds while shooting 56 percent in the last five games, while Hudson is averaging 12.6 points, 5.2 rebounds and shooting a sizzling 71 percent (27-38) from the field in these five games. Hudson narrowly missed a double double against Belmont (12/12) when he scored a career-high 16 points and tied his career high with nine rebounds.

Who says you can't get something for free?

Middle Tennessee took advantage of charity in its 86-80 overtime win against Belmont (12/12) when the Blue Raiders shot a sizzling 93 percent (26-of-28) from the charity stripe. In fact, Kevin Kanaskie, who set career marks for free throws made (11) and attempted (13) in the game was the only Blue Raider to miss from the free-throw line. Demetrius Green was 6-of-6 in the game and Desmond Yates connected on all four of his attempts. Yates has made 14 straight free throws overall. The Blue Raiders followed that performance by going 11-of-12 from the free-throw line vs. No. 2 Memphis. Over the last three games, Middle Tennessee is shooting a remarkable 87 percent (47-of-54) from the charity stripe.

Newcomer Green making adjustment

Junior guard Demetrius Green is making a smooth transition into Division I basketball after sitting out last season following his transfer from Daytona Beach Community College. Green has played his best basketball of late and is averaging 10.4 points over the last five games. Green is also averaging 4.8 rebounds and shooting 80 percent (16-of-20) from the free-throw line during this span. The Lexington, Ky., native is also averaging 31.8 minutes over the last five games.

Second half has been good to Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee has been a strong offensive team in the second half of games so far this season. The Blue Raiders are averaging almost 40 points (36.8) after intermission. They have scored 44 or more points in the second half four times, including 51 vs. Tennessee Wesleyan, 48 vs. Appalachian State, 47 vs. San Jose State, and 44 vs. Houston.

80 points or more usually good news

When Middle Tennessee has been able to light up the scoreboard under Head Coach Kermit Davis the results have been staggering. Middle Tennessee has won 96 percent of the 27 games in which it has scored 80 or more points in Davis' five-plus seasons. The Blue Raiders are 26-1 in such games, including a 2-0 mark this season. The only time Middle Tennessee failed to win under Davis when scoring more than 80 was an 85-83 overtime setback at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005. The Blue Raiders have won 11 straight overall when scoring 80 or more points.

Outshooting foes has been key

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 73-7 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher than the opponent. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo last season, despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 46 of the last 51 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Sain providing steady spark off bench

Freshman Josh Sain has been a consistent contributor off the Blue Raider bench. Sain is averaging 6.2 points in 10.2 minutes off the bench. The Jackson, Tenn., native is shooting 47 percent (8-of-17) from 3-point range.

Green strong in Blue Raider debut

Junior guard Demetrius Green's long-awaited debut lived up the hype. Green sat out the 2006-07 season after transferring from Daytona Beach Community College but he made up for lost time with a sensational debut for the Blue Raiders. Green scored 17 points and pulled six rebounds, both game highs, against San Jose State in the season opener. He was 6-of-6 from the field, including 2-of-2 from 3-point range.

Players shine in Raider debuts

While Demetrius Green made the most noise in his Blue Raider debut, he was not the only Middle Tennessee player to debut during the First Shot Exempt Tournament. All three Blue Raider newcomers debuted in the tournament and they scored. In addition to Green, Broderick Gilchrest and Uriah Hethington saw action against San Jose State. Gilchrest, a freshman from Memphis, played six minutes and had one point against the Spartans and Hethington, a 6-8 junior forward from Cairo, Ga., played 10 minutes and had four points.

Blue Raiders ink two during NCAA Early Signing Period

Middle Tennessee signed two players to national letters of intent during the NCAA Early Signing Period, which began Wednesday (11/14). The Blue Raiders landed in-state prospect DeMario Williams from Culleoka High School, and they also signed Aundra Williams, a highly-regarded forward from Orlando, Fla. DeMario Williams is a top-10 prospect in Tennessee and he averaged 18 points, eight assists and eight rebounds in 2006-07. The 6-3 point guard is a two-time Mr. Basketball Finalist. He is one of two players to be named Mr. Basketball Finalist in Tennessee as a sophomore and junior. The other was former North Carolina standout and NBA first-round pick Brandan Wright. Aundra Williams is a 6-8, 235-pound forward at Boone High in Orlando, Fla. He was rated a top-50 Florida prospect by Hoopscoop and the ABA team Miami Tropics' recruiting service.

Yates looking to surpass outstanding rookie season

Desmond Yates enjoyed a breakout freshman season for Middle Tennessee and he believes the invaluable experience he gained as a rookie will enable him to have an even stronger sophomore campaign. Yates proved to be one of the best true freshmen to play for the Blue Raiders as he averaged right at 11 points, started 18 games and played in all 32. Yates had 19 double-figure scoring games and he led the team in scoring 10 times. In order to continue to improve and elevate his game Yates needs to become more of a force on the boards. The 6-foot-7 forward averaged 3.4 rebounds as a freshman.
