HOLT LEADS NATION IN SCORING: In the NCAA statistics released January 7, senior Amber Holt leads the nation in scoring with 26.3 points per game. Sade Logan of Robert Morris is second in scoring with 23.8 points per contest. Holt also ranks 44th in the country in field goal percentage and 26th in assist-to-turnover ratio. The Duluth, Ga., native has five 30-point games this season, including a then career-high 33 at Austin Peay on December 15 and a career-high 41 points versus LSU on Dec. 28. She has averaged 29.6 points per game over the last seven outings, netting 32 at Louisville (Dec. 30) and 36 at Western Kentucky (Jan. 6).

RAIDERS HIT THE ROAD AGAIN: Middle Tennessee has played 10 of its 16 games this year on the road, posting a 4-6 mark with victories at Houston, Arizona and South Alabama. The six road defeats have come by an average margin of just 9.2 points. If you subtract the Dec. 13 contest at Tennessee, an 84-61 loss despite the Blue Raiders trailing by just six points with six minutes to play, the average margin is only 6.4 points (32 points). The season-opening loss at Old Dominion ended a 13-game road winning streak for Middle Tennessee dating to last season, and the team has won 17 of its last 23 contests on opponents' home floors. Middle Tennessee had a 10-game Sun Belt road winning streak before losing at Western Kentucky on January 3. Of the team's 29 regular season games in 2007-08, 17 will be played on the road.

QUEEN RECORDS ANOTHER DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Freshman Emily Queen posted her second straight double-double January 10 against Florida Atlantic, scoring 14 points and grabbing a career-high 15 rebounds, including 10 on the offensive glass. It was Queen's second consecutive double-double after recording 17 points and 11 boards versus Denver on Jan. 6. and the third double-figure rebounding game of the season (12 vs. No. 8/8 LSU on Dec. 28). Queen has started the last nine games for the Blue Raiders and was inserted into the starting lineup on December 13 at No. 1/1 Tennessee to add size and a more physical presence in the low post. She has averaged 7.4 rebounds per game in her nine starts. In the last five games the Ashland, Ky., native has averaged 10.0 rebounds per game with three double-digit efforts. Queen is averaging 5.4 points and 5.4 rebounds per game this season and has upped those numbers in conference play with 9.2 points and 7.8 rebounds per outing versus SBC foes. Her double-double was the sixth of the year by the Blue Raiders. Amber Holt has the other four. Middle Tennessee posted 11 double-doubles as a team in 2006-07.

HOLT NEARS EXCLUSIVE CLUB: Senior Amber Holt continues to set records this season at Middle Tennessee and is just 12 points from joining the 1,000-point club. She would become the 20th player in the school's history to score more than 1,000 points and the fifth player in the last five seasons (Patrice Holmes in 2003-04, Tia Stovall in 2004-05, Chrissy Givens and Krystle Horton in 2005-06). Holt can become the fastest player ever to reach 1,000 points in school history. She has played in 50 career games heading into Monday's contest at Arkansas State. Priscilla Robinson holds the record, reaching the 1K plateau in 55 games in 1990-91 and 1991-92. The Duluth, Ga., native collected 567 points last season, the 10th most in a single-season at Middle Tennessee. On her current scoring pace of 26.3 points per game, Holt would net 763 points during the regular season and give her 1,330 career points, which would rank 14th all-time in school history and just short of Heather Prater's 1,348 and Stovall's 1,351 points.

Brown broke the fourth metacarpal of her left (non-shooting) hand during practice and underwent surgery two days later. The Jamestown, Tenn., native was averaging 8.3 points and 3.2 rebounds per game this season, the second leading scorer for the Blue Raiders. She was also averaging 2.1 assists per contest and shooting 37 percent (25-for-67) from 3-point range. Brown will miss at least six games in a best-case scenario with the injury.

SBC STREAK ENDS AT 26: Middle Tennessee's school-record 26-game winning streak overall against Sun Belt competition ended with the January 3 defeat at Western Kentucky. The Blue Raiders won all three games in the 2006 Sun Belt Championships and put together a perfect 18-0 regular season mark in 2006-07 before posting three straight triumphs in the 2007 SBC Championships. Before the WKU loss, Middle Tennessee's previous defeat came February 27, 2006, at Florida International. The Blue Raiders broke the previous Sun Belt high of 16 league wins last year set by Louisiana Tech in both 1999-00 and 2000-01. Middle Tennessee ended the 2006-07 season 21-0 against Sun Belt opponents after winning its fourth consecutive SBC Tournament. Only three other schools in the 31-year history of the Sun Belt finished undefeated in conference play (Old Dominion, 6-0 in 1984-85, 1987-88; UAB, 6-0 in 1990-91; Louisiana Tech, 14-0 in 1993-94, 1995-96, 12-0 in 1998-99, 16-0 in 1999-00, 2000-01).

MORE ON HOLT: Senior Amber Holt leads the nation in scoring and has really put on a clinic around the basket over the last month. The Duluth, Ga., native scored 41 points against No. 8 LSU (Dec. 28), 32 at Louisville (Dec. 30) and 36 at Western Kentucky (Jan. 6), averaging 36.3 points in the three outings. Holt has netted 30-plus points five times this season, tying for second on the single-season list for 30-point outings. She has more than 30 points in four of the last eight games, including a then career-high 33 at Austin Peay on December 15. In the last nine contests, which includes a 28-point outing at No. 1 Tennessee (Dec. 13), Holt has averaged 29.8 points and 8.1 rebounds per game. One other note – the Meadowcreek HS product has also posted nine contests with eight or more rebounds and has recorded four double-doubles in 2007-08.

RAIDERS KEEPING TURNOVERS DOWN: Middle Tennessee started the year averaging 19.7 turnovers per game, but the Blue Raiders have cut down on that number dramatically over the last 13 contests, committing just 13.2 miscues (172 total), including a season-low eight miscues against Florida International on December 19. Middle Tennessee has posted nine contests of 15 or less during the stretch. The Blue Raiders averaged only 14.6 turnovers per game last season, ranking 26th nationally among 323 teams. Middle Tennessee has also turned up their defense as the season has progressed, with opponents averaging 23.6 turnovers per game in 2007-08. The Blue Raiders forced a season-high 39 turnovers on December

Entering the Arkansas State game:

- Johnna Abney ranks seventh on the all-time 3-point FG made list with 139. She needs 2 more to pass Jessica Beaty (1994-97) for sixth place.
- Johnna Abney also ranks 8th on the career 3-point FG attempts list with 353 and needs 42 more to pass Kelly Chastain (1997-00) for seventh place.
- Starr Orr has 161 career steals and needs 38 more to tie Kelly Chastain (1997-00) for 10th on the all-time list.
- Amber Holt has 988 career points and needs 12 more to become the 20th player in school history with 1,000 points.
- Amber Holt has 421 points in 2007-08 and needs 73 more to tie Jennifer McFall for 20th place on the single-season scoring list. Holt's 567 points in 2006-07 ranked 10th in the single-season charts.

15 against Austin Peay, turning those mistakes into 43 points, and Denver committed 32 turnovers on January 6, which turned into 38 points. The Blue Raiders are averaging 25.9 points per game this year off opponent turnovers, scoring 414 total points in 16 games.

HOLT GETS HELP IN SCORING COLUMN: Middle Tennessee's Amber Holt is posting All-America numbers, leading the nation in scoring with 26.3 points per game and also averaging 8.1 rebounds per contest for the Blue Raiders. Holt has carried the load in almost every game, but her teammates, most of them freshmen and sophomores, have begun to help the senior in the scoring column over the last three games. Junior Johnna Abney and sophomore Chelsia Lymon both stepped up at Western Kentucky on January 3, combining for 28 points, four assists and just one turnover even as Holt was netting 36 points on 17-of-33 shooting. Lymon had another good game against Denver on Jan. 6, scoring 12 points, including three 3-pointers, while freshmen Emily Queen and Anne Marie Lanning both posted career nights. Queen had her first double-double with 17 points and 11 rebounds, while Lanning added 18 points, including her own trio of 3-pointers. Queen, Lanning and Lymon all netted double figures versus Florida Atlantic, combining for 36 points and 23 rebounds. Holt is still carrying the biggest part of the load for Middle Tennessee, hitting 63-for-116 (.543) from the field over the last five outings, but her teammates have lifted more of the heavy lumber as the team has entered conference play.

3-POINT SHOOTING HITS ANOTHER LOW: Middle Tennessee's 3-point shooting in 2007-08 has been much like the team's hot-and-cold play on the court, with the overall team shooting percentage down slightly from head coach Rick Insell's first two seasons. The team hit another low January 10 versus Florida Atlantic, hitting just 3-for-20 (.150) from behind the arc, the second worst percentage of the season behind the 2-for-18 effort against Western Carolina on December 2. The FAU contest was the fifth worst 3-point shooting percentage during Insell's two-plus seasons as head coach. The Blue Raiders made 37 percent from behind the arc in 2005-06 and 35 percent last season. The squad started this year very hot, making 31-of-77 (.403) in the first three game, but then hit just 15-for-73 (.205) over the next three outings. The Blue Raiders made 52-for-143 (.364) in the next five games, including 12 trifectas at No. 3/6 Maryland and Florida International and 11 more at No. 1/1 Tennessee. The ups-and-downs have even been from one half to another recently. Against No. 8 LSU on December 28, the squad was 0-for-7 in the first half but hit 3-of-9 after the break. At Western Kentucky on January 3, the Blue Raiders were 0-for-4 in the first half before knocking down 6-of-12 after intermission. Freshman Anne Marie Lanning leads the club, shooting 44 percent (20-for-46) from 3-point range. Sophomore Brandi Brown, who broke her hand on December 31 and will miss 3-4 weeks, was hitting 37 percent (25-for-67) of her 3-point attempts before the injury. Five times this season the Blue Raiders have hit double-digit 3-pointers in a game, including 11 at Old Dominion and 12 versus Tennessee Tech. For the year Middle Tennessee is shooting 32 percent (127-for-400) from 3-point range and ranks fifth nationally in 3-pointers made per game with 8.3.

HOLT'S SCORING TOPS AFTER 15 GAMES: Senior Amber Holt tallied 392 points this season through 15 games, leading the nation in scoring. Her point total is the most ever by a Blue Raider player after 15 contests. Holt's 41 points against LSU is also tied for the third most this season by any player in the country. At her current pace, Holt would pass the school single-season record for points (758) in the final regular season game of the year. Her current pace would give her 763 points.

HOLT LEADS BLUE RAIDERS ACROSS THE BOARD: Middle Tennessee senior Amber Holt leads the Blue Raiders in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals heading into Monday's contest at Arkansas State, an almost unheard of quadruple crown. Holt is averaging 26.3 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.50 assists and 2.69 steals per game for Middle Tennessee. The Duluth, Ga., leads the nation in scoring as of January 7, but she has done much more than score for the Blue Raiders this season, as evidenced by her statistics. She has four double-doubles in Holt has scored at least 27 points in 10 contests this season as well, including a career-high 41 against No. 8 LSU on December 28.

HOLT MORE EXPLOSIVE AFTER HALFTIME: Amber Holt averages 26.3 points per game this season, but the senior has been much more productive after halftime, scoring in double figures in the second half in all but one game and scoring more points in the second half than in the first in every contest but the last three. The Duluth, Ga., native has netted 240 of her 421 points (15.0 per game) this season after intermission. Holt scored 20 of her team-high 28 at No. 1 Tennessee after the break and posted 22 of her career-high 41 after intermission versus No. 8 LSU. She added 18 of her then career-high 33 at Austin Peay in the second half as well. Holt had 14 points en route to a game-high 27 in the second half against Western Carolina on December 2 and 19 of her game-high 27 points after intermission at Arizona on November 25, including the first six points of the second half and seven of the team's final 11 points of the contest. HOLT DOMINANT IN DECEMBER: Senior Amber Holt was on quite a roll during the month of December, posting three double-doubles in eight games after recording 18 points and 11 rebounds against Florida International on Dec. 19. She added five assists and five steals versus the Golden Panthers as well, the seventh double-double of her career and fourth in 2007-08. The Duluth, Ga., native also had a double-double at Austin Peay on December 15, registering a then career-high 33 points along with 14 rebounds. Holt had one of her best all-around games of her career at Maryland on December 5, scoring 16 points with 10 rebounds and a career-high seven assists in 39 minutes of action. The Meadowcreek HS product posted a double-double November 19 at Houston when she had then career-highs of 30 points and 15 rebounds. Holt has just missed a double-double on four other occasions in 2007-08, grabbing nine rebounds at Arizona, versus No. 8/8 LSU, at Louisville and against Florida Atlantic.

RAIDERS LEADERS ARE TRIPLE THREATS: Amber Holt not only leads Middle Tennessee with 26.3 points per game, but the senior also ranks first on the club with 8.1 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game, continuing an eight-year trend where the club's leading scorer also ranks near the top in both rebounds and assists. Chrissy Givens led the Blue Raiders in scoring and assists the last two seasons and also ranked first in rebounds in 2005-06 before tying for second in boards last year. Patrice Holmes was first in scoring and assists her final three years as a Blue Raider and ranked first in rebounding twice and fourth once. Jamie Thomatis was also first in scoring and rebounding as a junior and senior and ranked second and third in assists during those seasons as well.

SERIES WITH ARKANSAS STATE: Middle Tennessee owns a 12-4 mark all-time against Arkansas State, including 12-3 since joining the Sun Belt. All four of the losses in the series for the Blue Raiders have come in Jonesboro, the last one in 2005, a 72-69 defeat in which Patrice Holmes hit a 3-pointer from 35-feet that would have tied the game just after the buzzer sounded. Middle Tennessee is 3-4 all-time at the Convocation Center. Head coach Rick Insell is 4-0 versus ASU, including a 66-65 triumph in Jonesboro in 2006. The last three meetings between the two teams have been in Murfreesboro, a regular season game in 2006 as well as the semifinals of the Sun Belt Championships in 2006, and last year's regular season contest.

RAIDERS DOMINATE AT HOME VERSUS SBC FOES: Middle Tennessee's home dominance of Sun Belt opponents has continued this season, with the Blue Raiders winning their 33rd in a row versus league foes with the January 10 victory over Florida Atlantic. The last time Middle Tennessee dropped a conference home game was February 5, 2004, in double overtime against Western Kentucky. Overall, the Blue Raiders have won 37 of their last 38 home conference games dating to January 25, 2003, and head coach Rick Insell is a perfect 21-0 at the Glass House against SBC competition. In fact, since joining the Sun Belt before the 2000-01 season, the Blue Raiders are 51-7 at home against Sun Belt competition, an exquisite .879 winning percentage.

ON THIS DATE: Middle Tennessee stands 6-5 all-time on January 14, including 5-3 in conference play. The Blue Raiders are 3-3 on the road on this date and have played just one time in Sun Belt action, a 58-53 loss at UALR in 2006. BLUE RAIDERS IN JANUARY: Middle Tennessee stands 204-94 (.685) all-time in the month of January, including 42-21 (.667) in this decade. The Blue Raiders were 6-2 in the month of January in coach Rick Insell's first year at the helm of the program and a perfect 10-0 in January last year. Middle Tennessee had a 14-game winning streak in the month of January snapped with the Jan. 3 defeat at Western Kentucky. The squad's previous January loss came at UALR on Jan. 14, 2006.

OH, TO BE HOME: Middle Tennessee has played just six times at Murphy Center this season in 16 games, winning five of the six contests, including a 67-56 upset of No. 8 LSU on December 28. The Blue Raiders ended a two-game homestand January 10 against Florida Atlantic, one of only two times this season the squad will play back-to-back contests at Murphy Center. Historically the Blue Raiders have played excellent within the confines of the Glass House, owning a 320-90 all-time record at Murphy Center, a winning percentage of .780. Middle Tennessee ended the 2005-06 season 15-1 at home in head coach Rick Insell's first season, with the lone loss to then 17th-ranked Georgia on November 30, 2005. The Blue Raiders had their 12-game home winning streak snapped in the 2006-07 season-opener against top-ranked Maryland, losing 80-76, and then dropped a 72-61 decision three nights later to South Dakota State. But the squad rebounded, posting 13 straight victories at home and ending the year 13-2 at Murphy Center. Middle Tennessee dropped a 77-71 decision to Western Carolina on December 2 this season at the Glass House, ending a 14-game winning streak. Insell's three-year mark on the home floor is 33-4 overall.

HOLT NETS 41 IN UPSET OF LSU: Amber Holt's senior season has been spectacular to say the least, with the Duluth, Ga., native leading the Blue Raiders and ranking first nationally in scoring. Holt put on a show in the 67-56 victory over eighth-ranked LSU on Dec. 28, scoring a career-high 41 points, just one shy of the school record held by Kim Webb. She hit 15-of-26 shots from the floor and 11-for-12 at the foul line, scoring 19 in the first half and 22 after the break. The 41 points tied Tawanya Mucker for the second most in school history and is also the third best total this season by any player in the nation. Holt set career-highs for FG made (15) and FT made (11) and tied her career-high for free throw attempts (12). The 15 field goals tied for seventh most in a single game in school history. Holt became the first player to score 40 for Middle Tennessee since Mucker's 41 against Mississippi College on Dec. 2, 1988.

UPSET RANKS AMONG BEST IN SCHOOL HISTORY: Middle Tennessee's victory over eighth-ranked LSU ranks among the best in school history. The win for Middle Tennessee marks the second year in a row the Blue Raiders have knocked off a team ranked in the Top 10 after beating eighth-ranked Georgia last season in Athens. It is also just the second victory over a Top 10-ranked program at home in school history and only the third win over a Top 10 program ever for Middle Tennessee.

RAIDERS IN THE GIVING MOOD: Middle Tennessee has averaged almost 15 assists per game this season, but the Blue Raiders were in the giving mood just before Christmas, handing out 27 assists on December 22 at South Alabama. The 27 helpers were a team season-high and the most by the Blue Raiders in at least eight seasons. No team from 2000-01 to the present has ever had more than 26 assists in a game. The school record for assists in a game is 39 against Kentucky on November 17, 1978. Johnna Abney and Brandi Brown both set career-highs for assists with seven and six, respectively. Abney's previous high was four on five different occasions, the last coming versus Western Kentucky in December of 2006. Brown eclipsed her previous high of four against Houston on November 19 of this year. Latoya Barclay also tied her career-high with five assists against the Lady Jaguars. Barclay also had five assists at New Orleans on January 28, 2006.

HOLT GARNERS SECOND SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR: Middle Tennessee senior Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on December 18 after averaging 30.5 points and 9.0 rebounds in contests against top-ranked Tennessee and at Austin Peay. Holt also posted 5.0 assists and 2.5 steals in the two contests, hitting 20-of-32 field goals, 5-for-10 3-pointers and 18-of-22 free throws. Against the top-ranked Lady Vols, Holt netted 28 points, hitting 8-of-16 from the floor and 10-of-11 at the foul line. She added five assists in playing all 40 minutes, as the Blue Raiders trailed by just six points with six minutes to play. She scored 20 of her 28 points in the second half as well. Against Austin Peay, the senior scored a career-high 33 points, making 12-of-16 shots and 8-of-11 free throws. She grabbed 14 rebounds with five assists and three steals. It was her third double-double this season and the sixth of her career. She also has double-doubles this season at Houston and at Maryland. It is Holt's second SBC Player of the Week honor this season and the fourth of her career. She garnered SBC accolades on November 20 after helping the Blue Raiders to victories over Tennessee Tech and at Houston, averaging 24.5 points and 10.0 rebounds per game.

FOUR-GAME SKID QUITE A SHOCK: Middle Tennessee's four-game losing streak from November 28-December 13, defeats to Chattanooga, Western Carolina, No. 3/6 Maryland and No. 1/1 Tennessee, was the first four-game skid for the Blue Raider program since December 16, 1998-January 2, 1999, in Stephany Smith's second season as head coach. It ties for the fifth longest losing streak in school history. Middle Tennessee had not lost three straight contests in the same season since January 16-23, 2003, under Smith.

BURTTS HITS THE BOARDS: Redshirt freshman Angelique Burtts played sparingly in the first five games of the season but burst onto the scene against Western Carolina December 2. Burtts entered the game early in the second half because of foul trouble in the Blue Raiders frontcourt and made her 11 minutes of action count. The Conyers, Ga., native scored 12 points on 5-of-5 shooting and grabbed five rebounds, including four on the offensive glass. She had played just 18 minutes in the team's first five games this year and had taken just three shots in her career before the performance against the Lady Catamounts. Her play earned the Rockdale HS product her first career start December 5 at Maryland where she grabbed a pair of rebounds in 14 minutes. Burtts added to her rebounding totals December 13 at No. 1/1 Tennessee, grabbing five more boards in 10 minutes before fouling out.

HOLT VOTED SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Middle Tennessee's Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on November 20 after helping the Blue Raiders to a pair of victories. Holt averaged 24.5 points and 10.0 rebounds per game in Middle Tennessee victories over Tennessee Tech and at Houston. The senior set career-highs with 30 points and 15 rebounds in the 69-68 triumph at Houston, including scoring nine straight points in the second half after the Cougars tied the game. She also had career-highs in field goals made (13) and field goal attempts (27) and added four assists and three steals in 37 minutes in the contest. Against Tennessee Tech, Holt scored 19 points with five rebounds, three assists and two steals. It is Holt's third career Player of the Week accolade after garnering the honor twice last season – November 14 and February 5.

SQUAD VERY YOUNG IN 2007-08: Middle Tennessee will play the 2007-08 season with just 11 players available for head coach Rick Insell's relentless style of full court basketball, and only three of those players have played more than one season at Middle Tennessee – seniors Starr Orr and Latoya Barclay and junior Johnna Abney. Senior Amber Holt has been in Murfreesboro one year after transferring from Southeastern Illinois College. The rest of the squad is made up of three sophomores (Jackie Pickel, Chelsia Lymon and Brandi Brown), one redshirt freshman (Angelique Burtts) and three true freshmen (Emily Queen, Morgan Boyd and Anne Marie Lanning). A good example of the program's youth came November 25 at Arizona. The Blue Raiders played at the McKale Center against Utah in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06, but only three players remain on the squad who played in that contest – Orr, Barclay and Abney.

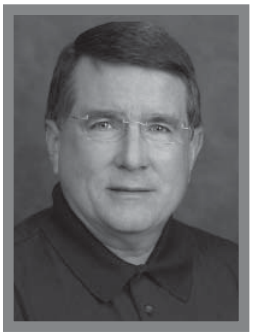
Head Coach Rick Insell



Rick Insell begins his third season as head coach at Middle Tennessee amid great expectations after a record-breaking season in 2006-07 that included a school-record 30 victories, a fourth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament and a No. 16 national ranking by the Associated Press and the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll.

Insell has helped elevate the program into the national spotlight, including last season's victory at then eighth-ranked Georgia in early December. The victory in Athens was the first in program history over a ranked team on the road and just the fifth victory over a ranked foe in the 32-year history of the Middle Tennessee program.

The Blue Raiders won 27 games in a row in 2006-07, the longest streak in the nation at one point, and did not lose for more than 100 days.

Middle Tennessee eclipsed the school record for victories in a season as well last year, posting a 30-4 overall record, besting the previous mark of 26 set by the 1982-83 squad. The 2006-07 squad also tied the record for consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, tying a mark set from 1983-86, and collected the program's fourth consecutive 20-win campaign, also a school record. The four straight conference tournament titles also ties a school record set from 1983-86.

Insell's two-year mark of 50-15 is the best back-to-back seasons in program history, bettering the mark of 48-17 posted during 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Fans have also taken notice of the team's entertaining playing style. Middle Tennessee led the nation in increased attendance percentage in 2005-06, drawing 2,699 fans per game, a 276 percent increase over the previous season. The Blue Raiders improved on that number in 2006-07 as well, setting a single-game record with 10,010 in the season opener against defending national champion Maryland and averaging 4,157 fans for 15 home games, an increase of 65 percent. Middle Tennessee's attendance ranked in the Top 30 nationally and the crowd for the Maryland game was one of the Top 50 for attendance in the nation in 2006-07.

Insell also developed one of the best players in school history over the last two seasons. Chrissy Givens registered the second-most points in school history in 2005-06 and eclipsed the top mark in 2006-07, and ranked in the Top 10 nationally in scoring both seasons.

Insell, a Woodbury, Tenn., native, made a huge splash in his first year at the helm of the Middle Tennessee program, guiding the Blue Raiders to their third consecutive Sun Belt Tournament title and doing so in front of a record-setting home crowd in the finals of the Sun Belt Championships.

Insell directed one of the most thrilling comebacks in Sun Belt Tournament history, leading Middle Tennessee to an 84-73 win over Western Kentucky after being down by as many as 14 points in the first half.

The 2005-06 campaign also saw another first in program history as three players – Givens, Tia Stovall and Krystle Horton – all joined the 1,000-point club. It marked the first time in school history three current players all were represented on the prestigious list, and the Blue Raiders were one of only four teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament to boast such an honor.

Middle Tennessee notched one of its biggest wins of the season when the Blue Raiders defeated traditional Big 10 power Penn State, 79-65, in the UAB Blaze Tournament in December.

With the first conference title and NCAA Tournament appearance under his belt, Insell's recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally and included current sophomores Jackie Pickel, Brandi Brown and Chelsia Lymon.

A 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, Insell built a high school girls basketball dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, just a 30-minute drive from the Middle Tennessee campus. He guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today national championships (1989, 1991), as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure.

Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991 and he also was been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992). A name synonymous with high school girls basketball in Tennessee, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992), most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team so honored.

For his accomplishments at Shelbyville, Insell was elected to the National High School Hall of Fame in February 2007 and was inducted with a class of 12 in July 2007. Insell is one of only six Tennesseeans, including just the fourth coach, elected to the National High School Hall of Fame.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central won 23 district championships, 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. He developed six Tennessee Class AAA Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville during his time there, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom, as evidenced by his teams receiving the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000, an award based on team grade-point-average. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville from 1989-00 was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98. The academic emphasis has continued during his tenure at Middle Tennessee, as the Blue Raiders posted a cumulative 3.22 GPA in Fall 2006.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville team received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement and his teams also have been honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, the Tennessee State House and Senate and by two Tennessee Governors.

Insell had high praise for the head coaching position when he accepted the position at Middle Tennessee.

"Dreams do come true," Insell said after Director of Athletics Chris Massaro announced his hiring on May 18, 2005. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me, but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them, then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

Insell is married to Debbie and the couple have three sons, Tom, Kyle and Matt.

Middle Tennessee won its fourth straight Sun Belt Tournament in 2006-07, earning a fourth consecutive berth in the NCAA Tournament.

LAST YEAR VERSUS ARKANSAS STATE

Second-half surge carries Lady Raiders
Givens leads with 27 points in win over Arkansas State
By MONTE HALE JR.

MURFREESBORO -- The blowout materialized, but it was a longer time in the making than MTSU fans have been accustomed to this season.

No. 20-ranked MTSU, which had outscored Sun Belt Conference foes by more than 31 points per game, certainly got a test from Arkansas State early at Murphy Center Thursday night.

However, behind senior guard Chrissy Givens 27 points and a stifl ing defense that forced 37 turnovers, the Lady Raiders overcome early shooting woes and raced off to an 82-54 victory before a crowd of 4,884.

"Arkansas State is one of the better teams we've played," Givens said. "They were aggressive, they got in us and they didn't back down. I think this was a great game to help prepare us for the rest of the season."

MTSU won its 13th straight game to improve to 16-3 overall and 8-0 in the Sun Belt, while Arkansas State dropped to 13-6 and 7-2. The Lady Raiders' winning streak is the third longest in the nation behind undefeated Duke and North Carolina.

"We weren't smart at all in the first half," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "We didn't do a good job recognizing their defense and I wasn't pleased with that. I was pleased with the effort and I am pleased to be where we're at."

MTSU led just 39-32 at halftime, but Givens scored 10 of her team's first 16 points in the second half to ignite a 19-11 run that gave the Lady Raiders a 58-43 lead with 11:25 left.

"(Coach Insell) really chewed my butt at halftime. He really chewed it," Givens said. "He was right, too. Our team plays like I do, and I'm like a coach on the floor and I needed to get with it."

Arkansas State got no closer than 13 points, while MTSU's biggest lead was 80-50 in the final minute.

"We just need to play defense, rebound and stay focused," said MTSU junior forward Amber Holt, who had 19 points and seven rebounds. "We had a great crowd and we want to win for them, too."

MTSU missed a golden opportunity to put the game away in the first half when it forced 20 Arkansas State turnovers.

However, the Lady Raiders shot just 37 percent from the field and struggled from the perimeter (6-of-18 3-pointers). Meanwhile, when Arkansas State did beat MTSU's press and operate in the half-court setting, it sizzled. The Indians hit 11-of-16 (69 percent) and canned 4-of-5 3-pointers.

"We just didn't play well in the first half like we can," Insell said. "We got caught up in the crowd and not the game. But we came out in the second half and played like we can. We shot the ball better and kept getting turnovers."

MTSU jumped out to an 18-9 lead seven minutes in, but saw the Indians storm back to tie the score, 23-23, with 6:09 left when Ashley Anderson scored inside.

The Lady Raiders grabbed their biggest first-half lead, 39-29, with 57 seconds left before ASU's Rudy Sims hit a 3-pointer to cut the margin to 39-32 at intermission.

"We were a lot more focused in the second half and we made our shots," Givens said. "It was a good win, but we know we can play better."

MTSU freshman Brandi Brown added 12 points, all on 3-pointers. Arkansas State was led by senior post Adrianne Davie's 16 points.

POSTGAME NOTES

FORCING THE ISSUE: Middle Tennessee's pressing style of defense has been a disruptive force all season, but it has hit another gear over the past five outings. During that span, the Blue Raiders have forced 176 turnovers for an average of 35.2 miscues per game. After creating a season-high 40 turnovers at New Orleans last Saturday, the Blue Raiders responded with 37 forced turnovers in the win over Arkansas State.

STREAK REACHES 13: The Blue Raiders ran their winning streak to 13 in a row with Thursday's win over Western Division-leading Arkansas State. The current streak is tied for the second most in school history and stands just two shy of equaling the school record of 15 set by the 1986-87 team. The 13-game winning streak is tied for the third longest nationally behind North Carolina (21) and Duke (19).

25 AND COUNTING: Middle Tennessee's home dominance of Sun Belt foes continued against Arkansas State, as the Blue Raiders won their 25th in a row versus league foes at Murphy Center. The last time Middle Tennessee dropped a conference home game was February 5, 2004, in double overtime against Western Kentucky. Overall, the Blue Raiders have won 29 of their last 30 home conference games and head coach Rick Insell is a perfect 14-0 at the Glass House against SBC competition.

HORTON MOVES UP: Senior Krystle Horton started her 97th career game in the win over Arkansas State to move into a tie for 10th place on the all-time list with Cortney Neeley (1996-99). With one more start she will tie Priscilla Robinson for ninth place. It was also the Murfreesboro native's 114th career game played, which ties her with Heather Prater for ninth place all-time.

WHAT A YEAR!: Middle Tennessee has come into 2007 with a chip on its shoulder and the opposition is paying the price. In six games to start the new year, the Blue Raiders are winning by a margin of 30.8 (185) points per game with the closest outing being 28 points against New Orleans and Arkansas State. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won seven games this year by 30 or more points.

HER 31ST: Senior Chrissy Givens recorded her best scoring game at home since pouring in 29 points against Chattanooga on November 24 when she netted 27 in the win over Arkansas State (In her last four outings against the Indians, Givens has averaged 25.5 points). The 27 points against ASU marked Givens' 31st 20-point game of her career and her third in the last four games. The Monroe, La., native also added five steals to surpass Keisha McClinic for third place on the all-time list. Givens now has 247 career steals and stands 47 back of second place Kim Webb.

QUICK HITTERS: With nine free throws against ASU, Chrissy Givens ran her career total to 289 to surpass Jessica Beaty for eighth place on the all-time free throws made list ... With two made 3-pointers against ASU, Johnna Abney ran her career total to an even 100, good enough to tie Paula Pentilla for ninth place all-time ... Amber Holt notched her 13th straight double figure scoring game in the win over ASU ... Middle Tennessee is now 16-0 this season and 34-4 under Rick Insell when leading at the half ... Amber Holt has three or more steals in four straight games ... Chrissy Givens has 16 steals over the past two games combined.

LAST TIME OUT FOR MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Queen wakes 'em up
Hard foul on Lady Raider sparks rally past Florida Atlantic
hale@dnj.com

MURFREESBORO -- MTSU finally got some sense knocked in it Thursday night at Murphy Center.

Actually, a hard foul that sent MTSU freshman Emily Queen sprawling to the floor seemingly was the wake-up call the Lady Raiders needed to rally for a 79-63 victory over Florida Atlantic before a crwod of 3,227.

With the Lady Raiders trailing 49-45 with 11:13 remaining, Queen was going in for a layup when she absorbed a hard foul that knocked her out of bounds.

Queen sank both free throws, which ignited a 12-2 spurt to give the Lady Raiders a 59-51 lead with 6:29 left. Queen scored six of the points during the decisive run.

"I guess it was a spark," Queen said. "(The foul) wasn't as bad as it looked, but I guess it gave us some more energy."

Added MTSU coach Rick Insell: "No doubt it (sparked us). That and when Amber Holt came out in the second half and decided she was going to start playing basketball."

Holt had 29 points, nine rebounds, a career-high eight steals and four assists, while Queen scored 14 points and pulled down a career-high 15 rebounds.

MTSU improved to 9-7 overall and 4-1 in the Sun Belt Conference, while FAU slipped to 4-9 and 0-4.

"Give them a lot of credit," Insell said of the Owls. "They came in with a good gameplan and they stuck to it."

MTSU struggled mightily throughout offensively and trailed the Owls, 47-38, with 14:30 remaining.

However, FAU turned the ball over four straight possessions during one point and went without a field goal from the 10:59 mark until 6:10 remaining.

"You could tell they were getting kind of down," Queen said.

The Lady Raiders suffered through a horrific first half offensively. Holt scored 15 of MTSU's 29 first-half points, making 5-of-9 shots. The rest of the team hit a collective 6-of-27, and the Lady Raiders made only 1-of-12 from 3-point range. They hit just 3-of-20 overall.

"We just came out in the second half and took our time," said Holt. "The first half was just horrible. ... (Insell) got on me. My teammates gravitate to me and what I do. .. We didn't panic."

Added Insell: "We were not playing our game. Everybody took their turn shooting the ball, and that's not our team."

FAU led 36-29 at halftime. However, the Owls had 18 turnovers in the second half, and after outrebounding MTSU 28-19 in the first half, they were outrebounded 21-12 in the second.

MTSU made 26-of-33 at the free throw line, including 20-of-24 in the second half. FAU hit 9-of-10 at the free-throw line in the first half, but didn't attempt one in the second.

"We played hard," said FAU coach Chancellor Dugan. "They got to the free throw line and did what they did. I am not going to take anything away from Middle Tennessee because they are a great team. When you send a team like that to the line 33 times and we don't get to the free throw line in the second half, it's crap."

MTSU freshman Anne Marie Lanning scored 12 points, while sophomore point guard Chelsia Lymon added 10, four steals and three assists.

POSTGAME NOTES

ALMOST A TRIPLE DOUBLE: Senior Amber Holt nearly posted an unheard of feat, the triple-double, and almost did it not with assists but steals. Holt scored 29 points, grabbed nine rebounds and recorded a career-high eight steals, coming up just short of the triple-double. It was Holt's 10th game this season with more than 27 points and the eighth contest in which she totaled nine or more rebounds. Holt's eight steals are the most since Chrissy Givens broke the school record for thefts in a game with 11 last season at New Orleans (01/13/07) and tied for the fourth most in a single game in Blue Raider history with eight other players.

QUEEN KEEPS HITTING THE BOARDS: Freshman Emily Queen grabbed a career-high 15 rebounds in the contest, her third double-digit rebounding effort in the last five games. Queen's effort tied Amber Holt for the most rebounds by a Blue Raider this season. She added 14 points as well for her second double-double in as many games. In the last five games the Ashland, Ky., native has averaged 10.0 rebounds per game and has averaged 7.4 boards since being inserted into the starting lineup nine games ago.

LYMON PROVIDES A SPARK: Sophomore Chelsia Lymon gave the Blue Raiders a much-needed spark in the second half, scoring seven of her 10 points, handing out two assists and making two steals in 16 minutes of action. Lymon hit of the team's three 3-pointers in the game during a critical 24-4 run in the second half. More importantly, she committed just one turnover in the second half. It was her third straight double-figure performance and her sixth this season.

HOME STREAK CONTINUES: Middle Tennessee's home conference winning streak continued with the victory, running the school-record mark to 33 games. Head coach Rick Insell improved to 21-0 at Murphy Center against Sun Belt competition and the Blue Raiders upped their mark to 49-6 at the Glass House since joining the SBC. Middle Tennessee's last home loss came February 5, 2004, a double overtime defeat to Western Kentucky.

HOLT INCHES CLOSER TO CENTURY MARK: Senior Amber Holt's 29 points moved her within 12 of joining the 1,000-point club at Middle Tennessee. Holt heads into Monday's game at Arkansas State with 988 career points in 50 games, averaging 19.8 per contest as a Blue Raider. Holt can become the 20th player in school history to reach 1,000 points and can also become the fastest player to ever reach the plateau. Priscilla Robinson currently holds the record for fastest to 1,000 points, accomplishing the feat in 55 games in 1990-91 and 1991-92.

The Blue Raiders were down, 36-29, at the break ... The Blue Raiders improved to 33-4 overall at home under Insell and 5-1 this season ... Amber Holt scored 22 points and Anne Marie Lanning added 21, leading six double-figure scorers, and Middle Tennessee hit 15 3-pointers in the contest, as the Blue Raiders rolled to a 108-49 victory over Henderson State Monday night in women's basketball exhibition action at Murphy Center.

Middle Tennessee took advantage of aggressive play from Henderson State, who committed 30 personal fouls in the contest, putting the Blue Raiders at the foul line 31 times. Holt hit 10-of-11 at the foul line and Middle Tennessee made 25-of-31 as a team.

The Blue Raiders struggled from the field in a very sloppy first half, hitting just 32 percent from the floor and 25 percent from 3-point range. The Lady Reddies committed 18 personal fouls in the half, allowing Middle Tennessee to shoot 19 free throws in the opening 20 minutes, of which the Blue Raiders made 16.

Holt was 8-of-9 from the foul line and tallied 14 points in the half, while Lanning had nine points and Emily Queen grabbed seven rebounds.

In the second half Middle Tennessee turned up the defensive pressure and scored 70 points over the final 20 minutes, shooting 57 percent from the field and 52 percent from behind the arc. The Blue Raiders forced 18 second half turnovers and turned them into 32 points.

Middle Tennessee opened the second half with a 15-4 run, highlighted by six points from Holt. The Blue Raiders made 11 trifectas in the second half, including five from Johnna Abney, who finished with 15 points.

Queen grabbed a game-high 10 boards, while Morgan Boyd and Angelique Burtts both scored 11 points and Jackie Pickel added 10. Burtts also had seven rebounds in just 13 minutes of action.

For 32 minutes, Middle Tennessee looked out-of-place and out-of-sync Saturday night against Old Dominion. But then the Blue Raiders dialed up the defense, forcing five straight turnovers and cutting the deficit to three points, but Old Dominion pulled away in the end en route to a 76-68 season-opening victory at the Ted Constant Convocation Center.

Middle Tennessee (0-1) trailed by as many as 17 points in the second half and was down 68-55 with 6:11 remaining in the game. But the Blue Raiders scored 12 of the game's next 13 points, started by a 3-pointer from Brandi Brown and including a trio of trifectas from senior Latoya Barclay. The 12-1 spurt took just over three minutes, pulling the Blue Raiders with three points at 69-66.

After another ODU turnover, Middle Tennessee had the ball with a chance to tie, but Jackie Pickel missed a 3-pointer from the corner. Lady Monarch Shalida Williams drove to the basket on the other end, hitting Megan Pym for a driving layup and taking the momentum away from the Blue Raiders.

Pym had another layup on a putback the next time up the floor and Old Dominion made their free throws over the final minute, just as they had all night.

Barclay finished the game with a career-high 17 points, including 15 in the second half, in just the second start of her career. Brown was also a major factor for the Blue Raiders, netting 14 points with four rebounds in 35 minutes of action.

Everyone on the Blue Raiders had to step into a more prominent role after senior Amber Holt played just six minutes in the first half because of three fouls and then picked up her fourth foul less than four minutes into the second half. The Duluth, Ga., native did play the final 12:26 of the contest without fouling out, scoring 14 points with six rebounds in just 22 minutes of action.

Middle Tennessee trailed by seven at the half, but the Lady Monarchs scored the first six points after intermission before the Blue Raiders answered with a pair of 3-pointers, one from Holt and the other from Pickel, who scored nine points in the game on a trio of trifectas.

But ODU expanded the lead to 17 points in the second half thanks to the charity stripe, the Lady Monarchs best friend for most of the game. ODU's Tiffany Green hit 6-of-7 in the second half and ODU was 11-of-15 after the break and 27-for-35 in the contest. Compare that to Middle Tennessee, who shot just three free throws after halftime and only 17 foul shots in the game.

Anne Marie Lanning grabbed six rebounds and Emily Queen came off the bench to contribute seven boards for the Blue Raiders, who were outrebounded only 44-41 despite a large difference in size at almost every position. T.J. Jordan led four double figure scorers for ODU with 19 points, while Williams had 15, Green added 12 and Jessica Canady scored 13 off the bench.

It didn't take long for MTSU to set the tempo for its home opener against Tennessee Tech Wednesday night at Murphy Center.

It didn't take long, either, for the Lady Raiders to race out to a 89-62 rout before a crowd of 2,614.

MTSU hit seven of its first 10 shots, which proved to a sign of things to come as the Lady Raiders drained 12 3-pointers and shot 51 percent from the field.

"Anytime you shoot the ball like we shot it, and we got some good looks and kept knocking them down, you're going to have a chance to have a good night," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "Overall, I was pleased with our intensity."

MTSU forced 33 Golden Eaglette turnovers, including 20 in the first half.

Tennessee Tech continuously struggled to get the ball in the half-court against the Lady Raiders' pressure defense. The Golden Eaglettes managed just eight shots in the first 12 minutes and only 15 in the first half.

"We take a lot of pride in our press and we were able to contain the ball," said MTSU sophomore guard Chelsia Lymon, who had four of MTSU's 24 steals. "They're a good team with good shooters, and we did a good job rotating."

Seven different Lady Raiders hit 3-pointers and five players hit for double figures, led by senior forward Amber Holt's 19. Freshman Emily Queen hit three 3-pointers, while Lymon, Anne Marie Lanning and Jackie Pickel hit two apiece.

"Hopefully we won't ever start off shooting like we did against Old Dominion," Pickel said of the Lady Raiders' shooting woes in a 76-68 season-opening loss Saturday. "When one of us hits one, we do gravitate and feel the energy off each other."

MTSU led 58-24 at halftime and went ahead by as many as 44 points in the second half, when it outscored Tennessee Tech 16-6 in the first five minutes. However, the Lady Raiders scored just 15 points in the final 15 minutes.

"We changed our press in the second half," Insell said, "but we needed to work on some things that we'll have to do later. We gave up some easy baskets, but they were things we needed to work on.

"We've got a lot of work to do, but it was a good win tonight."

Lymon had 15 points, while Lanning had 12 and Latoya Barclay 11. Queen netted nine.

Tennessee Tech (1-1) was led by Cara Reed's 13 points, while freshman and former Smyrna standout Jasmine White netted 11. The Golden Eaglettes shot 64 percent (23-of-36) but were obviously plagued by the 33 floor mistakes.

Amber Holt recorded her fourth career double-double with career-highs of 30 points and 15 rebounds, including nine straight points in the second half when the game was tied, as Middle Tennessee held on for a 69-68 victory over Houston Monday night at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Houston's Tye Jackson and Twiggy McIntyre had potential game-winning shots in the final 10 seconds of the game. The Cougars scored the final 10 points of the game over two minutes.

The Blue Raiders put together a 20-9 run after Houston tied the contest at 49 with 12:53 remaining in the contest. At that point Holt took over, hitting four straight buckets plus a free throw and then hit Anne Marie Lanning for a layup on the next possession.

Lanning had two free throws of her own on the next trip down the floor to extend the lead to 60-49 for the Blue Raiders, but Houston had a mad rush at the end, highlighted by a pair of 3-pointers from Brittney Scott. Courtney Taylor also had two layups in the final minute after a Blue Raider turnover and a missed shot.

After another Middle Tennessee (2-1) miscue, Jackson brought the ball up the floor with nine seconds remaining, but her jumper in the lane was short and missed the rim completely. McIntyre grabbed the rebound and tried to come from underneath the basket for a shot, but it fell harmlessly on the floor as the buzzer sounded and Middle Tennessee escaped.

Lanning scored 11 points for the Blue Raiders, while Taylor came off the bench to lead the Cougars with 18 points. Jackson added 15 points, while Scott had 14 and McIntyre scored 11.

After missing its first four shots of the game, turning the ball over four times in the first four-plus minutes and failing to score, the Blue Raiders found the range from the field, hitting six of their next 11 shots, including four 3-pointers, for a 16-9 advantage at the 12-minute media timeout.

Middle Tennessee raced out to a 14-point advantage after an Emily Queen putback with 8:15 remaining in the half, prompting a Cougars timeout. Houston cut the deficit in half at intermission thanks to three straight buckets from McIntyre, and the Blue Raiders headed to the locker room with a 41-34 advantage.

After missing their first three 3-pointers of the half, the Blue Raiders were 7-of-13 over the remaining 15 minutes. Holt scored 11 points and Chelsia Lymon had eight off the bench before the break.

UH scored 15 of the first 23 points after halftime, knotting the contest at 49 after a steal and layup from McIntyre, before Holt scored on four straight possessions to give the Blue Raiders the lead for good.

Amber Holt scored 27 points and grabbed nine rebounds and Latoya Barclay came off the bench and provided a big spark with seven points and three assists in Middle Tennessee's 70-60 victory over Arizona Sunday at McKale Center.

Holt netted 19 of her 27 in the second half and Barclay was all over the floor, including in the middle of a huge 7-0 run in the middle of the second half that opened the Middle Tennessee advantage from two points to nine. Barclay hit a 3-pointer in the corner before Holt had a bucket underneath. Barclay then got a deflection and a steal and dribbled in to take a mid-range jumper off the glass for a 53-44 lead with 7:43 remaining.

The Blue Raiders battled against the much bigger Wildcats and were outrebounded by just one, 28-27, but Middle Tennessee hit the offensive glass, getting 14 boards, including two from Brandi Brown to start the second half and big ones by Starr Orr and Barclay in the final minute to seal the victory.

Johnna Abney was the only other Blue Raider in double figures, hitting a trio of 3-pointers, including one from at least eight feet from behind the arc. It was a total team effort, as Brandi Brown added eight points, Orr had six and Anne Marie Lanning scored five.

The first half was a seesaw affair, with six ties and six lead changes, and a late flurry by the Blue Raiders gave the visitors a 32-30 edge at the break. Middle Tennessee had great opportunities in the opening 20 minutes but shot just 34 percent from the field, while Arizona made 69 percent from the floor.

But that number was deceiving, as the Wildcats also had 14 turnovers and the Blue Raiders were whistled for nine fouls in the half. UA either hit a bucket, was fouled or turned the ball over on almost every possession before intermission.

Middle Tennessee started hot, thanks to a driving layup from Chelsia Lymon, a 3-pointer by Brown and a turnaround jumper in the lane from Holt for an early 7-2 lead and a timeout by Arizona. The Wildcats made a living in the paint in the half, though, scoring 20 points near the bucket on a host of layups and backdoor cuts.

The Blue Raiders held UA scoreless over the final 3:03 of the half and took advantage, with Orr hitting a driving layup as the shot clock expired and Brown nailing another trifecta for the two-point halftime lead.

In the second half Holt scored the first six points for the Blue Raiders, who never trailed after intermission. Arizona kept the came within a bucket until Middle Tennessee's 7-0 run led by Barclay that helped the Blue Raiders pull away.

It was Middle Tennessee's second road victory of the young season after posting 13 last season.

Basketball seasons afford teams to learn a lot of valuable lessons. MTSU's Lady Raiders learned one Wednesday night when they lost 57-54 at Chattanooga The McKenzie Center.

"We came out sluggish in the second half and it was like we didn't care," said senior forward Amber Holt. "I think we learned if you come out like that you're going to get your butt kicked big time."

The sluggishness in reference came early in the second half when MTSU missed five straight 3-point attempts and made just two of its first 12 field goal attempts.

The Lady Raiders (3-2) led 29-28 at halftime, but fell behind 32-31 early in the second half and never regained the lead.

"We didn't execute," said senior guard Starr Orr. "We had people pass up shots, we didn't rebound and we didn't execute."

MTSU trailed 45-41 with eight minutes left before Holt scored back-to-back baskets to tie the game with 6:04 left.

Chattanooga's Jenaya Wade-Fray hit a 3-pointer out of the corner with 2:11 remaining and MTSU never got closer than two points.

"They've got a very good basketball team and I knew they felt they had something to prove after a bad second half against Louisville the other night," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "They played hard, we played hard and they had some kids make some plays down the stretch."

Added Chattanooga coach Wes Moore: "It was a good win. ... I told them that this was a game we could take if we took care of the little things."

MTSU made just 6-of-29 3-pointers, while Chattanooga hit 5-of-14. The Lady Raiders shot just two free throws — both coming after Moore was hit with a technical foul in the first half. The Lady Mocs cashed in on 16-of-20 attempts at the free throw line.

"I don't know if I've ever played a game — from junior pro, to middle school, to coaching high school, to coaching here — that we shot two free throws," Insell said. "... Wes gave us those and we appreciate it.

"That's not the difference in the game, but I've never seen that. They had a good game plan and they made the tough plays."

MTSU was outrebounded 38-31 — another statistic Holt pointed to as a difference in the outcome.

"We just need our five to step up and rebound," she said. "Basically, we need to rebound better. Hopefully the next game we'll come ready."

Added Orr: "We've got to box out better and we've got to help Amber rebound."

Holt led the Lady Raiders with 19 points and seven boards, while Orr scored 11. Freshman Anne Marie Lanning netted 10 points, all in the first half.

The growing pains continued for MTSU's women's basketball team Sunday. Plagued by another poor shooting performance, a terrible rebounding performance and foul problems, the Lady Raiders fell, 77-71, to Western Carolina before a crowd of 3,806 at Murphy Center.

"I thought we had a chance in the second half to take the game by the neck," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "... But they did a good job of getting the ball to the people they wanted to. In Division I basketball you've got to make plays, and we didn't make enough plays."

MTSU shot just 40 percent from the field and made only 2-of-18 from 3-point range. The Lady Raiders also were outrebounded, 53-27, and made just 15-of-24 at the free-throw line.

The game was tied 13 times and there were 12 lead changes, with the final one coming when Kristen Feemster gave the Lady Catamounts a 59-58 lead with 9:13 remaining.

MTSU trailed just 72-69 with 3:06 remaining after Amber Holt scored in the paint, but the Lady Raiders could get no closer.

"Our rebounding, we've got to box out better," said Holt, who had a game-high 28 points. "We didn't score off their turnovers and we didn't make our free throws. If we had rebounded, scored off their turnovers and made our free throws we would have won the game."

One positive was the play of freshman forward Angelique Burtts, who came off the bench to score 12 points and grab five rebounds in 11 minutes of play.

"Angelique gave us good minutes," Insell said. "She's got to build on it now. She deserved it. She's been yelled at a lot."

Burtts was inserted into the game due to the fact the Lady Raiders were in so much foul trouble in the second half.

"I didn't go into to score," Burtts said. "I went in to rebound and play defense. When I rebounded, I guess the scoring came. I've got to come back to practice hard and build on this. Sometimes I'm not into it, and I've got to work harder."

MTSU got several open looks from 3-point range, but the Lady Raiders were 2-for-11 in the first half and 0-for-7 in the second.

"We come to practice, but we don't bring it on the floor," Holt said. "I really don't know why."

Western Carolina opened the game with an impressive 15-6 run before MTSU took a 19-16 lead with a 13-1 spurt at the 9:07 mark of the first half.

MTSU led 29-25, its biggest cushion in the first half before Western Carolina came back to tie the game at 37 at intermission.

Holt and Burtts were the only two Lady Raiders in double figures. Western Carolina was led Lauren Powell with 17 points, while Monique Dawson had 14, including going 12-of-12 at the free-throw line. Six-foot-4 post Brooke Johnson had 12 points and a game-high 20 rebounds.

Maryland F/O: Coleman @ 1:46

An 11-0 run with four minutes remaining in the game gave third-ranked Maryland the lead for good and the Terps held on to defeat Middle Tennessee, 74-69, Wednesday night at the Comcast Center.

Middle Tennessee senior Amber Holt had 16 points and 10 rebounds and sophomore Brandi Brown scored a season-high 22 points, hitting six 3-pointers in the contest. Sophomore Chelsia Lymon added 14 points off the bench, but a charging call on Lymon with 35.1 seconds left in the game and the Blue Raiders down just three was the final blow to the visitors.

The teams were nip-and-tuck almost the entire second half. The contest had seven ties and 16 lead changes and Middle Tennessee led 62-61 with 4:32 left in the contest before Tolliver took over, hitting a 3-pointer and then a 15-footer the next time down the floor. UMD's All-America point guard added four free throws, including two with 12.1 seconds remaining to ice the game for the Terrapins.

Tolliver's 3-pointer and jumper started the 11-0 run for the Terps, but Middle Tennessee came back with seven straight points. Brown hit the last of her trifectas, then Lymon made a steal and got a layup before Holt hit a tough fall away jumper in the lane with the shot clock running down to cut the deficit to three with 1:10 left.

The Blue Raiders got a stop on Maryland's next possession. Lymon went to the right and drove to the bucket, laying the ball up and looking like she drew a foul, but former Shelbyville High School star Ashleigh Newman was laying at the bottom of the pile, drawing a charge to help UMD survive for the second straight year against Middle Tennessee.

The Blue Raiders used a 10-4 run to start the second half, tying the contest at 39, and took the lead at 45-44 after a bucket from Holt with 13:59 remaining. From that point there were two ties and eight lead changes as the teams headed down the stretch.

Tolliver led the Terps with 19 points, while Laura Harper had 16 and Crystal Langhorne added 14.

"We've been shooting the ball poorly, but we shot the ball better tonight," head coach Rick Insell said. "We're not as big as Maryland, but we match up pretty good with them because all of our kids can shoot the three and it kind of spreads [Maryland] out a little bit. My kids have the green light to shoot anytime," Insell said.

The Blue Raiders started the game quickly with 3-pointers from Johnna Abney and Brown. Langhorne and Harper scored the first 14 points for Maryland, but Middle Tennessee stayed with the Terps by hitting the offensive glass, grabbing 13 offensive rebounds, and also making seven 3-pointers in the opening 20 minutes.

Anne Marie Lanning's trifecta from the top of the key just before the break cut the UMD advantage to 35-29 at intermission. Holt was just 2-of-10 from the field but grabbed eight rebounds. Middle Tennessee actually outrebounded the much talker Terps, 23-20, in the first half.

With six minutes remaining in the game, MTSU coach Rick Insell patted the heads of freshmen forwards Emily Queen and Angelique Burtts and sophomore forward Brandi Brown.

All three were on the bench — having fouled out.

Each, at times, was charged with trying to guard Tennessee All-American Candace Parker, who scored 34 points in leading the No. 1 Lady Vols to a 84-61 victory at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Parker, a 6-foot-4 junior, also had 13 rebounds and made 17-of-21 at the free throw line.

MTSU senior forward Amber Holt nearly matched Parker's performance, scoring a team-high 28 points and making 10-of-11 at the free throw line. She also had five assists, four rebounds and two steals.

"I had trust in my teammates," Holt said. "When I can get out and shoot the 3, they have to guard me. When they come out and guard me, I can drive to the basket. I guess the best thing is to keep the ball away from me."

Despite the 23-point final margin of victory, Tennessee found itself in a much closer game than most expected.

MTSU (3-5) trailed just 61-55 left with seven minutes remaining in the game before the Lady Vols (8-0) scored 18 unanswered points. Eight came at the free throw line.

Meanwhile, MTSU was playing with such a small lineup that even freshman guard Anne Marie Lanning (5-foot-10) was guarding Parker at times.

MTSU cut a nine-point halftime deficit to four, 41-37, with 17:51 left, but Tennessee used a 8-0 spurt to take a 49-37 advantage with 15:45 remaining. The Lady Vols built as big as a 15-point lead before the Lady Raiders stormed back to make it 58-53 with 7:53 remaining on back-to-back 3-pointers from Holt and Johnna Abney.

MTSU was outrebounded 47-26, and the Lady Vols were deadly at the free throw line, making 28-of-37.

MTSU senior guard Starr Orr jump-started MTSU early, hitting three straight 3-pointers to give the Lady Raiders a 14-6 advantage with 16:20 left in the first half.

However, after the first media timeout with 15:59 left, MTSU didn't score until almost six minutes later.

Tennessee was unable to run away, though, as it never led by more than nine points in the first half.

MTSU had a chance to cut the lead to 34-30, but it missed two easy shots down low. The Lady Vols took a 39-30 into the locker-room at intermission.

MTSU was plagued by foul problems in the first half. Brown had four personals, while Queen and Burtts had three apiece.

Orr finished with a season-high 12 points, while Abney added 11. Alexis Hornbuckle added 17 for Tennessee, while former Shelbyville standout Alex Fuller had 16.

Two days removed from scoring 28 points against No. 1 Tennessee, Amber Holt picked up where she left off against Austin Peay Saturday night.

The MTSU senior forward poured in a career-high 33 points and pulled down 14 rebounds as the Lady Raiders routed Austin Peay, 95-60, at the Dunn Center.

Holt made 12-of-16 shots and hit 8-of-11 at the free throw line. She also had five assists and three steals.

"What can you say — that's Amber Holt," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "She had 33 points, 14 rebounds and only had two turnovers in 34 minutes."

The victory snapped a four-game losing streak — the longest MTSU skid since the 1998-99 season. MTSU improved to 4-5, while Austin Peay slipped to 4-5.

"We needed this win," Holt said. "I feel like we could have won every game we've lost, so it felt good tonight."

MTSU led 36-23 at halftime, but had the lead up to 20 points in less than two minutes. Holt scored eight of the Lady Raiders first 11 points after intermission

MTSU's defense was relentless, forcing 39 Austin Peay turnovers that equated into 43 Raider points.

"We had to have a little talk at halftime," Insell said. "We spent a lot of energy the other night at Tennessee, but we came out in the second half more focused and more aggressive.

"Austin Peay is not a bad basketball team and it was a good win for our kids. Now, the real stuff starts (Wednesday) with conference play."

Four Lady Raiders scored in double figures. Freshman forward Emily Queen had a career-high 14 points, while sophomore guard Chelsia Lymon had 14 and freshman guard Anne Marie Lanning 11.

"I'm not necessarily looking to score," said Queen, who hit 5-of-7 attempts. "I'm in there for rebounding and defense, and when you do those things, the scoring comes to you.

"We're running our offense much better right now and we've got a lot of people who can score."

MTSU scored the first eight points of the game and built a 20-7 lead with 12:52 left.

Austin Peay got as close as seven pints, 20-13, with 11:38 before MTSU closed the half with a 16-10 run to take a 36-23 halftime advantage.

Holt scored 15 points and had eight rebounds in the first half, which coupled with 20 Austin Peay turnovers, allowed the Lady Raiders to build the 13-point cushion.

The Lady Govs were led by senior guard Ashley Herring's 19 points.

As was the case a number of times previously, Amber Holt stole the show Wednesday. This time, however, the MTSU senior's performance featured an unusual number of steals.

It took less than one half for the reigning Sun Belt Conference player of the week to match her career-high for takeaways in a game (five). She did not get any over the second half but the 6-foot forward played every minute and finished with a game-high 18 points and a team-best 11 rebounds as the Lady Raiders defeated Florida International, 77-64, at the Murphy Center in the conference opener for both teams.

It was her third double-double in the last four games and her fourth of the season.

"What can you say? That's really unheard of for anybody," coach Rick Insell said. "Especially for somebody her size — she's playing out of position."

Holt's first steal of the contest came 2:02 after the opening tip and her last was with 8:22 to play in the first half. Both led to 3-point shots by Brandi Brown, the first of which gave MTSU its first lead, 5-2, and the second of which produced the largest lead of the first half, 25-15.

The victory was the Lady Raiders' 25th straight in conference play and 31st straight at home against SBC opponents.

"I was just there," Holt said. "They were just turning over the ball. They just threw it, and that's how I got the five steals."

Twice last season Holt had five steals in a game, the second of those was Januaary 11 against Florida Atlantic. Her season-high coming into this one was four, Dec. 2 against Western Carolina.

Her total was two more than FIU (3-7, 0-1) had the entire night. Seven different Lady Raiders had at least one steal, and as a team they finished with 13. At the same time they committed a season-low eight turnovers.

Just as Holt wasn't the only one making steals, Brown, a sophomore, was not the only one knocking down long-range shots.

MTSU matched its season-best with 12 3-pointers on 37 attempts (two shy of its season-high). Sophomore Jackie Pickel made a team-high four, all in the second half, and freshman Anne Marie Lanning's 3 with 13:28 to play in the first half put MTSU ahead to stay.

Brown finished with 14 points, Pickel scored 12 and Lanning added nine.

"I think we're always going to shoot a lot of 3s," Brown said. "(Insell) wants us to shoot 3s. He always makes sure we know if we don't shoot them, we won't play."

Insell also made it clear following the contest that he wants his team to rebound better. Holt had three more than the Lady Raiders' other four starters combined, and only Lanning, with six, had as many as half that total. As a team, MTSU was outrebounded, 45-32.

Amber Holt scored a game-high 27 points and grabbed eight rebounds and Anne Marie Lanning added a career-high 15 points, as Middle Tennessee won their 26th straight contest against Sun Belt competition with an 80-46 victory over South Alabama Saturday at the Mitchell Center.

Holt scored 11 of the team's first 13 points of the second half and the Raiders extended a 20-point halftime advantage to as many as 35 at one point. Middle Tennessee's defense forced 26 USA turnovers and turned those into 26 points.

Lanning had her best game of the year, going 5-for-7 from the floor and hitting three 3-pointers. She scored the 15 points in just 11 minutes of action.

Brandi Brown also netted 12 points for Middle Tennessee (6-5, 2-0 Sun Belt), who won its third straight overall and 20th consecutive regular season Sun Belt contest.

The Blue Raiders started very slowly in the contest but put together a 14-2 run over eight-plus minutes to take an 18-10 advantage in the first half. Brown hit a pair of 3-pointers during the run and USA scored just one field goal in a 13-minute stretch, committing nine turnovers.

The Lady Jaguars closed the gap to 29-19 at the four-minute media timeout, but Middle Tennessee finished the half with a 10-0 run, highlighted by 3-pointers from Lanning and Chelsia Lymon for a 39-19 lead at the break.

Holt scored 12 points in the half and Lanning added 10. The Blue Raiders also netted 15 points off 15 USA turnovers in the opening 20 minutes.

Middle Tennessee dominated all phases of the game, outrebounding the Lady Jaguars (10-2, 1-1), 35-30, and committing just 12 turnovers compared to USA's 26. The Blue Raiders shot 51 percent from the floor and hit 9-of-19 from 3-point range.

"South Alabama started the game really running right by us on the press so we want to more of a contain and made them really work to get the ball up the court and use time off the clock and it worked very well," head coach Rick Insell said. "They're a good half-court team but when we made them take time off the clock they weren't able to get into their sets.

"I really thought all of our girls played well and we really executed the offense and got the ball to people in a position to score. One of the reasons they played so well is because they get an extra day off for the Christmas break."

MTSU senior forward Amber Holt was disappointed to find out LSU All-American center Sylvia Fowles was out with a knee injury Friday night.

"I really wanted to her play," said Holt. "I was kind of disappointed."

LSU was distraught, too, after Holt poured in a career-high 41 points to lead the Lady Raiders to a stunning 67-56 victory over the nation's eighth-ranked team before a crowd of 7,858 at Murphy Center.

Fowles, a 6-foot-6 center, was obviously missed, but the second largest crowd to ever witness a women's basketball game at Murphy Center saw Holt make her own bid for postseason honors.

MTSU (7-5) saw a 10-point second-half lead evaporate into a one-point deficit, 54-53, with 4:34 remaining, but the Lady Raiders outscored LSU 14-2 down the stretch.

After falling behind 54-53, Holt snatched an offensive rebound and kicked it out to Brandi Brown, who hit a 3-pointer out of the corner to give the Lady Raiders the lead for good.

Holt, who also had nine rebounds, made 15-of-26 shots and hit 11-of-12 at the free-throw line.

"I just came out focused," Holt said. "I have to do that, because whatever I do, my teammates gravitate to that. I just made baskets tonight."

Added LSU coach Van Chancellor: "Holt's a difficult matchup for us. We made up our mind that we were going to give Holt some points and try to take away the three ball. We just didn't realize that we were going to give Holt so many points."

Holt said previous road games at Tennessee, Maryland and Old Dominion prepared the Lady Raiders for the Lady Tigers.

"It prepared us real well and made our freshmen and younger players not be scared," she said. "(Freshman) Emily Queen had 12 rebounds tonight and she needs to do more of that."

MTSU struggled early, turning the ball over five times in the first five minutes, but LSU shot the ball poorly and never could get into a rhythm offensively.

Chancellor was hit with a technical foul with 42 seconds left after Quianna Chaney was call for a charging foul, which was her fifth.

MTSU cashed in on 22-of-29 free-throw attempts, while LSU made 6-of-9.

Although Holt was a one-person wrecking crew, MTSU got more contributions from her supporting cast in the second half. Brown had eight points, while senior guard Starr Orr and junior Johnna Abney scored five.

LSU (9-3) got 13 points from Allison Hightower and 11 from Chaney.

Two days after one of the more significant victories in program history, the MTSU women's basketball team was forced to play from behind — almost exclusively.

With the exception of the first 17 seconds, when the game was scoreless, and 15 seconds when it was 2-2, the Lady Raiders played catch-up with the University of Louisville before an enthusiastic crowd of 5,243 at Freedom Hall.

Try as they might — and they tried several different things — they never pulled even, let alone took the lead, and eventually fell 76-64 in their final non-conference game of the season.

They fell behind 10-2 in the first four minutes and trailed by 13 (33-20) with 4:07 to play in the first half. From there, they actually outscored the Lady Cardinals but never got even on the scoreboard, as the teams tested one another with similar philosophies and star power in a contest that featured the country's top two scorers — Holt and Louisville's Angel McCoughtry.

First, MTSU (7-6) turned to Holt to try and get back in the game. The senior forward scored four straight points and 12 of MTSU's next 22 over a 12-minute stretch (she also had two steals during that time) capped by a pair of baskets 24 seconds apart, which got the Lady Raiders within six, 50-44, with 12:24 to play.

From there, the Lady Raiders attempted to shoot their way to the finish, which proved fruitless. Chelsia Lymon's 3-pointer with 11:03 to play made it 50-47, which was as close as they got in the second half, but MTSU then missed six straight 3-pointers (by six different players) over the next three-and-a-half minutes.

For the game, the Lady Raiders made just 8-of-31 (25.8 percent) 3-point attempts.

Ultimately, Holt, the nation's leading scorer, finished with 32 points — half of MTSU's total.

Louisville (11-2), however, got 32 of its own from McCoughtry, but her total included two well-timed 3-pointers that turned back a pair of MTSU runs.

McCoughtry made just three 3-point baskets in the game, one with 18:17 left after the Lady Raiders had pulled within four, 37-33, and the last 24 seconds after Lymon's had made it a three-point game.

"You aren't going to see two better players on the floor for two teams than you did (Sunday)," Louisville coach Jeff Walz said. "Amber Holt is a kid who is an unbelievable basketball player. ... Then Angel, ... she had to step up and make some big shots — and she did."

In so doing, she saw to it that MTSU never caught up completely.

Whether or not there will be a shift in power in the Sun Belt Conference this season remains to be seen.

However, Western Kentucky stated its case that it will be a major player by beating MTSU's women, 85-81, before a crowd of 2,982 at E.A. Diddle Arena Thursday night.

"This rivalry goes back so far that it really feels good," said WKU senior post Crystal Kelly, who poured in 22 points and grabbed 14 rebounds.

MTSU, which has won four straight Sun Belt tournament titles, saw its 26-game winning streak against league foes snapped. It was just the second time in eight meetings the Lady Toppers had defeated the Lady Raiders, who dropped to 7-7 overall and 2-1 in the conference.

"Western Kentucky is a very good basketball team," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "I'm very proud of our team. We had two freshmen and two sophomores out there. ... I don't think they gave any trophies out tonight. ... They've got a good basketball team and we've got a good basketball team."

Western Kentucky led by as many as 10 points on three occasions in the second half, including 76-66 with 3:30 left before the Lady Raiders mounted a furious comeback.

MTSU sophomore Chelsia Lymon scored seven of her team's next nine points and the Lady Raiders finally tied the game at 79 with 1:05 remaining.

MTSU had a chance to take the lead but Holt missed a short jumper in the lane, and the Lady Toppers made four straight free throws.

Holt finished with a game-high 36 points, while Johnna Abney added 16 and Lymon 12.

WKU, which trailed 33-28 in the first half, put on an offensive clinic after intermission, as it continuously broke down MTSU's defense. The Lady Toppers (9-5, 2-0) made 17 of their first 21 shots in the second half (81 percent) and finished at a 77.3-percent clip after intermission. Forty-eight of their points came in the paint.

WKU dominated MTSU on the boards, outrebounding the Lady Raiders, 40-18. The Lady Toppers had 17 offensive rebounds and 21 second-chance points.

Brown scored 17 points off the bench and grabbed 14 rebounds, while Kenzie Rich also added 17 points.

WKU opened the game with an 8-2 spurt before MTSU scored 13 unanswered points to take a 15-8 lead with 9:56 remaining in the first half. The Lady Toppers went almost eight minutes without a point.

However, WKU cut the lead to 25-24 with 2:42 left before halftime. MTSU converted two turnovers into easy layups and built a five-point advantage, 33-28, at intermission.

Kelly and Duck, who guarded Holt, each picked up three fouls in the first half, while Abney and Starr Orr were whistled for three apiece for the Lady Raiders.

Amber Holt got her points, but she got plenty of help in MTSU's 93-55 whipping of Denver at Murphy Center Sunday afternoon.

Freshman forward Emily Queen scored a career-high 17 points and pulled down 11 rebounds, and freshman guard Anne Marie Lanning netted a career-high 18 as the Lady Raiders took out their frustrations on the Pioneers before a crowd of 3,307.

Coming off its first Sun Belt Conference loss in 27 games, an 85-81 defeat at Western Kentucky Thursday, MTSU (8-7, 3-1) took it to the Pioneers from the outset and had the game well in hand early.

Denver had 11 turnovers and made just one of six field goals in the first eight minutes, which helped MTSU jump out to a 15-3 lead.

"Rebounding and defense are what we've got to get better at," said MTSU coach Rick Insell, whose team outrebounded Denver, 39-30.

Holt, who leads the nation in scoring at 26.1 points per game, scored 24 despite sitting out 13 minutes. She had played 40 minutes in each of the previous three games.

Along with Queen's and Lanning's contributions, sophomore point guard Chelsia Lymon also added 12 points.

Queen made 4-of-6 from the field and hit all eight of her free throw attempts. She also had a team-high four steals.

"It felt good to come out in the second half and do better," Queen said. "I didn't come out ready to play in the first half.

"Coach has really been enforcing (having more point production from other players). If Amber comes out of the game, we've got to know we can score without her. We've been working on that."

Lanning hit 4-of-7 field-goal attempts, including three 3-pointers, and made 7-of-8 free throws. She said team members have talked among themselves about giving Holt more support.

"We've talked a lot about it, especially with Brandi (Brown) out (with a broken hand)," Lanning said. "Tonight we all stepped up and we need to keep doing that. (Holt) can do it all by herself, but she doesn't have to."

MTSU led 39-22 at halftime despite turning over the ball 14 times. However, Denver had 17 first-half turnovers and finished with 32. The Lady Raiders had just four in the second half.

"That's uncharacteristic for us," Insell said of the turnovers. "We had 12 the other night (at Western Kentucky) and scored 81 points and lost, and that's hard to do."

MTSU built a 24-point lead early in the second half before the Pioneers cut the deficit to 56-41 with 10:17 remaining. However, the Lady Raiders went on a 14-3 run over the next three minutes to take a 70-44 lead.

Denver, which dropped to 4-9 and 0-3, was led by Nnenna Akotaobi's 16 points. No other Pioneer scored in double figures.

MTSU finally got some sense knocked in it Thursday night at Murphy Center.

Actually, a hard foul that sent MTSU freshman Emily Queen sprawling to the floor seemingly was the wake-up call the Lady Raiders needed to rally for a 79-63 victory over Florida Atlantic before a crwod of 3,227.

With the Lady Raiders trailing 49-45 with 11:13 remaining, Queen was going in for a layup when she absorbed a hard foul that knocked her out of bounds.

Queen sank both free throws, which ignited a 12-2 spurt to give the Lady Raiders a 59-51 lead with 6:29 left. Queen scored six of the points during the decisive run.

Holt had 29 points, nine rebounds, a career-high eight steals and four assists, while Queen scored 14 points and pulled down a career-high 15 rebounds.

MTSU improved to 9-7 overall and 4-1 in the Sun Belt Conference, while FAU slipped to 4-9 and 0-4.

"Give them a lot of credit," Insell said of the Owls. "They came in with a good gameplan and they stuck to it."

MTSU struggled mightily throughout offensively and trailed the Owls, 47-38, with 14:30 remaining.

However, FAU turned the ball over four straight possessions during one point and went without a field goal from the 10:59 mark until 6:10 remaining.

"You could tell they were getting kind of down," Queen said.

The Lady Raiders suffered through a horrific first half offensively. Holt scored 15 of MTSU's 29 first-half points, making 5-of-9 shots. The rest of the team hit a collective 6-of-27, and the Lady Raiders made only 1-of-12 from 3-point range. They hit just 3-of-20 overall.

"We just came out in the second half and took our time," said Holt. "The first half was just horrible. ... (Insell) got on me. My teammates gravitate to me and what I do. .. We didn't panic."

Added Insell: "We were not playing our game. Everybody took their turn shooting the ball, and that's not our team."

FAU led 36-29 at halftime. However, the Owls had 18 turnovers in the second half, and after outrebounding MTSU 28-19 in the first half, they were outrebounded 21-12 in the second.

MTSU made 26-of-33 at the free throw line, including 20-of-24 in the second half. FAU hit 9-of-10 at the free-throw line in the first half, but didn't attempt one in the second.

"We played hard," said FAU coach Chancellor Dugan. "They got to the free throw line and did what they did. I am not going to take anything away from Middle Tennessee because they are a great team. When you send a team like that to the line 33 times and we don't get to the free throw line in the second half, it's crap."

MTSU freshman Anne Marie Lanning scored 12 points, while sophomore point guard Chelsia Lymon added 10, four steals and three assists.
