Closer look at Troy

Troy features the Sun Belt's highest scoring offense at 82.1 points per game and it is led by guard O'Darien Bassett's 18.8 points per game. Justin Jonus is the only other Trojan in double figures, averaging 12.3 points per game. Troy is 8-8 overall but it is 1-4 in Sun Belt Conference games after being swept on the recent road trip to Florida International and Florida Atlantic. The Trojans beat defending Sun Belt champion North Texas, 91-88, for their only league win to date. Troy has enjoyed most of its success at home, going 7-1 on its homecourt. Much of the Trojans offense is generated by the 3-point shot. They attempt 26.5 3-pointers per game and 39 percent of their 1094 field goals attempted this season have been 3-point shots.

Teams have split previous six meetings

Middle Tennessee picked the best time to notch its first win against Troy as a Sun Belt member when the Blue Raiders turned back the Trojans, 72-64, in a first-round SBC Tournament game at Troy last season. The Trojans had won the first three meetings against Middle Tennessee since joining the Sun Belt in 2005-06, taking the only regular-season contest in 05-06 and sweeping the regular-season series in 06-07, before the Blue Raiders captured their third meeting of 06-07 in the first round of the SBC Tournament. Including Wednesday's game, four of the five meetings between the teams have taken place in Troy, Ala. The series, which began with a Blue Raider win in 1970, is even at 3-3.

Non-conference schedule among toughest in nation

Middle Tennessee Coach Kermit Davis has not hesitated to put his team up against tough non-conference schedules in his six seasons leading the Blue Raiders and it seems to pay off as the grueling early-season slate has generally prepared the team for league play. This season; however, the Blue Raiders have faced the daunting task without two-thirds of their projected starting backcourt as all-conference performer Adam Vogelsberg opted not to play his senior season due to excessive injuries and surgeries and junior Calvin O'Neil suffered a season-ending knee injury in the season opener. Middle Tennessee's non-conference strength of schedule is ranked No. 14 nationally out of 341 Division I teams in the Pomeroy ratings, and it is rated the most difficult among all Sun Belt teams by Pomeroy, Sagarin and RealTime RPI ratings. Louisiana-Monroe's strength of schedule is No. 28 and South Alabama is 74th. Middle Tennessee, ULM and South Alabama are the only Sun Belt teams in the top 100 for non-conference strength of schedule in the Pomeroy ratings. The Blue Raiders also played the league's toughest schedule in 2006-07, finishing the season at No. 43 in the final RPI Report. Included in the non-conference slate this season is Memphis and Tennessee, which are ranked first and third, respectively in the Pomeroy ratings for national RPI. Middle Tennessee's non-conference foes certainly have put up impressive numbers this season. The Blue Raiders' eight Division I non-conference opponents have a combined 80-39 record for a 67 percent winning clip, and seven of the eight teams have winning records. The only one that does not - Lipscomb - is -7-9.

These numbers more like it

Middle Tennessee's defense has made steady improvement throughout the season and the results are paying off in Sun Belt play. After giving up 75 or more points seven times to non-conference foes the Blue Raiders have held four of five league teams to 63 points or less. Non-conference foes averaged 77 points and shot 49 percent from the field against the Blue Raiders, but Middle Tennessee is allowing just 61.4 points per game in Sun Belt play - which ranks second in league-games only for scoring defense. The Blue Raiders rank fifth in league-games only for field goal percentage defense (.432 percent) and they are second for 3-point field goal percentage defense (.289).

Blue Raiders reverse fortunes, enjoy Sun Belt success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under sixth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the fourth-best winning percentage (56 percent) and the fourth-most wins (50) among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Western Kentucky (63), Louisiana-Lafayette (60) and South Alabama (51) are the only SBC members with more league wins than Middle Tennessee during this stretch. Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined.

League record of SBC members since 2002-03 season (including SBC Tourn.)

Middle Tennessee is among SBC's best winning away from home

One of the biggest reasons for Middle Tennessee's turn-around in the Sun Belt has been its ability to win on the road. Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring in 2002, Middle Tennessee was 2-17 on the road in SBC games but the Blue Raiders have 21 SBC road wins since - the second most road victories of any SBC member during his five-plus seasons leading the program. Middle Tennessee, South Alabama, Louisiana-Lafayette and Western Kentucky are the only Sun Belt teams with road records of .500 or better since the start of the 2002-03 season. The Blue Raiders were 5-4 in SBC road games in 2006-07.

Kermit Davis File

In five-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is third on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 89.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 77th victory at UALR (01/20/07). He finished 2006-07 with 83 career victories and he moved into third on the all-time wins list with career win 85 vs. Tennessee Wesleyan (11/23/07). He currently has 89 wins. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.539) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces third-best wins mark after 150 games

Kermit Davis coached in 150 games in his first five seasons as Middle Tennessee's head coach and his 83-67 mark in those contests represent the third most wins for a Blue Raider head coach in his first 150 games. Bruce Stewart (101-49) and Jimmy Earle (89) are the only former Blue Raider coaches with more wins in their first 150 games.

Davis notches career win 225

Kermit Davis secured his 225th win as a head coach when Middle Tennessee beat Denver, 68-50 (1/5/08) at Murphy Center. Davis owns 160 wins in his 10th season at the Division I level and he won 66 in three years as a junior college head coach and currently has 226 career victories as a head coach.

No sophomore slump for Yates

Forward Desmond Yates enjoyed a successful debut campaign at the collegiate level in 2006-07, finishing the season as Middle Tennessee's second-leading scorer at 10.9 points per game and shooting 54 percent from the field. He was one of the Sun Belt's top freshmen and played in all 32 games for the Blue Raiders, starting 18. The Somerville, Tenn., native has improved his numbers across the board in 2007-08. He is currently the team's leading scorer at 13.3 points per game and he is averaging a hefty 17.8 points in Sun Belt games, which is fourth among league players. Yates is ranked 13th in the league scoring race for all games and he is currently among the SBC leaders in field goal percentage (sixth, .549), and free-throw percentage (fourth, .868).

Yates' scoring binges key victories

Desmond "Boogie" Yates tied his career high with 23 points in Middle Tennessee's 72-63 win against Florida International (12/18/07), and he matched it again with 23 in the 68-50 win vs. Denver (01/05/08), marking the eighth time the high-scoring sophomore has topped the 20-point mark. The Blue Raiders are 6-2 in those games. They were 3-1 last season and they are 3-1 so far this season when he scores 20 or more. The only losses were to Arkansas State last season and at Houston earlier this season. Yates has eight career games with 20 or more points and he has registered four in the last nine games. He scored 20-plus in consecutive games for the second time in his career with 21 at Houston (12/1) and 20 against Belmont (12/12). Yates has scored double figures in 29 of 47 career games. He surpassed the 525-point mark in his 46th career game vs. Denver.

Yates not turning down charity in recent games

Ranked among the Sun Belt's leaders all season in free throw percentage, sophomore Desmond Yates' recent success at the line has allowed him to continually climb up the list. Yates had a stretch of 14 consecutive makes snapped earlier this season at South Alabama. He has connected on 30 of his last 32 attempts (94 percent) at the charity stripe. For the season, Yates is connecting on 87 percent (33-of-38) of his free-throw attempts, which is good for fourth in the Sun Belt for all games, and his 89.5 percent showing in league games only (17-19) is seventh in the league standings. Yates shot just 71.6 percent (48-of-67) from the free-throw line last season as a freshman.

Hudson enjoying career year

Middle Tennessee junior center Theryn Hudson has continued his development under Head Coach Kermit Davis and is enjoying a career year. Hudson, who only started playing basketball competitively as a junior at nearby La Vergne High School, has shown significant increases in all statistical categories. He had a career-high 13 rebounds at Western Kentucky (1/2/08). The 6-foot-10 Hudson is third in the Sun Belt in shooting percentage with a personal-best 61.0 percent (61-100) showing and his 5.8 rebounds per game are 13th in the SBC and 2.3 caroms per game higher than his career average of 3.5. Hudson also has developed into a more consistent scorer and his 9.6 per game average is almost four points higher than his 5.8 career scoring average. He has registered six of his 14 career double-figure scoring games this season.

Hudson has been lights out from field

Junior Theryn Hudson is fourth in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage with a 61.0 percent clip (61-of-100) showing; and his 58.5 career field goal percentage is third all-time at Middle Tennessee. The 6-foot-10 center has been on a tear over the last five games. During this stretch, Hudson is shooting 61 percent (20-of-33) from the field. He was 8-of-11 from the field in a win vs. Belmont, and he is shooting 61.3 percent (19-of-31), which is also third in league games only. Hudson, a native of nearby La Vergne, Tenn., has been particularly hot inside the Murphy Center where he is averaging 11 points, seven rebounds and shooting 75 percent (39-of-52) in nine games at the facility this season.

Hudson, Yates form dynamic duo

Middle Tennessee improved to 4-0 this season when center Theryn Hudson and forward Desmond Yates both score in double figures following their performances in Middle Tennessee's 68-50 win against Denver (1/5/08). Yates tied his career high of 23 points on 10-of-13 shooting from the field, while Hudson added 11 points and led the team in rebounds with six. They have also scored double figures in the same games vs. Tennessee Wesleyan (Yates -14, Hudson - 11), vs. Belmont (Yates - 20, Hudson - 16), and Florida International (Yates - 23, Hudson - 16).

Success begins inside for Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee has been its most successful when Theryn Hudson and Desmond Yates play well. In the Blue Raiders' six wins, the inside duo is averaging 29.0 points and 10.5 rebounds; however, in the team's nine losses they have combined to average just 18.7 points and 8.8 rebounds.

Blue Raiders carry on without O'Neil, Vogelsberg

Middle Tennessee is down two scholarship players it was counting on heavily prior to the 2007-08 season. Junior guard Calvin O'Neil underwent surgery on his right knee (12/7) and has begun rehab with athletic trainer Drew Shea. O'Neil suffered the season-ending injury in the season opener against San Jose State. Regarded as the team's top perimeter defender and all-around leader, O'Neil entered the season with 53 career games in his first two seasons, including 24 starts. Vogelsberg took a redshirt for the 2006-07 season after suffering a broken bone in his right foot prior to the start of the season. After taking additional time off during the summer to recover from three different surgeries in as many years, Vogelsberg informed Head Coach Kermit Davis of his decision to bypass his senior season citing the excessive injuries and pain to his body as the reasons. Vogelsberg led the team in scoring as a junior in 2005-06 and earned All-Sun Belt Conference. He was also a preseason all-SBC pick in 2006-07.

Kanaskie climbing career charts

Kevin Kanaskie is making a move on the Middle Tennessee career records charts with two seasons remaining. The State College, Pa., led the Blue Raiders with nine assists vs. Denver (01/05/08) and moved into sixth on the career assists list with 306, passing James Johnson (313) in the process, and now has 317. He needs 10 more assists to pass Chris Rainey for fifth all-time. He is one of eight Blue Raiders to have 300 or more assists in a career. Kanaskie moved into eighth on the career 3-point field goals made list with 103 after connecting for three against Denver (01/05/08). He has connected on 20 long-range shots so far this season and is one of only 10 players in school history to have 100 or more 3-pointers during their career. Kanaskie has hit at least one 3-pointer in 33 of the last 36 games, dating to last season. The junior guard reached the 625-point mark of his career with eight vs. Western Kentucky (01/02/08).

Hudson cracks career marks

Center Theryn Hudson is starting to come into his own as one of the SBC's top big men in his third season in the Blue Raider program. Hudson's .585 career field goal percentage is currently third on the all-time Middle Tennessee list. He is second in the Sun Belt for field goal percentage this season with a .610 percent showing. Hudson is also tied for eighth on the career blocks list at Middle Tennessee with 47.

Kanaskie named to All-Sun Belt team

Middle Tennessee junior guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the preseason All-Sun Belt Conference team, earning a spot on the third team in a vote of league coaches. He was named to the All-SBC team in 2006-07 after becoming the only player in Middle Tennessee history to lead the team in scoring (12.2), 3-point field goals made (67), and assists (185) in the same season. He led the Sun Belt in assists and assist/turnover ratio. Kanaskie scored double figures in 20 games and led the team in scoring 13 times.

Kanaskie proves it's not whether you start

Junior guard Kevin Kanaskie had his streak of 50 consecutive starts snapped when he was not in the starting lineup vs. Belmont (12/12) after suffering a hip flexor earlier in the week. He was not expected to play against the Bruins Wednesday but he urged coach Kermit Davis to give him a chance. Davis did and Kanaskie came off the bench, played 31 minutes and scored a season-high 16 points in the Blue Raiders' 86-80 overtime win. Kanaskie was 11-of-13 from the free throw line, establishing career highs for makes and attempts from the charity stripe, and he tied his season high with six rebounds in the triumph.

Middle Tennessee was picked to finish third in the SBC East Division in a preseason vote of the league's head coaches. The Blue Raiders received 51 points in the voting to finish behind Western Kentucky and South Alabama, respectively. Louisiana-Monroe was the favorite to win the West.

Green providing outside scoring threat

Junior transfer Demetrius Green has provided the Blue Raiders with a strong outside shooting threat of late and his shooting prowess from beyond the arc has him among the league's best perimeter players. He has hit multiple 3-pointers in five games. Green connected for a career-high four 3-pointers in five attempts against Austin Peay (12/29/07) and he is shooting 44 percent from 3-point range over the last five games.

Blue Raiders enjoy one of best shooting halves ever

Middle Tennessee's 72.7 second-half shooting percentage against Denver was the third-highest in school history for one half and the highest shooting mark for a Blue Raider team in more than 25 years. The single-half record for field goal percentage is 83 percent vs. Akron (2/4/82) and second is 80 percent vs. Tennessee Tech (1/8/81). Each of those marks were also established in the second half. Middle Tennessee's hot-shooting performance in the second half included hitting 13-of-14 shots during one stretch. After the first shot of the half was off the mark, Middle Tennessee players hit six straight before their next miss and then followed with seven consecutive makes before missing another field. Yates was 5-of-5 in the second half, while Demetrius Green was 5-of-6 and Kevin Kanaskie was 3-of-4.

Green enjoys best game vs. Austin Peay

Junior guard Demetrius Green has provided Middle Tennessee with its most consistent guard play and he delivered his best game as a Blue Raider vs. Austin Peay (12/29/07). Green scored a career-best 24 points - the most points by a Blue Raider this season - and he also established career bests for 3-point field goals made (4) and attempted (5). The Lexington, Ky., native was 10-of-13 from the free-throw line, also personal bests.

Blue Raiders finding 3-point stroke

Middle Tennessee knocked down a season-high nine 3-point field goals against Austin Peay (12/29/07) with junior guard Demetrius Green leading the way with a career-best four treys. The Blue Raiders were 9-of-20 from behind the arc for a 45 percent clip. The nine 3-pointers were the most for the Blue Raiders since they connected for the same amount at Troy (2/22/07) and were just one shy of the most they made in a game all of last season. The Blue Raiders continued their shooting trend vs. Denver when they shot a season-high 62.5 percent beyond the arc (5-of-8). Middle Tennessee's top three shooting games beyond the arc this season have taken place in the last five contests and the Blue Raiders are shooting 40 percent as a team from 3-point range during this stretch. The top long-range shooters over the last five games are: Desmond Yates (4-7, 57 percent), Josh Sain (7-14, 50 percent), and Demetrius Green (7-16, 44 percent).

Hudson, Yates deserve high five

Junior center Theryn Hudson and sophomore forward Desmond Yates have been a strong one-two punch for the Blue Raiders all season but they have been particularly strong over the last five games. They have combined to shoot 56 percent (59-91) from the field, 72 percent (26-of-36) from the free-throw line, averaging 10.0 rebounds and 26.4 points per game during this five-game span. Yates is averaging a team-high 16.4 points while shooting 53 percent in the last five games, and he is shooting 57 percent (4-of-7) from 3-point range, as well as 89 percent (16-of-18) from the free-throw line. Hudson is averaging 10 points, 7.4 rebounds and shooting 61 percent (20-33) from the field in these five games.

Blue Raider defense strong vs. No. 2 Memphis

After being lit up on the scoreboard and in regard to defensive field goal percentage in the early going, Middle Tennessee's defense has been more representative in the last four games. The Blue Raiders continued their strong defensive play against No. 2 Memphis, holding the high-octane Tigers to 65 points, which was almost 20 points below their 82-point-per-game average. The Blue Raiders held the Tigers' two leading scorers - Chris Douglas-Roberts and Derrick Rose to 17 points below their combined season average of 36 points per game between them. After holding Memphis to 65 points, Middle Tennessee clamped down and allowed just 63 points to Florida International.

Blue Raider defense - Part II

Middle Tennessee's defense pitched another gem at Western Kentucky in a 62-51 setback (1/2/08). The Blue Raiders held the high-octane Hilltoppers to 45.3 percent shooting, four 3-pointers, and the 62 points were not only the second fewest they had scored overall all season and the fewest they have scored at Diddle Arena this season. The 62 points were also 17 below their season average of 79 entering the game. Key in the defensive showpiece was the play of Darren Avery and Demetrius Green, who teamed to limit Courtney Lee to six points - 15 below the 21 he was averaging entering the game.

Who says you can't get something for free?

Middle Tennessee took advantage of charity in its 86-80 overtime win against Belmont (12/12) when the Blue Raiders shot a sizzling 93 percent (26-of-28) from the charity stripe. In fact, Kevin Kanaskie, who set career marks for free throws made (11) and attempted (13) in the game was the only Blue Raider to miss from the free-throw line. Demetrius Green was 6-of-6 in the game and Desmond Yates connected on all four of his attempts. Yates had a stretch of 15 straight free throws made snapped against South Alabama and he has hit 27 of the last 29 overall.

Don't count them out

Middle Tennessee has been a strong offensive team in the second half of games so far this season. The Blue Raiders are averaging almost 40 points (37.1) after intermission. They have scored 41 or more points in the second half six times, including 51 vs. Tennessee Wesleyan, 48 vs. Appalachian State, 47 vs. San Jose State, 44 vs. Houston, 41 vs. South Alabama, and 41 vs. Denver.

80 points or more is usually good news for Blue Raiders

When Middle Tennessee has been able to light up the scoreboard under Head Coach Kermit Davis the results have been staggering. Middle Tennessee has won 96 percent of the 27 games in which it has scored 80 or more points in Davis' five-plus seasons. The Blue Raiders are 26-1 in such games, including a 2-0 mark this season. The only time Middle Tennessee failed to win under Davis when scoring more than 80 was an 85-83 overtime setback at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005. The Blue Raiders have won 11 straight overall when scoring 80 or more points.

Outshooting opposition a key

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 73-9 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher than the opponent. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo last season, despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 46 of the last 53 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Sain providing big spark off Blue Raider bench

Freshman Josh Sain has been a consistent contributor off the Blue Raider bench in the early going and he enjoyed his best game so far with 13 points, four rebounds, and 20 minutes - all career highs - vs. South Alabama (12/22/07). Sain once again established a new career high for minutes played in his next game when he logged 26 vs. Austin Peay to go along with 10 points. It marked the first time he has scored double figures in consecutive games in his young college career. He led the Blue Raiders in scoring and rebounding for the first time in his career at South Alabama. He had a career-high five rebounds vs. Denver (01/05/08). Sain is averaging 6.4 points and his 45 percent (13-of-29) shooting clip from beyond the 3-point arc leads all Blue Raider guards.

Green strong in Raider debut

Junior guard Demetrius Green's long-awaited debut lived up the hype. Green sat out the 2006-07 season after transferring from Daytona Beach Community College but he made up for lost time with a sensational debut for the Blue Raiders. Green scored 17 points and pulled six rebounds, both game highs, against San Jose State in the season opener. He was 6-of-6 from the field, including 2-of-2 from 3-point range.

Blue Raiders ink two during NCAA Early Signing Period

Middle Tennessee signed two players to national letters of intent during the NCAA Early Signing Period, which began Wednesday (11/14). The Blue Raiders landed in-state prospect DeMario Williams from Culleoka High School, and they also signed Aundra Williams, a highly-regarded forward from Orlando, Fla. DeMario Williams is a top-10 prospect in Tennessee and he averaged 18 points, eight assists and eight rebounds in 2006-07. The 6-3 point guard is a two-time Mr. Basketball Finalist. He is one of two players to be named Mr. Basketball Finalist in Tennessee as a sophomore and junior. The other was former North Carolina standout and NBA first-round pick Brandan Wright. Aundra Williams is a 6-8, 235-pound forward at Boone High in Orlando, Fla.
