THE SERIES

■ Saturday's football game between Middle Tennessee and Maryland will be the fourth meeting on the gridiron between the two schools. The series, which began in 2000, is led by Maryland, 2-1. The Terps won an offensive battle in 2000 at Byrd Stadium, 45-27, then took a 24-10 decision in 2006 at College Park. The Blue Raiders picked up their first win in the series last year at Floyd Stadium, 24-14.

BLUE RAIDERS VS ACC

■ Middle Tennessee will be playing only its ninth game against a team from the Atlantic Coast Conference when it takes on Maryland at Byrd Stadium on Saturday. The Blue Raiders are 1-7 in games played against ACC members with the most recent meeting being this year's season opener at Clemson. The lone MT win against the ACC came last year at Floyd Stadium over Maryland, 24-14. The Blue Raiders lost in the final seconds to Virginia in 2007, 23-21 and have also fallen to N.C. State (1989), Maryland (2000), Clemson (2003), N.C. State (2005), Maryland (2006), and Clemson (2009). This marks the fifth straight year the Blue Raiders have faced a team from the ACC and that will extend to six next season when they travel to Atlanta to take on Georgia Tech.

FACING THE BEST ... A LOT

■ Saturday's game against Maryland will be the 35th game by the Blue Raiders against a team from either the ACC, Big East, SEC, Big 10, Big 12 or PAC-10 since joining the FBS (I-A) in 1999 (118 total games). Following an upset win over Maryland last season, the Blue Raiders are now 4-30 in those games. The Blue Raiders face three teams from those leagues in 2009 and have tallied at least three games against those conferences each year since 1999 except for 2004 when they had just one contest.

BANKS COMING HOME

■ Middle Tennessee backup quarterback and wide receiver Andrew Banks will be going back home when the Blue Raiders take on Maryland Saturday. The former invited walk-on is from Clinton, MD and played at Gwynn Park High School which is only 23 miles from the Maryland campus. Banks quarterbacked Gwynn Park to a 14-0 record his senior year.

BLUE RAIDERS SET ATTENDANCE RECORD

■ Middle Tennessee drew 28,105 in its home opener last week against Memphis to set a new Floyd Stadium record. The Blue Raiders broke the previous record of 27,568 set on Sept. 5, 1998 against Tennessee State. Under Rick Stockstill, six of the top 10 single-game attendance marks have been established with all six coming since 2007.

BLUE RAIDERS OWN MOST LEAGUE WINS IN SBC HISTORY

■ Middle Tennessee has an overall mark of 31-24 in Sun Belt action all-time, including a 19-9 mark at home and a 12-15 record on the road. Middle Tennessee is 13-8 in league games under Rick Stockstill and 6-5 on the road. The 31 league wins equals the most victories in Sun Belt history with North Texas (next in line is 26 wins by ASU).

LONG SCORING DRIVES

■ Middle Tennessee's nine play, 96-yard scoring drive against Memphis went down as the second longest under Rick Stockstill. Since Stockstill took the reins in 2006, the Blue Raiders have put together four scoring drives of 90 or more yards with two coming in 2007, one in 2008, and the one last week. In 2007, the Blue Raiders had a 99-yard scoring drive at ULM and then a 91 yarder in the same game before putting together a 91-yard drive at Louisville. The 96 yarder against Memphis went down as the longest under Stockstill at home.

DOUBLE D IS DOUBLE TROUBLE

■ Quarterback Dwight Dasher is showing the type threat he can be both passing and running. After two games, Dasher leads the Sun Belt Conference and ranks 20th nationally in total offense with 292.5 yards per game and has accounted for 80 percent of the team's total yards during that span (585 of 735 yards). Dasher, who also leads the Blue Raiders in rushing, has been efficient in the passing game as well. The Folkston, Ga., native threw for 231 yards and two touchdowns in the win over Memphis to give him back-to-back 200-yard passing games for the first time in his career. When Dasher tops the 200-yard mark in passing the Blue Raiders are 3-1 with the lone loss coming at Clemson earlier this season.

DASHER ON THE GROUND

■ QB Dwight Dasher has amped up Middle Tennessee's ground game with a team-high 150 yards after two games. That total leads all signal-callers in the Sun Belt Conference and ranks fifth most overall. The junior enters the Maryland game with 872 career rushing yards and needs just 128 more to reach the 1,000-yard plateau. The most rushing yards by a quarterback in school history is 1,652 (Marvin Collier - 1985-88). Dasher has started eight games under center and the Blue Raiders have averaged 155.75 yards rushing in those games with a per carry average of 3.7 (339 carries, 1,246 yards).

DEFENSE OFF TO GOOD START

■ Despite games against Clemson and Memphis, the Blue Raider defense has more than held its own early in 2009. The unit is allowing just 290.0 yards of total offense per game and has forced four turnovers while collecting 15 tackles for loss and three sacks. The defense has also excelled in the passing game where they are allowing just 142.5 yards a contest through the air to rank 21st nationally and first in the Sun Belt Conference. The most important defensive stat is points allowed and the Blue Raiders are giving up 25.5 per game but when you take the two special teams scores away at Clemson, the unit is allowing just 18.5 per game.

'CUTT PACING RECEIVERS

■ Wide receiver Patrick Honeycutt, who shared the team lead a year ago with 51 receptions, is off to his best start as a Blue Raider. The senior enters the Maryland game with a team-high nine receptions for 88 yards and a touchdown compared to two catches this time in 2008. The senior now has 88 career receptions and needs 11 more to tie Matt Lowe for 10th place on the all-time list.

BLISSARD CONTINUES TO SURPRISE

■ Walk-on wide receiver Shane Blissard has made the most of his collegiate debut. The former Oakland High School star owns six receptions for a team-high 114 yards and a touchdown after his first two college games. Blissard, a

MCCOY COMES UP BIG

■ Senior defensive end Chris McCoy picked a good time to come up with his first collegiate touchdown. Early in the second quarter against Clemson, McCoy picked up a fumble by QB Willy Korn and went 68 yards untouched to the end zone to make the score 10-7, Tigers. It was McCoy's fourth career fumble return and the first return for a touchdown by the Blue Raiders since Rod Issac went 42 yards on Oct. 20, 2007 against Arkansas State. McCoy's score was the sixth defensive score under Rick Stockstill and the 68 yards also went down as the longest.

TWO EYEING CENTURY MARK

■ Only nine receivers in school history have reached triple figures in career receptions and two players on the 2009 team could reach that plateau. Desmond Gee enters the Maryland game with 84 career receptions, while Patrick Honeycutt owns 88. The last time Middle Tennessee had two players on the same team top the 100 reception mark in the same season was 2005 when both Cleannord Saintil and Chris Henry topped the mark.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

■ Under Rick Stockstill, the Blue Raiders have excelled in the always important turnover margin department. In 39 games of the Stockstill era, MT is +21 in turnover margin. The Blue Raiders ranked 12th nationally in 2007 with a +11 margin while recording a +7 margin in 2006. The Blue Raiders were +3 last year to rank 43rd nationally. Over the last 19 games combined, the Blue Raiders are an impressive +16 in turnover margin. However, MT is even after two games in 2009.

MR. ALL-PURPOSE APPROACHING TOP 10

■ Senior Desmond Gee, a two-time all-conference performer, has been the ultimate all-purpose player during his career at Middle Tennessee and it shows in his statistics. The Greenville, Fla., product has seen time as a running back, wide receiver, punt returner, and kickoff returner on his way to 3,299 career all-purpose yards to rank 11th all-time at MT. Gee, who registered 127 all-purpose yards at Clemson, needs 81 more all-purpose yards to tie Demetric Mostiller for 10th place all-time. The all-time leader at Middle Tennessee is Joe Campbell who had 4,551 yards from 1988 to 1991.

MEDIA INFORMATION ON THE AIR

■ The 2009 football season marks the fourth year of the Blue Raider Network under the umbrella of a joint venture between Middle Tennessee athletics and Nelligan Sports Marketing. Joining the network this year is sports radio 560 AM (WNSR) in Nashville. All Blue Raider programming will also be carried on WNSR's sister station, WNTC FM (103.9) in Bowling Green, Ky. Middle Tennessee fans throughout the southeast region also can follow the Blue Raiders on WMOT FM 89.5 (100,000 watts), which reaches a three-state coverage area. The WGNS (1450 AM) family of stations (1450 AM, 100.5 FM, 101.9 FM and TV 11) will carry all Blue Raider football and men's and women's basketball games along with the Rick Stockstill, Kermit Davis, and Rick Insell radio shows. The combination of these three stations provides coverage to Middle Tennessee sports fans in a 100-mile radius of Murfreesboro.

ON THE NET

■ All Blue Raider football games can be heard over the internet by clicking on GoBlueRaiders.com. A link will be made available on the front page over on the righthand side.

RICK STOCKSTILL LIVE

■ Coach Rick Stockstill's weekly call-in show, Rick Stockstill LIVE, airs each Monday night (with the exception of Oct. 5) from 7 to 8 PM from Coaches Grill in Murfreesboro. The show will be aired on 560 AM, WMOT FM 89.5and WGNS 1450 AM, locally with Chip Walters serving as host. The call-in number is 1-866-RAIDERS.

FLOYD STADIUM

The home of Middle Tennessee football since 1933, Floyd Stadium has grown its original capacity from a facility with just a few portable bleachers to the present-day 30,788.

Floyd Stadium has undergone numerous renovations to make it one of the top facilities in the Sun Belt Conference and the region. New synthetic turf was installed during the summer of 2006 and the most recent addition was a state-of-the-art video board that was erected in 2007 to go along with new outdoor suites in the north endzone.

The Blue Raiders own an overall record of 258-102-13 at Floyd stadium and have won 18 of their last 25 in the facility.

2009 marks the 76th Year of the stadium

GEE IS ALL-TIME LEADER

■ Middle Tennessee senior Desmond Gee is the all-time leader for the Blue Raiders in kickoff returns and kickoff return yards. The Greenville, Fla., product now owns 74 career returns for a total of 1,464 yards.

SMALL SENIOR CLASS ... AGAIN

■ Last year, Middle Tennessee joined Alabama as having the fewest number of scholarship seniors in the country with nine and the Blue Raiders are in the same conversation in 2009. The Blue Raiders are tied for ninth nationally with just 13 seniors (6 offense, 6 defense, 1 special teams) and lead the SBC with the fewest number of final year players.

YOUNG GUNS

■ Middle Tennessee enters the Maryland game with only 73 available scholarship players and 44 of those are either freshmen or sophomores. The breakdown reads 12 seniors, 17 juniors, 17 sophomores, five r-freshmen and 22 true freshmen. The scholarship players not available due to injury are WR Michael Cannon, DB Jawan Carson, DE Jarrett Crittenton, OL Jeremy Michel, RB Wesley Hale, and RB Phillip Tanner.

KELLEM HAS A NOSE FOR THE BALL

■ Junior safety Jeremy Kellem has a knack for always being around the football. In 2008, Kellem registered two interceptions, two fumble recoveries, forced three fumbles, and blocked a punt while ranking third on the team in total tackles. For his career, Kellem has been responsible for 15 turnovers in 26 games played (five interceptions, three fumble recoveries, five forced fumbles, and two blocked punt).

SECOND HALF IS THE KEY

■ In 21 Sun Belt Conference games under Rick Stockstill, the Blue Raiders have outscored the opposition in the second half, 243-210. In 2006, MT won the second half battle, 101-38, then were outscored in the last two quarters in 2007, 85-54. The Blue Raiders held a slim 88-87 advantage in 2008. When Middle Tennessee outscores its SBC opponent in the second half it carries a mark of 8-0 and have a record of 3-6 when the opponent puts up more points than the Blue Raiders in the final two periods (the three wins were against FIU, twice, and ULM). On the road in SBC play the Blue Raiders have won the second half scoring, 170-132, in 11 games.

SUN BELT VS BIG SIX

■ Since the Sun Belt Conference added football in 2001, the league has picked up 11 wins against teams from the Big Six conferences. The league has had at least one win against the Big Six in every year except 2006 and had two wins in 2008 (MT over Maryland, ASU over Texas A&M). Middle Tennessee owns four of those wins to lead the league.

■ SBC vs BIG SIX
2001 MT 37, Vanderbilt 28
2002 MT 21, Vanderbilt 20
2003 North Texas 52, Baylor 14

2008 Arkansas State 18, Texas A&M 14
2008 MT 24, Maryland 14
2009 ULL 17, Kansas State 15

CARMICHAEL LOOKING FOR 200

■ Danny Carmichael, who has started 23 games at linebacker, is trying to become the first Blue Raider to top the 200-tackle mark since LB Keith Pauldo racked up 205 in 2000. Carmichael enters the Maryland game with 179 career stops after leading the Blue Raiders in 2008 with 89 tackles. The Woodstock, Ga., native also owns 22 career TFLs which is just three shy of equalling the eighth most in school history.

GENDREAU MR. CONSISTENT

■ Sophomore place-kicker Alan Gendreau has been a model of consistency in his 14 career games. The Apopka, Fla., product has connected on 11 of 15 career field goals and has made all 38 of his extra points. During one stretch of 2008, Gendreau equalled the school record by hitting eight straight three-pointers, including three against Mississippi State. Gendreau, who scored 10 points in games against Mississippi State and North Texas, owns 71 career points.

THE FLORIDA SECONDARY

■ One of the most experienced and strongest areas on the 2009 Blue Raiders is in the secondary where all four starters hail from the state of Florida. Alex Suber (Tampa), Kevin Brown (Tampa), Rod Issac (Miami), and Jeremy Kellem (North Lauderdale) own a combined 69 starts with Suber (24) and Kellem (19) accounting for 43. The group, which owns 13 total interceptions, are allowing just 142.5 passing yards per game to rank 21st nationally.

100 YARDS IS THE KEY

■ Being able to run the football is paramount, especially at Middle Tennessee. During its history, Middle Tennessee owns an impressive 129-48-1 (.727) record when a back gains 100 or more yards rushing. Under Rick Stockstill, a Blue Raider has reached the 100-yard mark five times and the team has a 4-1 mark in those games. On the flip side, the Blue Raiders are 15-7 all-time when a quarterback throws for 300 or more yards (1-1 under Stockstill).

BOWL PARTNERS

In addition to the Sun Belt Conference's tie-in with the BCS, the league has been a proud and successful partner with the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl since its inception in 2001. A team from the Sun Belt Conference will play a Conference USA opponent on December 20th in the Louisiana Superdome in that game. Additionally, teams from the Sun Belt Conference can be selected to play in the Papajohns.com Bowl, St. Petersburg Bowl, and Independence Bowl if the primary contracted partners are unable to fulfill their obligations to those bowl games.

TANNER, THOMPSON GAIN NATIONAL RECOGNITION

■ Seniors Phillip Tanner and Mark Thompson have been recognized nationally and are candidates for two prestigious awards. Tanner is one of 45 players on the 2009 Doak Walker Watch List which presents its annual award to the nation's best running back, while Thompson is on the Rimington Trophy Watch List which honors the country's best center.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS UNDER STOCKSTILL

■ Since his arrival, Rick Stockstill has put a huge emphasis on academics and it is clearly showing. In what is regarded as one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football, Stockstill has taken the Blue Raiders' APR (Academic Progress Rate) from 892 to 990 in just three years. That ranks as the biggest jump of any school in the country. The Blue Raiders have also brought home the SBC Team Academic Award two years under Stockstill (2006-07, 2007-08). Also, Nick Coleman, David DeFatta, Gene Delle Donne, Alex Suber, and Mark Thompson will be playing the 2009 season with a degree.

GOING OVERTIME

■ Middle Tennessee enters the Maryland game having competed in four overtime games as a member of I-A (FBS) and is 2-2 in those contests. The Blue Raiders had one overtime contest in 2000 and played three in 2003. In 2003, the Blue Raiders lost in one overtime at No. 23 Missouri, then bounced back to take an overtime win at Idaho before losing a four overtime game at home against UL-Lafayette. The four overtime loss to ULL was the longest game in the history of MT football and was the longest in the history of the SBC at the time.

RAIDER ROUNDUP

■ KYLES RESPONDS: RB D.D. Kyles had a career-high five rushing attempts for a personal-best 32 yards in the win over Memphis. The sophomore also scored his first collegiate touchdown.

■ Senior Marcus Udell recorded his first career interception in season opener at Clemson.

■ Middle Tennessee's two-point conversion by Dwight Dasher against FIU in 2008 was the first under Rick Stockstill and the first by the Blue Raiders since Kerry Wright hauled in a pass from Andrico Hines at Idaho in 2003.

■ The top scoring quarters in the Rick Stockstill era are the first and second quarters. Here is a combined total for each quarter: 1st - 250 points; 2nd - 269 points; 3rd - 161 points; 4th - 243 points.

■ When both teams are held under 20 points, the Blue Raiders are 2-0 under Rick Stockstill.

■ Desmond Gee has 13 career touchdowns and five of them have been 42 yards or longer.

■ Phillip Tanner has 20 career rushing touchdowns which is three shy of 10th place on the all-time list.

■ The Blue Raiders' safety against FIU in 2007 was the first in the FBS era for MT.

■ Head Coach Rick Stockstill directed two shutouts in 2006 to become the first rookie coach at MT to accomplish that feat since Charles Murphy in 1947.

■ As a FBS (I-A) member (118 games), the Blue Raiders have scored 50 or more points 10 times.

■ The Blue Raiders are 42-8 in the I-A era when leading at the half and are 45-8 when leading a game entering the 4th quarter during that time.

■ When trailing at the half, the Blue Raiders are just 8-54 in the FBS (I-A) era.

■ The Blue Raiders have scored in 144 of their last 148 games and broke a string of scoring in 69 straight when they were shutout at Oklahoma in 2006. The other three miscues were a 10-0 shutout on the road against UL-Monroe in 1999, a 55-0 loss in 2000 at Florida, and a 44-0 setback at LSU in 2007. MT has scored in 66 straight home games.

■ In the FBS (I-A) era, the Blue Raiders are 26-17 on turf, 10-35 on natural grass (14 of the losses came on road to SEC teams) and 16-14 on synthetic surfaces (9-5 at home).

■ Largest Margin of Victory in the I-A era: 56 points vs UConn 11/4/00 (66-10) ... Largest Margin of Defeat in the I-A era: 59 points vs Oklahoma 9/23/06 (59-0).

Clemson 37, Middle Tennessee 14

Sept. 5, 2009 ❑ Death Valley ❑ Clemson, SC

by Jared Hastings, Daily News Journal

CLEMSON, S.C. - On the opening night of the season, MTSU's special teams weren't particularly special.

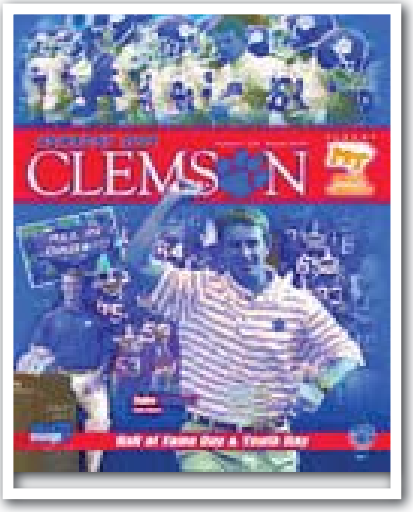
The Blue Raiders surrendered first-half kickoff and punt returns for touchdowns and never recovered, falling 37-14 to Clemson at Memorial Stadium.

Heisman trophy candidate C.J. Spiller lived up to the hype and needed just 14 seconds to make his mark on the game. Clemson's senior tailback took the opening kickoff and raced 96 yards around the right side for an early 7-0 Tiger lead.

Not to be outdone, teammate Jacoby Ford got into the act in the second quarter, taking a David DeFatta punt down the left sideline for a 61-yard touchdown.

"Obviously, I thought in the first half, we shot ourselves in the foot several times," said MTSU coach Rick Stockstill, who spent 14 years as an assistant coach at Clemson. "We got killed in the kicking game in the first half.

"Our plan was to kick it out of bounds on punts and sky kick it on kickoffs, and we didn't do a very good job on that, but they are explosive."



The MTSU offense, in new coordinator Tony Franklin's debut, fired out of the gate on its first two plays, but fizzled the rest of the first half. A 28-yard pass to Phillip Tanner on the Blue Raiders' first play from scrimmage and a 12-yard pass to Shane Blissard on the next netted 40 total yards, but MTSU netted just 22 yards the rest of the half.

Junior quarterback Dwight Dasher completed 20-of-42 passes for 204 yards for the game — including 4-of-4 for 73 yards and a touchdown to Chris McClover on MTSU's first drive of the second half — but was also victimized by three interceptions, including one on the Blue Raiders' third play from scrimmage on a screen pass that was picked off by Clemson's DeAndre McDaniel.

Dasher also ran 19 times for 61 yards, but the Blue Raider running attack was limited to just 92 yards on 37 carries.

"I thought Dwight played well," said Stockstill. "I know if you look at his stats, there's three interceptions, but I thought he played well. I thought he ran the ball well and showed a lot of leadership and toughness and hung in there against a pretty fierce pass rush and pretty good defense."

Sophomore receiver Shane Blissard led MTSU in receiving, finishing with four catches for 68 yards. In all, 10 players caught passes for the Blue Raiders, but other than Blissard, none had more than 28 yards receiving.

For Clemson, redshirt freshman quarterback Kyle Parker made the most of his first career start, throwing for 159 yards and a pair of touchdowns while not committing a turnover.

While Spiller was limited to just 12 yards rushing on four carries and did not return in the second half, sophomore Jamie Harper and freshman Andre Ellington carried the load, combining to rush for 147 yards on 24 carries as Clemson finished with 361 yards of total offense.

"The goal was to win tonight," said Clemson coach Dabo Swinney, in his first game as head coach for the Tigers after coaching the last seven games of 2008 as the interim coach. "We achieved that win.

"Our kids had a solid game. Our defense was solid tonight until the end of the game and special teams showed up as well."

The MTSU defense wasn't as fortunate. Backed into its own end for the entire first quarter, the Blue Raider defense held time and time again, giving up just 43 yards and one Richard Jackson field goal. Down 10-0 early in the second quarter, it was the MTSU defense which got the Blue Raiders on the board first when Chris McCoy picked up a Willy Korn fumble and returned it 68 yards for a touchdown to cut the deficit to 10-7.

It was as close as the Blue Raiders would come.

On Clemson's ensuing possession, the Tigers drove 57 yards in 11 plays, capped by Richard Jackson's 19-yard field goal his second of the night. A three-and-out led to Ford's punt return touchdown, and after MTSU's next drive stalled out at its own 18, Parker needed just one play to find Ford for a 43-yard touchdown pass to push the advantage to 27-7 with 2:55 left in the first half.

"It's frustrating," said senior linebacker Danny Carmichael of the two special teams touchdowns. "If you're not frustrated by giving up points like that, then you shouldn't be playing."

MTSU briefly rallied in the second half, as Dasher's 18-yard touchdown pass to McClover narrowed the Clemson lead to 30-14. The Blue Raiders racked up 237 of offense in the second half, but failed to capitalize on two fourth-quarter trips inside the Clemson 25, turning the ball over on downs each time.

"In the first half, we were awful," said Dasher. "We just made too many mistakes. In the second half, everyone got together and we were a lot better. We know where went wrong and we know what went right. We just have to get better."

Middle Tennessee 31, Memphis 14

Sept. 12, 2009 ❑ Floyd Stadium ❑ Murfreesboro, TN

by Jared Hastings, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, TN - MTSU's Blackout put the lights out for Memphis.

Wearing solid black uniforms and before a black-clad, record crowd of 28,105, MTSU dominated the final three quarters and routed the visiting Tigers 31-14 at Floyd Stadium.

"It was great," said MTSU coach Rick Stockstill, whose team needed a final-play Hail Mary to defeat Florida Atlantic 14-13 in the 2008 Blackout game.

"I've said this all along. Our fans keep getting better. It was loud, it was almost a packed house. It was a great atmosphere and we can make this a great home field advantage with the way we play and how enthusiastic our fans are."

Dwight Dasher passed for 231 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and gained 89 more on the ground as the Blue Raiders defeated Memphis for the second time in three years. He did not commit a turnover.

It was the second straight standout game against Memphis for the junior quarterback, who racked up 410 yards of total offense in a 21-7 win at the Liberty Bowl in 2007.

However, it was Dasher's first home game as the program's undisputed starting quarterback and offensive leader.

"I've felt like this was my team since fall camp," said Dasher, who completed 18-of-26 passes on the night. "So it's my job to just push and push and push everybody to make sure we can be the best we can be and get to a bowl."

The Blue Raiders (1-1) looked every bit the part of a bowl team against Memphis, limiting the Tigers to just 219 yards of offense. MTSU outscored Memphis (0-2) 17-0 in the second and third quarters, turning what had been a 7-7 contest after the first 15 minutes into a blowout heading into the final period.

"We wanted to keep pressing," said MTSU senior wide receiver Patrick Honeycutt, who finished with five catches for 71 yards, including a 24-yard touchdown to put the Blue Raiders up 24-7 with 2:44 left in the third quarter. "We knew the game was close and they could come back. We just wanted to keep going and keep going and put as many points on the board as we could."

The Blue Raider offense gashed Memphis for 436 total yards, including 164 on the ground. Tailback Phillip Tanner rushed for 47 yard on eight carries, including a four-yard touchdown in the first quarter which gave MTSU a 7-0 lead. However, the senior left the game early in the third quarter with an injury to his right knee. In his stead, backup D.D. Kyles ran for 32 yards on just five carries, including a seven-yard TD scamper which put MTSU up 31-7 with 14:15 remaining in the game.

MTSU fired out of the gate, forcing a Tiger three-and-out on its first possession.

Malcolm Beyah's 41-yard strike to Garrett Andrews on a double pass set up Tanner's score to cap a nine-play, 96-yard drive to put the Blue Raiders ahead 7-0 just 4:30 into the game.

However, Memphis responded with a drive of its own, going 69 yards in nine plays, as Curtis Steele darted 12 yards to knot the score 7-7.

From there, though, it was all MTSU. Freshman Kenneth Gilstrap forced and recovered a D.A. Griffin fumble on a punt to set up Dasher's 40-yard touchdown strike to Shane Blissard and Alan Gendreau's 28-yard field goal put MTSU up 17-7.

Memphis' best scoring chance before its final drive of the night in mop-up time was late in the second quarter after a Tanner fumble gave the Tigers the ball at the MTSU 42 with 2:54 left until halftime.

However, Danny Carmichael and Chris McCoy came up with two sacks pushing Memphis out of field goal range and forcing Tiger quarterback Arkelon Hall to try a Hail Mary to end the half. Blue Raider safety Kevin Brown picked off the pass at the goal line to end the threat.

"We're just going to be relentless," said McCoy, who finished with 2.5 tackles-for-loss and a sack. "That's what we do. We keep the pressure up and tonight the defense dominated."

Hall finished the game completing 13-of-22 passes for just 93 yards and the interception. T.J. Pitts led the Tigers in rushing carrying nine times for 40 yards.

Steele, the starter, left the game with an injury in the second quarter and did not return after rushing for 29 yards on five carries and a touchdown.

"It was a great win for us," said Stockstill, whose team won its fifth straight home game. "I thought our team played extremely hard and our coaches did a good job of preparing our team.

"I thought we made improvements in a lot of areas and I was very proud of our team and the effort and the passion and the toughness they played with against Memphis."
