Closer look at UALR

UALR leads the Sun Belt's West Division with a 14-7 overall record, 6-4 in the league. The Trojans are just one of three teams in the nation without a player averaging double figures for points. The other two teams are Savannah State and Cal Poly. UALR leads the Sun Belt and is ranked 24th in the nation with a +6.7 rebounding margin. The Trojans have not been outrebounded by an opponent since Dec. 29 at Northern Illinois. They are ranked 35th nationally in field goal percentage defense (39.9) and 37th in scoring defense (61.5). Junior De'Andre Eggins leads a very balanced UALR attack with 9.0 points per game. The Trojans have won two of their last three; however, they are coming off their worst loss of the season, a 71-47 setback at Western Kentucky last Thursday.

Statistical comparison

UALR owns 10-6 edge in series

UALR holds a 10-6 advantage in the all-time series, which dates to 1976, but the Blue Raiders have won the previous two contests - both of which took place on the road in Little Rock. The teams have played 13 times as Sun Belt members with UALR holding a 9-4 advantage. The Trojans had won seven-of-eight league meetings from the Blue Raiders, prior to Middle Tennessee winning the last two. The Blue Raiders are 4-4 vs. the Trojans at Murphy Center and they are 3-6 vs. UALR under Head Coach Kermit Davis.

'Boogie' man putting up scary numbers

Desmond "Boogie" Yates is only a sophomore but he's already putting up numbers that have him mentioned in the same company as Blue Raider greats. Yates' .550 career field goal percentage(.273-496) is tied for ninth all-time and his .443 career 3-point field goal percentage (35-79) is second all-time. He has 678 career points which is 60th all-time and is on track to enter the 1,000-point club as a junior. Yates is averaging 15.7 points this season, which is sixth in the Sun Belt. His 19.9 scoring average in SBC only games is fourth. In the last eight games, in which MT is 6-2, Yates is averaging 21 points and 6.4 rebounds. He has scored 24 or more in four of the last six contests.

Davis among Sun Belt's winningest coaches

Middle Tennessee coach Kermit Davis is fourth in all-time victories among active Sun Belt coaches with 47, trailing only Dickey Nutt, Ronnie Arrow and Darrin Horn. Davis is also among the league's all-time winningest coaches with the 47 regular-season wins in Sun Belt play. The 47 wins put the sixth-year Blue Raider coach 13th on the league's all-time wins list. Next on the list is former UALR coach Wimp Sanderson with 49. The all-time Sun Belt wins leader is Gene Bartow, who won 111 games during his 12 seasons at former conference member UAB.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Blue Raiders On the Air

All Middle Tennessee basketball games may be heard on 106.7-FM The Fan, as well as WGNS 1450-AM, 100.5-FM, and 101.9-FM. All Blue Raider broadcasts also are carried on the web at GoBlueRaiders.com. Nine-time SEC Broadcaster of the Year Charlie McAlexander begins his first season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-by announcer in 2007-08, with assistant media relations director Tony Stinnett providing color analysis. McAlexander won the prestigious Lindsey Nelson Award in 2006 and he is the only announcer in SEC history to be named Sportscaster of the Year at four different league schools in four different states (Mississippi, Vanderbilt, Kentucky and South Carolina.) McAlexander was elected to the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) Board of Directors in 1993 and he was named President of the association in 1995.

The show originates from Coach's Grill on 127 S.E. Broad Street in Murfreesboro from 7-to-8 p.m. The number to call with questions or comments for coach Davis is 1-866-RAIDERS.

Kermit Davis TV Show

The Kermit Davis television show airs each week on CSS, CSN49, and CSS Regional. Kermit Davis and host Chip Walters will review the previous week with commentary and highlights, as well as preview the week ahead. The show airs Monday at 6:30 a.m. on CSS and 7:30 p.m., on CSN49. The show also airs regionally and is available in 10 states and 6.3 million homes each Wednesday at 3:30 p.m., on CSS. The Kermit Davis Show is also available free ON DEMAND to all digital cable subscribers each Wednesday.

Pregame Interviews

Middle Tennessee players will not be available for any media activities on the day of the game at home or away; however, head coach Kermit Davis will be available following the team's gameday preparation practice. Media are suggested to contact Tony Stinnett in advance to arrange this interview.

Postgame Interviews

The Middle Tennessee locker room is closed at home and on the road. Requested players will be made available in the media room at all home games following a 10-minute cooling off period. Head Coach Kermit Davis will conduct his postgame radio show at press row and then he will be brought to the media room.

Three constitutes a streak ... again

Middle Tennessee's 89-86 overtime win at Arkansas State (02/04/08) was the team's third straight victory and matched the season high for win streak. The Blue Raiders have won six of eight. Middle Tennessee has had 12 three-game win streaks in five-plus seasons under Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders won four straight under Davis during the 2005-06 season and they have enjoyed three five-game win streaks under him (2002-03, and twice during 2004-05.) The three five-game winning streaks represent the longest for the Blue Raiders since they won six straight in 1997-98.

Blue Raiders reverse fortunes, enjoy Sun Belt success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under sixth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the fourth-best winning percentage (56 percent) and the fourth-most wins (54) among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Western Kentucky (70), Louisiana-Lafayette (62) and South Alabama (57) are the only SBC members with more league wins than Middle Tennessee during this stretch. Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined.

League record of SBC members since 2002-03 season (including SBC Tourn.)

1.	Western Kentucky	70-26
2.	Louisiana-Lafayette	62-37
3.	South Alabama	57-39

Middle Tennessee among Sun Belt's best teams winning on the road

One of the biggest reasons for Middle Tennessee's turn-around in the Sun Belt has been its ability to win on the road. Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring in 2002, Middle Tennessee was 2-17 on the road in SBC games but the Blue Raiders have 24 SBC road wins since - tied for the most of any SBC member during his five-plus seasons leading the program. Middle Tennessee, South Alabama, Louisiana-Lafayette and Western Kentucky are the only Sun Belt teams with road records of .500 or better since the start of the 2002-03 season. The Blue Raiders were 5-4 in SBC road games in 2006-07.

Kermit Davis File

In five-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is third on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 93.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 77th victory at UALR (01/20/07). He finished 2006-07 with 83 career victories and he moved into third on the all-time wins list with career win 85 vs. Tennessee Wesleyan (11/23/07). He currently has 93 wins. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.544) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces third-best wins mark after 150 games

Kermit Davis coached in 150 games in his first five seasons as Middle Tennessee's head coach and his 83-67 mark in those contests represent the third-most wins for a Blue Raider head coach in his first 150 games. Bruce Stewart (101-49) and Jimmy Earle (89) are the only former Blue Raider coaches with more wins in their first 150 games.

Davis notches career win 225

Kermit Davis secured his 225th win as a head coach when Middle Tennessee beat Denver, 68-50 (1/5/08) at Murphy Center. Davis owns 164 wins in his 10th season at the Division I level and he won 66 in three years as a junior college head coach. He currently has 230 career victories as a head coach.

Non-conference schedule top 10 nationally

Middle Tennessee Coach Kermit Davis has not hesitated to put his team up against tough non-conference schedules in his six seasons with the Blue Raiders and it seems to pay off as the grueling early-season slates generally prepare the team for league play. This season has been no different as Middle Tennessee's non-conference strength of schedule is ranked No. 6 nationally out of 341 Division I teams in the Pomeroy ratings, and it is rated the most difficult schedule among all Sun Belt teams by Pomeroy, Sagarin and RealTime RPI ratings. The tough schedule has helped prepared the Blue Raiders for the league race as they enter the UALR game with a 7-4 mark. This season; however, the Blue Raiders have faced the daunting task without two-thirds of their projected starting backcourt as all-conference performer Adam Vogelsberg opted not to play his senior season due to excessive injuries and surgeries and junior Calvin O'Neil suffered a season-ending knee injury in the season opener.

Doing it with defense

Middle Tennessee has won six of its last eight and the Blue Raiders are enjoying success with their trademark defense. The Blue Raiders have held seven of the 11 Sun Belt teams they have played to 64 points or less and they are 6-1 in those games with six straight wins. The only loss was at Western Kentucky (62-51). Middle Tennessee limited three of the seven league teams to 57 points or less (Denver - 50, Florida Atlantic - 57, UL-Lafayette - 51). In Sun Belt games only the Blue Raiders are fifth in scoring defense (66.5), fifth in field goal percentage defense (.427) and sixth in 3-point field goal percentage defense (.327).

Johnson is making 'point'

In two games since being moved to the point guard position, Nigel Johnson is averaging 19 points and 6.5 rebounds and he helped lead the Blue Raiders to wins at Louisiana-Lafayette and at Arkansas State in each start. The Memphis native established career highs for scoring and field goals made in each contest. Coach Kermit Davis called Johnson the game's MVP when Middle Tennessee turned back Louisiana-Lafayette on the road (01/31/08). Johnson had his best game as a Blue Raider and raised his level of play to a higher gear with Kevin Kanaskie and Demetrius Green playing sick. Johnson came up with a career-best 16 points, dished out three assists, pulled eight rebounds, and connected on a personal-best six field goals, while playing 37 minutes. He was even better at Arkansas State, pouring in a career-best 22 points on the strength of a personal-best seven field goals.

Yates' scoring binges key victories

Desmond "Boogie" Yates established a new career high with 30 points against New Orleans (1/19/08) with a personal-best 12 field goals made, and he followed that performance with his first career double double - 24 points and 10 rebounds vs. ULM (01/24/08), marking the 11th time the high-scoring sophomore has topped the 20-point mark in his career. He registered his 12th such game with a game-high 28 points at Arkansas State (02/04/08). The Blue Raiders are 8-4 in those games. They were 3-1 last season and they are 5-3 so far this season when he scores 20 or more. The only losses were to Arkansas State last season and at Houston, vs. New Orleans, and at Louisiana-Monroe this season. Yates has has registered eight of his 12 games of 20 or more points in the last 15 contests. He scored 20-plus in consecutive games for the second time in his career with 21 at Houston (12/1) and 20 against Belmont (12/12). Yates has scored double figures in 34 of 53 career games. He reached the 675-point mark in his 52nd career game vs. Arkansas State.

No sophomore slump for Yates

Forward Desmond Yates enjoyed a successful debut campaign at the collegiate level in 2006-07, finishing the season as Middle Tennessee's second-leading scorer at 10.9 points per game and shooting 54 percent from the field. He was one of the Sun Belt's top freshmen and played in all 32 games for the Blue Raiders, starting 18. The Somerville, Tenn., native has improved his numbers across the board in 2007-08. He is currently the team's leading scorer at 15.7 points per game and he is averaging a hefty 19.9 points in Sun Belt games, which is fourth among league players. Yates is ranked sixth in the league scoring race for all games and he is currently among the SBC leaders in field goal percentage and free-throw percentage.

Yates is loving Louisiana

After playing 49 career games with no double doubles, Middle Tennessee sophomore forward Boogie Yates registered two in his next three games and each occured in Louisiana. Yates recorded his first double double with 24 points and 10 rebounds at Louisiana-Monroe (01/24/08) and two games later he enjoyed his second career double double with 17 points and 11 rebounds against Louisiana-Lafayette (01/31/08). In three games vs. Sun Belt teams from Louisiana this season (Louisiana-Lafayette, Louisiana-Monroe, New Orleans), Yates is averaging 23.7 points and 8.7 rebounds.

Blue Raiders carry on without O'Neil, Vogelsberg

Middle Tennessee is down two scholarship players it was counting on heavily prior to the 2007-08 season. Junior guard Calvin O'Neil underwent surgery on his right knee (12/7) and has begun rehab with athletic trainer Drew Shea. O'Neil suffered the season-ending injury in the season opener against San Jose State. Regarded as the team's top perimeter defender and all-around leader, O'Neil entered the season with 53 career games in his first two seasons, including 24 starts. Vogelsberg took a redshirt for the 2006-07 season after suffering a broken bone in his right foot prior to the start of the season. After taking additional time off during the summer to recover from three different surgeries in as many years, Vogelsberg informed Head Coach Kermit Davis of his decision to bypass his senior season citing the excessive injuries and pain to his body as the reasons. Vogelsberg led the team in scoring as a junior in 2005-06 and earned All-Sun Belt Conference. He was also a preseason all-SBC pick in 2006-07.

Kanaskie climbing career charts

Kevin Kanaskie continues to make a move on the Middle Tennessee career records charts. The State College, Pa., native dished out three assists at ULM (01/24/08) to move past Chris Rainey and into fifth on the career assists list with 327. He currently had 330 assists and needs 12 more assists to catch Tim Gaither for fourth all-time. He is one of eight Blue Raiders to have 300 or more assists in a career. Kanaskie moved into fifth on the career 3-point field goals made list with 116 after connecting for four against North Texas (01/27/08). He has connected on 33 long-range shots so far this season and is one of only 10 players in school history to have 100 or more 3-pointers during their career. Kanaskie has hit at least one 3-pointer in 38 of the last 41 games, dating to last season. The junior guard reached the 700-point mark of his career with a season-high 18 against North Texas.

Hudson cracks career marks

Center Theryn Hudson is starting to come into his own as one of the SBC's top big men in his third season in the Blue Raider program. Hudson's .583 career field goal percentage is third on the all-time Middle Tennessee list. He is second in the Sun Belt for field goal percentage this season with a .602 percent showing. Hudson is also tied for eighth on the career blocks list at Middle Tennessee with 47.

Kanaskie named to All-Sun Belt team

Middle Tennessee junior guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the preseason All-Sun Belt Conference team, earning a spot on the third team in a vote of league coaches. He was named to the All-SBC team in 2006-07 after becoming the only player in Middle Tennessee history to lead the team in scoring (12.2), 3-point field goals made (67), and assists (185) in the same season. He led the Sun Belt in assists and assist/turnover ratio. Kanaskie scored double figures in 20 games and led the team in scoring 13 times.

It's not whether you start

Junior guard Kevin Kanaskie had his streak of 50 consecutive starts snapped when he was not in the starting lineup vs. Belmont (12/12) after suffering a hip flexor earlier in the week. He was not expected to play against the Bruins Wednesday but he urged coach Kermit Davis to give him a chance. Davis did and Kanaskie came off the bench, played 31 minutes and scored a season-high 16 points in the Blue Raiders' 86-80 overtime win. Kanaskie was 11-of-13 from the free throw line, establishing career highs for makes and attempts from the charity stripe, and he tied his season high with six rebounds in the triumph.

Blue Raiders picked third in preseason Sun Belt poll

Middle Tennessee was picked to finish third in the SBC East Division in a preseason vote of the league's head coaches. The Blue Raiders received 51 points in the voting to finish behind Western Kentucky and South Alabama, respectively. Louisiana-Monroe was the favorite to win the West.

Winning the close ones

Middle Tennessee has had 11 games decided by 10 points or less this season, including three overtime games. The Blue Raiders are 7-4 in those games for a 64 percent winning clip. Six of the Blue Raiders' last seven games have been decided by 10 points or less and they are 5-2 in those contests.

Surprise, surprise!!! Blue Raiders go outside for win

Middle Tennessee was averaging less than five 3-pointers per game going into its contest at Arkansas State (02/04/08) but the Blue Raiders bucked the odds in an 89-86 overtime win. The Blue Raiders connected for a season high 10 3-pointers, which were the most since Middle Tennessee had 10 vs. Troy (01/06/07) - a span of 38 games. The Blue Raiders were efficient in their shooting, connecting on 10-of-16 attempts for a 62.5 shooting percentage, which goes down as the third-best in school history. Middle Tennessee was 3-of-3 beyond the arc in overtime, including Desmond Yates' game-winning 3-pointer with 37 seconds remaining.

Hudson enjoying career year

Middle Tennessee junior center Theryn Hudson has continued his development under Head Coach Kermit Davis and is enjoying a career year. Hudson, who only started playing basketball competitively as a junior at nearby La Vergne High School, has shown significant increases in all statistical categories. He had a career-high 13 rebounds at Western Kentucky (1/2/08). The 6-foot-10 Hudson is second in the Sun Belt in shooting percentage with a personal-best 60.2 percent (68-113) showing and his 5.9 rebounds per game are ninth in the SBC and 2.3 caroms per game higher than his career average of 3.5. Hudson also has developed into a more consistent scorer and his 9.1 per game average is almost four points higher than his 5.9 career scoring average. He has registered seven of his 15 career double-figure scoring games this season.

Hudson, Yates form dynamic duo

Middle Tennessee improved to 5-0 this season when center Theryn Hudson and forward Desmond Yates both score in double figures following their performances in Middle Tennessee's 89-86 overtime win at Arkansas State (02/04/08). Yates poured in 28 points on 12-of-14 shooting from the field, while Hudson added 11 points and had eight rebounds. They also scored double figures in the same game vs. Denver (Yates -23, Hudson - 11), vs. Tennessee Wesleyan (Yates -14, Hudson - 11), vs. Belmont (Yates - 20, Hudson - 16), and Florida International (Yates - 23, Hudson - 16).

Hudson has been lights out from field

Junior Theryn Hudson is second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage with a 60.2 percent clip (68-of-113) showing; and his 58.3 career field goal percentage is third all-time at Middle Tennessee. The 6-foot-10 center has been on a tear since the start of Sun Belt play, where he is shooting 57 percent (21-of-37) from the field.

Success begins inside for Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee has been its most successful when Theryn Hudson and Desmond Yates play well. In the Blue Raiders' 10 wins, the inside duo is averaging 28.0 points and 11.5 rebounds; however, in the team's 11 losses they have combined to average 21.8 points and 8.9 rebounds.

Time for gut-check

Middle Tennessee earned one of its more emotional wins of the Kermit Davis era in a 57-51 triumph vs. Louisiana-Lafayette (01/31/08). The Blue Raiders utilized the services of eight players in the win - of whom two were sick and two were nursing injuries. Theryn Hudson (foot) returned from a three-game layoff and was playing at 65 percent, while Desmond Yates (knee) also was at less than 100 percent. Demetrius Green played with a sinus infection that kept him bed-ridden the day before and the day of the game but perhaps the biggest sacrifice was that of Kevin Kanaskie. The junior guard came down with the flu on Wednesday and did not travel with the team to Lafayette. Showing signs of improvement the day of the game, Kanaskie got a flight to Lafayette and arrived 40 minutes prior to tipoff. Kanaskie failed to score for the first time in 52 games but his worth the team was much greater than a stat line. In fact, head coach Kermit Davis said the Blue Raiders could not have won the game without him and complimented the sacrifices of all four players.

Rebounding effort one of best ever

Middle Tennessee enjoyed a decisive battle advantage on the boards in its win at Louisiana-Lafayette, grabbing 49 caroms and limiting the Ragin' Cajuns to 27. The 49 rebounds are the eighth-most in school history and the most since the Blue Raiders hauled in 50 vs. St. Francis in the 00-01 season opener - a span of 225 games. Desmond Yates led the Blue Raiders on the boards with a career-high 11 rebounds and Theryn Hudson returned from a foot injury that sidelined him for three games and pulled eight boards. Nigel Johnson also continued his strong board work with eight rebounds. Of the 49 rebounds, a whopping 21 were of the offensive variety.

Yates not turning down charity in recent games

Ranked among the Sun Belt's leaders all season in free throw percentage, sophomore Desmond Yates' recent success at the line has allowed him to continually climb up the list. Yates had a stretch of 14 consecutive makes snapped earlier this season at South Alabama. For the season, Yates is connecting on 80 percent (49-of-61) of his free-throw attempts, which is good for 11th in the Sun Belt for all games. Yates shot just 71.6 percent (48-of-67) from the free-throw line last season as a freshman.

Lending a helping hand

Blue Raider guards Kevin Kanaskie and Nigel Johnson represent two of the top assist men in the Sun Belt Conference. Kanaskie ranks fifth in the Sun Belt in assists with 3.38 per game and Johnson is seventh in the league standings with 3.24 helpers per game. They are also among league leaders in assist/turnover ratio with Johnson ranking sixth (1.51) and Kanaskie 10th (1.25).

Blue Raiders enjoy ringing in New Year

One constant for Middle Tennessee under sixth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis has been steady improvement throughout the season. The Blue Raiders have a 59-41 mark under Davis after Jan. 1 for a 59 percent winning ledger and they have never had a losing mark after the start of a New Year under Davis. The Blue Raiders have registered double figure victories after Jan. 1 in four of the previous five seasons under Davis and the one season they did not - 2005-06 - they still won nine games. Middle Tennessee, which has won six of eight, completed the month of January with a 5-3 record and is 1-0 in February.

Middle Tennessee generally plays well with lead

Middle Tennessee has been solid at protecting leads in Head Coach Kermit Davis' six seasons. The Blue Raiders are 70-14 under Davis when they lead at the half, including a 7-2 mark this season, and they have won a staggering 86 percent (80-13) of the 93 games in which they have led with five minutes remaining, including an 8-0 mark this season.

80 points or more is usually good news for Blue Raiders

When Middle Tennessee has been able to light up the scoreboard under Head Coach Kermit Davis the results have been staggering. Middle Tennessee has won 96 percent of the 28 games in which it has scored 80 or more points in Davis' five-plus seasons. The Blue Raiders are 27-1 in such games, including a 3-0 mark this season. The only time Middle Tennessee failed to win under Davis when scoring more than 80 was an 85-83 overtime setback at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005. The Blue Raiders have won 12 straight overall when scoring 80 or more points.

Kanaskie in game for long haul

Junior guard Kevin Kanaskie has played the full 40 minutes in three of the last six games, going the distances vs. Troy, UL-Monroe and North Texas. The State College, Pa., native has been a workhorse for the Blue Raiders the last two seasons. His 34.2 minutes-per-game this season is third in the Sun Belt and he has logged 35 or more minutes 12 times. Kanaskie played 1,184 minutes in 2006-07, which were the most minutes played by a Blue Raider in program history. His 37.0 minute-per-game average in 2006-07 was fourth-most for a single season. His career high for minutes played is 44 against South Alabama in an overtime win in the Sun Belt Tournament quarterfinals in 2006-07. Kanaskie's 2,498 minutes played are currently 13th most all-time at Middle Tennessee and his 31.2 career average is ninth all-time.

Guards on the 'rebound'

Middle Tennessee's guards have been among the top collection of starting perimeter players in the SBC in regard to rebounding this season. Nigel Johnson had a career-high 10 rebounds to lead the Blue Raiders vs. North Texas and Demetrius Green had a career-high nine rebounds to lead the Blue Raiders in that category at Troy (1/16/08). Green is currently 17th overall in the Sun Belt standings with 4.8 per game. Good rebounding guards are the norm under Head Coach Kermit Davis at Middle Tennessee and this year is no different as three of the top five rebounders on the team are guards. Green is second on the team in rebounding in all games at 4.8 per game, while Kevin Kanaskie and Johnson are tied for fourth with 3.7 caroms per game. The three Blue Raider starting guards (Green, Johnson, Kanaskie) combine to average 12.2 rebounds per game. Green has pulled five or more rebounds in a game 13 times, Kanaskie has five or more in seven games, and Johnson has pulled five or more eight times.

Green enjoys strong all-around game vs. North Texas

Middle Tennessee junior guard Demetrius Green had his best game as a Blue Raider vs. North Texas. He had a game-high 21 points on 10-of-16 shooting, seven rebounds and he also had five assists and five steals, establishing personal best in each category. Green scored 13 consecutive points during an eight minute stretch from the end of the first half into the start of the second to help rally the Blue Raiders from an 11-point deficit late in the first half. Green is among the Sun Belt's leaders in scoring (11.7) and rebounding (4.8). Green has scored double figures 12 times in 19 games.

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 357 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

What's in a name?

Junior forward Desmond Yates' nickname is "Boogie," which he says was given to him by his grandmother when he was 1-year-old. Yates isn't sure why his grandmother gave him the particular nickname but he has always liked it and prefers to go by "Boogie," as opposed to Desmond.

Sain providing big spark off Blue Raider bench

Freshman Josh Sain, who is averaging 6.7 points, has been a consistent contributor off the Blue Raider bench and he enjoyed one of his best game so far with 13 points and five rebounds in 28 minutes of action vs. New Orleans. The 13 points and five rebounds tied his career high and the 28 minutes were a personal best. Sain also had a strong game vs. South Alabama (12/22/07) with 13 points, four rebounds, and 20 minutes. Sain once again established a new career high for minutes played in his next game when he logged 26 vs. Austin Peay to go along with 10 points. It marked the first time he has scored double figures in consecutive games in his young college career. He led the Blue Raiders in scoring and rebounding for the first time in his career at South Alabama.

Blue Raiders enjoy one of best shooting halves ever

Middle Tennessee's 72.7 second-half shooting percentage against Denver was the third-highest in school history for one half and the highest shooting mark for a Blue Raider team in more than 25 years. The single-half record for field goal percentage is 83 percent vs. Akron (2/4/82) and second is 80 percent vs. Tennessee Tech (1/8/81). Each of those marks were also established in the second half. Middle Tennessee's hot-shooting performance in the second half included hitting 13-of-14 shots during one stretch. After the first shot of the half was off the mark, Middle Tennessee players hit six straight before their next miss and then followed with seven consecutive makes before missing another field. Yates was 5-of-5 in the second half, while Demetrius Green was 5-of-6 and Kevin Kanaskie was 3-of-4.

Green enjoys complete game vs. Austin Peay

Junior guard Demetrius Green has provided Middle Tennessee with its most consistent guard play and he delivered his best game as a Blue Raider vs. Austin Peay (12/29/07). Green scored a career-best 24 points - the second-most points by a Blue Raider this season - and he also established career bests for 3-point field goals made (4) and attempted (5). The Lexington, Ky., native was 10-of-13 from the free-throw line, also personal bests.

Kanaskie heating up from outside

Kevin Kanaskie seems to be finding the shooting rhythm that made him one of the top 3-point shooters in school history in 2006-07. Kanaskie has matched his season high of four 3-pointers in two of the last four games and he is shooting 43 percent (9-of-21) from beyond the arc in the last four games (UL-Monroe, North Texas, Louisiana-Lafayette, at Arkansas State). He connected on four straight 3-pointers during a 4:58 span late in the second half to rally the Blue Raiders against North Texas.

Blue Raider defense strong vs. No. 2 Memphis

After being lit up on the scoreboard and in regard to defensive field goal percentage in the early going, Middle Tennessee's defense has been more representative in the last four games. The Blue Raiders continued their strong defensive play against No. 2 Memphis, holding the high-octane Tigers to 65 points, which was almost 20 points below their 82-point-per-game average. The Blue Raiders held the Tigers' two leading scorers - Chris Douglas-Roberts and Derrick Rose to 17 points below their combined season average of 36 points per game between them. After holding Memphis to 65 points, Middle Tennessee clamped down and allowed just 63 points to Florida International.

Blue Raider defense - Part II

Middle Tennessee's defense pitched another gem at Western Kentucky in a 62-51 setback (1/2/08). The Blue Raiders held the high-octane Hilltoppers to 45.3 percent shooting, four 3-pointers, and the 62 points were not only the second fewest they had scored overall all season and the fewest they have scored at Diddle Arena this season. The 62 points were also 17 below their season average of 79 entering the game. Key in the defensive showpiece was the play of Darren Avery and Demetrius Green, who teamed to limit Courtney Lee to six points - 15 below the 21 he was averaging entering the game.

Blue Raider defense - Part III

Middle Tennessee's trademark defense was once again on display in the 65-64 win at Troy (1/16/08). Troy entered the game as the Sun Belt's top offensive team at 82 points per game but was held almost 20 points below its average. The Blue Raiders held the Trojans to 40 percent shooting from the field and just nine second-half field goals.

Blue Raider defense - Part IV

Middle Tennessee's team defense was a big key in the win vs. North Texas as the Blue Raiders held the visitors to 20 points below their season average. The Mean Gren came into the contest averaging 80 points per game but they were limited to just 60 against the Blue Raiders, who tied their season high with 13 steals in the win.

Johnson plays like a big man

Junior guard Nigel Johnson pulled a career-high 10 rebounds against North Texas to lead all players from either team in that category. It was Johnson's first double-figure rebounding game but he has had five or more reobunds in a game six times this season. Playing like a big man inside, Johnson also had a career-high two blocked shots in the Middle Tennessee win. Johnson also had five assists in the win.

Spreading the wealth

Middle Tennessee players demonstrated outstanding ball movement and collected assists on 13 of the 26 field goals converted in the win vs. North Texas. Demetrius Green and Nigel Johnson led the way with five helpers each, while Kevin Kanaskie, Dino Hair, and Uriah Hethington each had one.

Who says you can't get something for free?

Middle Tennessee took advantage of charity in its 86-80 overtime win against Belmont (12/12) when the Blue Raiders shot a sizzling 93 percent (26-of-28) from the charity stripe. In fact, Kevin Kanaskie, who set career marks for free throws made (11) and attempted (13) in the game was the only Blue Raider to miss from the free-throw line. Demetrius Green was 6-of-6 in the game and Desmond Yates connected on all four of his attempts. Yates had a stretch of 14 straight free throws made snapped against South Alabama earlier this season.

Don't count them out

Middle Tennessee has been a strong offensive team in the second half of games so far this season. The Blue Raiders are averaging 36.4 points after intermission. They have scored 40 or more points in the second half seven times, including 51 vs. Tennessee Wesleyan, 48 vs. Appalachian State, 47 vs. San Jose State, 44 vs. Houston, 41 vs. South Alabama, 41 vs. Denver, and 40 vs. North Texas.

Outshooting opposition a key

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 78-9 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher than the opponent. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo last season, despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 50 of the last 57 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Blue Raiders starting to find 3-point stroke

Middle Tennessee knocked down a season-high nine 3-point field goals against Austin Peay (12/29/07) with junior guard Demetrius Green leading the way with a career-best four treys. The Blue Raiders were 9-of-20 from behind the arc for a 45 percent clip. The nine 3-pointers were the most for the Blue Raiders since they connected for the same amount at Troy (2/22/07) and were just one shy of the most they made in a game all of last season.

A good 'Hair' day

Sophomore forward Dino Hair collected his second start of the season vs. North Texas and responded with 10 points to tie his career high. Hair also tied his career high with four field goals made. He played 26 minutes, his second-highest total of the season.

Green strong in Raider debut

Junior guard Demetrius Green's long-awaited debut lived up the hype. He sat out the 2006-07 season after transferring from Daytona Beach Community College but had a sensational debut with17 points and six rebounds, both game highs, against San Jose St. in the opener. He was 6-of-6 from the field, 2-of-2 from 3-point range.

Blue Raiders ink two during NCAA Early Signing Period

Middle Tennessee signed two players to national letters of intent during the NCAA Early Signing Period, which began Wednesday (11/14). The Blue Raiders landed in-state prospect DeMario Williams from Culleoka High School, and they also signed Aundra Williams, a highly-regarded forward from Orlando, Fla. DeMario Williams is a top-10 prospect in Tennessee and he averaged 18 points, eight assists and eight rebounds in 2006-07. The 6-3 point guard is a two-time Mr. Basketball Finalist. He is one of two players to be named Mr. Basketball Finalist in Tennessee as a sophomore and junior. The other was former North Carolina standout and NBA first-round pick Brandan Wright. Aundra Williams is a 6-8, 235-pound forward at Boone High in Orlando, Fla.

Players shine in Raider debuts

While Demetrius Green made the most noise in his Blue Raider debut, he was not the only Middle Tennessee player to debut during the First Shot Exempt Tournament. All three Blue Raider newcomers debuted in the tournament and they scored. In addition to Green, Broderick Gilchrest and Uriah Hethington saw action against San Jose State. Gilchrest, a freshman from Memphis, played six minutes and had one point against the Spartans and Hethington, a 6-8 junior forward from Cairo, Ga., played 10 minutes and had four points.

Attendance record falls at Sommet Center

Middle Tennessee established a new "home" attendance record when 18,071 attended its game vs. No. 2 Memphis in the Sun Belt Classic at the Sommet Center in downtown Nashville, Dec. 15. The previous record for a Blue Raider home basketball was 11,807 vs. Western Kentucky, Feb. 26, 2004. That mark still stands as the all-time record at Murphy Center; however, since the game against Memphis was a designated home game for Middle Tennessee it does count on the home attendance. The sellout also set a new record for a regular-season game at the Sommet Center. The previous record was 8,118 when Tennessee played Oklahoma State in the facility, Dec. 18, 2006.

Boyd declared eligible by NCAA

Middle Tennessee freshman guard Antwaun Boyd has been cleared by the NCAA Clearinghouse and declared eligible. A heralded member of Middle Tennessee's 2007 signing class, Boyd will take a redshirt season in 2007-08. He was enrolled at Middle Tennessee as a part-time student in the fall but could not participate in team activities. He was granted partial eligibility by the NCAA following the fall semester and was able to begin practicing with the team while his case was being appealed. Boyd was ranked as one of the Top 10 players in Indiana by numerous rankings and recruiting services after a stellar career at Anderson High School in Anderson, Ind. He was selected to play in the Hoosiers Reunion All-Star Classic and was a McDonald's All-American nominee. Boyd led Anderson to a 24-2 record and a No. 3 state ranking as a junior, when he averaged 17 points, seven rebounds and four assists, and he averaged 20 points, eight rebounds and three assists as a senior.
