GAME DAY NOTES: Middle Tennessee plays at home for the first time in five games when the team hosts Chicago State tonight. This will be the first meeting between the two schools.

HOLMES HITS 1,000: Junior Patrice Holmes scored her 1,000th point as a Lady Raider against Tennessee State on Monday night. She is the fourth fastest player to reach the millennium mark and the 16th overall in the program's history. Holmes will be recognized for her feat following the National Anthem tonight.

THE NIGHT GETS BETTER: Patrice Holmes capped off the night by scoring a career-high 31 points against Tennessee State. She was 12-of-18 from the field and 4-of-6 from the three-point line. She also had seven assists and seven steals.

MEDIA INFORMATION

WEBPAGE: For updated releases and game notes, statistics, boxscores, and player and coach bios, please click on GoBlueRaiders.com for all your requests. The media relations office will have game notes on the site one day before the upcoming contest and will have boxscores and game recaps available immediately following all contests. Also, 300 dpi player and coach mugshots can be obtained by media outlets at Media.GoBlueRaiders.com.

CREDENTIALS: All credentials must be requested from Denise Gideon, Assistant Media Relations Director, at least 24 hours prior to tipoff. Media accomodations are on a PRIORITY basis: daily newspapers, originating radio stations, national electronic media outlets and local and regional television crews. All credential requests must be submitted on letterhead to the MT Athletic Media Relations Office. No credentials will be mailed unless you specifically request such service -- your credentials can be picked up at the media gate at Murphy Center on gameday. Access to press row will be granted only to authorized persons with press row passes for that specific game. Spouses, dates, children and other non-workers are not permitted in the working press areas.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Both the Middle Tennessee and visiting locker rooms are located on the lower concourse of Murphy Center on the east side. Approximately 10 minutes after the game, Stephany Smith will be available for interviews. At home games, Middle Tennessee players will be available following a 10-minute cooling off period.

On the road, the MT coaches and players will be available following a 10-minute cooling off period. Smith will meet with the media following her postgame talk with the team, and players will be made available upon request.

STEPHANY SMITH RADIO SHOW: Stephany Smith Lady Raider Basketball show on Monday evenings. The show, which is broadcast live each week from Corky's restaurant in Murfreesboro, will be aired on WMTS 88.3 from 6-7 PM. The show will feature comments from Smith about her team's performances and upcoming games. Smith will also field questions from audience members.

STOVALL SEES DOUBLE: Sophomore Tia Stovall's 14 points against TSU was the first time in four games the forward has scored in double figures. She also tied her season-high with three blocks.

GRAY GETS THE NOD AGAIN: Junior Ciara Gray picked up her third start of the season against TSU. She contributed three points and one steal.

HORTON CONTINUES TO DOUBLE UP: Freshman Krystle Horton's 10 points against TSU was the fifth time this season she has scored in double figures.

TIDBITS: The Lady Raiders' 82 points against Tennessee State was a season high ... Middle Tennessee also connected on a season-high 32 field goals ... The nine three-pointers was also a season-high ... Five different Lady Raiders connected on a three point shot against TSU ... Middle Tennessee is averaging four blocks a game almost double their opponents who are averaging 2.6 ... The Lady Raiders shot over 50 percent from the field for the fourth time this season as they had 55.2 percent against TSU ... Middle Tennessee's bench scored 16 points against TSU and it was the first time this season the Lady Raider bench has outscored an opposing team's bench.

UP NEXT: Middle Tennessee heads back on the road Saturday when the Lady Raiders travel to Clarksville to take on Austin Peay. The Lady Govs are coming off a three-point win, 53-50, over Marshall on Monday. Middle Tennessee lost 78-68 to Austin Peay in Murfreesboro last season as Patrice Holmes scored a then career-high 28 points against the Lady Govs. Overall, the Lady Raiders lead the series 48-8 and are 22-3 at Austin Peay. As an added note, former Lady Raider assistant Eric White is now an assistant for Austin Peay.

THREE INK WITH LADY RAIDERS: Middle Tennessee Head Coach Stephany Smith signed three players in the early signing period. The Lady Raiders received scholarship papers from 6-4 center Lynette Jackson, 6-2 forward Lakira Boyd and 5-8 guard Sara Nuxol. Jackson, from Fayetteville, N.C., is the 32nd ranked center in the country as reported by All Star Girls Report and is also the tallest player to sign with a Sun Belt school in the early signing period. Boyd, daughter of former Memphis standout Dwight Boyd, hails from Kirby High School in Memphis and Nuxol is from Winter Springs High School in Florida.

PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE: Patrice Holmes and Tia Stovall were named preseason Sun Belt All- Conference and the Lady Raiders were tabbed to finish second in the East, receiving three first place votes.

Stephany Smith

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Seventh Season/11th at MT

Middle Tennessee head women's basketball coach Stephany Smith begins her seventh season with a squad who got a taste of their first Sun Belt Conference Tournament Finals, and is hungry for more. The Lady Raiders fell in the finals to Western Kentucky, so the 2003-04 squad is anxious to hit the court and take the conference title this season.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches, and is looking forward to the season ahead.

As she prepares to begin her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills and knowledge of the game.

Smith enters her seventh season 105-71 and has both an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. Three of Smith's teams have competed in postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennéssee to former héad coach Lewis Bivens, heading up the team's recruiting efforts during that time. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1994-95 and 1995-96, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the MT staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, 91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Ladv Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, 92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win seasons.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting, as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game as she held a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who is playing in Portugal.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons over-seas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repitition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive inten-

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark. with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. with the University of Mis-before receiving an M.S.E. with the University of Mississippi before transferring to Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986. Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding, and also spent a year as the Head Girls Track Coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding. The personable Smith is truly a people-oriented person. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each sum-She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).
