Davis among Sun Belt's winningest coaches

Middle Tennessee coach Kermit Davis is fourth in all-time victories among active Sun Belt coaches with 51, trailing only Ronnie Arrow and Darrin Horn. Overall, Davis is also among the league's all-time winningest coaches in Sun Belt play. Davis is 12th on the league's all-time wins list with 51. Next on the list is former UNCC/USF coach Lee Rose with 53 wins. The all-time Sun Belt wins leader is Gene Bartow, who won 111 games during his 12 seasons at former conference member UAB. These totals only include regular-season conference wins.

Yates named First-Team All-Sun Belt

Sophomore forward Desmond Yates was named First-Team All-Sun Belt in a vote of the league's 13 head coaches and select media, as announced by the Sun Belt (3/4). Yates is the first Blue Raider to be named to the first team All-SBC team since Tommy Gunn (2003, 2004) and he is the third Blue Raider to be named first team, joining Gunn and Lee Nosse (2002). Yates is averaging 16 points and shooting 58.3 percent from the field. He is fifth in the league in scoring, and third in field goal percentage. Yates is also among Sun Belt leaders in rebounding, free-throw percentage and minutes played. Yates has produced 25 double-figure scoring games this season, including 12 straight and 18 of the last 19. He has 43 double-figure scoring games in his career and has led Middle Tennessee in scoring 26 times. Yates has produced 10 of his 14 career games with 20-plus points this season and the team is 7-3 in those games. Yates also has 844 career points, which is 43rd all-time at Middle Tennessee. He is on pace to enter the 1,000-point club as a junior and become the first player to register 1,000-plus points since Tommy Gunn. Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis said one of the most impressive things about Yates' inclusion on the team is the fact he went from not appearing on any preseason team and then earning first-team honors. "The best thing about (Yates) is his approach to practice and the way he attacks it every day. He's improved so much this year and he can be even better," Davis said.

Kermit Davis File

In five-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is third on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 100.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 77th victory at UALR (01/20/07). He finished 2006-07 with 83 career victories and he moved into third on the all-time wins list with career win 85 vs. Tennessee Wesleyan (11/23/07). He currently has 100 wins. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.552) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces third-best wins mark after 150 games

Kermit Davis coached in 150 games in his first five seasons as Middle Tennessee's head coach and his 83-67 mark in those contests represent the third-most wins for a Blue Raider head coach in his first 150 games. Bruce Stewart (101-49) and Jimmy Earle (89) are the only former Blue Raider coaches with more wins in their first 150 games.

Davis notches career win 225

Kermit Davis secured his 225th win as a head coach when Middle Tennessee beat Denver, 68-50 (1/5/08) at Murphy Center. Davis owns 171 wins in his 10th season at the Division I level and he won 66 in three years as a junior college head coach. He currently has 237 career victories as a head coach.

Blue Raiders reverse fortunes, enjoy Sun Belt success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under sixth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the fourth-best winning percentage (58 percent) and the fourth-most wins (61) among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Western Kentucky (78), Louisiana-Lafayette (67) and South Alabama (64) are the only SBC members with more league wins than Middle Tennessee during this stretch. Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined.

League record of SBC members since 2002-03 season (including SBC Tourn.)

Middle Tennessee among Sun Belt's best teams winning on the road

One of the biggest reasons for Middle Tennessee's turn-around in the Sun Belt has been its ability to win on the road. Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring in 2002, Middle Tennessee was 2-17 on the road in SBC games but the Blue Raiders have 26 SBC road wins since - second most of any SBC member during his five-plus seasons leading the program. Middle Tennessee, South Alabama, Louisiana-Lafayette and Western Kentucky are the only Sun Belt teams with road records of .500 or better since the start of the 2002-03 season. The Blue Raiders won five of the last eight SBC road games.

Blue Raiders establish new mark for SBC wins

Middle Tennessee secured its most Sun Belt Conference wins in a season since joining the league in 2000-01 with its 65-58 win at Denver (02/21/08) and finished the regular season with 11 SBC wins after turning back Troy 81-58 in the regular-season finale. The Blue Raiders had previously won nine SBC games in a season twice and each had been registered under Head Coach Kermit Davis, who also led Middle Tennessee to nine SBC wins in 2002-03 - his first year at the school. Davis has guided the team to eight league wins on three other occasions (03-04, 05-06, 06-07). The most league wins ever for Middle Tennessee is 12 (1997-98, 1980-81, 1974-75), all of which occured when the program was still in the Ohio Valley.

Doing it with defense

Middle Tennessee has won 13 of its last 18 and the Blue Raiders are enjoying success with their trademark defense. The Blue Raiders have held 11 of the 13 Sun Belt teams they have played to 64 points or less and they are 10-1 in those games with 10 straight wins. The only loss was at Western Kentucky (62-51). Middle Tennessee limited six of the league teams to 58 points or less (UALR - 46, Denver - 50 and 58, Florida Atlantic - 57, UL-Lafayette - 51, Troy - 58). In Sun Belt games only the Blue Raiders are sixth in scoring defense (65.83), fourth in field goal percentage defense (.420) and third in 3-point field goal percentage defense (.312).

Taking down the champs

Middle Tennessee's recent surge is accentuated by the fact the team has defeated the defending SBC regular-season and tournament champions. The Blue Raiders defeated 2007 SBC Tournament champion North Texas (1/27/08) and they turned back 06-07 and 07-08 regular-season champ South Alabama twice (2/14/08, 3/10/08).

Non-conference schedule No. 1 nationally

Middle Tennessee Coach Kermit Davis has not hesitated to put his team up against tough non-conference schedules in his six seasons with the Blue Raiders and it seems to pay off as the grueling early-season slates generally prepare the team for league play. This season has been no different as Middle Tennessee's non-conference strength of schedule is ranked No. 1 nationally out of 341 Division I teams in the Pomeroy ratings this season, and it is rated the most difficult schedule among all Sun Belt teams by Pomeroy, Sagarin and RealTime RPI ratings. The schedule prepared the Blue Raiders for the league race as they finished third overall in the SBC and are in tonight's title game. This season; however, the Blue Raiders have faced the daunting task without two-thirds of their projected starting backcourt as all-conference performer Adam Vogelsberg opted not to play his senior season due to excessive injuries and surgeries and junior Calvin O'Neil suffered a season-ending knee injury in the season opener.

Blue Raiders carry on without O'Neil, Vogelsberg

Middle Tennessee is down two scholarship players it was counting on heavily prior to the 2007-08 season. Junior guard Calvin O'Neil underwent surgery on his right knee (12/7) and is enjoying successful rehab with athletic trainer Drew Shea. O'Neil suffered the season-ending injury in the opener against San Jose State. Regarded as the team's top perimeter defender and all-around leader, O'Neil entered the season with 53 career games in his first two seasons, including 24 starts. Vogelsberg took a redshirt for the 2006-07 season after suffering a broken bone in his right foot prior to the start of the season. After taking additional time off during the summer to recover from three different surgeries in as many years, Vogelsberg informed Head Coach Kermit Davis of his decision to bypass his senior season citing the excessive injuries and pain to his body. Vogelsberg led the team in scoring as a junior in 2005-06 and earned All-Sun Belt Conference. He was also a preseason all-SBC pick in 2006-07.

Kanaskie climbing career charts

Kevin Kanaskie continues to make a move on the Middle Tennessee career records charts. The State College, Pa., native dished out six assists in the win vs. South Alabama (02/14/08) to tie Tim Gaither for fourth on the all-time assists list with 342, and he moved into sole possession of fourth with two helpers vs. WKU. He currently has 362 and is one of eight Blue Raiders to have 300 or more assists in a career. Kanaskie moved into fifth on the career 3-point field goals made list with 116 after connecting for four against North Texas (01/27/08). He has connected on 59 long-range shots so far this season and currently has 143 treys in his Blue Raider career. Kanaskie has hit at least one 3-pointer in 48 of the last 51 games, dating to last season. The junior guard currently has 864 points and is 37th all-time in scoring at Middle Tennessee.

Hudson cracks career marks

Center Theryn Hudson, who is first in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage with a personal-best .646, is starting to come into his own as one of the SBC's top big men in his third season in the Blue Raider program. Hudson's .604 career field goal percentage is second on the all-time Middle Tennessee list. Hudson is fourth on the career blocks list at Middle Tennessee with 60. He had a career-high four vs. UALR (02/07/08).

Kanaskie named to All-Sun Belt team

Middle Tennessee junior guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the preseason All-Sun Belt Conference team, earning a spot on the third team in a vote of league coaches. He was named to the All-SBC team in 2006-07 after becoming the only player in Middle Tennessee history to lead the team in scoring (12.2), 3-point field goals made (67), and assists (185) in the same season. He led the Sun Belt in assists and assist/turnover ratio. Kanaskie scored double figures in 20 games and led the team in scoring 13 times.

It's not whether you start

Junior guard Kevin Kanaskie had his streak of 50 consecutive starts snapped when he was not in the starting lineup vs. Belmont (12/12) after suffering a hip flexor earlier in the week. He was not expected to play against the Bruins Wednesday but he urged coach Kermit Davis to give him a chance. Davis did and Kanaskie came off the bench, played 31 minutes and scored a season-high 16 points in the Blue Raiders' 86-80 overtime win. Kanaskie was 11-of-13 from the free throw line, establishing career highs for makes and attempts from the charity stripe, and he tied his season high with six rebounds in the triumph.

Middle Tennessee was picked to finish third in the SBC East Division in a preseason vote of the league's head coaches. The Blue Raiders received 51 points in the voting to finish behind Western Kentucky and South Alabama, respectively. Louisiana-Monroe was the favorite to win the West.

Yates' scoring binges key victories

Desmond "Boogie" Yates established a new career high with 30 points against New Orleans (1/19/08) with a personal-best 12 field goals made. Yates, who enjoyed a 26-point performance vs. South Alabama, has registered 14 games with 20-plus points in his career and 10 have occured this season. The Blue Raiders are 10-4 in those games. They were 3-1 last season and they are 7-3 so far this season when he scores 20 or more. The only losses were to Arkansas State last season and at Houston, vs. New Orleans, and at Louisiana-Monroe this season. Yates has has registered 10 of his 14 games of 20 or more points in the last 18 contests. He scored 20-plus in consecutive games for the second time in his career with 21 at Houston (12/1) and 20 against Belmont (12/12). Yates has scored double figures in 43 of 62 career games.

No sophomore slump for Yates

Forward Desmond Yates enjoyed a successful debut campaign at the collegiate level in 2006-07, finishing the season as Middle Tennessee's second-leading scorer at 10.9 points per game and shooting 54 percent from the field. The Somerville, Tenn., native has improved his numbers across the board in 2007-08. He is currently the team's leading scorer at 16.0 points per game and he is averaging a hefty 18.4 points in Sun Belt games, which is fifth among league players. His 58.3 field goal percentage is third in the Sun Belt.

Yates is loving Louisiana

After playing 49 career games with no double doubles, Middle Tennessee sophomore forward Boogie Yates registered two in his next three games and each occured in Louisiana. Yates recorded his first double double with 24 points and 10 rebounds at Louisiana-Monroe (01/24/08) and two games later he enjoyed his second career double double with 17 points and 11 rebounds against Louisiana-Lafayette (01/31/08). In four games vs. Sun Belt teams from Louisiana this season (Louisiana-Lafayette, Louisiana-Monroe, New Orleans), Yates is averaging 23.3 points and 7.8 rebounds.

Winning the close ones

Middle Tennessee has had 19 games decided by 10 points or less this season, including three overtime games. The Blue Raiders are 12-7 in those games for a 63 percent winning clip. Fourteen of the Blue Raiders' last 15 games have been decided by 10 points or less and they are 10-5 in those contests.

Bench comes up big in road win vs. Denver

Middle Tennessee's starters have primarily produced the brunt of the scoring and rebounding this season but with regulars Nigel Johnson and Theryn Hudson in foul trouble sophomore Dino Hair and freshman Broderick Gilchrest came up big for the Blue Raiders in their 65-58 win at Denver (02/21/08). Hair scored a career-best 11 points, going 2-of-2 from the field and knocking down 7-of-8 free throws. He also pulled a game-high six rebounds in the win. Gilchrest also played a major factor in the game, playing a career-best 29 minutes, swiping a career-best four steals and tying his personal best with four assists. Gilchrest was 2-of-3 from the field. Hair and Gilchrest combined for all 16 of Middle Tennessee's bench points as the Blue Raider reserves outscored Denver's 16-2.

Road Raiders first SBC team to win at Denver

Middle Tennessee accomplished a Sun Belt first with its 65-58 win at Denver. The Blue Raiders became the only SBC team to win at Denver this season, dropping the Pioneers to 7-1 at home against conference opponents and 9-2 overall. The only other team to beat Denver at home was Colorado.

Johnson is making 'point'

Nigel Johnson averaged19 points and 6.5 rebounds in his first two games playing exclusively at the point position and he helped lead the Blue Raiders to wins at Louisiana-Lafayette and at Arkansas State in each start. The Memphis native established career highs for scoring and field goals made in each contest. Coach Kermit Davis called Johnson the game's MVP when Middle Tennessee turned back Louisiana-Lafayette on the road (01/31/08). Johnson had his best game as a Blue Raider and raised his level of play to a higher gear with Kevin Kanaskie and Demetrius Green playing sick. Johnson came up with a career-best 16 points, dished out three assists, pulled eight rebounds, and connected on a personal-best six field goals, while playing 37 minutes. He was even better at Arkansas State, pouring in a career-best 22 points on the strength of a personal-best seven field goals.

Surprise, surprise!!! Blue Raiders go outside for win

Middle Tennessee was averaging less than five 3-pointers per game going into its contest at Arkansas State (02/04/08) but the Blue Raiders bucked the odds in an 89-86 overtime win. The Blue Raiders connected for a season high 10 3-pointers, which were the most since Middle Tennessee had 10 vs. Troy (01/06/07) - a span of 38 games. The Blue Raiders were efficient in their shooting, connecting on 10-of-16 attempts for a 62.5 shooting percentage, which goes down as the third-best in school history. Middle Tennessee was 3-of-3 beyond the arc in overtime, including Desmond Yates' game-winning 3-pointer with 37 seconds remaining.

Hudson leads Sun Belt in field goal percentage

Junior Theryn Hudson leads the Sun Belt in field goal percentage with a personal-best 64.6 percent clip (104-of-161) showing, which is fourth on the single-season list; and his 60.4 career field goal percentage is second all-time at Middle Tennessee. The 6-foot-10 center has been on a tear since the start of Sun Belt play, where he is shooting a league-best 63.6 percent (49-of-77) from the field in league games only.

Hudson, Yates form dynamic duo

Middle Tennessee is the only team in the Sun Belt to have two players rank in the conference's top five in field goal percentage (Theryn Hudson - 1st - 64.6; Desmond Yates, 3rd - 58.3). Middle Tennessee improved to 8-1 this season when Hudson and Yates both score in double figures following their performances in Middle Tennessee's 75-69 win vs. ULM (03/05/08). Yates led Middle Tennessee with 22 points and Hudson netted a career-high 19 in the first-round SBC Championship win. The Blue Raiders suffered their only loss with each in double figures at FIU (Yates -12, Hudson - 10). They also scored double figures in the same game vs. Arkansas State (Yates 28, Hudson 11), Denver (Yates -23, Hudson - 11), vs. Tennessee Wesleyan (Yates -14, Hudson - 11), vs. Belmont (Yates - 20, Hudson - 16), Florida International (Yates - 23, Hudson - 16), UALR (Hudson - 14, Yates - 11), and Troy (Yates -13, Hudson - 13).

Hudson enjoying career year

Middle Tennessee junior center Theryn Hudson, who scored a career-high 19 points in the first-round SBC Championship win vs. ULM, has continued his development under Head Coach Kermit Davis and is enjoying a career year. Hudson, who only started playing basketball competitively as a junior at nearby La Vergne High School, has shown significant increases in all statistical categories. He had a career-high 13 rebounds at Western Kentucky (1/2/08). The 6-foot-10 Hudson leads the Sun Belt in field goal percentage with a personal-best 64.6 percent (104-161) showing and his 5.5 rebounds per game are 10th in the SBC and 1.9 caroms per game higher than his career average of 3.8. Hudson also has developed into a more consistent scorer and his 9.0 per-game-average is 2.9 points higher than his 6.1 career scoring average. He has registered 11 of his 19 career double-figure scoring games this season.

Johnson's rebounding keys Blue Raider wins

Junior guard Nigel Johnson has had five rebounds or more 12 times this season and the Blue Raiders are 11-1 in those games. The only game Middle Tennessee lost when Johnson had five-plus rebounds was an overtime setback against New Orleans (1/19/08) when he had six caroms. Johnson had a career-high 12 rebounds in the SBC quarterfinals vs. Troy.

Less takes equal more makes for Yates

Forward Desmond Yates has 20 made 3-pointers this season after knocking down three in the win vs. South Alabama (2/14/08) enabling him to eclipse his total of 19 made all of 2006-07 - his freshman campaign. Yates has surpassed last year's total despite shooting significantly fewer 3-pointers this season. He was 19-of-51 for a 37 percent showing all of last season. So far this season he is 20-of-38 from beyond the arc for a 53 percent shooting clip.

Time for gut-check

Middle Tennessee earned one of its more emotional wins of the Kermit Davis era in a 57-51 triumph vs. Louisiana-Lafayette (01/31/08). The Blue Raiders utilized the services of eight players in the win - of whom two were sick and two were nursing injuries. Theryn Hudson (foot) returned from a three-game layoff and was playing at 65 percent, while Desmond Yates (knee) also was at less than 100 percent. Demetrius Green played with a sinus infection that kept him bed-ridden the day before and the day of the game but perhaps the biggest sacrifice was that of Kevin Kanaskie. The junior guard came down with the flu on Wednesday and did not travel with the team to Lafayette. Showing signs of improvement the day of the game, Kanaskie got a flight to Lafayette and arrived 40 minutes prior to tipoff. Kanaskie failed to score for the first time in 52 games but his worth the team was much greater than a stat line. In fact, head coach Kermit Davis said the Blue Raiders could not have won the game without him and complimented the sacrifices of all four players.

Rebounding effort one of best ever

Middle Tennessee enjoyed a decisive battle advantage on the boards in its win at Louisiana-Lafayette, grabbing 49 caroms and limiting the Ragin' Cajuns to 27. The 49 rebounds are the eighth-most in school history and the most since the Blue Raiders hauled in 50 vs. St. Francis in the 00-01 season opener - a span of 225 games. Desmond Yates led the Blue Raiders on the boards with a career-high 11 rebounds and Theryn Hudson returned from a foot injury that sidelined him for three games and pulled eight boards. Nigel Johnson also continued his strong board work with eight rebounds. Of the 49 rebounds, a whopping 21 were of the offensive variety.

Yates not turning down charity in recent games

Ranked among the Sun Belt's leaders all season in free throw percentage, sophomore Desmond Yates' recent success at the line has allowed him to continually climb up the list. Yates had a stretch of 14 consecutive makes snapped earlier this season at South Alabama. For the season, Yates is connecting on 79.8 percent (87-of-109) of his free-throw attempts, which is good for 12th in the Sun Belt for all games. Yates shot just 71.6 percent (48-of-67) from the free-throw line last season as a freshman.

Lending a helping hand

Blue Raider guards Kevin Kanaskie and Nigel Johnson represent two of the top assist men in the Sun Belt Conference. They were tied for seventh in the league standings with 3.28 helpers per game entering the SBC Championships. They are also among league leaders in assist/turnover ratio with Johnson ranking seventh (1.38) and Kanaskie ninth (1.32).

Blue Raiders enjoy ringing in New Year

One constant for Middle Tennessee under sixth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis has been steady improvement throughout the season. The Blue Raiders have a 66-44 mark under Davis after Jan. 1 for a 60 percent winning ledger and they have never had a losing mark after the start of a New Year under Davis. The Blue Raiders have registered double figure victories after Jan. 1 in five of the previous six seasons under Davis and the one season they did not - 2005-06 - they still won nine games. Middle Tennessee, which has won 10 of 13, completed the month of January with a 5-3 record and was 4-3 in February. The Blue Raiders are 4-0 in March.

Middle Tennessee generally plays well with lead

Middle Tennessee has been solid at protecting leads under sixth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 74-15 under Davis when they lead at the half, (11-3 this season), and they have won a staggering 87 percent (87-13) of the 100 games in which they have led with five minutes remaining, including a 15-0 mark this season.

80 points or more is usually good news for Blue Raiders

When Middle Tennessee has been able to light up the scoreboard under Head Coach Kermit Davis the results have been staggering. Middle Tennessee has won 97 percent of the 30 games in which it has scored 80 or more points in Davis' five-plus seasons. The Blue Raiders are 29-1 in such games, including a 5-0 mark this season. The only time Middle Tennessee failed to win under Davis when scoring more than 80 was an 85-83 overtime setback at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005. The Blue Raiders have won 14 straight overall when scoring 80 or more points.

Kanaskie in game for long haul

Junior guard Kevin Kanaskie has played the full 40 minutes seven times this season, going the distance vs. Troy twice, UL-Monroe, North Texas, Denver, UALR and South Alabama. The State College, Pa., native has been a workhorse for the Blue Raiders the last two seasons. His 35.3 minutes-per-game this season leads the Sun Belt and he has logged 35-plus minutes 21 times. Kanaskie played 1,184 minutes in 2006-07, which were the most minutes played by a Blue Raider in program history. His 37.0 minute-per-game average in 2006-07 was fourth-most for a single season. His career high for minutes played is 44 against South Alabama in an overtime win in the Sun Belt Tournament quarterfinals in 2006-07. Kanaskie's 2,897 minutes played are sixth most all-time at Middle Tennessee and his 31.7 career average is seventh all-time.

Guards on the 'rebound'

Middle Tennessee's guards have been among the top collection of starting perimeter players in the SBC in regard to rebounding this season. Nigel Johnson had a career-high 12 rebounds to lead the Blue Raiders vs. Troy in the SBC quarterfinals and Demetrius Green had a career-high nine rebounds to lead the Blue Raiders in that category at Troy (1/16/08). Good rebounding guards are the norm under Head Coach Kermit Davis at Middle Tennessee and this year is no different as three of the top five rebounders on the team are guards. Green is third on the team in rebounding in all games at 4.5 per game, while Johnson (4.0) and Kevin Kanaskie (4.0) are tied for fourth. The three Blue Raider starting guards (Green, Johnson, Kanaskie) combine to average 12.5 rebounds per game. Green has pulled five or more rebounds in a game 16 times, Kanaskie has five or more in 12 games, and Johnson has pulled five or more 12 times.

Green enjoys strong all-around game vs. North Texas

Middle Tennessee junior guard Demetrius Green had his best game as a Blue Raider vs. North Texas. He had a game-high 21 points on 10-of-16 shooting, seven rebounds and he also had five assists and five steals, establishing personal best in each category. Green scored 13 consecutive points during an eight minute stretch from the end of the first half into the start of the second to help rally the Blue Raiders from an 11-point deficit late in the first half.

What's in a name?

Junior forward Desmond Yates' nickname is "Boogie," which he says was given to him by his grandmother when he was 1-year-old. Yates isn't sure why his grandmother gave him the particular nickname but he has always liked it and prefers to go by "Boogie," as opposed to Desmond.

Blue Raiders enjoy one of best shooting halves ever

Middle Tennessee's 72.7 second-half shooting percentage against Denver was the third-highest in school history for one half and the highest shooting mark for a Blue Raider team in more than 25 years. The single-half record for field goal percentage is 83 percent vs. Akron (2/4/82) and second is 80 percent vs. Tennessee Tech (1/8/81). Each of those marks were also established in the second half. Middle Tennessee's hot-shooting performance in the second half included hitting 13-of-14 shots during one stretch. After the first shot of the half was off the mark, Middle Tennessee players hit six straight before their next miss and then followed with seven consecutive makes before missing another field. Yates was 5-of-5 in the second half, while Demetrius Green was 5-of-6 and Kevin Kanaskie was 3-of-4.

Green enjoys complete game vs. Austin Peay

Junior guard Demetrius Green has provided Middle Tennessee with its most consistent guard play and he delivered his best game as a Blue Raider vs. Austin Peay (12/29/07). Green scored a career-best 24 points - the second-most points by a Blue Raider this season - and he also established career bests for 3-point field goals made (4) and attempted (5). The Lexington, Ky., native was 10-of-13 from the free-throw line, also personal bests.

Kanaskie heating up from outside

Kevin Kanaskie seems to be finding the shooting rhythm that made him one of the top 3-point shooters in school history in 2006-07. Kanaskie matched his career high with five 3-pointers in the win vs. South Alabama (2/14/08) and vs. Troy (3/9/08) in the SBC quarterfinals. He has 140 treys for his career. He connected on four straight 3-pointers during a 4:58 span late in the second half to rally the Blue Raiders against North Texas.

Green, Kanaskie get defensive in win vs. South Alabama

Guards Demetrius Green and Kevin Kanaskie were key in the team's win vs. South Alabama (2/14/08) but it was as much their defense as any part of their game that keyed the upset. Green limited SBC Player of the Year candidate Demetric Bennett to nine points on 4-of-13 shooting, while Kanaskie held Domonic Tilford to two points on 1-of-7 shooting. Bennett's nine points were the second fewest in a game this season the Tilford's two points were a season low. The Jags were 0-of-6 from 3-point range in the first half and they shot just 22 percent (4-of-18) from beyond the arc for the game. South Alabama also shot just 46.8 percent for the game.

Blue Raider defense strong vs. No. 2 Memphis

After being lit up on the scoreboard and in regard to defensive field goal percentage in the early going, Middle Tennessee's defense has been more representative in the last four games. The Blue Raiders continued their strong defensive play against No. 2 Memphis, holding the high-octane Tigers to 65 points, which was almost 20 points below their 82-point-per-game average. The Blue Raiders held the Tigers' two leading scorers - Chris Douglas-Roberts and Derrick Rose to 17 points below their combined season average of 36 points per game between them. After holding Memphis to 65 points, Middle Tennessee clamped down and allowed just 63 points to Florida International.

Blue Raider defense - Part II

Middle Tennessee's defense pitched another gem at Western Kentucky in a 62-51 setback (1/2/08). The Blue Raiders held the high-octane Hilltoppers to 45.3 percent shooting, four 3-pointers, and the 62 points were not only the second fewest they had scored overall all season and the fewest they have scored at Diddle Arena this season. The 62 points were also 17 below their season average of 79 entering the game. Key in the defensive showpiece was the play of Darren Avery and Demetrius Green, who teamed to limit Courtney Lee to six points - 15 below the 21 he was averaging entering the game.

Blue Raider defense - Part III

Middle Tennessee's trademark defense was once again on display in the 65-64 win at Troy (1/16/08). Troy entered the game as the Sun Belt's top offensive team at 82 points per game but was held almost 20 points below its average. The Blue Raiders held the Trojans to 40 percent shooting from the field and just nine second-half field goals.

Blue Raider defense - Part IV

Middle Tennessee's team defense was a big key in the win vs. North Texas as the Blue Raiders held the visitors to 20 points below their season average. The Mean Green came into the contest averaging 80 points per game but they were limited to just 60 against the Blue Raiders, who tied their season high with 13 steals in the win.

Johnson plays like a big man

Junior guard Nigel Johnson pulled a career-high 10 rebounds against North Texas to lead all players from either team in that category. It was Johnson's first double-figure rebounding game but he has had five or more reobunds in a game six times this season. Playing like a big man inside, Johnson also had a career-high two blocked shots in the Middle Tennessee win. Johnson also had five assists in the win.

Spreading the wealth

Middle Tennessee players demonstrated outstanding ball movement and collected assists on 13 of the 26 field goals converted in the win vs. North Texas. Demetrius Green and Nigel Johnson led the way with five helpers each, while Kevin Kanaskie, Dino Hair, and Uriah Hethington each had one.

Who says you can't get something for free?

Middle Tennessee took advantage of charity in its 86-80 overtime win against Belmont (12/12) when the Blue Raiders shot a sizzling 93 percent (26-of-28) from the charity stripe. In fact, Kevin Kanaskie, who set career marks for free throws made (11) and attempted (13) in the game was the only Blue Raider to miss from the free-throw line. Demetrius Green was 6-of-6 in the game and Desmond Yates connected on all four of his attempts. Yates had a stretch of 14 straight free throws made snapped against South Alabama earlier this season.

Don't count them out

Middle Tennessee has been a strong offensive team in the second half of games so far this season. The Blue Raiders are averaging 35.6 points after intermission. They have scored 40 or more points in the second half nine times, including 51 vs. Tennessee Wesleyan, 48 vs. Appalachian State, 47 vs. San Jose State, 44 vs. Houston, 41 vs. South Alabama, 41 vs. Denver, 40 vs. North Texas, 42 at Florida Atlantic, and 41 vs. South Alabama in the SBC semifinals.

Outshooting opposition a key

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 84-12 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher than the opponent. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo last season, despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 56 of the last 66 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 368 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

Blue Raiders ink two during NCAA Early Signing Period

Middle Tennessee signed two players to national letters of intent during the NCAA Early Signing Period, which began Wednesday (11/14). The Blue Raiders landed in-state prospect DeMario Williams from Culleoka High School, and they also signed Aundra Williams, a highly-regarded forward from Orlando, Fla. DeMario Williams is a top-10 prospect in Tennessee and he averaged 18 points, eight assists and eight rebounds in 2006-07. The 6-3 point guard is a two-time Mr. Basketball Finalist. He is one of two players to be named Mr. Basketball Finalist in Tennessee as a sophomore and junior. The other was former North Carolina standout and NBA first-round pick Brandan Wright. Aundra Williams is a 6-8, 235-pound forward at Boone High in Orlando, Fla.

Yates Sun Belt's Player of Week

Sophomore forward Desmond Yates consistently has been one of the top players in the Sun Belt since league play began and his steady work was recognized when he was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week for games played between Feb. 4-10. Yates averaged 17 points and seven rebounds over three games while shooting 71.4 percent (20-of-28) from the field. Yates scored a game-high 28 points with eight rebounds and hit the game-winning 3-pointer while playing all 45 minutes in an 89-86 overtime win at Arkansas State. He finished the week by registering his third double-double in six games (12 points, 10 rebounds) at Florida International.

Boyd declared eligible by NCAA

Middle Tennessee freshman guard Antwaun Boyd has been cleared by the NCAA Clearinghouse and declared eligible. A heralded member of Middle Tennessee's 2007 signing class, Boyd will take a redshirt season in 2007-08. He was enrolled at Middle Tennessee as a part-time student in the fall but could not participate in team activities. He was granted partial eligibility by the NCAA following the fall semester and was able to begin practicing with the team while his case was being appealed. Boyd was ranked as one of the Top 10 players in Indiana by numerous rankings and recruiting services after a stellar career at Anderson High School in Anderson, Ind. He was selected to play in the Hoosiers Reunion All-Star Classic and was a McDonald's All-American nominee. Boyd led Anderson to a 24-2 record and a No. 3 state ranking as a junior, when he averaged 17 points, seven rebounds and four assists, and he averaged 20 points, eight rebounds and three assists as a senior.

Attendance record falls at Sommet Center

Middle Tennessee established a new "home" attendance record when 18,071 attended its game vs. No. 2 Memphis in the Sun Belt Classic at the Sommet Center in downtown Nashville, Dec. 15. The previous record for a Blue Raider home basketball was 11,807 vs. Western Kentucky, Feb. 26, 2004. That mark still stands as the all-time record at Murphy Center; however, since the game against Memphis was a designated home game for Middle Tennessee it does count on the home attendance. The sellout also set a new record for a regular-season game at the Sommet Center. The previous record was 8,118 when Tennessee played Oklahoma State in the facility, Dec. 18, 2006.
