Belmont returns from long layoff to face Blue Raiders

After a break for semester exams Belmont returns to the court to face Middle Tennessee. Belmont ranks among the nation's best in several categories beyond the 3-point line. The Bruins are third nationally in 3-point field goals per game (11.5) and fifth nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (.431). Wicke and senior Matthew Dotson pace the Atlantic Sun Conference in both categories. The Bruins' balanced scoring attack is led by Wicke (12.7), Dotson (12.2) and Shane Dansby (10.2). Belmont Head Coach Rick Byrd is in his 23rd season at Belmont University. He has compiled a 452-251 record during his tenure in Nashville and holds a career mark of 544-306 in his 28th season as a head coach. Belmont is a member of the Atlantic Sun Conference.

Middle Tennessee, Belmont have long history

Middle Tennessee and Belmont have met on the hardwood each of the last five seasons, including Wednesday's contest at Belmont, which will be the 28th meeting between the schools. Middle Tennessee leads the series 19-8. The Blue Raiders have won four of the last five between the schools with all five meetings taking place with Kermit Davis as Middle Tennessee's head coach. The series began in 1953-54 and the teams have faced another another in each decade since.

Yates becomes 28th Blue Raider with 1,000-plus points

Middle Tennessee junior forward became the 28th player in program history with 1,000-plus career points with 21 against UT-Martin (12/15). Yates needed 14 entering the game and scored a team-high 21 to reach 1,007 career points, moving past Charles Harmening (1,006) for 27th on the all-time scoring list. Yates reached the milestone with the second of two free throws with 7:43 remaining.

Blue Raiders reverse fortunes, enjoy SBC success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the fourth-highest win percentage (57 percent) and the fourth-most wins (62) among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined. Only WKU, Louisiana-Lafayette and South Alabama have more wins vs. league teams during this stretch.

Yates named Mid-Major All-American

Junior forward Desmond "Boogie" Yates has been named to the CollegeInsider.com Preseason Mid-Major All-American team. He is the only Sun Belt Conference player selected to the 25-player list. Yates also earned honorable mention recognition from CollegeHoops.net on its Mid-Major Preseason All-American team. Yates also was named Blue Ribbon Magazine's SBC Preseason Player of the Year, and Lindy's Magazine named him the SBC's Best NBA Prospect in its preseason honor roll.

Players within reach of career marks

Several Blue Raiders are chasing career records and milestones in 2008-09. Senior guard Kevin Kanaskie is closing in on Gerald Harris' career assists record that has stood for almost 20 years. Kanaskie is third on the career list with 413 helpers and needs 51 to set a new standard. He also is fifth all-time for 3-point field goals with 161 and needs 61 to break Robert Taylor's mark of 222. Kanaskie also is 10th all-time for free-throw percentage (.794) and also is on pace to set the all-time record for games played and most minutes played during a four-year career. Senior center Theryn Hudson's .604 field goal percentage is second all-time and he trails only Warren Kidd (.664) for the top spot. Hudson's 61 career blocks are fourth on the career list. Kidd owns the all-time mark with 185 blocks in a three-year career. Kanaskie can join teammate Desmond Yates and in the 1,000-point club this season. Kanaskie is 30th all-time in scoring with 962 points, needing just 38 to become a member of the 1,000-point club. Yates reached the milestone vs. UT-Martin and is currently 27th all-time in scoring with 1,007 points.

Kermit Davis File

In his seventh at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history. The Blue Raiders registered four straight winning seasons under Davis to start his Blue Raider coaching career, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The Blue Raiders averaged 17 wins in Davis' first six seasons, which is the second-best wins average after six seasons in program history. The Blue Raiders are one of three current league members to play in multiple SBC Championship games during this six-year span (2003, 2008). Davis earned his 100th win as Middle Tennessee's head coach when the Blue Raiders upset South Alabama in the semifinals of the 2008 SBC Championships. He became the second fastest to 100 wins among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches, reaching the milestone in 182 games. Davis is third on the all-time wins list with 104.

Davis notches milestone win

Head coach Kermit Davis became the second-fastest to reach 100 wins at Middle Tennessee when the Blue Raiders upset South Alabama, 82-73, in the semifinals of the 2008 Sun Belt Championships. Davis reached the milestone in his 182nd career game at Middle Tennessee. The 100 wins under Davis in his first six seasons represent the best six-year total for the program since 1988-93 (105 wins). The Blue Raiders have averaged 17 wins in Davis' first six seasons, which is the second-best wins average for any Middle Tennessee coach after six seasons.

Davis among coaching leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. He currently has 104 wins. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.547) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis secures career win 225

Kermit Davis secured his 225th win as a head coach when Middle Tennessee beat Denver, 68-50 (1/5/08) at Murphy Center. Davis owns 175 wins in his 11th season at the Division I level and he won 66 in three years as a junior college head coach. He currently has 241 career victories as a head coach.

Davis among Sun Belt's all-time winningest coaches

Middle Tennessee coach Kermit Davis is second in all-time victories among active Sun Belt coaches with 52, trailing only Ronnie Arrow in his second stint at South Alabama. Overall, Davis is 12th among the league's all-time winningest coaches in Sun Belt play with 52 victories. Next on the list is former UNCC/USF coach Lee Rose with 53 wins. The all-time Sun Belt wins leader is Gene Bartow, who won 111 games during his 12 seasons at former conference member UAB. These totals only include regular-season conference wins.

Middle Tennessee among SBC's best under Davis

Middle Tennessee is one of three league members (WKU, Louisiana-Lafayette) to play in multiple SBC Championship games (2003, 2008) since 2003, and it is just one of three SBC members (WKU, South Alabama) to reach the quarterfinals in each of the last six years. Middle Tennessee and WKU are the only SBC schools to reach the league's semifinals five times in the last six years.

Davis selected to chair Mid-Major Top 25 poll

Kermit Davis has been selected as chairman of the Top 25 voting panel for the Mid-Major Top 25 poll. The Mid-Major Poll is made up of teams from the following conferences: America East, Atlantic Sun, Big Sky, Big South, Big West, Colonial, Horizon, Independents, Ivy, Metro Atlantic, Mid-American, Mid-Eastern, Missouri Valley, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Southern, Southland, Southwestern, Summit League, Sun Belt, West Coast.

High-scoring Blue Raiders lighting up scoreboard

Middle Tennessee has scored 80 or more points four times, including the last two in succession, and it is 4-0 in those games. Middle Tennessee scored a season-high 94 points vs. Trevecca and followed that with 80 in a win vs. Houston Baptist. The Blue Raiders also have scored 80-plus in their last two games - 80 vs. SIU-Edwardsville and 81 vs. Troy. They are 33-1 under Head Coach Kermit Davis when scoring 80 or more, including wins in 18 straight contests.

Attendance mark vs. Tennessee second on single-game list

Middle Tennessee's game vs. No. 13 Tennessee drew a crowd of 11,802, which is the second-largest in school history and just five off the single-game attendance record. The game marked the first regular season visit to Murphy Center for in-state foe Tennessee and was sold out prior to gameday. The top two all-time attendance marks at Middle Tennessee have occurred under Head Coach Kermit Davis. Prior to his arrival in 2002 Middle Tennessee had one sellout since 1975. The single-game attendance mark is 11,807, vs. WKU.

Blue Raiders starting to get healty

Middle Tennessee welcomed the return of seniors Nigel Johnson and Theryn Hudson to the court in its win vs. Troy. Hudson (foot) had missed five of the team's first six games with a foot and ankle injury prior to the Troy game, while Johnson (knee) had missed consecutive games vs. Houston and SIU-Edwardsville after suffering a knee injury at Vanderbilt. The duo helped key an 18-0 run midway through the first half vs. Troy that spearheaded the win. They combined for 11 points, 14 rebounds and six assists in the victory.

Enjoying a breakout on the boards

Despite playing five of the first seven games without 6-foot-10 starting center Theryn Hudson, Middle Tennessee has more than held its own on the boards. In fact, the Blue Raiders have 45 or more rebounds in three of the last four games and four of eight. The Blue Raiders had 50 rebounds, including 19 offensive caroms, against SIU-Edwardsville. It marked the most rebounds for the Blue Raiders since pulling 54 against Tennessee Wesleyan, Dec. 2, 2004. Middle Tennessee had 46 rebounds (17 offensive) against Houston and grabbed 46 (13 offensive) vs. Troy. Overall, it is averaging 37.9 rebounds. Senior foward Desmond Yates leads the team with 5.9 rebounds, while Montarrio Haddock is second with 5.4 in just 14.8 minutes of action.

Kanaskie ranks among nation's best

Senior point guard Kevin Kanaskie ranks among the nation's best point guards according to the NCAA National Statistics. Kanaskie is third nationally in assist/turnover ratio at 4.89. His 6.3 assists per game rank 21st nationally in that category. Kanaskie dished out seven assists in Middle Tennessee's win vs. Troy and is one of three players in program history with 400 or more career assists. He has 413 and needs just 51 to break Gerald Harris' all-time mark of 463.

Kanaskie, Yates move up career scoring list

Kevin Kanaskie and Desmond Yates continue to move up the Middle Tennessee career scoring list. Yates scored 21 vs. UT-Martin to reach the 1,000 point milestone. He now has 1,007 career points and is 27th on the all-time list. Not far behind is Kanaskie, who reached 962 career points - 30th all-time - vs. UT-Martin. He needs 38 points to become the only player in program history with 1,000 points, 400 assists, 150 3-pointers and 100 steals. When Kanaskie reaches 1,000 career points, he and Yates will become the first teammates in the 1,000-point club playing on the same team since Warren Kidd and Robert Taylor in 1993.

3

Middle Tennessee head coach Kermit Davis is No. 3 on the school's all-time wins list with 104 victories.

3 (for now)

Senior guard Kevin Kanaskie is third on the career assists list at Middle Tennessee with 413.

7

Middle Tennessee has utilized seven different starting lineups in the first eight games. The only lineup used twice is Kanaskie, Johnson, Green, Haddock, and Yates. Kanaskie and Yates are the only players to start in all eight games.

12

Senior guard Nigel Johnson is 12-of-12 at the free-throw line this season. He is sixth on the career free-throw percentage list at Middle Tennessee with an 80 percent clip (114-of-142).

18

Middle Tennessee sophomore forward Desmond Yates has 18 career games with 20 or more points. The Blue Raiders are 13-5 in those contests.

25

1,000

Desmond Yates (1,007) and Kanaskie (962) are looking to become the first teammates playing with 1,000 career points since 1993.

Yates named SBC Player of Week

Desmond "Boogie" Yates was named the SBC Player of the Week (12/15) after averaging 24 points and 8.5 rebounds in games vs. Troy and UT-Martin. Yates scored a season-high 27 points and had a career-high 13 rebounds in the win vs. Troy. He followed that with 21 points vs. UT-Martin to become the 28th member of the program's 1,000-point club.

Yates' scoring binges key victories

Desmond "Boogie" Yates has registered 18 games with 20-plus points in his career and the Blue Raiders are 13-4 in those games, including 3-1 this season. He has scored double figures in 51 of 72 career games (701 percent). He had a string of 15 consecutive double figure scoring games snapped with eight vs. Tennessee (11/21/08) after getting into early foul trouble. He has scored double figures in 27 of 30 overall. Yates' career shooting clip of 56.4 percent is ninth all time. He has been the team's leading scorer in 32 of 72 career games.

Green picks up where he left off as offensive threat

Senior guard Demetrius Green has been one of Middle Tennessee's top sources of offense since the midway point of the 2007-08 season - his first as a Blue Raider. Green has scored double figures in 15 of 16 games and 19 of 21 dating to last season. Green has scored double figures in 29 of 38 career games overall and he has led Middle Tennessee in scoring 10 times. He has started his senior season in the same manner in which he ended his junior campaign. Green is averaging 12 points and 4.2 rebounds. He debuted for the 2008-09 season vs. Tennessee and responded with 17 points on 7-of-12 shooting from the field, despite playing the second half on a hobbled ankle. He followed that performance with 15 points and seven rebounds - both game highs - at Vanderbilt.

Haddock coming on strong

Junior transfer Montarrio Haddock continues to blossom as he adjusts to the Division I level in his first season at Middle Tennessee after spending his first two collegiate seasons as one of the all-time leading scorers in Brunswick CC history. He is averaging 12.3 points and 7.0 rebounds in the last three games. Haddock earned his second career start vs. SIU-Edwardsville and responded with career highs for points (19), rebounds (9), field goals (8) and minutes (24). He earned a second straight start vs. Troy and totaled 10 points and four rebounds in 12 minutes. Haddock is averaging 7.0 points and 5.4 rebounds in an average of 14.8 minutes per game. He has 18 offensive rebounds and has pulled four or more boards in seven of eight games. He also has scored in all eight games as a Blue Raider.

Johnson perfect from charity stripe

Senior guard Nigel Johnson has connected on all 12 free-throw attempts this season. Johnson is sixth on the career list for free-throw percentage (.802, 114-142) at Middle Tennessee. He has scored double figures in three of the last four games and notched his 500th career point at Vandy. He reached 200 career assists with six vs. Tennessee.

80 is a good number

When Middle Tennessee has been able to light up the scoreboard under Head Coach Kermit Davis the results have been staggering. Middle Tennessee has won 97 percent of the 34 games in which it has scored 80 or more points in Davis' six-plus seasons. The Blue Raiders are 33-1 in such games. The only time Middle Tennessee failed to win under Davis when scoring more than 80 was an 85-83 overtime setback at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005. The Blue Raiders have won 18 straight overall when scoring 80 or more points. They are 67-16 under Davis when scoring 70 or more points.

Difficult to beat with the lead

Middle Tennessee has been solid playing with the lead under seventh-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 79-15 under Davis when they lead at the half, and they have won an astounding 88 percent (91-13) of the 104 games in which they have led with five minutes remaining.

Outshooting opposition a key

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 88-12 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher than the opponent. They had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 OT setback to Toledo in 2006-07, despite shooting 58 percent. Middle Tennessee has won 60 of the last 70 games when it has a higher shooting percentage.

Backcourt draws rave reviews from Blue Ribbon Magazine

An experienced backcourt is part of the reason for optimism regarding Middle Tennessee basketball in 2008-09 and Blue Ribbon Magazine believes the Blue Raiders sport the best backcourt in the Sun Belt. In its rating of the league's top backcourts, Blue Ribbon listed Middle Tennessee first, followed by North Texas and Louisiana-Lafayette. The Blue Raiders return starting guards Kevin Kanaskie, Nigel Johnson and Demetrius Green from 2007-08.

Johnson, Kanaskie dangerous duo on perimeter

Middle Tennessee's backcourt tandem of Nigel Johnson and Kevin Kanaskie has been strong all season and was particiularly strong in consecutive games vs. Tennessee and Vanderbilt. Johnson and Kanaskie combined for 18 assists and three turnovers in the two games. Kanaskie had no turnovers in the two-game stretch and has dished out 48 assists and has just 12 turnovers in the first eight games. Johnson has 23 assists and 12 turnovers in six games. Tennessee's touted pressure did not hamper Johnson or Kanaskie as the Blue Raiders had just nine turnovers. Johnson and Kanaskie combined for 12 assists and two turnovers in 76 minutes.

Coaches peg Middle Tennessee team to beat in SBC East

Middle Tennessee was the overwhelming favorite to win the Sun Belt's East Division in the Preseason Coaches Poll released at Media Days in October. The Blue Raiders received 11 of a possible 13 first-place votes and 76 total points to outdistance South Alabama, which was picked second with 60 points and received the remaining two first-place votes. WKU was picked third in the East with 52 points. The top three teams in the West Division - UALR, North Texas, and Louisiana-Lafayette - were separated by one point in preseason balloting.

Yates SBC Preseason Player of Year; Kanaskie named All-SBC

Junior forward Desmond "Boogie" Yates was voted Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year at the league's annual Media Days. Yates was an all-first team performer as a sophomore. He also was named to the All-SBC first team. Senior guard Kevin Kanaskie was named to the All-SBC second team.

Blue Raiders popular pick for publications

Middle Tennessee was picked as the preseason favorite to win the Sun Belt's East Division by league coaches but national publications that release preseason polls also have jumped on the Blue Raider bandwagon. Middle Tennessee was voted the Sun Belt's preseason favorite by Blue Ribbon Magazine, Athlon, Lindy's, and Rivals.com. Blue Ribbon Magazine named Desmond Yates its preseason player of the year in the Sun Belt and placed him on the preseason All-SBC team. Yates also was named Preseason All-SBC by Lindy's and Athlon. Lindy's also named senior guard Kevin Kanaskie to its All-SBC second team. Additionally, Lindy's cited three Blue Raiders as being among the league's best players. The magazine named Yates the SBC's best NBA prospect; Kanaskie the league' s best playmaker; and Calvin O'Neil the best defender.

Kanaskie enjoys strong start

Heralded guard Kevin Kanaskie set records, reached milestones and tied all-time Blue Raider greats with one of his best performances in a career filled with memorable ones against Trevecca. Kanaskie enjoyed his third career double double with 22 points and 11 assists. Kanaskie tied former great Duane Washington for the most career double-figure assist games in school history (4). The 11 assists tied for 13th most in a single game. He also tied the school record for 3-point field goal percentage (6-of-6)

Kanaskie takes unconventional approach for double doubles

The conventional double double is points and rebounds but Middle Tennessee players have turned in nine such games dating back to 1985 using a different approach and Kanaskie has produced three of the nine. Kanaskie produced his fourth career double double with 22 points and 11 assists in the opener. Each of his double doubles has consisted of points and assists. Kanaskie narrowly missed a second straight double double with nine points and nine assists vs. Houston Baptist.

Extended 3-point line doesn't hurt record-setting Blue Raiders in opener

The NCAA extend the men's basketball 3-point line one foot to 20-feet, nine-inches in order to make the great equalizer in the sport a bit more difficult for the 2008-09 season. The added distance didn't hurt Middle Tennessee shooters in the opener. The Blue Raiders established a new single-game record for 3-point field goal percentage, scorching the nets to the tune of 66.7 percent (12-of-18) to best the previous mark of 64.7 (11-of-17) against UT-Martin during the 1999-00 season. Middle Tennessee shot 89 percent from beyond the arc in the opening half by knocking down eight of nine attempts. The eight treys tied for the second-most in one half in a single game.

SBC's star power rests in East Division?

Four of the five players selected to the Preseason All-SBC first team by league coaches hail from the East Division and seven of the top 10 players (first and second teams) are from the East Division. Middle Tennessee is one of three teams to have two players listed on the first or second team (Kevin Kanaskie, Desmond Yates), joining South Alabama and North Texas.

O'Neil enjoys successful comeback

Junior Calvin O'Neil returned to the court for Middle Tennessee one year after suffering a season-ending injury in the 07-08 opener and earned starts in four games to date. O'Neil is averaging 5.6 points, 4.0 rebounds and 1.0 assist. He scored 10 points in each of the first two contests, marking the 12th time he has produced double figures. Middle Tennessee is 10-2 in those games.

Sharing the wealth: Blue Raiders assist all but six baskets in win

Middle Tennessee players combined to assist a staggering 84 percent of the team's 38 field goals in their season-opening win. The Blue Raiders' 32 assists tied for the fifth most in a single game. Kevin Kanaskie led with 11 helpers. In fact, guards Kanaskie, Nigel Johnson, Eric Allen, and Demario Williams combined for 24 assists and just three turnovers for a 7-to-1 assist/turnover ratio. Kanaskie had 11 assists and one turnover, Johnson had five assists and no turnovers, Allen had three assists and no turnovers, and Williams had five assists and two turnovers.

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 377 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

What's in a name?

Junior forward Desmond Yates' nickname is "Boogie," which he says was given to him by his grandmother when he was 1-year-old. Yates isn't sure why his grandmother gave him the particular nickname but he has always liked it and prefers to go by "Boogie," as opposed to Desmond.

Enjoyed strong return to the court after suffering a season-ending knee injury in the 2007-08 opener ... Earned starts in first two games back and reached double figures in both games with 10 in each contest ... The Blue Raiders are 10-2 when O'Neil scores double figures, including 2-0 this season. The only games Middle Tennessee didn't win with O'Neil in double figures was at Tennessee (11 in 2006) and vs. San Jose State when he scored 10 prior to being injured ... Collected career-high nine rebounds vs. SIU-Edwardsville ... Contributed four assists vs.Trevecca and two steals vs. Houston Baptist ... Played season-high 25 minutes at Vanderbilt ... Was 6-of-6 from free-throw line at Vanderbilt ... Tied career high with three steals vs. SIU-Edwardsville and matched that with three more vs. UT-Martin ... Has seen action in all eight games, earning four starts.

GETTING TO KNOW JOSH

Reason you decided to attend Middle Tennessee
Liked the campus, good all-around fit

Something about you people don't know
I'm shy

What is it that makes Coach Davis successful
Toughness

Title of book about my life would be
Put God First

My motto is
I can do all things through Christ that strengtheneth me

Favorite food
All food

Person who influences my life most
God

My advice to youth
Stay in school, put your mind into everything you do, put God first

Sport other than basketball I would play at MT
Football

Saw action in first two games of Blue Raider career ... Scored first career points against Trevecca ... Collected three rebounds vs. Trevecca and Houston Baptist ... Came off bench with two points and one steal vs. SIU-Edwardsville.
