Middle Tennessee (1-0) vs. Rice (1-0)

When: November 23, 2004 (7:05 p.m.)
Site: Houston, Texas.- Autry Court (5,000)
TV: None
Radio: WBOZ FM 104.9 & WMOT FM 89.5 (Dick Palmer, Jan Stauffer)
Series: Middle Tennessee leads, 2-0
Last Meeting: Middle Tennessee 65, Rice 52 (12/04/01)
Notes: The game pits two teams expected to contend for their respective league championships. Middle Tennessee is the preseason pick of coaches to win the Sun Belt's East Division, while Rice is the preseason favorite in the WAC.

Middle Tennessee Vs. Rice

Middle Tennessee is 2-0 all-time against Rice. The Blue Raiders won at Rice, 75-73, in overtime (12/04/2000) in the first meeting between the schools. Middle Tennessee also won the most recent meeting, 65-52, (12/04/2001) at Murphy Center. Middle Tennessee's overtime win at Rice in 2000 was the high point of an otherwise dismal 5-22 campaign that included a 15-game losing streak to end the season.

Big Early-Season Match-up Looms

Tuesday night's game between Rice and Middle Tennessee pits two teams expected to contend for their respective conference championships. Middle Tennessee was the preseason choice of league coaches to win the Sun Belt's East Division, while Rice is the preseason favorite in the WAC. The Owls won their season opener in impressive fashion with a 77-56 triumph against Mobile University in Houston Saturday night. Rice returns 12 players from its 22-win season in 2003-04. They are led by a trio of talented seniors in Michael Harris, Jason McKrieth and Brock Gillespie, a Clarksville, Tenn., native. Like Middle Tennessee, the Rice program has been on a recent upswing. Rice has produced 41 wins in the last two seasons, which is the second-highest two-year total in the 90-year history of Rice basketball. Rice is led by coach Willson Willis in his 13th season.

Blue Raiders Are Box Office Hits

Middle Tennessee has seen a 66 percent increase in attendance since Kermit Davis became head coach prior to the start of the 2002-03 season. If Friday night's opener against Lambuth is an indication, Middle Tennessee could well be on its way to an attendance increase for the third straight year under Davis. The Blue Raiders drew 3,719 for their opener against Lambuth, which marked the largest crowd for a home opener since 11/22/1999 when 4,873 attended the Tennessee Temple game. The season-opening crowd was just under the average attendance for the 2003-04 season when Middle Tennessee averaged 3,743 for 13 home dates. The 3,719 represents the third-largest crowd for a Middle Tennessee home opener in the last 10 years. In fact, three of the top five attendance marks in Middle Tennessee home openers during the last 10 have occurred during the Davis era.

Middle Tennessee Six Pack

Middle Tennessee had six players reach double figures in the season opener against Lambuth, which marked the first time the Blue Raiders have had as many players tally double figures since Nov. 17, 2001 - a span of 88 games - when seven players scored 10 or more against Bryan College. Middle Tennessee had only three games during that stretch with five players or more reaching double figures until Friday night when Mike Dean (19), Marcus Morrison (18), Michael Cuffee (13), Brian Lake (12), Bryan Smithson (10) and Kyle Young (10) all scored 10 or more points.

Reaching 90-Point Mark Has Been Rare

Middle Tennessee busted out with a 95-point performance in its opener, marking the third time the Blue Raiders have scored 90 or more points under Head Coach Kermit Davis and they have won all three. Scoring 90 or more points has not been common for Middle Tennessee during the past five years. The Blue Raiders had scored 90 points or more in a game just 10 times in the previous five years entering the 2004-05 season. The 95-point performance represented the most points for a Blue Raider team since Feb. 26, 2000 when Middle Tennessee beat UT-Martin, 96-78.

Dean Stays Hot From 3-Point Range

Senior guard Mike Dean was 4-of-6 from 3-point range against Lambuth but multiple treys in a game is nothing new for the Blue Raiders' first-team All-SBC selection. Dean has hit at least one 3-pointer

His career-high for 3-pointers in a game is seven against Arkansas State (1/15/04). Over his last five games, Dean is shooting 43 percent (12-of-28) from beyond the arc.

Unselfish Play Equals 25 Assists

Middle Tennessee had assists on 25 of its 35 field goals against Lambuth, representing the most assists for the Blue Raiders in a single game since they dished out 26 against St. Francis (11/17/2000). Middle Tennessee has had just seven games with 20 or more assists since the 2000-01 season and four of those have come under third-year coach Kermit Davis. Middle Tennessee's point guards combined for 12 assists and no turnovers in the season opener. Sophomore point guard Bryan Smithson led Middle Tennessee with eight assists and no turnovers against Lambuth, while reserve point Fats Cuyler delivered four assists and no turnovers, much to the delight of Davis.

Cuffee Picking Up Where He Left Off

Senior guard/forward Michael Cuffee started the 2004-05 season the same way he ended last season, knocking down almost every shot he took. Cuffee was 5-of-6 from the field for 13 points against Lambuth. Cuffee got on a roll toward the end of last season and hasn't cooled. In his last five games, Cuffee is shooting 59 percent from the field (29-of-49), 53 percent from 3-point (8-of-15) and averaging 17 points. There isn't much drop-off when tracking Cuffee's performance in his previous 10 games, during which time the Philadelphia, Pa., native is shooting 55 percent (49-of-89) from the field, 48 percent (11-of-23) from 3-point range and averaging 14.7 points. Cuffee has scored double figures in nine of his last 10 games.

Davis Preaches Strong Defense

When Middle Tennessee men's basketball coach Kermit Davis was hired prior to the start of the 2002-03 season he said a premium would be placed on defense and rebounding, and with good reason. The Blue Raiders have been an outstanding defensive team under Davis and the proof of staunch defensive play is in the won-loss record. Including Friday's night opener against Lambuth, Middle Tennessee has held the opposition to 40 percent or less from the field in 43 percent of the games Davis has coached (26 out of 60). The Blue Raiders are 23-3 in those games for a staggering 89 percent winning percentage. They are also 9-0 during the same period when holding the opponent to less than 35 percent.

Starters Strong Out Of The Gate

Middle Tennessee's starting five came out of the gate on fire against Lambuth in the opener. The starting five combined to shoot 69 percent (27-of-39) from the field, and 69 percent (9-of-13) from 3-point range. Third-year coach Kermit Davis pointed toward making the extra pass and getting quality looks at the goal as a prime reason for the red-hot shooting performance. Following are the Blue Raider starters in the opener and their performances from the field: Kyle Young (5-5 FG, 0-0 3-PT), Michael Cuffee (5-6, 0-0), Bryan Smithson (4-6, 1-2), Mike Dean (6-10, 4-6) and Marcus Morrison (7-12, 4-5).

Middle Tennessee Picked To Win SBC East

Middle Tennessee has been picked as the pre-season favorite to win the Sun Belt's East Division in a preseason poll of league coaches. It marks the first time the Blue Raiders have been picked first since joining the Sun Belt in 2001. Middle Tennessee received eight of a possible 11 first-place votes and 51 total points to finish ahead of defending East Division champion Arkansas-Little Rock (3 first-place votes, 44 points). Louisiana-Lafayette was a unanimous pick to win the West Division.

Three Blue Raiders Earn Preseason All-SBC

Middle Tennessee had three players named to the All-SBC Preseason team as voted on by league coaches and media relations directors. Senior guard Mike Dean was named to the league's five-member first-team after leading Middle Tennessee in scoring at 16.2 points per game last season. Senior guard/forward Michael Cuffee and senior center Steve Thomas were named to the third team. Cuffee was among SBC leaders in scoring (12.3) and rebounding (5.8) last season, and he earned All-SBC Tournament honors after a strong showing in the league tournament. Thomas is the only newcomer on the preseason squad. He sat out last season after transferring from the University of Georgia and will become eligible when the Blue Raiders play in the San Juan Shootout, Dec. 20.

Junior guard/forward Marcus Morrison and freshman forward Brian Lake enjoyed breakout games in their Middle Tennessee debut against Lambuth. Morrison, a St. Petersburg, Fla., native, scored 18 points on 7-of-12 shooting, including 4-5 from 3-point range, hauled in five rebounds and dished out three assists. Lake, a freshman from Bolivar, Tenn., was 5-of-8 from the field and scored 12 points in 13 minutes of action. He also hauled in three rebounds. All four Blue Raider newcomers- Morrison, Lake, Fats Cuyler, and Jonathan Loe - all scored their first career points in the win.

Notable career debuts:

- Robert Taylor, the all-time leading scorer in Middle Tennessee history with 1,622 points, scored 11 points on 3-of-15 shooting in his debut against Mississippi Valley State (11/23/90).

- Kerry Hammonds scored 14 points and had eight rebounds as Middle Tennessee beat BYU-Hawaii, 95-81, in the Hawaii Classic (11/22/1985). Hammonds played in the postseason all four years of his Blue Raider career.

Smithson Tops In Consecutive Starts

Sophomore point guard Bryan Smithson has 29 consecutive starts under his belt, which is the longest such streak on the Middle Tennessee basketball team. Smithson came off the bench in his first game as a Blue Raider and then started the next 29 games. The Kennesaw, Ga., native averaged 30 minutes a game during his freshman season and was among SBC leaders in assists and steals. Senior guard Mike Dean has the second longest streak of consecutive starts with 24. The high-scoring marksman has started every game in which he has played during his Blue Raider career, but Dean missed the two games in the SBC Tournament with a broken hand and he missed the team's first four games of the 2003-04 season due to the NCAA transfer rule. Senior guard/forward Michael Cuffee has started 23 consecutive games, and he has earned starts in 26 of the 27 games he has played at Middle Tennessee.

Davis Inks Four During Early Signing

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis announced the signing of four players to national letters-of-intent during the NCAA Early Signing Period, which concluded Nov. 17. The Blue Raiders signed four prep standouts during the week-long period, including Darren Avery, a 6-foot-3 guard from Corinth, Miss., Deno Hair, a 6-foot-8 power forward from Picayune, Miss., Uriah Hethington, a 6-foot-9 center from Cairo, Ga., and Kevin Kanaskie, a 6-foot-2 point guard from State College, Pa. Avery is the No. 6-rated prep prospect in Mississippi and averaged 14.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 1.8 assists, while shooting 52 percent from the field and 30 percent from 3-point range as a junior. Hair averaged 12 points, eight rebounds, three blocks and three steals as a junior at Picayune Memorial High School as a junior. He has been named to the Mississippi "Dandy Dozen," which includes the 12 best prep players in the state. Hethington averaged 12 points and 10 rebounds for Cairo High School and is listed as a "Dandy Dozen" by the Atlanta-Journal Constitution in Georgia. Kanaskie brings tremendous skills to the Blue Raider program and is a true point guard with a knack for making those around him better.

Blue Raiders To Play In ESPN Bracket Buster

Middle Tennessee will play in the third annual ESPN Bracket Buster, Feb. 19, 2005. The Blue Raiders were awarded a home game in the men's college basketball event against an opponent to be named at a later date. Fellow Sun Belt members Arkansas-Little Rock, New Orleans and Western Kentucky join the Blue Raiders in the 64-team, 13-conference field. Pairings for the contests will be announced Feb. 3, 2005. A total of 11 of the 32 games will be televised, including six games on ESPN or ESPN2, and the other five games will be televised on ESPN's Full Court and on regional and local syndication. The remaining 21 games will not be televised. The evaluation and pairings of teams for the 11-game ESPN television package will be made by the staff of ESPN, in consultation with conference commissioners of participating leagues. The Sun Belt is 3-1 in the Bracket Buster during the previous two years. In addition to four representatives from the Sun Belt, the Horizon League, Mid-American, Missouri Valley, Western Athletic, America East, Big Sky, Big West, Colonial Athletic, Metro Atlantic, Mid-Continent, Ohio Valley and Southern Conference have members participating in 2005. Two non-conference foes on the 2004-05 Middle Tennessee schedule - Virginia Commonwealth and Austin Peay - are among the 64-team field.

Anniversary Of MT Championship Teams

This season marks the 30-year anniversary of Middle Tennessee's first conference championship and NCAA Tournament team in 1974-75, as well as the 20-year anniversary of the 1984-85 championship squad that reached the NCAA Tournament. The 1974-75 Blue Raiders, under the direction of Head Coach Jimmy Earle, won the Ohio Valley Conference regular-season and tournament titles and became the first Middle Tennessee

The squad fashioned a 17-14 overall mark and lost to North Carolina, 76-57, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Blue Raiders Win Exhibition By 24

Five Middle Tennessee players, led by Michael Cuffee's game-high 18 points, scored in double figures and the Blue Raiders erupted for 52 second-half points en route to an 86-62 win against North Alabama in the team's only exhibition game of the preseason at Murphy Center (11/12). Cuffee led Middle Tennessee with a double-double, scoring 18 points on 9-of-15 shooting from the field and yanking 13 rebounds. Freshman Brian Lake (14 points), sophomore Kyle Young (13 points), senior Mike Dean (10 points) and newcomer Marcus Morrison (10 points) all reached double figures for the Blue Raiders in front of a boisterous crowd of 1,811. Middle Tennessee shot 55 percent for the game and limited North Alabama to just 35 percent. The Blue Raiders had 22 assists and 15 turnovers, while forcing 10 Lions turnovers. Middle Tennessee also won the battle of the boards, 54-34.

Blue Raiders Looking For A '3-Peat'

Middle Tennessee enters the 2004-05 basketball season in search of three straight winning seasons for the first time since the 1995-96 through 1998-99 seasons. In fact, the back-to-back winning seasons produced during the past two years under Head Coach Kermit Davis marked the first time Middle Tennessee had enjoyed consecutive winning seasons since the 1996-97, 1997-98 seasons.

Kermit Davis

Head Coach • Mississippi State, 1982 • 3rd Season • 34-26 (.566)

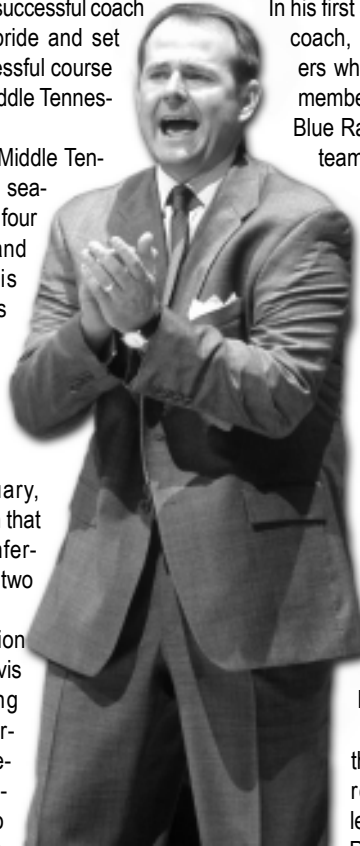

Toughness, accountability, intensity, defense, and hard work were intangibles on which Kermit Davis said he would build the Middle Tennessee program when he was hired as the 19th men's head basketball coach in April, 2002. It didn't take long for Davis' blueprint for success to unfold, as the successful coach has been able to restore pride and set the Blue Raiders on a successful course in his first two seasons at Middle Tennessee.

Prior to Davis' arrival, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the previous four years, but the energetic and highly-successful Davis quickly changed the fortunes and began a Blue Raider revival. He has produced a 33-26 mark in his first two seasons, including a 29-18 record since the start of Sun Belt play in January, 2003. Not bad for a program that had enjoyed just one conference tournament win in the two years prior to his arrival.

The Blue Raider Nation would have to be patient, Davis warned; because winning programs aren't built overnight. It takes time, solid recruiting classes, and the installation of a philosophy to ultimately reach long-term goals. But in two short years under Davis, Middle Tennessee has been in the Sun Belt championship hunt into the final week of each season. The Blue Raiders reached the Sun Belt Tournament title game in 2003, their first appearance in a conference tournament championship since 1989; and they missed the chance to make it two league title games in as many years when they dropped a 70-66 decision to Louisiana-Lafayette in 2004 in the semifinals.

In his first season as the Blue Raiders' head coach, Davis inherited a group of players who had never enjoyed success as members of the Sun Belt. The 2002-03 Blue Raiders were picked fourth (of five) teams in the Sun Belt's East Division, and eighth of 11 teams overall. Heading into the final week of the regular-season, Middle Tennessee remained in the championship hunt. For his efforts, Davis was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, marking the second time in five years as a Division I head coach he had been so honored.

While Davis' first team surprised many by reaching the finals of the Sun Belt Tournament and putting together the most wins for a Blue Raider squad (16) since the 1997-98 campaign, his second Blue Raider team had to be even more surprising.

Middle Tennessee entered the 2003-04 season with only one returning starter and four letterwinners from Davis' initial Blue Raider team, but the proven winner molded his squad into a championship contender by mid-season. The Blue Raiders increased their number of wins and had fans coming through the turnstiles in record numbers with an exciting style of play.

Davis' players not only have been winners on the court, but they have been successful in the classroom, as well. Nine of the 12 seniors in the Middle Tennessee program since Davis' hiring have received their degree. The other three are either playing professionally or are in NBA camps.

Like all successful coaches, Davis has been victorious by recruiting players who fit the personality of the team and take ownership of their squad. The previous two recruiting classes have been ranked No. 1 in the Sun Belt by Hoop Scoop magazine, and each has been rated among the Top 25 in the nation, including a No. 11 signing class in 2004.

Prior to being named the head coach at Middle Tennessee, Davis spent five seasons as the associate head coach at LSU under head coach John Brady. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the postseason in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Before LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho; however, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1989-90. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, Davis compiled a 63-29 record, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single-season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons (1988-89, 1989-90).

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament, as well. For his efforts, Davis was named Big Sky Coach of the Year. History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering yet another NCAA Tournament berth. In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis was the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28.

It was not the first time Davis had been the youngest head coach in the country. When he was hired as the head coach at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, as he put together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success at the junior college level landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where Davis served as an assistant for two years prior to being named the program's head coach.

After spending two seasons as the head coach at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign. From Texas A&M, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign. During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked No. 4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

From Chipola, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Utah State from 1995-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Southern Mississippi coach Larry Eustachy, and the pair combined to win the Big West title in 1995.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence. He has been around the game his entire life, growing up watching one of the preeminent coaches in the country operate on a daily basis. Kermit Davis, Sr., was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation, and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during games.

After completing his playing career at Mississippi State, Davis began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant on Bob Boyd's staff from 1983-84. Davis earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 1982 and earned his master's degree there in 1984.
