Middle Tennessee (3-2) vs. Tennessee State (4-3)

When: December 5, 2004 (4:00 p.m.)

Site: Murfreesboro, Tenn. - Murphy Center (11,500)

TV: None

Radio: WBOZ FM 104.9 & WMOT FM 89.5 (Dick Palmer, Jan Stauffer)

Series: Middle Tennessee leads, 30-16

Last Meeting: Middle Tennessee 88, Tennessee Wesleyan 79 (12/08/01)

Notes: Middle Tennessee is 3-0 at Murphy Center this season ... Tennessee State has won four straight games after starting the season 0-3 ... Sunday's game is the first match-up between the former Ohio Valley Conference rivals since Dec. 8, 2001.

Middle Tennessee Vs. Tennessee State

The long history between Middle Tennessee and Tennessee State dates to 1973 with the Blue Raiders owning a 30-16 edge in the all-time series. Middle Tennessee has won seven of the last eight and 13 of the previous 16 meetings between the local rivals who haven't met on the hardcourt since the 2001-02 season. Middle Tennessee also owns the longest winning streak in the series with a 10-game stretch between 1984 and 1989. In fact, the Blue Raiders won 15-of-16 from Tennessee State between 1984 and 1992 with the only setback being a 2-0 loss on Jan. 15, 1990 when Middle Tennessee forfeited because it lacked enough healthy bodies to play the game. The crowd of 10,729 to watch the teams play (1/ 17/97) represents the seventh-largest attendance in Murphy Center history.

Scouting The Tigers

Tennessee State brings a four-game winning streak into Sunday's game against Middle Tennessee. The Tigers opened the season with three straight losses but have since rebounded behind the play of guard Bruce Price and center Rod Flowers. The Tigers have three players averaging double figures, including Flowers, who is averaging a double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds per outing. Tennessee State has already faced two opponents on the Blue Raiders' 2004-05 schedule, losing at Western Kentucky, 76-73 in overtime, and beating Delaware State, 75-69. Tennessee State also has wins against Cal State-Northridege, Trevecca and Fisk University.

Cuffee, Morrison Combine For Rare Feat

Middle Tennessee went 201 games without having two players combine for a double-double in the same game before senior Michael Cuffee (11 pts., 14 reb.) and junior Marcus Morrison (15 points, 10 reb.) each enjoyed a double-double in the team's 81-46 win against Tennessee Wesleyan. It marked the first time a Blue Raider player recorded a double-double since Kyle Young (10 pts., 11 reb) did it against Tennessee Wesleyan (12/13/03). Aylton Tesch (10 pts., 11 reb.) and Mantia Callender (13 pts., 11 reb) were the last Blue Raider tandem to enjoy a double-double in the same game, a 67-48 win against Tennessee Tech, on Dec. 6, 1997.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Blue Raiders on Radio

■ All Blue Raider basketball games can be heard on WBOZ FM 104.9 in Rutherford and Cannon counties and all across middle Tennessee on WMOT FM 89.5. Dick Palmer is in his 24th season as the Blue Raiders' play-byplay announcer, while Jan Stauffer is handling the color commentary for the 14th straight vear.

Interview Protocol

■ After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Kermit Davis will be available for members of the media The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, the interview area is located just off the northwest corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Davis will be brought to an area designated by the home team, or just outside the Blue Raiders' locker room facility. Player requests should be directed to assistant media relations director Tony Stinnett.

Credentials

Arrangement for media credentials for the 2004-05 basketball season should be directed to the Athletic Media Relations Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Tony Stinnett. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Middle Tennessee basketball on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space available basis.

GoBlueRaiders.com

 Middle Tennessee basketball statistics and notes are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at GoBlueRaiders.com. Media are invited to use the official web site for Middle Tennessee athletics for information regarding all Blue Raider athletic teams.

Senior Duo Seeing Double

Blue Raider seniors Michael Cuffee and Mike Dean are the only Middle Tennessee players to reach double figures in each of the game's in which they have played this season. Dean leads the team in scoring with 18.0 points per game, while Cuffee is averaging 13.0. Cuffee's string of consecutive games in double figures is 10 dating back to last season. The last time the Philadelphia, Pa., native didn't reach double figures was against Arkansas State (2/19/04) when he finished with seven. Cuffee has scored 10 or more points in 19 of the Blue Raiders' last 20 games, while Dean has scored double figures in 15 of the team's last 16 games. Dean has tallied double figures in 23-of-27 career games at Middle Tennessee, while Cuffee has recorded games of 10 or more points in 24 of his 31 Blue Raider outings.

Getting It Done With Defense, Rebounding Defense and rebounding are aspects Head Coach

Kermit Davis stresses most and the Blue Raiders have come out of the gate strong in both areas to start the 2004-05 season. Through the first five games, Middle Tennessee leads the Sun Belt in scoring defense (57.0), field goal percentage defense (.356), 3-point field goal percentage defense (.250) and rebounding margin (plus 10.4). For good measure, Middle Tennessee also is leading the SBC in blocked shots with an average 5.0 per game.

Defending The Home Court

While the Blue Raiders have been solid defensively throughout the early portion of the season, they have been even more impressive at Murphy Center. Middle Tennessee has held the opposition to 30.3 percent shooting (50-of-165) in three home games this season and the Blue Raiders have outrebounded the opposition 143-92 at home during the same stretch. No opponent. home or way, has shot better than 47 percent against Middle Tennessee this season and three opponents have been held to 32 percent or less. The most masterful defensive effort of this season,

Davis Preaches Strong Defense

14.8

When Middle Tennessee men's basketball coach Kermit Davis was hired prior to the start of the 2002-03 season he said a premium would be placed on defense and rebounding, and with good reason. The Blue Raiders have been an outstanding defensive team under Davis and the proof of staunch defensive play is in the won-loss record. Middle Tennessee has held the opposition to 40 percent or less from the field in 44 percent of the games Davis has coached (28 out of 64). The Blue Raiders are 25-3 in those games for a staggering 89 percent winning percentage. They are also 11-0 during the same period when holding the opponent to less than 35 percent.

Chairmen Of The Boards

Middle Tennessee has been dominant on the boards so far this season and that only figures to improve when 6-9 center Steve Thomas becomes eligible for the San Juan Shootout. Middle Tennessee grabbed 54 rebounds in its win against Tennessee Wesleyan, while allowing just 33. The 54 boards are the most ever recorded by a Kermit Davis-coached team at Middle Tennessee and also marked the first time the squad has pulled more than 50 boards since ripping down 52 against Tennessee Tech on Feb. 12, 2000. The Blue Raiders have outrebounded the opposition in four of the first five games.

Cuffee Is A Rebounding Machine

Senior Michael Cuffee had led Middle Tennessee in rebounding in four of the first five games this season, including a career-high 14 caroms against Tennessee Wesleyan. Cuffee is leading the Blue Raiders in rebounding with 8.0 per game and he is averaging 7.3 boards over his last 10 games dating to last season. Marcus Morrison is second on the team in rebounding with 6.4 per game, while Kyle Young is averaging 5.4 per outing.

Young Has Been A Consistent Contributor

Sophomore forward Kyle Young has is putting together a solid start his second season as a Blue Raider. Young tied his career high for blocks (3) in back-to-back games against Belmont and Tennessee Wesleyan, and he tied career high for points (12) in the win against Tennessee Wesleyan. Young is shooting 64 percent from the field and is averaging 7.2 points and 5.4 rebounds. The Lewisburg, Tenn., native came into the 2004-05 season with two career double figure scoring games and he already has equaled that mark in the first five games this season.

Bench Play Key For Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee's play off the bench has been a key in each of the team's first two wins of the season. The Blue Raiders outscored Belmont, 18-11, in a 66-47 win (11/29/04), and the Middle Tennessee reserves have outscored the opponent's bench 93-62 in the first five games. Demonstrating the worth of production off the bench, Middle Tennessee is 3-0 when its reserves outscore the opposition's and it is 0-2 otherwise.

Smithson Dishing Out Assists

Middle Tennessee sophomore point guard Bryan Smithson enters Sunday's game sixth in the Sun Belt in assists with an average of 4.0 per game, and he's second in the league in assist/turnover ratio with a 2.22. The heady point guard has been particularly sharp at Murphy Center this season, where he has dished out 16 assists to only four turnovers for a 4-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio. The Kennesaw, Georgia native has had eight assists in a game twice this season.

80 Is A Magic Number Under Davis

There are no guarantees in basketball but there are a few trends that make Blue Raider basketball fans like their chances when they occur. For example, Middle Tennessee is 10-0 under Head Coach Kermit Davis when scoring 80 or more points. Furthermore, the Blue Raiders are a sparkling 31-4 under Davis when leading at the half and they are 31-5 when leading with 5 minutes remaining.

Dean Increasing Scoring By The Game

Prior to scoring 12 points against Belmont, Middle Tennessee senior guard Mike Dean had increased his scoring output by one point in each of the team's first three games and is averaging 18.0 points. Dean, who has led the Blue Raiders in scoring in each game he has played, netted 19 points in the season opener against Lambuth, then followed that with 20 points against Rice and went for 21 points against Mississippi Valley State. The Rome, Ga., native has scored in double figures in 23 of his 27 career games at Middle Tennessee.

Dean Making Move On Career Charts

Mike Dean led Middle Tennessee with 62 3-pointers made in 2003-04 and he has 12 in his first four games of this season for a total of 74. He is six 3-pointers shy of No. 10 on the career lists for 3-point field goals made at Middle Tennessee. If Dean matches at least the same number as he did last season then he will leave Middle Tennessee as high as No. 5 on the career list for 3-pointers. Robert Taylor holds the career mark for treys with 222 from 1990-93.

Dean Stays Hot From 3-Point Range

Mike Dean has 12 3-pointers in the four games and has connected on at least three treys in three of the first four, but multiple treys in a game is nothing new for the Blue Raiders' first-team All-SBC selection. Dean has hit at least one 3-pointer in every game in which he's played as a Blue Raider, and he has knocked down three or more treys in 14 of the 27 games he has played. His career-high for 3-pointers in a game is seven.

Blue Raiders Are Box Office Hits

Middle Tennessee has seen a 66 percent increase in attendance since Kermit Davis became head coach prior to the start of the 2002-03 season. If Friday night's opener against Lambuth is an indication, Middle Tennessee could well be on its way to an attendance increase for the third straight year. The Blue Raiders drew 3,719 for their opener against Lambuth, which marked the largest crowd for a home opener since 11/22/1999 when 4,873 attended the Tennessee Temple game. The season-opening crowd was just under the average attendance for the 2003-04 season when Middle Tennessee averaged 3,743 for 13 home dates. The 3,719 represents the third-largest crowd for a Middle Tennessee home opener in the last 10 years. Three of the top five attendance marks in home openers during the last 10 have occurred during the Davis era.

Middle Tennessee Six Pack

Middle Tennessee had six players reach double figures in the season opener against Lambuth, which marked the first time the Blue Raiders have had as many players tally double figures since Nov. 17, 2001 - a span of 88 games - when seven players scored 10 or more against Bryan College. Middle Tennessee had only three games during that stretch with five players or more reaching double figures until Friday night when Mike Dean (19), Marcus Morrison (18), Michael Cuffee (13), Brian Lake (12), Bryan Smithson (10) and Kyle Young (10) all scored 10 or more points.

Reaching 90-Point Mark Has Been Rare

Middle Tennessee busted out with a 95-point performance in its opener, marking the third time the Blue Raiders have scored 90 or more points under Head Coach Kermit Davis and they have won all three. Scoring 90 or more points has not been common for Middle Tennessee during the past five years. The Blue Raiders had scored 90 points or more in a game just 10 times in the previous five years entering the 2004-05 season. The 95-point performance represented the most points for a Blue Raider team since Feb. 26, 2000 when Middle Tennessee beat UT-Martin, 96-78.

Unselfish Play Equals 25 Assists

Middle Tennessee had assists on 25 of its 35 field goals against Lambuth, representing the most assists for the Blue Raiders in a single game since they dished out 26 against St. Francis (11/17/2000). Middle Tennessee has had just seven games with 20 or more assists since the 2000-01 season and four of those have come under third-year coach Kermit Davis. Middle Tennessee's point guards combined for 12 assists and no turnovers in the season opener. Sophomore point guard Bryan Smithson led Middle Tennessee with eight assists and no turnovers against Lambuth, while reserve point guard Fats Cuyler delivered four assists and no turnovers.

Morrison, Lake Strong In Debuts

Junior guard/forward Marcus Morrison and freshman forward Brian Lake enjoyed breakout games in their Middle Tennessee debut against Lambuth. Morrison, a St. Petersburg, Fla., native, scored 18 points on 7-of-12 shooting, including 4-5 from 3-point range, hauled in five rebounds and dished out three assists. Lake, a freshman from Bolivar, Tenn., was 5-of-8 from the field and scored 12 points in 13 minutes of action. He also hauled in three rebounds. All four Blue Raider newcomers- Morrison, Lake, Fats Cuyler, and Jonathan Loe - all scored their first career points in the win.

Notable career debuts:

- Robert Taylor, the all-time leading scorer in Middle Tennessee history with 1,622 points, scored 11 points on 3-of-15 shooting in his debut against Mississippi Valley State (11/23/90).
- Warren Kidd, who established new career marks for rebounds and blocks in just three years, scored 18 points, collected 21 rebounds and blocked three shots against Mississippi Valley State (11/23/90).
- Tommy Gunn came off the bench to play seven minutes in his first game as a Blue Raider (11/17/2000). Gunn was 0-1 from the field. He scored the first point of his Blue Raider career against Kansas in his third game.
- Jerry Beck scored six points and added four assists in a 67-65 win against St. Louis (11/30/1979).
- Kerry Hammonds scored 14 points and had eight rebounds as Middle Tennessee beat BYU-Hawaii, 95-81, in the Hawaii Classic (11/22/1985. Hammonds played in the postseason all four years of his Blue Raider career.

Middle Tennessee Picked To Win SBC East

Middle Tennessee has been picked as the preseason favorite to win the Sun Belt's East Division in a preseason poll of league coaches. It marks the first time the Blue Raiders have been picked first since joining the Sun Belt in 2001. Middle Tennessee received eight of a possible 11 first-place votes and 51 total points to finish ahead of defending East Division champion Arkansas-Little Rock (3 first-place votes, 44 points).

Three Blue Raiders Earn Preseason All-SBC

Middle Tennessee had three players named to the All-SBC Preseason team as voted on by league coaches and media relations directors. Senior guard Mike Dean was named to the league's five-member first-team after leading Middle Tennessee in scoring at 16.2 points per game last season. Senior guard/forward Michael Cuffee and senior center Steve Thomas were named to the third team. Cuffee was among SBC leaders in scoring (12.3) and rebounding (5.8) last season, and he earned All-SBC Tournament honors after a strong showing in the league tournament. Thomas is the only newcomer on the preseason squad. He sat out last season after transferring from the University of Georgia and will become eligible when the Blue Raiders play in the San Juan Shootout, Dec. 20.

Dean missed the two games in the SBC Tournament with a broken hand and he missed the team's first four games of the 2003-04 season due to the NCAA transfer rule. He also missed the Tennessee Wesleyan game (12/02/04) with a sprained knee. Cuffee has started 27 consecutive games, and he has earned starts in 28 of the 29 games he has played at Middle Tennessee.

Davis Inks Four During Early Signing

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis announced the signing of four players to national letters-of-intent during the NCAA Early Signing Period, which concluded Nov. 17. The Blue Raiders signed four prep standouts during the weeklong period, including Darren Avery, a 6-foot-3 guard from Corinth, Miss., Deno Hair, a 6-foot-8 power forward from Picayune, Miss., Uriah Hethington, a 6-foot-9 center from Cairo, Ga., and Kevin Kanaskie, a 6-foot-2 point guard from State College, Pa. Avery is the No. 6-rated prep prospect in Mississippi and averaged 14.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 1.8 assists, while shooting 52 percent from the field and 30 percent from 3-point range as a junior. Hair averaged 12 points, eight rebounds, three blocks and three steals as a junior at Picayune Memorial High School as a junior. He has been named to the Mississippi "Dandy Dozen," which includes the 12 best prep players in the state. Hethington averaged 12 points and 10 rebounds for Cairo High School and is listed as a "Dandy Dozen" by the Atlanta-Journal Constitution in Georgia. Kanaskie brings tremendous skills to the Blue Raider program and is a true point guard with a knack for making those around him better.

Blue Raiders To Play In ESPN Bracket Buster

Middle Tennessee will play in the third annual ESPN Bracket Buster, Feb. 19, 2005. The Blue Raiders were awarded a home game in the men's college basketball event against an opponent to be named at a later date. Fellow Sun Belt members Arkansas-Little Rock, New Orleans and Western Kentucky join the Blue Raiders in the 64team, 13-conference field. Pairings for the contests wil be announced Feb. 3, 2005. A total of 11 of the 32 games will be televised, including six games on ESPN or ESPN2, and the other five games will be televised on ESPN's Full Court and on regional and local syndication. The remaining 21 games will not be televised. The evaluation and pairings of teams for the 11-game ESPN television package will be made by the staff of ESPN, in consultation with conference commissioners of participating leagues. The Sun Belt is 3-1 in the Bracket Buster during the previous two years. In addition to four representatives from the Sun Belt, the Horizon League, Mid-American, Missouri Valley, Western Athletic, America East, Big Sky, Big West, Colonial Athletic, Metro Atlantic, Mid-Continent, Ohio Valley and Southern Conference have members participating in 2005. Two non-conference foes on the 2004-05 Middle Tennessee schedule - Virginia Commonwealth and Austin Peay - are among the 64-team field.

Anniversary Of MT Championship Teams

This season marks the 30-year anniversary of Middle Tennessee's first conference championship and NCAA Tournament team in 1974-75, as well as the 20-year anniversary of the 1984-85 championship squad that reached the NCAA Tournament. The 1974-75 Blue Raiders, under the direction of Head Coach Jimmy Earle, won the Ohio Valley Conference regular-season and tournament titles and became the first Middle Tennes-

The 1984-85 Blue Raiders won the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament title and automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament under first-year coach Bruce Stewart. The squad fashioned a 17-14 overall mark and lost to North Carolina, 76-57, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Blue Raiders Looking For A '3-Peat'

Middle Tennessee enters the 2004-05 basket-ball season in search of three straight winning seasons for the first time since the 1995-96 through 1998-99 seasons. In fact, the back-to-back winning seasons produced during the past two years under Head Coach Kermit Davis marked the first time Middle Tennessee had enjoyed consecutive winning seasons since the 1996-97, 1997-98 seasons.

Loads Of Scoring, Rebounding Return

Middle Tennessee returns 62 percent of its scoring, 66 percent of its rebounding and 66 percent of its assists from last year's team. In Sun Belt games only, Middle Tennessee returns 67 percent of its scoring, 65 percent of its rebounding and 60 percent of its assists. The Blue Raiders did lose two of their top four rebounders from last season in Tommy Gunn and Steven Jackson. Middle Tennessee also lost three of the top five assists leaders from a season ago.

Kermit Davis

Head Coach ● Mississippi State, 1982 ● 3rd Season ● 36-28 (.563)

Toughness, accountability, intensity, defense, and hard work were intangibles on which Kermit Davis said he would build the Middle Tennessee program when he was hired as the 19th men's head basketball coach in April, 2002. It didn't take long for Davis' blueprint for success to unfold, as the successful coach has been able to restore pride and set the Blue Raiders on a successful course in his first two seasons at Middle Tennes-

Prior to Davis' arrival. Mic nessee had endured losing so sons in three of the previous fo years, but the energetic and highly-successful Davis quickly changed the fortunes and began a Blue Raider revival. He has produced a 33-26 mark in his first two seasons, including a 29-18 record since the start of Sun Belt play in Januar 2003. Not bad for a program th had enjoyed just one confe ence tournament win in the tw vears prior to his arrival.

The Blue Raider Nation would have to be patient, Davis warned; because winning programs aren't built overnight. It takes time, solid recruiting classes, and the installation of a philosophy to ultimately reach long-term goals. But in two short years under Davis, Middle Tennessee has been in the Sun Belt championship hunt into the final week of each season. The Blue Raiders reached the Sun Belt Tournament title game in 2003, their first appearance in a conference tournament championship since 1989; and they missed the chance to make it two league title games in as many years when they dropped a 70-66 decision to Louisiana-Lafayette in 2004 in the semifinals.

In his first season as the Blue Raiders' head coach, Davis inherited a group of players who had never enjoyed success as members of the Sun Belt. The 2002-03 Blue Raiders were picked fourth (of five) teams in the Sun Belt's East Division.

and eighth of 11 teams overall. Heading into the final week of the regular-season, Middle Tennessee remained in the championship hunt. For his efforts, Davis was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, marking the second time in five years as a Division I head coach he had been so honored.

While Davis' first team surprised many by reaching the finals of the Sun Belt Tournament and putting together the most wins for a Blue Raider squad (16) since the 1997-98 campaign, his second Blue Raider team had to be even more surprising.

Middle Tennessee entered the 2003-04 season with only one returning starter and four letterwinners from Davis' initial Blue Raider team, but the proven winner molded his squad into a championship contender by mid-season. The Blue Raiders increased their number of wins and had fans coming through the turnstiles in record numbers with an exciting style of play.

Davis' players not only have been winners on the court, but they have been successful in the classroom, as well. Nine of the 12 seniors in the Middle Tennessee program since Davis' hiring have received their degree. The other three are either playing professionally or are in NBA camps.

Like all successful coaches, Davis has been victorious by recruiting players who fit the personality of the team and take ownership of their squad. The previous two recruiting classes have been ranked No. 1 in the Sun Belt by Hoop Scoop magazine, and each has been rated among the Top 25 in the nation, including a No. 11 signing class in 2004.

Prior to being named the head coach at Middle Tennessee, Davis spent five seasons as the associate head coach at LSU under head coach John Brady. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the postseason in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Before LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho; however, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1989-90. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, Davis compiled a 63-29 record, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single-season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons (1988-89, 1989-90).

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament, as well. For his efforts, Davis was named Big Sky Coach of the Year. History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering yet another NCAA Tournament berth. In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis was the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28.

It was not the first time Davis had been the youngest head coach in the country. When he was hired as the head coach at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, as he put together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success at the junior college level landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where Davis served as an assistant for two years prior to being named the program's head coach.

After spending two seasons as the head coach at Idaho. Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign. From Texas A&M, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign. During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked No. 4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

From Chipola, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Utah State from 1995-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Southern Mississippi coach Larry Eustachy, and the pair combined to win the Big West title in 1995.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence. He has been around the game his entire life, growing up watching one of the preeminent coaches in the country operate on a daily basis. Kermit Davis, Sr., was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation, and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during

After completing his playing career at Mississippi State, Davis began his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant on Bob Boyd's staff from 1983-84. Davis earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 1982 and earned his master's degree there in 1984.
