MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - The Blue Raider Athletic Association will be sponsoring bus trips to Bowling Green, Ky., for the men's and women's basketball games vs. Western Kentucky in February as announced by associate athletic director Alan Farley. The women's game with the Hilltoppers is set for Wednesday, Feb. 9 at 7:30 p.m. The BRAA bus to the game will leave and return that same day and will cost $45 per person. Tickets to the game must be purchased separately. The Blue Raider men will play Western Kentucky on Thursday, Feb. 10 at 7 p.m. The BRAA bus to the game will leave and return that same day and will cost $45 per person. Tickets to the game must be purchased separately. For those who would like to attend both games and ride the bus the cost of the trip would be $80. The cost of a ticket for both buses is $10 less than if you purchased a seat on each at $45 a person. Tickets to the Middle Tennessee vs. Western Kentucky basketball games is $12 a ticket for both the men and women. For tickets to the these games contact 1-888-YES-MTSU or visit the Blue Raider ticket office located at Gate 1A of Floyd Stadium on the campus of Middle Tennessee State University. "I think we have put together a great option for our fans. By taking the bus they will save money as gas is now about $3 a gallon, mileage on their car, the hassle of parking in Bowling Green and will not have to fight traffic on I-65," Farley said. "I know fans in the past have enjoyed riding the bus to Blue Raider events and I think this is an affordable option for them to cheer on our teams against their biggest rival." Contact the BRAA office at (615) 898-5953 or (615) 898-2210 to reserve your seat for the bus trip to Western Kentucky. The BRAA will also be sponsoring a bus trip to the Sun Belt Basketball Championships in Hot Springs, Ark. Check goblueraiders.com for further information on the Hot Springs bus trip.
