HOSTING THE TOURNEY: The Sun Belt will be coming to Middle Tennessee this March as the Blue Raiders will be hosting the Sun Belt Basketball Championships March 2-7 in the Murphy Center.

Rick Insell is beginning his first season at the helm of the Middle Tennessee women's basketball program. He is the seventh coach in the program's 30-year history.

The legendary Insell, a 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, built a dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, where he guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today National Championships (1989, 1991) as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure. Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991. and he also has been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992).

Insell called the women's basketball position at Middle Tennessee his "dream job."

"Dreams do come true," Insell said. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU, and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

A name synonymous with high school girl's basketball in Tennessee. Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992). most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003, and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year. the first high school team so honored.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central High School won 23 district championships 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. Insell developed six Tennessee Class AAA Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players have received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom. His teams received the TSSAA Distinquished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000. an award based on team GPA. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville during that stretch was 3.4 and the Insell and his Shelbyville Eaglettes received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George Bush for academic and athletic achievement.
