MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Middle Tennessee soccer head coach Aston Rhoden announced eight matches for the spring season.

The Blue Raiders host the first two matches the spring beginning on Saturday, March 2. SEC foe Kentucky, who made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament last season, takes on MT in a 9:30 a.m. contest at the Dean A. Hayes Track & Soccer Stadium. The Raiders close out the day with a contest against North Alabama at 1:30 p.m.

On Saturday March 23, MT visits Kennesaw State for a 10 a.m. CT contest at the KSU Soccer Complex in Kennesaw, Ga. Another SEC opponent in Vanderbilt visits the Raiders for a 6 p.m. matchup at the Siegel Soccer Complex on Saturday April 6.

The final road matches of the spring will consist of a dual affair on Saturday, April 13 as the Raiders visit rival WKU at 10 a.m. and play Austin Peay at 3:30 p.m. in Bowling Green, Ky.

Middle Tennessee closes out the spring with a 7 p.m. match versus Belmont on Thursday, April 18 and then hosts the annual Alumni game on Saturday, April 20 at 2 p.m.
