BLUE RAIDERS TAKE PART IN TENNESSEE CLASSIC

Middle Tennessee comes to Knoxville with a record of 3-5 after going 3-1 at last weekend's College of Charleston Cougar Classic. After the Blue Raiders' game against the host Cougars was suspended in the second inning on Friday night, Middle Tennessee came back the following day to defeat Wagner 6-3, pounding out a season-high 14 hits. Following a disappointing 8-0, five-inning defeat to Lipscomb on Saturday evening, the Blue Raiders turned around to defeat Virginia Tech 7-4 on Sunday, the squad's most impressive win of the young 2012 season.

Middle Tennessee then wrapped up the Cougar Classic with a 4-2 victory over College of Charleston. Freshman Caitlin McClure made her first career start against the Cougars and tossed five innings, giving up just two earned runs to capture her first collegiate victory.

QUICK HITS

20TH BIRTHDAY

The Middle Tennessee softball program celebrates its 20th season this year. The Blue Raiders began play in 1993, playing their home games at Mufreesboro's Alumni Field. A year later, the team moved into Blue Raider Stadium, where the squad still plays today.

POP AT THE PLATE

Kaycee Popham is putting together an impressive season at the plate so far in 2012. She is currently second on the squad in batting average (.440), slugging (.600) and on-base percentage (.462). The senior also has a home run and a team-leading eight runs batted in to help lead Middle Tennessee at the plate. The highlight of her season thus far came against Virginia Tech at last weekend's Cougar Classic in which she went 3-4 at the dish with four runs knocked in to help lead the Blue Raiders to a 7-4 win. The Silver Creek, Ga., native is also providing the team with a solid presence defensively at first base, entering play in the Tennessee Classic with a .973 fielding percentage.

TERRIFIC TONEY

Following a strong start to her career last season as a freshman in which she batted .264 with five home runs and 19 runs batted in, second baseman Kayla Toney is back at it in 2012. She leads the team in numerous offensive categories including batting average (.458), slugging percentage (.708) and on-base percentage (.519). The former Beech High School Buccaneer has also scored 10 runs this season. Kaycee Popham and Samantha Nieves are tied for second in the team with four.

MAKING OF McCLURE

Blue Raider freshman Caitlin McClure made her first career start against College of Charleston last Sunday at the Cougar Classic and she did not disappoint. The Lilburn, Ga., native tossed five innings, giving up just two earned runs while scattering seven hits. She has thrown 7.0 innings over her two appearances and leads the team with an even 2.00 ERA.

SMITH RETURNS

Blue Raider assistant coach Megan Rhodes Smith returns to Knoxville this weekend for the first time as a coach. The former Lady Vol standout pitcher finished her illustrious four-year Tennessee career second all-time in strikeouts, third in victories and fouth in winning percentage.

THIRD INNING THUNDER

The Blue Raiders have tallied a total of 11 runs in the third inning through their first eight games this season, by far the most successful inning for the team. Meanwhile the Blue Raiders have allowed just two runs in the third frame which is the fewest of any inning excluding the seventh.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Defense is the recipe for success for Middle Tennessee this season. The squad is 3-0 when not committing an error and 0-5 when committing at least one. The team has a total of 10 errors this season while maintaining a .959 fielding percentage.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Middle Tennessee has clobbered 10 doubles to start the 2012 campaign. Samantha Nieves, Nina Dever and Kelsey Woodruff have all contributed with a pair of doubles each.

SHE'S A THIEF

Kayla Toney leads the Blue Raiders on the base paths this season, going 4-4 in the stolen base category to begin the year. This follows her 2011 season in which she went just 1-1 in the stolen base category.

LIKE THE LINEUP

Head coach Sue Nevar has used the same lineup for seven of the squad's first eight games. Laura Dukes is the only regular starter to sit a game this season as she was replaced in the lineup by Katherine Tucker on Feb. 25 against Lipscomb. Tucker has made a total of five appearances this season.

BLUE SLUGGERS

Middle Tennessee currently maintains a .437 team slugging percentage to begin the 2012 season. Meanwhile the Blue Raider pitching staff is holding their opponents to a .372 clip. Last season, Middle Tennessee slugged just .374 while their foes recorded a .454 team average. A total of four Blue Raiders currently have a slugging percentage higher than .500 led by Toney's .708 mark.

ALL PUT OUT

Kaycee Popham recorded the 1,000th put out of her career last weekend against College of Charleston. She now has 1,003 put outs which puts her third all-time in Middle Tennessee history. Former Blue Raider catcher Melanie Manley tops the list with 1,118 while Justine Cerda is second with 1,054.

LOVING THE LONG BALL

Through eight games this season, Middle Tennessee has clobbered five home runs while the Blue Raider pitchers are limiting their opponents to a mere two. All five of the long balls have come from different players as Kaycee Popham, Nina Dever, Kayla Toney, Kelsey Woodruff and Samantha Nieves have all knocked one out this season.

GIVE HER A HAND

Junior third baseman Kristi Marquez has already racked up a whopping 25 assists while manning the hot corner. The Del Ray Beach, Fla., product also has six put-outs while committing just two errors so far in 2012.

NOTEWORTHY NEVAR

Head coach Sue Nevar was honored this past fall at Indiana University as a recipient of the Leanne L. Grotke Award.
Presented by the Indiana University I Association, the award is given to "women who, as alumnae, have made outstanding contributions to Indiana University through service to its athletics programs." Grotke, known for her commitment to character and excellence, was Indiana's first female associate athletic director.

HEAD COACH SUE NEVAR

THE NEVAR FILE

Head Coach	Sue Nevar
Alma Mater, Year	Indiana, ’81
Year at MT	Fifth
Record at MT (overall/conf.)	79-135/31-63
Overall Record	363-351-1

Sue Nevar is in her fifth season as the head coach of the Middle Tennessee program.

Prior to coming to the Murfreesboro, Nevar was a highly-successful head coach at Kent State from 1986-96, leading the Golden Flashes to the Women’s College World Series in 1990 while posting a 43-9 record.

Nevar was voted coach of the year in both the MAC and the NCAA Midwest Region in 1990 after leading the Flashes to their first-ever MAC and NCAA regional titles and finishing seventh in the country.

While in Kent, she coached 12 First Team All-MAC selections, two conference players of the year and six All-Midwest Region First Team honorees as well as one Canadian Olympic player. Nevar placed a high priority on academics from the day she stepped foot on campus at Middle Tennessee and she has quickly built a program that is extremely successful in the classroom. The Blue Raiders have won the Sun Belt Academic Team Award three of the past four years. She has continued her academic success from her tenure at KSU where she had 24 MAC First Team All-Academic selections, seven Academic All-America recipients and one Academic All-America Player of the Year.

Before becoming the head coach at Kent State, Nevar was an assistant at Texas A&M (1982-84) and Ohio State (1985). While in College Station, the Aggies won the AIAW national championship in 1982, an NCAA title in 1983 and finished second at the Women’s College World Series in 1984.

The Fairlawn, Ohio, native played collegiately at Indiana, earning four varsity letters each in softball and volleyball from 1977-80. She won the Big 10 batting title as a junior and helped lead IU to a runner-up finish at the AIAW College World Series as a senior while earning All-America honors from the Amateur Softball Association (ASA). Nevar graduated from Indiana in 1981 with her B.S. in physical education.

In recognition of her outstanding coaching tenure with the Golden Flashes, Nevar was inducted into the Kent State Hall of Fame. She was also a member of the inaugural class of the Copley High School Athletic Hall of Fame in honor of her three-sport career from 1973-76.

Nevar and husband, Bob, have spent the last 15 years in the Middle Tennessee area with their three children - Brent (16), Katie (14) and Tyler (10). She worked as a scout for the National Scouting Report for four years in Tennessee before taking over the helm of the Blue Raiders, and also stayed involved with the game by giving private hitting and pitching lessons.
