BLUE RAIDERS SET FOR LADY BISON CLASSIC

Middle Tennessee will conclude its preconference tournament play this weekend at the Lady Bison Classic. The Blue Raiders will face Drake and Eastern Michigan on Saturday before meeting Alabama State and Lipscomb on Sunday. Middle Tennessee comes to Nashville following going 0-3 last weekend at the Tennessee Classic in Knoxville. The squad dropped contests to No. 8 Tennessee, No. 17 Louisville and Murray State as well as an exhibition contest to the Dutch National Team.

Middle Tennessee is paced this season at the plate by sophomore Kayla Toney. The Blue Raider second baseman is leading the Sun Belt in batting with a .485 average and is third in the league in both slugging (.818) and on-base percentage (.528). She has also been a threat on the base paths, scoring a team-leading 11 runs so far this season in addition to stealing four bases.

Meanwhile first baseman Kaycee Popham has put together a strong start to her senior campaign. The Silver Creek, Ga., native is tied for fourth in the conference in batting, posting a .412 clip at the dish. She is tied for the Middle Tennessee team-lead with a pair of home runs while being tops on the squad with nine runs batted in.

QUICK HITS

20TH BIRTHDAY

The Middle Tennessee softball program celebrates its 20th season this year. The Blue Raiders began play in 1993, playing their home games at Mufreesboro's Alumni Field. A year later, the team moved into Blue Raider Stadium, where the squad still plays today.

TONEY ON A TEAR

Middle Tennessee second baseman Kayla Toney is putting quite a season together in 2012. The sophomore is currently leading the Sun Belt in batting with a .485 average through the squad's first 11 games while placing third in the league in slugging percentage (.818) and tied for third in on-base percentage (.528). In addition, her pair of home runs is tied for the Blue Raider team lead. The Hendersonville, Tenn., native also leads the squad in runs scored with 11 and has gone 4-5 in the stolen base category.

POP AT THE PLATE

First baseman Kaycee Popham is tied for fourth in the league in hitting, maintaining a .412 average at the dish. She is tops on the team in runs batted in with nine on the year and is second on the team in several categories including on-base percentage (.429) and total bases (21).

INSIDE THE PARK

The Middle Tennessee pitching staff is first among Sun Belt teams in home runs allowed, having given up just five long balls this season. Senior Caty Jutson has tossed 27.2 innings this year without allowing a dinger while freshman Caitlin McClure has yet to allow one in 11.1 innings of work.

THIRD INNING THUNDER

The Blue Raiders have made the third inning their frame of choice so far in 2012. The squad has totaled 14 runs in the inning through 11 games played, exactly twice the amount of offensive production in their second-best inning – the fourth. Meanwhile, excluding the seventh, the pitching staff has allowed their fewest amount of runs in the third, having given up a total of five.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Defense is the recipe for success for Middle Tennessee this season. The squad is 3-1 when not committing an error and 0-7 when committing at least one. The team has a total of 13 errors this season while maintaining a .959 fielding percentage which puts them third in the conference standings defensively.

SHE'S A THIEF

In addition to being a powerful presence at the plate, Kayla Toney leads the Blue Raiders on the base paths this season, going 4-5 in the stolen base category to begin the season. As a team, Middle Tennessee has stolen just seven bases in 11 attempts.

LIKE THE LINEUP

Eight Blue Raiders have started all 11 games to begin the 2012 campaign. In addition to the eight mainstays, freshman Laura Dukes has started eight games while Chelsea Good has two starts and Katherine Tucker has one.

GIVE HER A HAND

Junior third baseman Kristi Marquez has already racked up a whopping 32 assists while manning the hot corner for the Blue Raiders, 10 more than Kayla Toney and Samantha Nieves who are tied for second on the team. The Del Ray Beach, Fla., product also has eight put-outs while committing just three errors so far in 2012.

JONES IN A PINCH

Freshman Bethany Jones has become Middle Tennessee's go-to pinch runner this season. She has seen action in eight games so far and has tallied three runs scored.

SHE'S PUT OUT

Kaycee Popham continues to make her way up the Middle Tennessee career put-out record chart as she now has 1,020 during her time in Murfreesboro. She is currently third on the all-time list, needing just 98 more to tie Melanie Manley for most in school history.

TWO OUT BLUES

The Blue Raiders have been victimized by the two-out rally bug this season. In last Sunday's doubleheader against Tennessee and Murray State, 10 of the combined 12 runs the team gave up on the day were scored with two outs.

KEEP IT LOW

All three of the Blue Raiders' wins this season have come in low-scoring games. In fact, when the pitchers hold the opposition to five runs or less, Middle Tennessee's record is 3-1.

NO LONG BALL

Middle Tennessee has hit a total of nine home runs this season, with the nine coming in six different games. Amazingly, the squad has lost all six of those games.

FIRST ON THE BOARD

The Blue Raiders have yet to win a game this season when allowing the opposition to score first. The team currently has a recordof 3-3 putting a run on the scoreboard first.

NOTEWORTHY NEVAR

Head coach Sue Nevar was honored this past fall at Indiana University as a recipient of the Leanne L. Grotke Award. Presented by the Indiana University I Association, the award is given to "women who, as alumnae, have made outstanding contributions to Indiana University through service to its athletics programs." Grotke, known for her commitment to character and excellence, was Indiana's first female associate athletic director.

HEAD COACH SUE NEVAR

THE NEVAR FILE

Head Coach	Sue Nevar
Alma Mater, Year	Indiana, '81
Year at MT	Fifth
Record at MT (overall/conf.)	79-138/31-63
Overall Record	363-354-1

Sue Nevar is in her fifth season as the head coach of the Middle Tennessee program.

Prior to coming to the Murfreesboro, Nevar was a highly-successful head coach at Kent State from 1986-96, leading the Golden Flashes to the Women's College World Series in 1990 while posting a 43-9 record.

Nevar was voted coach of the year in both the MAC and the NCAA Midwest Region in 1990 after leading the Flashes to their first-ever MAC and NCAA regional titles and finishing seventh in the country.

While in Kent, she coached 12 First Team All-MAC selections, two conference players of the year and six All-Midwest Region First Team honorees as well as one Canadian Olympic player. Nevar placed a high priority on academics from the day she stepped foot on campus at Middle Tennessee and she has quickly built a program that is extremely successful in the classroom. The Blue Raiders have won the Sun Belt Academic Team Award three of the past four years. She has continued her academic success from her tenure at KSU where she had 24 MAC First Team All-Academic selections, seven Academic All-America recipients and one Academic All-America Player of the Year.

Before becoming the head coach at Kent State, Nevar was an assistant at Texas A&M (1982-84) and Ohio State (1985). While in College Station, the Aggies won the AIAW national championship in 1982, an NCAA title in 1983 and finished second at the Women's College World Series in 1984.

The Fairlawn, Ohio, native played collegiately at Indiana, earning four varsity letters each in softball and volleyball from 1977-80. She won the Big 10 batting title as a junior and helped lead IU to a runner-up finish at the AIAW College World Series as a senior while earning All-America honors from the Amateur Softball Association (ASA). Nevar graduated from Indiana in 1981 with her B.S. in physical education.

In recognition of her outstanding coaching tenure with the Golden Flashes, Nevar was inducted into the Kent State Hall of Fame. She was also a member of the inaugural class of the Copley High School Athletic Hall of Fame in honor of her three-sport career from 1973-76.

Nevar and husband, Bob, have spent the last 15 years in the Middle Tennessee area with their three children - Brent (16), Katie (14) and Tyler (10). She worked as a scout for the National Scouting Report for four years in Tennessee before taking over the helm of the Blue Raiders, and also stayed involved with the game by giving private hitting and pitching lessons.
