BLUE RAIDERS BEGIN ROAD STRETCH AT JACKSONVILLE STATE

The Middle Tennessee softball team (11-14, 2-4 Sun Belt) visits Jacksonville State today for a midweek nonconference doubleheader. The Blue Raiders enter today's twin-bill fresh off a 4-1 homestand that saw the squad sweep its doubleheader from Evansville last Wednesday before taking two-of-three this past weekend from ULM.

Today begins an 11-game road swing for Middle Tennessee as the Blue Raiders will make the trip to Mobile this weekend to face South Alabama for a three-game conference series.

Middle Tennessee catcher Natalie Ysais led the Blue Raiders at the plate last week, going 6-13 with a pair of home runs, five RBIs and four runs scored. The highlight of the week for the senior came on Sunday when she belted a two-run blast to break a 4-4 tie with ULM, sending the Blue Raiders on to a 6-4 victory.

First baseman Kaycee Popham also had a good homestand at the dish. She tallied a .533 average over the five-game stretch with a home run, two runs knocked in and four runs scored. The Silver Creek, Ga., product is now batting .385 on the year with a team-leading five long balls and 17 RBIs.

Middle Tennessee pitchers Caty Jutson and Shelby Stinnett stole the show in the circle last week as they both picked up a pair of wins. Jutson began her week with a win in relief against Evansville, tossing 6.1 innings of shutout ball while surrendering just two hits and a walk. She kept things going on Saturday by throwing a complete-game shutout while giving up six hits with a walk and five strikeouts.

Stinnett meanwhile hurled her second complete-game shutout of the season on Wednesday, scattering six hits over her seven innings of work. The sophomore then completed the duo's magnificent four-game stretch with another complete game victory in Sunday's 6-4 win over ULM.

QUICK HITS

TONEY ON TOP

Blue Raider second baseman Kayla Toney continues to lead the squad at the plate. Despite cooling off a bit as of late, she enters today's action sixth in the Sun Belt in batting with a .403 average and fourth in the league in both slugging (.667) and on-base percentage (.488). The former Beech High Buccaneer is also sixth in the conference with eight doubles so far this season while having knocked in nine runs with three long balls while also getting hit by a pitch a squad-leading five times. Toney is also a threat on the base paths as she is 7-9 in stolen bases this season and leads the Blue Raiders with 19 runs scored through its first 25 games.

POP AT THE PLATE

First baseman Kaycee Popham has been Middle Tennessee's leading run producer so far in 2012. With her home run on Sunday against ULM, she now leads the squad by herself with five dingers on the season while also leading the team with 17 runs batted in. The senior recently took over the team lead in hits with 30 while tieing for the team lead in total bases (48) and placing second with a .407 on-base percentage.

SHE'S PUT OUT

Kaycee Popham recently moved into first place on the Middle Tennessee all-time putout list. She now has 1,163 career putouts as she passed former Blue Raider catcher Melanie Manley who ended her career with 1,118.

WONDERFUL WOODRUFF

Right fielder Kelsey Woodruff has been a pleasant surprise for the Blue Raiders this season. After batting .257 in 27 games a year ago, she currently maintains a .358 clip at the plate which puts her third on the team. Even with her improved average, Woodruff has not lost any power as she is also second on the squad with four dingers while slugging .627 and tallying 14 RBIs.

DAVENPORT DELIVERING

After seeing her batting average dip to a season-low .194 on March 2, center fielder Nina Davenport has hit .315 over her last 16 games to increase her average all the way up to .271. She also has five stolen bases on the year which puts her tied for second on the team. Strikeouts continue to be Davenports downfall, however, as she is tied for the team lead with 15 strikeouts.

SAY WHAT, YSAIS?

Senior catcher/designated player Natalie Ysais has caught fire lately. After her average at the plate fell all the way down to .195 on March 14, she has gone on to bat .417 over her last nine games and now maintains a .277 clip which puts her fourth on the team. Last week alone, the Riverside, Calif., native went 6-13 with a pair of home runs, five RBIs and four runs scored.

STELLAR STINNETT

Sophomore pitcher Shelby Stinnett currently leads the team with a 2.66 ERA. The sophomore has tossed four complete-games this season, including two seven-inning shutout. Last week the Chapel Hill, Tenn., product hurled 14 total innings, allowing just one earned run as she picked up a pair of complete-game victories.

JUST JUTSON ALONG

Caty Jutson continues to pitch well in the circle as she entered the week tied for second among Sun Belt pitchers with just two home runs allowed in 62 innings pitched. The Phoenix, Ariz., native is tied with Stinnett for the team lead with four complete games in nine starts while making a total of 16 appearances in the circle. Jutson is coming off her best week of the season, tossing 13.1 consecutive innings of shutout ball prior to surrendering three earned runs on Sunday against ULM.

THIRD INNING THUNDER

The Blue Raiders have taken a liking to the third inning this year. The squad has scored 24 runs in the frame. Middle Tennessee's second most productive innings are the first and seventh as the team has scored 12 runs in both frames. Meanwhile the third inning is also the favorite of the team's pitching staff. With the exception of the seventh inning, the third inning has been opponents' least productive inning as the Blue Raiders have allowed just 12 runs in the frame.

GET LOW

The Blue Raiders currently have a record of 11-2 when holding its opponents to five runs or fewer while the squad is 0-12 when giving up more than five runs.

FIRST PRIORITY

The first inning has often told the tale early for the Blue Raiders in 2012. The squad is 2-8 when allowing its opponents to score in the first inning. Meanwhile Middle Tennessee is 3-9 when its opponents get on the board before the Blue Raiders.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Defense is the recipe for success for Middle Tennessee this season. The squad is 8-2 when not committing an error and 3-12 when committing at least one. The Blue Raiders have made 30 errors this season while maintaining a .960 fielding percentage which puts them tied for fourth in the conference standings defensively.

SIX INNING STORY

The Blue Raiders hold a 8-0 clip when having the lead after six innings of play. Conversely, the squad is 1-10 when trailing entering the seventh inning.

GIVE HER A HAND

Junior third baseman Kristi Marquez has already racked up a whopping 69 assists while manning the hot corner for the Blue Raiders, 16 more than Samantha Nieves who is second on the team. She entered the week ftied for second in the Sun Belt in the category.

HIT SENSATION

In the second game of their doubleheader on March 17, Middle Tennessee and North Texas combined for 22 hits and 35 total bases, both tops in a single game in the Sun Belt this year.

DUKES DEALING

In just five games at catcher this season, Laura Dukes has thrown out three baserunners in eight attempts. She ranks second among Blue Raiders in runners thrown out and has yet to commit an error as the team's back stop this season.

SILLINESS IN THE SEVENTH

Middle Tennessee won a game in rather unusual fashion earlier this season. The Blue Raiders scored three runs in the bottom of the seventh to come from behind and defeat Eastern Michigan 6-5 on March 10. EMU pitchers hit four Middle Tennessee batters in the inning, including Laura Dukes who recorded the game-winning RBI after getting plunked, allowing Kayla Toney to score. Interestingly, the inning featured no hits or errors and the ball never left the infield.

HEAD COACH SUE NEVAR

THE NEVAR FILE

Head Coach	Sue Nevar
Alma Mater, Year	Indiana, ’81
Year at MT	Fifth
Record at MT (overall/conf.)	87-144/33-67
Overall Record	371-360-1

Sue Nevar is in her fifth season as the head coach of the Middle Tennessee program.

Prior to coming to the Murfreesboro, Nevar was a highly-successful head coach at Kent State from 1986-96, leading the Golden Flashes to the Women’s College World Series in 1990 while posting a 43-9 record.

Nevar was voted coach of the year in both the MAC and the NCAA Midwest Region in 1990 after leading the Flashes to their first-ever MAC and NCAA regional titles and finishing seventh in the country.

While in Kent, she coached 12 First Team All-MAC selections, two conference players of the year and six All-Midwest Region First Team honorees as well as one Canadian Olympic player. Nevar placed a high priority on academics from the day she stepped foot on campus at Middle Tennessee and she has quickly built a program that is extremely successful in the classroom. The Blue Raiders have won the Sun Belt Academic Team Award three of the past four years. She has continued her academic success from her tenure at KSU where she had 24 MAC First Team All-Academic selections, seven Academic All-America recipients and one Academic All-America Player of the Year.

Before becoming the head coach at Kent State, Nevar was an assistant at Texas A&M (1982-84) and Ohio State (1985). While in College Station, the Aggies won the AIAW national championship in 1982, an NCAA title in 1983 and finished second at the Women’s College World Series in 1984.

The Fairlawn, Ohio, native played collegiately at Indiana, earning four varsity letters each in softball and volleyball from 1977-80. She won the Big 10 batting title as a junior and helped lead IU to a runner-up finish at the AIAW College World Series as a senior while earning All-America honors from the Amateur Softball Association (ASA). Nevar graduated from Indiana in 1981 with her B.S. in physical education.

In recognition of her outstanding coaching tenure with the Golden Flashes, Nevar was inducted into the Kent State Hall of Fame. She was also a member of the inaugural class of the Copley High School Athletic Hall of Fame in honor of her three-sport career from 1973-76.

Nevar and husband, Bob, have spent the last 15 years in the Middle Tennessee area with their three children - Brent (16), Katie (14) and Tyler (10). She worked as a scout for the National Scouting Report for four years in Tennessee before taking over the helm of the Blue Raiders, and also stayed involved with the game by giving private hitting and pitching lessons.
