MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - The dates have been set for men's basketball team and individual camps this summer. High school team camp will run June 13-16, while middle school team camp will take place June 13-14. Individual camp is slated for June 25-28.

Camps are run by the Middle Tennessee coaching staff, along with current and former Blue Raider players. Team camps are held at Murphy Center and the rec center on campus and include regulation games, a tour of the Blue Raider facilities, newly-renovated dorms, buffet-style cafeteria and camp t-shirts for all participants. Last year, more than 80 different teams from seven different states came to Murfreesboro for Kermit Davis' team camp.

In addition, the college officiating camp will run concurrently with team camp June 14-16. Mike Wood, the Sun Belt's Supervisor of Officials, will direct the camp. The camp features more than 90 college officials.

Individual camp is for grades K-12 and will take place in Murphy Center each day from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Campers receive lunch each day, a camp basketball and t-shirt. Each day, campers will take part in various competitions while receiving individual instruction from Blue Raider coaches and players.

Cost for team camp varies. For more information or to download the registration form, click here.

Individual camp costs $200 or $150 for children of MT employees. For more information or to download registration form, click here.
