BLUE RAIDERS CONCLUDE ROAD SWING

The Middle Tennessee softball team concludes its season-long road stretch as the squad heads to face Murray State for a doubleheader on Tuesday before taking on Southeast Missouri in a Wednesday twin bill.

Game 1 of Tuesday's doubleheader against Murray State is set for 2 p.m. CT with the second game following at 4 p.m. First pitch of the opener on Wednesday's contests are scheduled for 3 and 5 p.m.

The Blue Raiders (12-18, 2-7 Sun Belt) are coming off an eight-day break from competition. They were scheduled to face Samford in a doubleheader on Thursday, but the games were postponed due to inclement weather in the Birmingham, Ala., area. The team was also away from the diamond this past weekend in a scheduled weekend off.

Middle Tennessee has gotten recent offensive lifts from sophomores Kristi Marquez and Nina Dever. Marquez went 4-6 at the plate in the doubleheader with South Alabama on March 31 and has amassed a .412 average over her last six games. Dever also notched a combined four hits in her seven at-bats in the doubleheader with the Jaguars. The Greenbrier, Tenn., native has batted .313 in her last five games while knocking in five runs and scoring three times.

Junior college transfer Chelsea Good has also been productive at the plate in 2012. Since entering the lineup on March 27 against Jacksonville State, she has amassed a .364 average at the dish while adding a pair of runs scored and a stolen base.

Shelby Stinnett has propelled Middle Tennessee in the circle of late. The sophomore has tallied a total of 13.1 innings pitched in her last three appearances including hurling two complete games. She surrendered six earned runs over the span including just two in her complete-game victory against Jacksonville State on March 27.

RESTED RAIDERS

Middle Tennessee enters this week's play fresh off an eight-day break from competition. They were scheduled to face Samford in a doubleheader last Thursday, but the games were postponed due to inclement weather in the Birmingham, Ala., area. The team was also away from the diamond this past weekend in a scheduled weekend off.

TONEY ON TOP

Blue Raider second baseman Kayla Toney continues to lead the squad at the plate. Despite cooling off a bit as of late, she began the week fifth in the Sun Belt in batting (.402), fourth in slugging (.644) and sixth in on-base percentage (.480). The former Beech High Buccaneer leads the Blue Raiders with 10 doubles so far this season which ties her for the conference lead. Toney has also knocked in 12 runs and smacked three long balls while also getting hit by a pitch a squad-leading five times. She is also a threat on the base paths, going 8-10 in stolen bases this season while leading the Blue Raiders with 20 runs scored through its first 30 games.

POP AT THE PLATE

First baseman Kaycee Popham has been Middle Tennessee's leading run producer so far in 2012. She leads the squad with six dingers on the season while also leading the team with 18 runs batted in. The senior is also second on the squad in several categories including hits (33), total bases (55) and runs scored (19).

SHE'S PUT OUT

Kaycee Popham recently moved into first place on the Middle Tennessee all-time putout list. She now has 1,192 career putouts as she passed former Blue Raider catcher Melanie Manley who ended her career with 1,118. Her 225 put outs this season put her third in the Sun Belt entering the week.

WONDERFUL WOODRUFF

Right fielder Kelsey Woodruff has been a pleasant surprise for the Blue Raiders this season. After batting .257 in 27 games a year ago, she currently maintains a .342 clip at the plate which puts her third on the team. Even with her improved average, Woodruff has not lost any power as she is tied for second on the squad with four dingers while slugging .582 and tallying 15 RBIs.

DAVENPORT DELIVERING

After seeing her batting average dip to a season-low .194 on March 2, center fielder Nina Davenport has hit .309 over her last 21 games to increase her average all the way up to .273. She also has eight stolen bases on the year which puts her tied for first on the team with Kayla Toney and Nina Dever. Strikeouts continue to be Davenport's downfall, however, as she is tied for the team lead with 19 strikeouts.

SAY WHAT, YSAIS?

Senior catcher/designated player Natalie Ysais has caught fire lately. After her average at the plate fell all the way down to .184 on March 10, she has gone on to bat .381 over her last 16 games and now maintains a .288 clip which puts her fourth on the team.

STINNETT STEAMROLLING

Sophomore pitcher Shelby Stinnett currently leads the team with a 2.82 ERA. The sophomore has tossed six complete games this season, including two seven-inning shutouts. In fact, only twice has she not finished a game in which she started. Stinnett has been especially impressive of late as she has tossed three consecutive complete games and has surrendered just seven earned runs over her last 26.2 innings pitched.

JUST JUTSON ALONG

Caty Jutson continues to pitch well in the circle as she entered the week tied for second among Sun Belt pitchers with just three home runs allowed in 71.2 innings pitched. The Phoenix, Ariz., product is second on the team with five complete games in 11 starts while making a total of 19 appearances in the circle.

A NEW NIEVES

After getting her Blue Raider career off to a bit of a slow start, shortstop Samantha Nieves has been a significant presence at the plate recently. Over her last 12 games, she has tallied a .385 batting average with a home run and five runs knocked in. Meanwhile the Covina, Calif., native has continued her solid play defensively, committing just one error in her last 18 games.

BLUE BATS A BELTIN'

Middle Tennessee entered this week hitting .284 as a team which as of Monday was good enough for third in the Sun Belt. The squad tallied a total of 22 hits in its March 27th doubleheader at Jacksonville State including 15 alone in the second game. They followed that up by pounding out a combined 18 hits in their twin bill against South Alabama on March 31st before being one-hit in Sunday's series finale. Meanwhile the Blue Raiders are slugging at a .435 clip which also puts them third in conference.

CAROUSEL IN THE CIRCLE

Middle Tennessee has used five different pitchers in 2012. Caty Jutson leads the staff with 19 appearances and 71.2 innings tossed while Shelby Stinnett has made 14 appearances and Jordyn Fisherback has seen the circle 12 times. Four Blue Raiders have started games this season and the squad has played two conference series in which it started three different starters.

THIRD INNING THUNDER

The Blue Raiders have taken a liking to the third inning this year. The squad has scored 28 runs in the frame. The first, second, fourth and seventh innings follow as the team has posted 15 runs in each of those frames. Meanwhile the third inning is also a favorite of the team's pitching staff. With the exception of the seventh inning, the third and sixth innings have been opponents' least productive innings as the Blue Raiders have allowed just 17 runs in those frames.

GET LOW

The Blue Raiders currently have a record of 12-4 when holding its opponents to five runs or fewer while the squad is 0-14 when giving up more than five runs.

TURNING TWO

Middle Tennessee has turned 12 double plays this season which puts them tied for fourth in the Sun Belt entering this week's action. The squad had three twin-killings alone in their 3-0 defeat of Alabama State on March 11.

FIRST PRIORITY

The first inning has often told the tale early for the Blue Raiders in 2012. The squad is 3-10 when allowing its opponents to score in the first inning. Meanwhile Middle Tennessee is 3-12 when its opponents get on the board before the Blue Raiders.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Defense is the recipe for success for Middle Tennessee this season. The squad is 8-3 when not committing an error and 4-15 when committing at least one. The Blue Raiders have made 38 errors this season while maintaining a .957 fielding percentage which put them sixth in the league at week's beginning.

SIX INNING STORY

The Blue Raiders hold an 8-1 clip when having the lead after six innings of play. Conversely, the squad is 1-12 when trailing entering the seventh inning.

GIVE HER A HAND

Junior third baseman Kristi Marquez has already racked up a whopping 74 assists while manning the hot corner for the Blue Raiders, 17 more than Kayla Toney who is second on the team. She entered the week third in the Sun Belt in the category.

HIT SENSATION

In the second game of their doubleheader on March 17, Middle Tennessee and North Texas combined for 22 hits and 35 total bases, both tops in a single game in the Sun Belt this year.

SILLINESS IN THE SEVENTH

Middle Tennessee won a game in rather unusual fashion earlier this season. The Blue Raiders scored three runs in the bottom of the seventh to come from behind and defeat Eastern Michigan 6-5 on March 10. EMU pitchers hit four Middle Tennessee batters in the inning, including Laura Dukes who recorded the game-winning RBI after getting plunked, allowing Kayla Toney to score. Interestingly, the inning featured no hits or errors and the ball never left the infield.

HEAD COACH SUE NEVAR

THE NEVAR FILE

Head Coach	Sue Nevar
Alma Mater, Year	Indiana, ’81
Year at MT	Fifth
Record at MT (overall/conf.)	88-148/33-70
Overall Record	372-364-1

Sue Nevar is in her fifth season as the head coach of the Middle Tennessee program.

Prior to coming to the Murfreesboro, Nevar was a highly-successful head coach at Kent State from 1986-96, leading the Golden Flashes to the Women’s College World Series in 1990 while posting a 43-9 record.

Nevar was voted coach of the year in both the MAC and the NCAA Midwest Region in 1990 after leading the Flashes to their first-ever MAC and NCAA regional titles and finishing seventh in the country.

While in Kent, she coached 12 First Team All-MAC selections, two conference players of the year and six All-Midwest Region First Team honorees as well as one Canadian Olympic player. Nevar placed a high priority on academics from the day she stepped foot on campus at Middle Tennessee and she has quickly built a program that is extremely successful in the classroom. The Blue Raiders have won the Sun Belt Academic Team Award three of the past four years. She has continued her academic success from her tenure at KSU where she had 24 MAC First Team All-Academic selections, seven Academic All-America recipients and one Academic All-America Player of the Year.

Before becoming the head coach at Kent State, Nevar was an assistant at Texas A&M (1982-84) and Ohio State (1985). While in College Station, the Aggies won the AIAW national championship in 1982, an NCAA title in 1983 and finished second at the Women’s College World Series in 1984.

The Fairlawn, Ohio, native played collegiately at Indiana, earning four varsity letters each in softball and volleyball from 1977-80. She won the Big 10 batting title as a junior and helped lead IU to a runner-up finish at the AIAW College World Series as a senior while earning All-America honors from the Amateur Softball Association (ASA). Nevar graduated from Indiana in 1981 with her B.S. in physical education.

In recognition of her outstanding coaching tenure with the Golden Flashes, Nevar was inducted into the Kent State Hall of Fame. She was also a member of the inaugural class of the Copley High School Athletic Hall of Fame in honor of her three-sport career from 1973-76.

Nevar and husband, Bob, have spent the last 15 years in the Middle Tennessee area with their three children - Brent (16), Katie (14) and Tyler (10). She worked as a scout for the National Scouting Report for four years in Tennessee before taking over the helm of the Blue Raiders, and also stayed involved with the game by giving private hitting and pitching lessons.
