BLUE RAIDERS WELCOME FIU FOR MIDWEEK SUN BELT SERIES

The Middle Tennessee softball team continues its six-game conference homestand today as the Blue Raiders welcome FIU to Murfreesboro today for a three-game conference series.

Middle Tennessee (12-25, 2-10) enters this week's series looking to rebound from dropping three games over the weekend to No. 7 UL-Lafayette. Despite falling 4-3, the Blue Raiders smashed three home runs off All-American pitcher Ashley Brignac in Sunday's contest and will look to carry the offensive momentum into this week's series. The squad also received a couple of solid outings in the circle from senior pitcher Caty Jutson who limited the potent Ragin' Cajun offense to just four earned runs in 14 innings pitched over the weekend.

Jutson will look to continue her impressive pitching in the circle against FIU. With her two complete games over the weekend, she now leads the squad with seven on the season including one complete-game shutout performance.

Nina Dever, Kaycee Popham and Kelsey Woodruff each tallied a home run in Sunday's contest against the Ragin' Cajuns. The trio ranks one through three on the team in long balls as Popham leads the squad with eight on the year while Dever has six and Woodruff has blasted five.

Following play against FIU, Middle Tennessee will continue Sun Belt play as the squad will head to face Troy this weekend.

QUICK HITS

POP STILL POPPING

First baseman Kaycee Popham has been Middle Tennessee's leading run producer so far in 2012. She hit her eighth home run of the season in Sunday's game against UL-Lafayette to extend her team-lead. She also leads the team in RBIs (23), hits (38), total bases (67) and runs scored (21).

DEVER NEVER BETTER

Nina Dever has also provided the Blue Raiders with solid offensive production recently. The Greenbrier, Tenn., product has batted .343 over her last 11 games with three home runs, six RBIs and seven runs scored. Following her solo blast on Sunday, she now has six dingers on the season to go along with 18 runs knocked in, putting her second on the squad in both categories.

SAY WHAT, YSAIS?

Senior catcher/designated player Natalie Ysais continues to be Middle Tennessee's hottest hitter at the plate. After a slow start offensively in 2012, she has increased her average to .286 which places her fourth on the squad. The senior leads the team in walks with 10 on the season while ranking third with a .365 on-base percentage.

A WONDERFUL WOODRUFF

Right fielder Kelsey Woodruff has been a pleasant surprise for the Blue Raiders this season. After batting .257 in 27 games a year ago, she currently maintains a .351 clip at the plate which puts her second on the team. Even with her improved average, Woodruff has not lost any power as she is third on the squad with five dingers while slugging .585 and tallying 17 RBIs.

DAVENPORT DELIVERING

After seeing her batting average dip to a season-low .194 on March 2, center fielder Nina Davenport has found her groove at the plate and is now batting .258 on the year. She also has eight stolen bases this season which puts her tied for second on the team with Kayla Toney. Strikeouts continue to be Davenport's downfall, however, as she tops the team with 24.

FRESH FACE

After making just four appearances in the circle in the team's first 30 games, Caitlin McClure has seen action in four of the squad's last seven games. The freshman has allowed just two earned runs on four over her last 6.2 innings tossed including throwing 1.2 innings of shutout ball on Sunday against UL-Lafayette.

SHE'S PUT OUT
Kaycee Popham recently moved into first place on the Middle Tennessee all-time putout list. She now has 1,239 career putouts as she passed former Blue Raider catcher Melanie Manley who ended her career with 1,118. She entered the week third in the Sun Belt in putouts this season as she now has 272 on the year.

ENTICING THE ERROR
Middle Tennessee starter Caty Jutson has been bitten by the error bug this season as she has given up 26 unearned runs this season in 93 innings pitched. The Phoenix, Ariz., native allowed nine unearned runs alone in Saturday's Game 2 loss to the Ragin' Cajuns.

RUNNING RAMPANT
Freshmen Bethany Jones and Katherine Tucker are first and second on the squad in games played as a sub. Tucker leads the team with 19 while Jones follows immediately behind with 18. Before making four plate appearances this past weekend against UL-Lafayette, Jones had yet to have an official at bit in 2012 as she is primarily used as a pinch runner. The Gainesboro, Tenn., native has scored five runs on the season while going 0-2 in the stolen base category. Meanwhile Tucker has made a pair of starts for the Blue Raiders in 2012. In seven at-bats, though, she has yet to record a hit while walking twice and swiping two bases.

BLUE BATS A BELTIN'
Middle Tennessee is hitting .275 as a team which entering this week's play is good enough for third in the Sun Belt. Meanwhile the Blue Raiders are slugging at a .425 clip which puts them fourth in conference.

THIRD INNING THUNDER
The Blue Raiders have taken a liking to the third inning this year. The squad has scored 30 runs in the frame. The first inning follows as the team has posted 20 runs in the opening inning. Meanwhile the third inning is also a favorite of the team's pitching staff. With the exception of the seventh inning, the third has been opponents' least productive inning as the Blue Raiders have allowed just 26 runs in the inning.

GET LOW
The Blue Raiders currently have a record of 12-6 when holding its opponents to five runs or fewer while the squad is 0-19 when giving up more than five runs.

TURNING TWO
Middle Tennessee has turned 18 double plays this season which puts them first in the Sun Belt entering this weekend. The squad had three twin-killings alone in their 3-0 defeat of Alabama State on March 11.

FIRST PRIORITY
The first inning has often told the tale early for the Blue Raiders in 2012. The squad is 3-14 when allowing its opponents to score in the first inning. Meanwhile Middle Tennessee is 3-16 when its opponents get on the board before the Blue Raiders.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS
Defense is the recipe for success for Middle Tennessee this season. The squad is 8-5 when not committing an error and 4-20 when committing at least one. The Blue Raiders have made 54 errors this season while maintaining a .951 fielding percentage which put them seventh in the league as of Monday.

SIX INNING STORY
The Blue Raiders hold an 8-1 clip when having the lead after six innings of play. Conversely, the squad is 1-16 when trailing entering the seventh inning.

GIVE HER A HAND
Junior third baseman Kristi Marquez has already racked up a whopping 93 assists while manning the hot corner for the Blue Raiders, 17 more than Samantha Nieves who is second on the team. She entered the week third in the Sun Belt in the category.

HIT SENSATION
In the second game of their doubleheader on March 17, Middle Tennessee and North Texas combined for 22 hits and 35 total bases, both tops in a single game in the Sun Belt this year.

SILLINESS IN THE SEVENTH
Middle Tennessee won a game in rather unusual fashion earlier this season. The Blue Raiders scored three runs in the bottom of the seventh to come from behind and defeat Eastern Michigan 6-5 on March 10. EMU pitchers hit four Middle Tennessee batters in the inning, including Laura Dukes who recorded the game-winning RBI after getting plunked, allowing Kayla Toney to score. Interestingly, the inning featured no hits or errors and the ball never left the infield.

HEAD COACH SUE NEVAR

THE NEVAR FILE

Head Coach	Sue Nevar
Alma Mater, Year	Indiana, '81
Year at MT	Fifth
Record at MT (overall/conf.)	88-155/33-73
Overall Record	372-371-1

Sue Nevar is in her fifth season as the head coach of the Middle Tennessee program.

Prior to coming to the Murfreesboro, Nevar was a highly-successful head coach at Kent State from 1986-96, leading the Golden Flashes to the Women's College World Series in 1990 while posting a 43-9 record.

Nevar was voted coach of the year in both the MAC and the NCAA Midwest Region in 1990 after leading the Flashes to their first-ever MAC and NCAA regional titles and finishing seventh in the country.

While in Kent, she coached 12 First Team All-MAC selections, two conference players of the year and six All-Midwest Region First Team honorees as well as one Canadian Olympic player. Nevar placed a high priority on academics from the day she stepped foot on campus at Middle Tennessee and she has quickly built a program that is extremely successful in the classroom. The Blue Raiders have won the Sun Belt Academic Team Award three of the past four years. She has continued her academic success from her tenure at KSU where she had 24 MAC First Team All-Academic selections, seven Academic All-America recipients and one Academic All-America Player of the Year.

Before becoming the head coach at Kent State, Nevar was an assistant at Texas A&M (1982-84) and Ohio State (1985). While in College Station, the Aggies won the AIAW national championship in 1982, an NCAA title in 1983 and finished second at the Women's College World Series in 1984.

The Fairlawn, Ohio, native played collegiately at Indiana, earning four varsity letters each in softball and volleyball from 1977-80. She won the Big 10 batting title as a junior and helped lead IU to a runner-up finish at the AIAW College World Series as a senior while earning All-America honors from the Amateur Softball Association (ASA). Nevar graduated from Indiana in 1981 with her B.S. in physical education.

In recognition of her outstanding coaching tenure with the Golden Flashes, Nevar was inducted into the Kent State Hall of Fame. She was also a member of the inaugural class of the Copley High School Athletic Hall of Fame in honor of her three-sport career from 1973-76.

Nevar and husband, Bob, have spent the last 15 years in the Middle Tennessee area with their three children - Brent (16), Katie (14) and Tyler (10). She worked as a scout for the National Scouting Report for four years in Tennessee before taking over the helm of the Blue Raiders, and also stayed involved with the game by giving private hitting and pitching lessons.
