BLUE RAIDERS LOOK TO TAKE MOMENTUM TO TROY

The Middle Tennessee softball team comes to Troy fresh off a thrilling, emotional win over FIU on Wednesday in Murfreesboro. The Blue Raiders will look to carry its momentum into this pivotal three-game series against the Trojans.

Middle Tennessee captured the final game of its series with FIU in walk-off fashion Wednesday. Third baseman Kristi Marquez rocketed a one-out single to left to score Samantha Nieves from third to give the Blue Raiders the 2-1 victory. It was the team's third walk-off victory of the season as Middle Tennessee defeated Eastern Michigan in the bottom of the seventh inning on March 10 while also defeating Eastern Illinois in similar fashion in the second game of their doubleheader on March 14.

The Blue Raiders received a trio of impressive pitching performances earlier this week against FIU. Shelby Stinnett began the series by tossing a complete game, allowing just two earned runs in her seven innings. Caty Jutson followed with another terrific outing as she limited the Panthers to just one earned run while also throwing all seven innings. The Phoenix, Ariz., native then picked up the win in the series finale, going the final 3.2 innings while not surrendering a run.
Caitlin McClure was the starter of Wednesday's Game 3 and she provided the squad with another solid start. The freshman has taken advantage of her recent opportunities, limiting opponents to only three earned runs over her last 12 innings pitched.

A balanced offensive attack led Middle Tennessee against the Panthers. Nine different Blue Raiders tallied a hit in the series including four who notched at least two knocks. Meanwhile freshman Katherine Tucker recorded her first-career hit with a double in the second game of Tuesday's doubleheader.

Middle Tennessee also turned in several strong defensive efforts at the beginning of the week. The Blue Raiders committed just three errors over the three games while making a number of dazzling plays in the field.

QUICK HITS

POP STILL POPPING

First baseman Kaycee Popham has been Middle Tennessee's leading run producer so far in 2012. She hit her eighth home run of the season in Sunday's game against UL-Lafayette to extend her team-lead. She also leads the team in RBIs (23), hits (39), total bases (68) and runs scored (21).

SAY WHAT, YSAIS?

Senior catcher/designated player Natalie Ysais continues to be Middle Tennessee's hottest hitter at the plate. After a slow start offensively in 2012, she has increased her average to .276 which places her fourth on the squad. The senior leads the team in walks with 12 on the season while ranking third with a .368 on-base percentage.

A WONDERFUL WOODRUFF

Right fielder Kelsey Woodruff has been a pleasant surprise for the Blue Raiders this season. After batting .257 in 27 games a year ago, she currently maintains a .330 clip at the plate which puts her second on the team. Even with her improved average, Woodruff has not lost any power as she is third on the squad with five dingers while slugging .553 and tallying 18 RBIs.

DAVENPORT DELIVERING

After seeing her batting average dip to a season-low .194 on March 2, center fielder Nina Davenport has found her groove at the plate and is now batting .263 on the year. She also has 10 stolen bases this season which puts her tied for second on the team with Nina Dever. Strikeouts continue to be Davenport's downfall, however, as she is second on the Middle Tennessee team with 25.

FRESH FACE

After making just four appearances in the circle in the team's first 30 games, Caitlin McClure has seen action in five of the squad's last 10 games. The freshman has allowed just three earned runs over her last 12 innings and limited FIU to just one earned run in 5.1 innings in her start against the Panthers on Wednesday.

SHE'S PUT OUT

Kaycee Popham recently moved into first place on the Middle Tennessee all-time putout list. She now has 1,260 career putouts as she passed former Blue Raider catcher Melanie Manley who ended her career with 1,118. She entered the week third in the Sun Belt in putouts this season and she now has 293 on the year.

WALKING OFF
Third baseman Kristi Marquez hit a one-out single to left field in the bottom of the ninth, scoring Samantha Nieves from third base to give the Blue Raiders a thrilling 2-1 walk-off victory. It was the third win of that fashion as Middle Tennessee also walked off with victories on March 10 against Eastern Michigan while defeating Eastern Illinois with a last-inning hit on March 14.

COMPLETE CRAZINESS
Middle Tennessee and FIU pitchers combined to throw four complete games in their doubleheader this past Tuesday. Game 1 saw Blue Raider starter Shelby Stinnett allow two earned runs on seven hits in seven innings while she was countered by Panther pitcher Mariah Dawson who gave up just one earned run on three hits. Middle Tennessee's Caty Jutson and FIU's Jenn Gniadek followed with similar performances. Jutson surrendered one earned run on nine knocks compared to Gniadek who did not allow a run while limiting the Blue Raiders to just four hits.

ENTICING THE ERROR
Middle Tennessee starter Caty Jutson has been bitten by the error bug this season as she has given up 27 unearned runs this season in 103.2 innings pitched. The Phoenix, Ariz., native allowed nine unearned runs alone in last Saturday's Game 2 loss to the Ragin' Cajuns.

BLUE BATS A BELTIN'
Middle Tennessee is hitting .267 as a team which entering this week's play was good enough for third in the Sun Belt. Meanwhile the Blue Raiders are currently slugging at a .411 clip.

THIRD INNING THUNDER
The Blue Raiders have taken a liking to the third inning this year. The squad has scored 31 runs in the frame. The first inning follows as the team has posted 20 runs in the opening inning. Meanwhile the third inning is also a favorite of the team's pitching staff. With the exception of the seventh inning, the third has been opponents' least productive inning as the Blue Raiders have allowed just 26 runs in the inning.

GET LOW
The Blue Raiders currently have a record of 13-8 when holding its opponents to five runs or fewer while the squad is 0-19 when giving up more than five runs.

TURNING TWO
Middle Tennessee has turned 19 double plays this season and they were first in the Sun Belt with 18 at week's beginning. The squad had three twin-killings alone in their 3-0 defeat of Alabama State on March 11.

FIRST PRIORITY
The first inning has often told the tale early for the Blue Raiders in 2012. The squad is 3-14 when allowing its opponents to score in the first inning. Meanwhile Middle Tennessee is 3-17 when its opponents get on the board before the Blue Raiders.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS
Defense is the recipe for success for Middle Tennessee this season. The squad is 9-5 when not committing an error and 4-22 when committing at least one. The Blue Raiders have made 56 errors this season while maintaining a .953 fielding percentage.

SIX INNING STORY
The Blue Raiders hold an 8-1 clip when having the lead after six innings of play. Conversely, the squad is 1-18 when trailing entering the seventh inning.

GIVE HER A HAND
Junior third baseman Kristi Marquez has already racked up a whopping 100 assists while manning the hot corner for the Blue Raiders, 13 more than Samantha Nieves who is second on the team. She entered the week third in the Sun Belt in the category.

HIT SENSATION
In the second game of their doubleheader on March 17, Middle Tennessee and North Texas combined for 22 hits and 35 total bases, both tops in a single game in the Sun Belt this year.

SILLINESS IN THE SEVENTH
Middle Tennessee won a game in rather unusual fashion earlier this season. The Blue Raiders scored three runs in the bottom of the seventh to come from behind and defeat Eastern Michigan 6-5 on March 10. EMU pitchers hit four Middle Tennessee batters in the inning, including Laura Dukes who recorded the game-winning RBI after getting plunked, allowing Kayla Toney to score. Interestingly, the inning featured no hits or errors and the ball never left the infield.

HEAD COACH SUE NEVAR

THE NEVAR FILE

Head Coach	Sue Nevar
Alma Mater, Year	Indiana, ’81
Year at MT	Fifth
Record at MT (overall/conf.)	89-157/34-75
Overall Record	373-373-1

Sue Nevar is in her fifth season as the head coach of the Middle Tennessee program.

Prior to coming to the Murfreesboro, Nevar was a highly-successful head coach at Kent State from 1986-96, leading the Golden Flashes to the Women’s College World Series in 1990 while posting a 43-9 record.

Nevar was voted coach of the year in both the MAC and the NCAA Midwest Region in 1990 after leading the Flashes to their first-ever MAC and NCAA regional titles and finishing seventh in the country.

While in Kent, she coached 12 First Team All-MAC selections, two conference players of the year and six All-Midwest Region First Team honorees as well as one Canadian Olympic player. Nevar placed a high priority on academics from the day she stepped foot on campus at Middle Tennessee and she has quickly built a program that is extremely successful in the classroom. The Blue Raiders have won the Sun Belt Academic Team Award three of the past four years. She has continued her academic success from her tenure at KSU where she had 24 MAC First Team All-Academic selections, seven Academic All-America recipients and one Academic All-America Player of the Year.

Before becoming the head coach at Kent State, Nevar was an assistant at Texas A&M (1982-84) and Ohio State (1985). While in College Station, the Aggies won the AIAW national championship in 1982, an NCAA title in 1983 and finished second at the Women’s College World Series in 1984.

The Fairlawn, Ohio, native played collegiately at Indiana, earning four varsity letters each in softball and volleyball from 1977-80. She won the Big 10 batting title as a junior and helped lead IU to a runner-up finish at the AIAW College World Series as a senior while earning All-America honors from the Amateur Softball Association (ASA). Nevar graduated from Indiana in 1981 with her B.S. in physical education.

In recognition of her outstanding coaching tenure with the Golden Flashes, Nevar was inducted into the Kent State Hall of Fame. She was also a member of the inaugural class of the Copley High School Athletic Hall of Fame in honor of her three-sport career from 1973-76.

Nevar and husband, Bob, have spent the last 15 years in the Middle Tennessee area with their three children - Brent (16), Katie (14) and Tyler (10). She worked as a scout for the National Scouting Report for four years in Tennessee before taking over the helm of the Blue Raiders, and also stayed involved with the game by giving private hitting and pitching lessons.
