This Weekend's Action

The Blue Raiders open SBC action this weekend, having won four of their last six matches. Memphis edged the Blue Raiders, 3-2, in a contested matchup on Sept. 16.

Tidbits

- The Raiders have scored seven goals in the first 15 minutes of action this year.
- Offensively, the Blue Raiders are No. 3 in the NCAA with 3.5 goals per game. The Raiders only rank behind Central Arkansas (3.67) and 2011 national runner-up Duke (3.56).
- MT has out tallied their last four opponents, 15-5.
- The MT soccer program is vastly approaching win 175 with the Blue Raiders. MT is just five victories shy of reaching that mark.
- A pair of wins this weekend would give MT its best start in SBC play since picking up conference-opening wins over FIU and Florida Atlantic in 2009.
- '09 was also the last season Middle Tennessee had won a SBC opener.
- Three Blue Raiders have reached double digits in points: Whitney Jorgenson (13), Paige Goeglein (12) and Regina Thomas (11).

About the Trojans

UALR (1-7-0) is coming off a 4-0 loss to Northwestern State. The Trojans lone victory was a 4-nil shutout over Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Sept. 9. Coach Freddy Delgado's team is led by sophomores Alyson Rohane and Ariel Galletti, combining for four goals and three assists. Rohane leads the Trojans in shots (21) and shots on goal (12), while Galletti ranks second in both categories with 15 and eight, respectively. UALR's goalkeepers have played in all eight matches. Natalie Marsh holds a 3.33 GAA, while Shantel Wittke has given up 3.83 goals per game with 40 saves.

UALR Series

MT and UALR are meeting for the 19th time on Friday evening. The Blue Raiders have won 14 of the last 16 meetings and hold a 14-3-1 edge in the series. The Trojans pulled off a 2-1 win in Murfreesboro on Oct. 11, 2009. Last year, the Blue Raiders secured a 1-0 victory thanks to the foot of Regina Thomas at the 69th minute.

About the Red Wolves

Arkansas State (6-3-0) has won four out of its last five matches. The lone blemish in that stretch was a 2-nil loss at Southern Miss. ASU is second in the league behind MT with 28 goals and 66 points. The Red Wolves are first in the SBC with 20 assists and 53 corner kicks through nine matches. Offensively, ASU is led by LSU transfer Christina Fink with 12 points and four goals. Freshman forward Loren Mitchell follows with four goals and 10 points. Meanwhile, Fink and Ashley McMurty are tied for a team-best four assists each. Three goalkeepers have seen action for ASU this year with Aja Aguirre holding team-bests with a 0.80 goals against average and 17 saves.

Arkansas State Series

The Blue Raiders have lost only once to Arkansas State since the squads first met in 2000. MT holds an 11-1-1 lead in the series. Last season, MT picked up a 3-0 shutout at home over UALR on Sept. 30. Allison Stallard registered a penalty kick in the match, while Regina Thomas racked up an assist in the victory. MT's lone loss was a 2-1 decision on Oct. 10, 2008 in Jonesboro. In 2007, the Blue Raiders and Red Wolves drew 0-0 in Murfreesboro.

Offense Ranks No. 3 Nationally

The potent offensive attack of Middle Tennessee has been lethal for opponents this season. The Blue Raiders sit third nationally in scoring offense as of Sept. 18. MT has averaged 3.5 goals per contest, and has scored three or more goals in four contests this season. Whitney Jorgenson is 52nd nationally with 1.62 points per game, while Paige Goeglein sits 62nd with 1.5 per contest. Jorgenson is 25th with 5 assists in eight matches.

Start to the Season

Two Middle Tennessee victories this weekend would give the Blue Raiders their best start since the 2009 season. During the first 10 games of that campaign, MT posted an 8-1-1 record including wins over FIU and Florida Atlantic to start conference play.

Ranking Among the Best

Through five weeks of action, Middle Tennessee leads the Sun Belt in four categories. The Blue Raiders have amassed a league-best 75 points, 28 goals, 3.5 goals per game and 2.38 assists per game.

Jorgenson Inking Her Name in the Record Books

Senior Whitney Jorgenson is continuing to ink her name in the Middle Tennessee record books. The Overland Park, Kan., product is tied for fifth in assists (18) and ranks sixth in shot percentage (.149). She is eighth with six game-winning goals, ninth in minutes played (5,053) and ninth with 54 career points.

Keep the Goals Coming

Middle Tennessee has set the pace early, scoring 28 goals in the first eight games. The Blue Raiders knocked in 10 goals in a shutout victory over Alabama A&M on Aug. 24. That high octane explosion resulted in a tie for the second most scored in school history. Three of the highest scoring performances in school history have come against Alabama A&M. On Sept. 2, the Blue Raiders posted the 10th-best scoring performance with seven goals against ETSU.

Thomas Continues Record Pace

Earlier this year, senior Regina Thomas entered the top-10 in career goals at MT. The forward netted her 21st and 22nd career goals against Belmont to move into 10th all-time. Thomas is just one goal shy from moving into ninth and four from moving into eighth. The forward ranks third all-time in shot percentage (.180), eighth in career assists (16) and ninth in shots on goal (80).

Leading the League

Seniors Paige Goeglein and Whitney Jorgenson are also among the best in the Sun Belt. Jorgenson is first in the league with 13 points. Jorgenson is also tied for first with five assists. Goeglein is tied for the SBC-best five goals with North Texas' Kelsey Hodges.

The First Half Raiders

Scoring in the first half has been the mantra for the Blue Raider program this season. Middle Tennessee has outscored its opponents 17-to-5 in the opening half. Therefore, 17 of MT's 28 goals this season have come from the opening half.

Dynamic Duo

Both goalkeepers for the Blue Raiders have been tremendous minding the net this season. Freshman Kelsey Brouwer holds a 3-2 record, saving 78 percent of goal attempts this season. The Franklin native holds a 1.37 Goals Against Average in five matches this season. Jessica Gilchrist has posted a 2-1 record in three contests. Gilchrist has deflected four balls from the net, while posting a 1.39 GAA.

Goeglein and Hartshorn Sweep Weekly Honors

Paige Goeglein and Emily Hartshorn grabbed weekly offensive and defensive player of the week honors on Sept. 4 by the Sun Belt Conference. Goeglein accumulated four points, including a goal and two assists in MT's 7-1 drubbing of ETSU. Against Vanderbilt, Goeglein fired off three strikes as the Blue Raiders fell 2-0. Hartshorn provided stout defense throughout the weekend as MT gave up just three goals on the weekend. The sophomore midfielder helped limit ETSU to just seven shots as the Blue Raiders cruised to their third victory this season.

Preseason Picks

Middle Tennessee was picked to finish third in the Sun Belt Conference for the 2012 season. The Blue Raiders were slated to finish behind preseason favorite North Texas and second place FIU. Voting resulted in a tie for MT as they were picked third along with archrival Western Kentucky. Three Blue Raiders grabbed preseason All-Conference accolades. Seniors Regina Thomas, Paige Goeglein and Allison Stallard all picked up preseason honors as voted on by the league coaches.
