It's BLACK-OUT on Saturday!

Wear your black to see MT face North Texas

October 21, 2012 · @MTAthletics

MURFREESBORO - The Middle Tennessee Athletic Department announced today that Saturday's home conference game against North Texas will be the football program's annual BLACK-OUT game. The Blue Raiders will wear their black uniforms and all fans are encouraged to wear something black.

Fans can wear Black-Out shirts from previous years or stop by Lightning's Locker Room or Ideastees on 910 Ridgely Road to pick up the 2012 edition. The shirts will be $10 at Ideastees and will be sold on campus at Lightning's Locker Room on Friday, Oct. 26 from 10 AM until 3 PM. The campus store will also be open on gameday at 9AM.

The first 500 students will receive the official Black-Out Shirt upon entering the gate. The marketing department will be around campus at different locations (Student Union/ KUC/ Ticket Office) giving away 100 Black-Out shirts each day Monday-Friday.

Saturday's game is also the 31st Annual Salute to Armed Services/Veterans Day with numerous activities slated to honor the U.S. Armed Services.

LINEUP FOR SALUTE TO ARMED SERVICES/VETERANS DAY
10:30 AM - 2:30 PM: Department of Veterans Affairs VA Tennessee
11:00 AM - 11:30 AM: Veterans Memorial Service at Tom H. Jackson Building
12:30 PM - 1:30 PM: Pre-Game Picnic at Hall of Fame Building
1:00 PM - 1:30 PM: Presentation of the Joe Nunley Award
2:30 PM: Kickoff vs North Texas

Halftime: A special patriotic salute to U.S. Armed Services!

Also of Note:

Silent Auction benefiting Toys for Tots will be setup inside the Hall of Fame and the Marines will be setup at each gate to collect toys as well.

Game Coin will be delivered by UAS Department on campus.

Coin Toss performed by ret. Ssg. Daniel Bivens. Two-time Combat Veteran and Purple Heart Recipient.

Boys and Girls Scouts will be in attendance.

National Anthem performed by retired Sgt. Joe Wilson Sr.

Printed on July 22, 2014
Original URL: http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/63431