CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas - No. 34 Middle Tennessee notched two victories on Day 1 of the HEB Classic to advance to tomorrow's finals against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.

MT (10-4) defeated DePaul in the first round, 4-1, and UTSA in the semifinals, 4-2. MT is now 2-0 against UTSA this season.

"The guys did a good job of competing today," head coach Jimmy Borendame said. "We're looking forward to tomorrow's final. It's going to be a tough day, and it's going to be windy, so hopefully we can overcome adversity and get a win."

Against DePaul, the Blue Raiders lost the doubles point for the first time in six matches, but rallied in the singles portion to take the win.

Victor Cornea, Christoph Lang, Ettore Zito and David Fox all won their singles matches to clinch the MT victory.

Fox and Lang won their doubles match-up with Filip Dzanko and Sten Leusink, 9-8 (7-5), but MT fell in No. 1 and 2 doubles to lose the point.

Cornea defeated DePaul's Mathias Hambach, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2, while Christoph Lang topped Leusink, 6-4, 6-4. In Flight 5 singles, Zito won, 6-1, 6-1 over Jan-Willem Feilzer. Fox closed out the match with a 6-4, 6-4 victory against Adam Reinhart.

Ben Davis and Yannick Born faced Dzanko and Paul John in singles, respectively, but their matches were unfinished because the Blue Raiders had already clinched their fourth team point.

In the semi-finals, MT and UTSA played the singles portion of the match first, and though UTSA grabbed wins in Flights 2 and 4, the Blue Raiders ultimately clinched the title berth.

Davis, ranked No. 98, defeated UTSA's Martin Ayala for the second time this season, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

After Cornea fell to Diogo Casa, 6-1, 2-6, 2-6, Lang put together a clutch performance in Flight 3 singles, helping MT take a 2-1 lead by defeating Tyler Brown, 7-6 (11-9), 6-0.

"I'm really proud of how Christoph played today," Borendame said. "He wasn't feeling well, but came out and won two straight for us today, which was clutch."

Born lost his Flight 4 singles bout with Joel Rubio, 6-7 (3-7), 7-6 (7-2), 4-6, allowing UTSA to tie the match at 2-2.

The final two matches, however, belonged to the Blue Raiders, as Zito and Fox picked up their second singles wins of the day. Zito defeated David Kelleher, 6-4, 6-1, and Fox was victorious against Eric Buchalter, 6-2, 6-0.

Middle Tennessee will face TAMU-CC in tomorrow's final, scheduled to begin at Noon CT. Live stats are available through goislanders.com.
