HATTIESBURG, Miss. - Middle Tennessee women's tennis dropped a heart-breaking 4-3 contest to Louisiana on Saturday in a neutral site matchup at Southern Miss.

The Blue Raiders' (5-6) two-match win streak was snapped as UL improved to 9-5 on the season.

In doubles action, MT won the first doubles match as Nayara Moraes and Irina Constantinide defeated Bailey VanDyke and Sandra Ahlqvist, 8-4. UL went on two win the next two doubles contests to collect the first point.

Melissa Burckhartt and Juliette Clement won 8-6 over Alexandra Torres and Flavia Nagayama. The doubles-point clincher came when Sophie Van den Aarssen/Nicole Breaux defeated Yuiri Nomoto/Carla Nava, 8-6.

In singles action, UL won their second point when Ahlqvist won 6-2, 6-4 over Moraes in the No. 4 spot. MT fought back with Nava's victory over VandDyke (6-4, 6-0) at the No. 5 position. The freshman Constantinide tied the match as she defeated Burckhartt, 6-1, 6-2.

Louisiana's Van den Aarssen battled Nomoto to a victory, winning 7-5, 7-6 (7-4). Nagayama notched her seventh straight win with a 6-3, 6-3 victory over Breaux at the third slot. UL secured the match as Clement swept Torres, 6-0, 6-0.

MT looks to bounce back tomorrow at 10 a.m. when the Raiders take on Southern Miss. Results of the match will be available online at GoBlueRaiders.com.
