MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - The Blue Raider Athletic Association will be providing a chartered bus for fans to attend the Nov. 11 Sun Belt Conference football game at Arkansas State. The 4 PM matchup between the Blue Raiders and Indians is shaping up to be one of the best of the season in the SBC so make your plans to attend today.

After attending the women's basketball game against No. 1 ranked Maryland on Friday night, fans can meet the bus at the Greenland Drive parking lot on Saturday morning at 9:00 AM to depart for Jonesboro. The cost of the trip per person is $50 and does not include a game ticket.

The bus will return home immediately following the game and fans are encouraged to bring their coolers and food for the bus and pregame tailgating.

There is limited space so reserve a spot today by calling the BRAA office at (615) 898-2210 and make sure to ask about the bus trip planned for Nov. 26 to see the women's basketball team take on No. 5 ranked Tennessee in Knoxville.
