BRAA to host Maury County Chapter event on Nov. 21

Hope to build active organization in Maury

MT Media Relations

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - The Blue Raider Athletic Association will host a chapter event in Maury County for fans and alums to meet Middle Tennessee basketball coaches Kermit Davis and Rick Insell, along with Athletic Director Chris Massaro. The reception will take place at Legends Steakhouse in Columbia from 5:30 PM to 7:30 PM.

"We are excited about the opportunities to reach out to our Blue Raider faithful in the Maury County area and I encourage everyone to come out to meet our coaches and administrators," said Alan Farley, Associate AD. "This is the first step toward building an active organization in Maury County to support Blue Raider athletics."

Food and beverages will be available for $10 and reservations should be directed to John Pointer in the BRAA office at 615-898-5206 or jpointer@mtsu.edu.

The BRAA will host a chapter event on Nov. 21 in Maury County with basketball coaches Kermit Davis and Rick Insell, along with AD Chris Massaro. ()
