Closer look at Florida International

Florida International is off to a 6-6 start, 1-1 in the SBC, under head coach Sergio Rouco. The Golden Panthers are coming off a tough 68-66 home loss against league rival Florida Atlantic. The loss was Florida International's first in five games at Pharmed Arena this season. The Golden Panthers won their SBC opener at Troy. Florida International has a balanced offensive attack with Johwen Villegas and Alex Galindo averaging 12.3 points, while Dejon Prejean contributes 10.3 points. Elvis Lora and Chris Fuller both average right at nine points per contest. Florida International is averaging 65 points per game and shooting 41 percent from the field, 33 percent from 3-point range.

Out with the old

Middle Tennessee will be playing a rare New Year's Eve game when it faces Florida International in Miami Sunday afternoon. The Blue Raiders have played three times on New Year's Eve, going 2-1 in those contests. Middle Tennessee beat North Alabama, 67-60, Dec. 31, 1979; lost at Minnesota, 98-57, Dec. 31, 1994; and beat Tennessee State, 67-57, Dec. 31, 2005

Vogelsberg will redshirt in 2006-07

Senior guard Adam Vogelsberg will take a redshirt season in 2006-07 and return to the squad for the 2007-08 season, Head Coach Kermit Davis has announced. Vogelsberg has been out of action since suffering a broken bone in his right foot in preseason practice the week of the opener. He made his first appearance of the season against Western Kentucky Thursday (12/28/06) and played three minutes late in the second half before returning to the bench. Davis said Vogelsberg will go back into a cast for three weeks and confirmed he would use his redshirt season this year following the game. Dec. 28 was the target date for Vogelsberg's return but the healing process has been slow seven weeks into the rehabilitation. Vogelsberg was an All-SBC performer last season and was a preseason all-league pick this year. He was Middle Tennessee's leading scorer in 2005-06 and ended the season in the Top 10 of four Middle Tennessee single-season lists.

Keep the travel bags packed

Basketball players across the nation generally do not get lengthy breaks during the holidays and the situation is holding true for Middle Tennessee players during this break. The Blue Raiders are in the midst of playing four games during a 12-day span, including three of those on the road. Middle Tennessee is in a stretch where it plays eight of 11 games away from home, which includes four of the next five. The Blue Raiders will make stops in Miami, Mobile, Ala., Boca Raton, Fla., and New Orleans, during this stretch. Middle Tennessee also faces the prospect of playing six of its next eight conference games on the road.

Youth movement in effect at Middle Tennessee

Seven of the nine players who have seen action for Middle Tennessee this season are either freshmen or sophomores. Sophomores Calvin O'Neil, Kevin Kanaskie, Nigel Johnson and freshman Desmond Yates have have combined for 36 starts. Sophomore Theryn Hudson has been a reserve in the paint and seen action in all 12 games. Freshmen Darren Avery has seen action in all 12 games while freshman Dino Hair has seen action in nine. The group of young Blue Raiders represent the corps of the squad as they comprise all of the roster except seniors Tim Blue and Kyle Young, as well as freshman walk-on John Hopson who has yet to see action for the Blue Raiders in his initial season. The seven underclassmen are responsible for 69 percent of the scoring, 67 percent of the rebounding, and 75 percent of the team's minutes so far this season.

Kanaskie emerging as team MVP

Kevin Kanaskie has been solid running the point for Middle Tennessee through the first 12 games of the season; however, his all-around play has made the sophomore the team's most valuable player and a serious all-league consieration at the outset of the 2006-07 campaign. Kanaskie leads the Blue Raiders with 11.3 points per game and his 15 steals are second on the team. Factor in his 5.8 assists per game and Kanaskie is responsible for 275 of Middle Tennessee's 61.1 points per game - which is 38 percent of the team's offense. His seven double-figure scoring games this season are tied for the most by a Blue Raider and he has scored 17 or more in three of the last six games. He keyed Middle Tennessee's win against Indiana State by scoring 15 of his 17 points in the second half while establishing career highs for points (17), field goals made (6), and 3-point field goals made (3), and he tallied a career-high eight assists in the win against Tennessee State. Kanaskie established a new career high for points with 20 against Louisiana-Monroe, and followed that with 17 against Austin Peay and established a new career high for 3-point field goals made with four. He also tied his career high with eight assists against Memphis.

Kanaskie holding strong at point

Middle Tennessee sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie's play down the stretch last season was a key in the team's strong finish. The State College, Pa., native has picked up where he left off in terms of running the team. Kanaskie has led the team in assists in all 12 games played and is averaging 5.8 helpers per game, which ranks second in the Sun Belt. He is also second in the SBC in assist/turnover ratio (2.00). Kanaskie dished out a career-high eight assists against Tennessee State and against Memphis, and he had six assists with only one turnover in 37 minutes against Western Kentucky. He has tallied five or more assists in 11 of the team's first 12 games.

Kermit Davis File

In his fifth season at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' Kormit Davis ve hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders have registered four straight winning seasons under Davis, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee is 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is fifth on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 72.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into sixth on the all-time wins list at Middle Tennessee with 62 after the Blue Raiders beat Louisiana-Lafayette (01/28/06). He moved past Ed Diddle, Jr., (56) for seventh on the list with Middle Tennessee's 87-75 win at Belmont (12/10/05). Davis moved into fifth on the career wins list against Tennessee State (12/04/06) with 72 career victories. He is four wins shy of tying Charles Greer for fourth on the all-time Blue Raider list. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.558) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces second-best wins mark after 125 games

Kermit Davis earned a win in his 125th game leading the Blue Raider program to give him a 71-54 mark. That record is the second-most wins for a Blue Raider coach in his first 125 games. Bruce Stewart won 83 of the first 125 games he coached at Middle Tennessee to top the list, while Jimmy Earle's 69 wins after 125 games is third most.

Five straight winning seasons would be rare

Middle Tennessee is looking to accomplish a rather feat as it seeks a fifth consecutive winning season under Head Coach Kermit Davis in 2006-07. The Blue Raiders' current streak of four consecutive winning seasons is tied for fourth longest in the program's 84 years of men's basketball. The longest stretch of consecutive winning seasons is six, which was turned in by Jimmy Earle's teams from 1973-79. The current Blue Raiders are attempting to match Bruce Stewart's teams from 1984-89 for the second longest streak of consecutive winning seasons with five. The only other stretch of at least four consecutive seasons with winning records was 1922-26, and the Blue Raiders only played four games during the 1924-25 season. The 2006-07 Blue Raiders are attempting to accomplish five straight winning seasons for the first time since 1984-89 — a span of 22 years. Davis, in his fifth season, is one of only two coaches in program history to begin his career with four straight winning seasons. The other was Bruce Stewart.

3-point streak intact but ...

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 317 consecutive games but the long streak has been in danger three times this season, including the last two games. The Blue Raiders managed just two treys against Tennessee and they had just one against Memphis. Darren Avery's 3-pointer midway through the second half kept the streak intact. The Blue Raiders were 0-of-4 from 3-point range in the first half against Western Kentucky and finally nailed a long-range shot midway through the second half before finishing with two. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot beyond the 3-point arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

Blue Raiders get defensive

Middle Tennessee has held six of its 12 opponents to 65 points or fewer this season and the Blue Raiders are 4-2 in those contests. The only setbacks came at Austin Peay (64-63 in OT), against College of Charleston (64-56).

Offense has been lacking

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis stresses defense and the message is more important than ever so far this season. The Blue Raiders have yet to reach 70 points in 12 games this season which is the longest stretch they have gone under Davis without topping the 70-point mark. The loss of leading scorer Adam Vogelsberg and a limited Tim Blue (offseason knee surgery) have impacted the squad's lack of scoring punch and has created a slim margin of error. Middle Tennessee has been held to 60 points or less four times and it has been limited to 65 points or less in nine of 12 games. The offensive woes have been felt hardest on the perimeter as Middle Tennessee is shooting 31 percent (48-154) from 3-point range.

Young guards playing under fire

One major reason for Middle Tennessee's lack of scoring punch can be attributed to inexperienced guard play. The Blue Raiders are playing all sophomores or freshmen on the perimeter and the youngsters, as expected, have had their share of ups-and-downs from and offensive standpoint. The tandem of Kevin Kanaskie, Calvin O'Neil, and Nigel Johnson are shooting a combined 36.4 percent (90-247) from the field this season, including a 31.2 mark (35-112) from 3-point range. The trio is averaging 24.3 points in 31 minutes of action per game. The numbers are more revealing during the last five games in which the team is 1-4. During this stretch they are shooting 33.7 percent from the field and 27 percent from 3-point range.

Yates growing up quickly

Middle Tennessee freshman Desmond Yates is making a nice transition into Division I basketball after sitting out the 2005-06 season. Yates is averaging 10.3 points per game and shooting 51 percent from the field. Overal the last five games, Yates is averaging a team-best 13 points, 3.2 rebounds, shooting 53 percent (26-49) from the field, 33 percent (4-12) from 3-point range, and 75 percent (9-12) at the free-throw line. The Somerville, Tenn., native poured in a personal-best 23 points against Belmont.

Outshooting foes has been key once again

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under fifth-year coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 4-1 this season and 59-4 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo earlier this season despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 32 of the last 34 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Blue registers first double double of season

Senior forward Tim Blue became the first Blue Raider to record a double double this season with 14 points and a game-high 11 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's 65-58 win against Indiana State. It marked the first double double for a Blue Raider since Blue accomplished the feat with 20 points and 11 rebounds against South Dakota State (02/13/06). The 11 rebounds tie a career high.

Blue returning to form following surgery

Tim Blue showed signs of promise for the future with his strong play at the end of the 2005-06 season - his first as a Blue Raider; however, the senior forward suffered an offseason knee injury and required surgery. The lingering effects of the surgery slowed Blue at the outset of the 2006-07 season but the Palm Beach, Fla., native seems to be finding his rhythm and returning to form. In his last five games, Blue is averaging 11.8 points and 5.2 rebounds, while shooting 47 percent from the field. The greatest indicator of Blue getting closer to 100 percent is his minutes played. He is averaging 31 minutes in the last five contests and has his second-highest scoring output of the season with 15 against Western Kentucky.

Playing from the inside out

Middle Tennessee has featured a balanced offensive attack under Head Coach Kermit Davis but with senior guard Adam Vogelsberg out with an injury and a young corps of perimeter players still becoming acclimated to Division I basketball the Blue Raiders have enjoyed their greatest success going inside at the start of the 2006-07 season. They are averaging 20.6 points per game inside the paint, which is 34 percent of the team's 733 points scored. The Blue Raiders have scored 22 points or more inside the paint in seven games, including 42 against Toledo.. Coincidentally, the Blue Raiders are shooting less 3-pointers thus far in 2006 as they are averaging 13 attempts per game as a team. By comparison, the Blue Raiders averaged right at 20 treys per game in 2005-06. They have hit more than five treys as a team just once in a game to this point. Vogelsberg's worth to the team is evidenced by the fact he hit five or more 3-pointers in a game seven times last season and had four or more in a game 13 times. The Blue Raiders are averaging just four 3-point field goals per game as a team.

Johnson taking advantage of charity

Middle Tennessee sophomore guard Nigel Johnson leads the Sun Belt in free-throw percentage with a 85.7 percent (24-of-28) showing. The Memphis, Tenn., native connected on 9-of-10 attempts against Western Kentucky and scored a career-high 14 points for his third double-figure scoring game of the season. Johnson's current percentage ranks fifth on the Blue Raider single-season list.

Shooting touch nothing new for Young

Kyle Young, who tied the Paradise Jam record for shooting percentage in three games (72.7 percent), is second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage through 12 games with a 62.1 percentage (41-of-66). Young entered the 2006-07 season fifth on the career field goal percentage list at Middle Tennessee with a mark of 56.8 and has seen that rise to 57.7 percent (258-of-447), which is currently third on the career list at Middle Tennessee. Young shot 65.2 percent from the field in 2005-06, which was third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee. The only player in school history ever to shoot higher than Young in a single season is Warren Kidd. The career mark for field goal percentage is held by Kidd, who shot 66.4 percent.

Young ties record in 'Paradise'

Middle Tennessee senior forward Kyle Young proved to be one of the most accurate shooters ever to play in the Paradise Jam Tournament during the team's stay at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Young was 16-of-22 from the field for a 72.7 field-goal percentage, which equaled the Paradise Jam Tournament record for best field-goal percentage by an individual in a minimum of three games. Young tied the mark set by Eastern Kentucky's Alonzo Hird (16-of-22) during the 2005 event. Young was 4-of-5 from the field against then No. 10 Alabama, 5-of-7 against Toledo, and 7-of-10 against College of Charleston.

Young playing in 100th career game vs. FIU

Kyle Young has been a fixture in the Middle Tennessee lineup throughout his Blue Raider career and his consistency and durability have him on the verge of the program's career Top 10 list for games played and games started. Young has played in 99 career games, which is eight shy of LeRoy Coleman (1976-80), who is 10th on the list with 107. Young has started 75 games and is one start shy of tying former standout Ty Baynham (1985-88) for 10th on the career list in that category.

Young blocking opponents' path

With one block against Belmont, Kyle Young has three on the season and 47 for his career, which ties Buck Hailey for seventh on the career list. Mantia Callender is sixth with 49. Young is three blocked shots shy of becoming just the sixth player in the Blue Raiders' 84-year history to register 50 or more blocks in a career.

Starters carrying load for Blue Raiders

Players either out due to injury or nursing nagging injuries, coupled with a young bench, has made depth an issue for the Blue Raiders in the early going. As a result, the Blue Raider starters have carried the load. Middle Tennessee's starters have been responsible for 75 percent of the team's scoring, 63 percent of the rebounding, and 70 percent of the minutes played through the first 12 games. Blue Raider starters are averaging 45.8 points per game while the bench has supplied 15.3. Starters are averaging 19.8 rebounds a game while the reserves have combined to average 11.7 caroms.

Yates provides offensive spark in comeback win

Blue Raider freshman Desmond Yates provided an offensive spark when he scored a career-high 23 points in Middle Tennessee's 64-57 comeback win against Belmont (11/27/06). The small forward proved to be an impact player when the team needed him most, scoring 18 of his 23 points in the final 27 minutes to help the Blue Raiders overcome a 27-11 deficit with 7:03 remaining. The 23 points were the most by a Blue Raiders since Adam Vogelsberg scored 25 against South Dakota State (02/13/06). Not only were the 23 points a career-high for Yates, but he also set personal bests for field goals made (9), field goals attempted (16), rebounds (6), and minutes (35).

Johnson ties Paradise Jam steals record

Middle Tennessee sophomore guard Nigel Johnson tied a Paradise Jam single-game record when he recorded five steals against Toledo (11/18/06). The five steals equals the mark shared by Jonathan Modica (Arkansas), Jason McLeish (Eastern Kentucky), and Michael Ross (Eastern Michigan). Johnson's five steals are the most in a game by a Blue Raider since Bryan Smithson swiped five against Austin Peay (12/23/03).

Holy Toledo!!! Blue Raiders light it up vs. Rockets

Middle Tennessee had one of the best shooting performances for a half in school history in its game against Toledo in the second game of the Paradise Jam Tournament. The Blue Raiders blistered the nets for a 72.7 percent shooting clip (16-22) in the first half. The mark is the third-best in school history for a half and it marked the best first-half shooting performance in school history. Middle Tennessee finished the game shooting 58.3 percent (28-48).

80 Key Number

Middle Tennessee has been almost unbeatable when scoring 80 or more points under Head Coach Kermit Davis. Overall, the Blue Raiders are 17-1 when scoring 80 or more under Davis. The lone setback was an 85-83 overtime loss at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005.
