Blue Raiders enjoy SBC success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under fifth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the third-best winning percentage (56 percent) and third-most wins among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Western Kentucky (53) and Louisiana-Lafayette (51) are the only two SBC members with more league wins than Middle Tennessee during this stretch. Middle Tennessee earned its 40th SBC win under Davis against New Orleans (01/13/07). Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined.

Blue Raiders among SBC's best winning away from home

One of the biggest reasons for Middle Tennessee's turn-around in the Sun Belt has been its ability to win on the road. Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring in 2002, Middle Tennessee was 2-17 on the road in SBC games but the Blue Raiders have 19 SBC road wins since - the most road wins of any SBC member during his four-plus seasons leading the program. The Blue Raiders are one of four league teams with winning road records since 2002-03 with Louisiana-Lafayette, South Alabama, and Western Kentucky being the other two.

Kermit Davis File

In his fifth season at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders have registered four straight winning seasons under Davis, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is tied for fourth on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 76.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into a tie for fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 76th victory at New Orleans (01/13/07). Davis moved into fifth on the career wins list against Tennessee State (12/04/06) with his 72nd career victory earlier this sesaon. He is eight wins shy of tying Randy Wiel for third on the all-time Blue Raider list. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.563) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces second-best wins mark after 125 games

Kermit Davis earned a win in his 125th game leading the Blue Raider program to give him a 71-54 mark. That record is the second-most wins for a Blue Raider coach in his first 125 games. Bruce Stewart won 83 of the first 125 games he coached at Middle Tennessee to top the list, while Jimmy Earle's 69 wins after 125 games is third most.

Raiders have become Road Warriors

Head Coach Kermit Davis' teams have always been solid on the road; however, what his Blue Raiders are doing away from home in SBC contests this season has become historical. Entering play this week (Jan. 16), Middle Tennessee is one of three teams nationally to have four conference road wins and no defeats. The other two are East Tennessee State and Delaware State. Middle Tennessee's four straight conference road wins represent the longest such streak since 1986–87. The four-game road conference win streak is tied for second longest in program history (1986–87, 1981–82), and the longest road win streak in league games is five (1974–75). Each of the three previous Blue Raider teams that have enjoyed four-game conference winning streaks on the road have advanced into NCAA Tournament play.

Youth is being served at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee's future is extremely bright considering seven of the nine players who have seen action are either freshmen or sophomores; however, the present is in good shape, as well, considering the youthful Blue Raiders are 4-4 in SBC play and contending for a fifth-straight winning season. The Blue Raiders are the youngest team in the SBC with Louisiana-Lafayette next with five freshmen and one sophomore. The Ragin's Cajuns start two freshmen, two juniors, and one senior, while the Blue Raiders start four sophomores and bring three freshman off the bench. Middle Tennessee's two leading scorers are a sophomore (Kevin Kanaskie, 11.9 ppg) and a freshman (Desmond Yates, 11.6 ppg). Additionally, sophomores Calvin O'Neil, Nigel Johnson and Theryn Hudson have seen action in every game, as has freshman Darren Avery. Another freshman, Dino Hair, has played in 13 of 18 games. The seven underclassmen are responsible for 70 percent of the scoring, 65 percent of the rebounding, and 72 percent of the team's minutes so far this season.

Kanaskie among nation's best in dishing assists

Sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie is ranked eighth nationally in assists with 6.3 per game, which ranks first in the SBC. His 6.9 assists per game against SBC opponents leads the league and is 1.19 per contest higher than Daon Merritt, who is second overall and in SBC games only. Kanaskie dished out a career-high 12 assists with only three turnovers in 38 minutes at Florida Atlantic. The 12 assists were the most by a Blue Raider since Gerald Harris had 13, Feb. 13, 1989 - a span of 475 games. The 12 assists also are 11th most by a Blue Raider in a single game. Kanaskie has had eight assists or more in a game six times this season and he has led the Blue Raiders in that category in 17 of the 18 games played. His current 6.3 per game average would rank third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee if the season ended today.

Kanaskie emerging as team MVP

Kevin Kanaskie has been solid running the point for Middle Tennessee in his sophomore season; however, his all-around play has made him the team's most valuable player and a serious all-league consieration. Kanaskie leads the Blue Raiders with 11.9 points per game and his 21 steals are most on the squad. Factor in his 6.3 assists per game - which has him ranked No. 8 nationally - and Kanaskie is responsible for 441 of Middle Tennessee's 1,108 points - which is 39.8 percent of the team's total offense. His 12 double-figure scoring games this season are the most by a Blue Raider. He keyed Middle Tennessee's win against Indiana State by scoring 15 of his 17 points in the second half while establishing career highs for points (17), field goals made (6), and 3-point field goals made (3). Kanaskie established a new career high for points with 20 against Louisiana-Monroe, and followed that with 17 against Austin Peay. He tallied a career-high five 3-pointers against Troy. Kanaskie collected his first career double double with a career-high 12 assists and 19 points in Middle Tennessee's road win at Florida Atlantic.

Hudson, Young prove double trouble

The emergence of sophomore center Theryn Hudson and the strong play and leadership of senior Kyle Young proved to be a dangerous combination inside as the two 6-foot-10 post players combined to lead Middle Tennessee to a road sweep of Florida Atlantic and New Orleans (Jan. 10-13). The duo combined to average a double-double with 21 points and 10.5 rebounds in the two games, while shooting a sizzling 19-of-27 from the field for 70 percent. Young averaged 12.5 points and 4.5 rebounds, while shooting 71 percent from the field (12-17). Hudson had his best two-game stretch of the season on the road swing, averaging 8.5 points and 6.0 rebounds.

Blue Raiders taking advantage of charity

Middle Tennessee ranks sixth overall in the SBC in free-throw percentage with a 69.0 percent showing from the line; however, the Blue Raiders have been lights out from the charity stripe since league play began. Middle Tennessee is shooting 77.1 percent (108-140) from the line against SBC opponents to lead the league in SBC games only. Freshman standout Desmond Yates was 15-of-16 from the line against New Orleans. The 15 free throws made are the third-most in a single game by a Blue Raider. Sophomore Nigel Johnson leads the Sun Belt in free-throw percentage at 87.2 percent (41-47) and Kevin Kanaskie is seventh at 76.5 (62-81). In SBC games only, Johnson is first (89.7), Kanaskie is third (82.5), and Yates is 10th (76.7). The Blue Raiders shot 75.4 percent (43-57) from the line in its two-game road sweep at Florida Atlantic and New Orleans. Johnson's current percentage would rank fourth on the Middle Tennessee single-season list; however, he needs 19 more successful attempts from the line in order to qualify.

Yates proving to be sudden impact for Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee freshman Desmond Yates is making a nice transition into Division I basketball after sitting out the 2005-06 season. Yates, who connected on 15 of 16 free throw attempts in the win at New Orleans and has scored 21 or more points in a game three times this season, leads SBC freshman in scoring at 11.6 per game, which is second on the Middle Tennessee squad and is 26th overall in the league scoring race. Yates is seventh in the SBC in field goal percentage at 51.1 (81-155). He has scored double figures in 11 of his last 13 games and has led the Blue Raiders in scoring six times, including games of 23 (vs. Belmont), 23 (vs. Arkansas State), and 21 (at New Orleans). The freshman standout tied his career hig for points (23), 3-point field goals made (4), and field goals made (9) against Arkansas State.

Blue Raiders enjoy best game beyond arc

Middle Tennessee entered its game against Troy ranked 11th in the SBC in 3-point shooting percentage (.311) and last in made attempts; however, the Blue Raiders were knocking down the long ball against Troy when they connected on a season-high 10 3-pointers to better its previous high of eight set against Louisiana-Monroe on Dec. 17. The 10 3-pointers were also the most by a Blue Raider team since hitting 10 against Louisiana-Lafayette Jan. 28, 2006 - a span of 25 games.

Improved offense keys run

There are many reasons for Middle Tennessee's run in which it has won four of six games such as improved rebounding and team defense; however, one glaring stat between the team's recent run and the four-game losing streak that preceeded it has been improved offense. The Blue Raiders are averaging 64.8 points per game in the last five contests - 5.3 points per game higher than the 59.5 in the four-game losing streak, and the Blue Raiders are giving up 11.9 points less per contest in these two stretches. Field goal percentage, particularly beyond the 3-point arc, also is a telling statistic. In its last five games Middle Tennessee is shooting 47 percent (115-246) from the field and 39 percent (26-65) from 3-point range. That's a stark contrast to the 42 percent (85-201) from the field and 29 percent (16-54) from 3-point range the Blue Raiders shot in the preceeding four games. This improved offensive run was most apparent on the team's two-game road trip to Florida Atlantic and New Orleans. The Blue Raiders shot a season-high 61.9 percent (26-42) from the field at Florida Atlantic and scored a season-high 72 points. They bettered the 72 points with 76 at New Orleans marking the first time this season Middle Tennessee managed to score more than 70 points in a game. The Blue Raiders shot 50 percent from 3-point range in each of those games. One player who has keyed the perimeter surge has been point guard Kevin Kanaskie, who is shooting 48 percent (12-25) from 3-point range in the last five games.

Shooting touch nothing new for Young

Kyle Young, who tied the Paradise Jam record for shooting percentage in three games (72.7 percent), is second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage through 18 games with a 61.1 percentage (66-of-108). Young entered the 2006-07 season fifth on the career field goal percentage list at Middle Tennessee with a mark of 56.8 and has seen that rise to 57.8

percent (283-of-490), which is currently third on the career list at Middle Tennessee. Young shot 65.2 percent from the field in 2005-06, which was third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee. The only player in school history ever to shoot higher than Young in a single season is Warren Kidd, who shot 70 percent from the field in 1990-91, and 66.4 in 1991-92.

Young ties record in 'Paradise'

Middle Tennessee senior forward Kyle Young proved to be one of the most accurate shooters ever to play in the Paradise Jam Tournament during the team's stay at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Young was 16-of-22 from the field for a 72.7 field-goal percentage, which equaled the Paradise Jam Tournament record for best field-goal percentage by an individual in a minimum of three games. Young tied the mark set by Eastern Kentucky's Alonzo Hird (16-of-22) during the 2005 event. Young was 4-of-5 from the field against then No. 10 Alabama, 5-of-7 against Toledo, and 7-of-10 against College of Charleston.

Young has been constant for Blue Raiders

Kyle Young has been a fixture in the Middle Tennessee lineup throughout his Blue Raider career and his consistency and durability have him on the verge of the program's career Top 10 list for games played and games started. Young has played in 105 career games, which is two shy of Chris Harris who is 10th on the list with 107. Young's 78 career starts are 10th on the career list and four shy of tying Robert Taylor for ninth on the all-time list with 82.

Young blocking opponents' path

With one block against New Orleans, Kyle Young has seven on the season and 51 for his career, which is fifth on the career list. Tommy Gunn is fourth with 54. Young is just the sixth player in the Blue Raiders' 84-year history to register 50 or more blocks in a career.

Five straight winning seasons would be rare

Middle Tennessee is looking to accomplish a rather feat as it seeks a fifth consecutive winning season under Head Coach Kermit Davis in 2006-07. The Blue Raiders' current streak of four consecutive winning seasons is tied for fourth longest in the program's 84 years of men's basketball. The longest stretch of consecutive winning seasons is six, which was turned in by Jimmy Earle's teams from 1973-79. The current Blue Raiders are attempting to match Bruce Stewart's teams from 1984-89 for the second longest streak of consecutive winning seasons with five. The only other stretch of at least four consecutive seasons with winning records was 1922-26, and the Blue Raiders only played four games during the 1924-25 season. The 2006-07 Blue Raiders are attempting to accomplish five straight winning seasons for the first time since 1984-89 — a span of 22 years. Davis, in his fifth season, is one of only two coaches in program history to begin his career with four straight winning seasons. The other was Bruce Stewart.

Blue Raiders get defensive

Middle Tennessee has held seven of its 18 opponents to 58 points or less this season and the team is 6-1 in those games, and the Blue Raiders lead the SBC in scoring defense at 64.3 points per game. The Blue Raiders are also second in the SBC in field goal percentage defense (.426). Middle Tennessee put together one of its finest defensive displays of the season on its first SBC road trip of the season at Florida International and South Alabama. The Blue Raiders held FIU to 46 points which were the second fewest under Head Coach Kermit Davis against a SBC member and the fewest since a 60-42 win against the Golden Panthers, March 1, 2004 - a span of 75 games. FIU managed just 13 field goals and its 24.5 shooting percentage (13-53) was the lowest against the Blue Raiders in a SBC contest. Middle Tennessee followed that performance by limiting defending SBC champion South Alabama to 51 points - its second lowest scoring output of the season. South Alabama's talented guard tandem was a combined 5-of-21 for 10 points against the Blue Raider defense and no member of the trio tallied double figures. The Blue Raiders allowed an average of 48.5 points to the two opponents.

Blue Raiders sign four during early period

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis announced the signing of four players during the NCAA Early Signing Period in November.
