GROSS SETS PERSONAL

MARK: Freshman running back Eugene Gross hauled in four catches for 13 yards to set a new career-best in receptions. Gross' previous high was three grabs against Temple and North Texas. Gross now has 16 receptions on the season to lead all running backs.

CALLOWAY BACK ON THE FIELD: RB Don Calloway returned to the Blue Raider lineup today after missing last week's game against North Texas. Calloway ended the game with 50 yards on eight carries to pace the team's ground attack. Calloway also recorded his first touchdown of the season with a one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter.

HOLIDAY SCORES: Junior Pedro Holiday collected his first collegiate touchdown reception when he grabbed a seven yarder from Clint Marks in the fourth quarter. For the game, Holiday had two receptions to equal his single-game high.

WRIGHT SETS SINGLE-SEASON RECORD: With 89 yards receiving today, junior Kerry Wright surpassed Kendall Newson (945 yards in 2000) for the all-time single-season record. Wright now has 968 receiving yards on the year and needs only 32 more yards to become Middle Tennessee's first-ever 1,000-yard receiver.

BACK TO TACKLE: Junior Julius Gant, who has moved all over the offensive line this year, changed positions again against Utah State. Gant started the season's first two games at left tackle, then played the next six at right guard. Today against the Aggies, Gant got the nod at right tackle.
