HOT SPRINGS, Ark. - Middle Tennessee shot 300 in the final round of the UALR/North Texas Classic to tally 902 for the tournament and finish second among the 17-team field here Tuesday, marking the sixth time in nine tournaments this year the women's golf team has turned in a top 5 finish under head coach Rachael Short.

The 300 tied for the second-lowest round of the day and enabled the Blue Raiders to pass Texas El Paso to move into second. UALR won the tournament with an 889. The 300 goes down as the sixth-best third-round score in school history, and the 902 is the fifth-best three-round tournament total in program history.

Blue Raider junior sensation Taryn Durham continued her outstanding season with a 218 to lead Middle Tennessee and finish fifth overall at the Diamante Club in Hot Springs, Ark.

"I'm very proud of the girls and the way they came out focused and took the course (Tuesday)," Short said. "It was a tough course, a very hilly course, but a beautiful layout and the team played it well. I think this gives us momentum going into our final tournament of the year before the (Sun Belt Conference) tournament."

In all, the Blue Raiders had three of the tournament's top 21 players in the 87-person field as Durham finished fifth, Leigh Wilkins (227) was 20th, and Maggie McGill finished strong with a 79 to tie for 21st with a 229. Mallory Bishop (233) and Clara Leathers (234) rounded out the Middle Tennessee scoring.

Durham was steady throughout with a 2-over 218, which tied for the second-best tournament total in program history. It is her fifth top 5 finish this season and the 14th of her stellar career.

The Blue Raiders will play in the Southern Miss Lady Eagle Invitational, hosted by Southern Miss, April 2-3.
