"Krystle is a great player," said head coach Stephany Smith. "Keisha played a great game as well." Middle Tennessee was also able to give

"Norfolk State played a zone for over 30 minutes and we played zone for 40 and I was pleased by our composure," Smith said. "We are a 3-1 basketball team but tonight is the first time we really felt good about ourselves." Middle Tennessee burst out of the gate in the first half going on a 29-to-19 run in the first 10 minutes. The Lady Raiders scored a season-high 49 points in the first half and only allowed Norfolk State to score 28.
