

August 21, 2007

Born and Siljeström Named to 2007 ITA Collegiate All-Star Team

Tennis pair adds another national honor

MT Media Relations

Skillman, N.J. - The NCAA Men's Tennis Championship Doubles Team of Marco Born and Andreas Siljeström earned another national honor as they were named to the 2007 ITA Collegiate All-Star Team.

"I am honored to be selected to the ITA All-Star Team," Born said. "It's a nice ending of our college careers to go see the Big Apple and to see the US Open."

Born and Siljeström will travel to New York , where they will be honored at the ITA All-Star Team Awards Luncheon hosted by the USTA, to be followed by special seating to view the Arthur Ashe Kids Day show and a special behind-the-scenes tour of the US Open on August 25th. Later on that evening, there will be a special dinner in New York City.

The championship duo join the ITA National Indoor Champions and No. 1 FILA ranked John Isner and Luis Flores of Georgia, as well as the No. 2 FILA ranked Treat Huey and Somdev Devvarman of Virginia for the Division I men's honor.

The 2007 NCAA Men's Tennis Doubles Champions Marco Born and Andreas Siljeström added ITA Collegiate All-Star Team honors to their accolades and will be honored in New York August 24-25. ()

---

Printed on March 22, 2010

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/26955>