

September 21, 2007

Blue Raiders Perform Well in Georgia

Novak and Peers Post Doubles Win

MT Media Relations

ATHENS, Ga. - The men's tennis team started the Southern Intercollegiate Championships on Friday hosted by the University of Georgia.

Junior Morgan Richard received a bye to begin the day but fell to Samford's Richard Delass 6-4, 2-6, 6-2 in the second round.

Sophomore Marc Rocafort, who is seeded 15th, received a bye in the first round but fell to Nicolas Delgado of Virginia Tech 3-6, 7-6 (3), 6-2.

Rocafort and Richard received a bye in the first round of doubles action. The pair will play Brassenaux and Forman of Wake Forest on Saturday in the round of 32.

Redshirt freshman Chris Novak and freshman John Peers defeated Mercer's Besancon and Ohrstrom 8-3. The two will face Cox and Ward of Kentucky on Saturday in the second round.

The Southern Intercollegiate Championships will continue play at on Saturday. Results from the tournament will be available on www.goblueraiders.com.

Junior Morgan Richard (MT Athletics)

Printed on May 22, 2012

Original URL: <http://www.goblueraiders.com/content.cfm/id/27682>