Golf concludes tough showing at Brickyard Collegiate

Cochran ties for 24th overall

MACON, Ga. - Middle Tennessee concluded a frustrating weekend of golf with a 12-over 300 during final round play at The Brickyard at Riverside and settled for a disappointing ninth-place finish at the Brickyard Collegiate Championship Tuesday.

The Blue Raiders came into the 13-team tournament after winning its last tournament and vaulting to No. 8 nationally in one poll and 26th in the other but that tournament, the Jaguar Intercollegiate, was Sept. 18 and Middle Tennessee was rusty following the 19-day layoff.

"It's not an excuse but we were not on our game and I learned a lesson as a first-year head coach," Middle Tennessee coach Whit Turnbow said. "I made a scheduling mistake in having 2-1/2 weeks off before this tournament. Our players gave great effort, they played hard and they tried but we just didn't have our best stuff during this entire tournament and I do believe the layoff hurt. We will go back to work and bounce back. Our team is too talented not to do that."

Rick Cochran put together the most consistent tournament of any of the Blue Raiders and finished 2-over 218, tied for 24th, after shooting a 73 Tuesday. Cochran is 2-under in the six rounds he has played this fall and has demonstrated consistency and solid play out of the gate.

Rick Cochran shot a 2-over 218 and tied for 24th overall at the Brickyard Collegiate.

Craig Smith tied for 34th with a 5-over 221 after shooting 3-over in the final round and Nick Bailes tied for 39th with a 6-over 222. Bailes was 1-over through two rounds but he finished with a 5-over 77 to miss out on a top 20 finish among the tough field.

Jason Millard (225) and Chas Narramore (226) were tied for 46th and 49th, respectively, and Kent Bulle ended up tied for 56th with a 228; however, the sophomore finished on a strong note. He shot 1-over Tuesday after playing at 11-over through the first two rounds.
