Baseball Game Canceled

March 20, 2004 · MT Media Relations

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. -Saturday's baseball game was canceled after severe weather hit the Murfreesboro area at approximately 3:10 p.m. The Blue Raiders were leading Dayton, 9-2, in the bottom of the fourth inning.

The stats from the game will not count and the game will not be made up. The two teams conclude their series at 1 p.m. Sunday at Reese Smith Field.

Middle Tennessee had three home runs in the game, a three-run shot by Troy Harp, a two-run blast from Brett Carroll, and a grand slam by Josh Archer, accounting for all of the runs.
