Middle Tennessee took a one-point lead, 30-29 on a kill by sophomore Leslie Clark and then clinched the game on a block by Asberry and Clark. "One thing we did really well that doesn't show up in the stats is when we stuffed block balls we got a hand on them, channeled them toward the defense and were able to score points off them. Our transition was very good tonight," Peck said. As a team, the Blue Raiders knocked down 42 kills for a .198 hitting percentage. Defensively, Middle Tennessee had 10 blocks and 55 digs. The team also had 53 service receptions with just three errors. Middle Tennessee held New Orleans to just nine kills in its decisive win in game two. A lot of teams look at her and say okay that's the setter she is the only smaller blocker. She really isn't a smaller blocker," Peck said. "She made some adjustments to her blocking and helped take out their two best hitters." Middle Tennessee used the momentum from game one throughout the rest of the match taking a ten-point lead, 19-9 before winning by 15 points. New Orleans jumped out to an 11-3 lead but the Blue Raiders closed the gap taking an 18-16 lead but the Blue Raiders continued to pull ahead taking a late four-point lead, 24-20. "In the first game we played a very poor game. I think if you look at the second two games we ended up playing a very good match. It is not one of our best hitting percentage matches but if you take out game one it is a pretty good match," Peck said. "We were down in game three and came back and won. We were down and I had used two timeouts when we only had three points. We came back and played a very good game. We are very fortunate to have come out with three 3-0 wins from this weekend." On defense, sophomore Ashley Waugh led the defense with 19 kills. Kozon and senior Alicia Lemau'u each recorded 10 digs in the match. The Blue Raiders will return to Alumni Memorial Gym on Friday, Oct. 26 to play host to Florida Atlantic at 7 p.m. On Saturday, Middle Tennessee will play Florida International at 7 p.m.
