Freshman Guard Anne Marie LanningHer thoughts on her first game as a Blue Raider

"Of course there were nerves at the beginning. I knew that playing on this floor before and playing with a new team that I would have some nerves. With the 17 practices and everything, eventually my nerves left with handling the ball."

On the team's performance

"I think we did a good job. There are a couple of things on defense that we need to get better at, but I thought we did pretty good. Our execution on offense at times was pretty good. There were good things here and there, but then there are things we need to work on."

On playing the three spot

"I wasn't sure if I was going to be playing the two or the three, but once I got moved to the three I knew that I had to get something done and adapted to the change and tried to do my best."

Middle Tennessee Head Coach InsellOn the pace of the game

"We are really young and you didn't really see me say a whole lot going into the half. I really wasn't upset because we have such young people. But I know we've got some speed. I'm not really sure about the quickness yet, but we do have some speed. We are playing a lot of sophomores and freshmen and they've got to play some major minutes and I wanted to get as many minutes out of them as I possibly could. I know what Latoya Barclay and Amber Holt can do, so I wanted to look at some other people like a Brandi Brown and a Chelsia Lymon."

On the performance of Anne Marie Lanning

"Anne Marie did a great job. She did exactly what we asked. She didn't have a great shooting night, but she did a lot of other things for us. That's not too bad for her first game even being an exhibition game at the Division I level."

On the overall performance of the team

"I was really pleased with all of them. There are a lot of areas we have to come back and work on tomorrow. Games like this are suppose to expose your weaknesses. They had four young ladies that put up double figures last year."

North Alabama Head Coach Terry FowlerOn his teams play in the first half

"It was good to sustain that first half of pressure [Middle Tennessee] put on us. We knew that we were going to have trouble handling their pressure, but I was proud of what we were able to do in the first half."

On being outrebounded 54 to 30

"Middle Tennessee is one of the best teams in the country and they proved it tonight by getting a lot of offensive rebounds. They hurt us on that aspect tonight and that is something we will need to work on when we get into regular season play."

On Middle Tennessee's defensive pressure

"Coach Insell does a really good job mixing up players and playing different zones. They did a good job pressuring us tonight and this game will only help us player better as a team later on in the season."
